Chronicle Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 28th, 1878.

I have several times alluded to the subject of our diminished and lagging trade in Brazil and the South American countries, and quoted the President and Sec'y Evarts in their recommendations of Congressional aid in promoting American commerce and industrial development. The British monopolists have once more taken the alarm lest Congress should do something for the maintainance of our one solitary line to South America, and are here in force armed with the subsidies with which their government feeds them. Besides, they are renewing their contemptible warfare upon the American line in order to break it down. Let me show you how that warfare is carried on:

Not till Mr. Roach and other Americans began to negotiate with Brazil for a mail contract did these British ship-owners dream of running ships from New York to Brazil direct, but then, in 1877, they put on three inferior steamers, in order to show that they were willing to run a line without a subsidy. They made but four trips, however, during the year. In 1878 Congress was considering the propriety of helping to make the American line permanent, and of establishing another from New Orleans to Brazil, when the British people again ran their steamers, starting from New York as follows: Glensannox January 10th, Glenlogan February 28th, Glensannox April 25th, Casini February 12th, Casini March 25th, Glenlogan June 7th. Then Congress adjourned, and by a remarkable coincidence the British line was withdrawn! Now that Congress has come again they are running again, having made two departures this winter. The American line was begun last May, making departures on the 6th of that month, June, July and August, and the 5th of Sept., Oct., Nov. and Dec., being confined to those dates by contract with the Brazilian government. Of course the little guerilla fleet of the British monopolists has it in its power to time its departures so as to cut into the freight list ruinously, but it only does this to stave off action by Congress. Should the United States give our line a contract to carry the mails as Brazil has done, these little vessels would be withdrawn and the British agents here would find their occupation gone, for the whole campaign is instituted to prevent American competition in South America. It is well understood that if our line is once made permanent by government aid and recognition, our merchants and those of Brazil will go ahead with confidence to make contracts for trade which will tend to promote our prosperity in every branch of business, and draw the profitable trade from Great Britain. Congress has been too long deluded by the tricks of the foreign ship-owners' lobbyists, and all parties are awakening to the fact. Every country in South America stands ready to pay half the expense of regular steam mail service to connect them with our markets, and as the profits will be largely ours, why should we longer submit to have our legitimate trade stolen from us? And why especially should we submit to the destruction of our only South American line of steamers, drifted off without lifting a hand to help it?

Gen. Grant has asked that his son, Fred Grant, be granted a leave of absence and the privilege of making the tour around the world with his father on the U. S. S. Richmond, and it is supposed the request will be granted. If so he will start at once and join his father in the south of Europe.

Resumption is now so well assured that the Treasury officers are promising to pay out gold, if required, in all parts of the country as well as at the sub-Treasury in New York and here. The fact is, as soon as people find that they can have gold for greenbacks they prefer the latter, like the Irishman who joined a run on the savings bank, and when offered his money, in astonishment declared that "the jabbers 'twas only because he couldn't get his money he wanted it, and if he could get it he'd rather they'd keep it." The greenbackers have "crawled into their holes," said a jubilant Administration man, and that appears to be about so far as we can observe. They are not at any rate. KNOX.

RYE, Dec. 30th, 1878.

The fourth week of the revival meeting began with a meeting on the evening of Monday last at the Christian church, a small congregation being present. Rev. Mr. Jones conducted the meeting; services were singing, exhortation and prayer.

On Tuesday evening (Christmas) the Congregational society had a Christmas festival at their church. The building was well filled, and handsomely orated with evergreen; over the pulpit was a transparency with the motte "God is love," to which was suspended an anchor very handsomely wrought. Three large trees were filled with presents. The exercises were conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Hadley, and consisted of singing and speaking by members of the Sabbath school, and an organ voluntary by Mrs. Cornelius Philbrick; the organ excercises were a failure, owing to the giving out of a small wire somewhere inside of the instrument. After this the presents were distributed, some of them being very handsome. Rev. Ira S. Jones received a very handsome silver cake-basket. A small admission fee was charged, and $25 was taken at the door. It was the most successful Christmas festival ever gotten up in Rye.

Christmas day was very quietly observed, meetings being held in the several churches. In the evening there was a glass ball shoot at George F. Sanborn's, which drew a good-sized crowd, though many were kept away by the bad weather. Herbert F. Philbrick was the champion shot, he making a clean score.

The revival meetings on Thursday and Friday evenings were conducted by Rev. Mr. Jones; they were not so fully attended as the previous ones. SCRIBE.

BEECH RIDGE, YORK, ME., Dec. 27.

Since your correspondent has brought this locality into notice we are considered a part and parcel of the world. The farmers in this vicinity are as a class intelligent and industrious; the farms are in good cultivation, and the homesteads are made attractive both in their outward surroundings and in their interior adornments. Our school-house is a comfortable and neat structure, and has about thirty scholars. The theological sentiment is varied, although not permeated with dogmatism. The church, though small, is well attended; and it is attractive, being finished in modern style without any presumption of display. We have lately been visited by a delegation from the Advent church of your city, and although we are not all in sympathy with their ideas, yet we were entertained with the primitiveness and enthusiasm of their devotion. Some of them, who we judged were late converts, related their experience, and were not uninteresting in their details. We shall always be well pleased to see delegations from any moral organization, and will assure them a hearty welcome. OCCA.

Portsmouth Chronicle

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 1, 1879.

That "Hindrance to Resumption."

The democratic convention that nominated Tilden and reform for President, and that commenced a dozen different planks of its platform with the statement "reform is necessary," incorporated in that platform the following:

We denounce the financial imbecility and immorality of the party, which, during eleven years of peace, has made no advance toward resumption; that, instead, has obstructed resumption by wasting our resources and exhausting all our surplus income, and, while annually professing to intend a speedy return to specie payments, has annually enacted fresh hindrances thereto. As such a hindrance, we denounce the resumption clause of the act of 1875, and we here demand its repeal.

Tilden and reform, in his letter of acceptance, also demanded that the resumption act "as a hindrance to resumption" should be repealed. To-day, in spite of democratic and greenback opposition, resumption is a legal and actual fact. This, however, will make no difference—the next democratic national convention will probably demand the repeal of the resumption act just the same.

New England Greenback Conference.

A call is issued, signed by Solon Chase of Maine, Charles McLean of Boston, George E. Hodgdon of New Hampshire, R. Forest of Vermont, Alexander Troupe of Connecticut, and J. C. Valett of Rhode Island, for a mass conference of the representatives of the "national greenback-labor party of New England," to be held at Codman hall, Boston, on Thursday, January 2d, at ten o'clock A. M., for the purpose of perfecting plans for a systematic organization of the party in New England, providing means for the circulation of greenback literature, and arranging for thoroughly canvassing New England with speakers to explain the principles of the party, and transacting any other business that may be brought before the conference. General Benjamin Butler will be present, and Wendell Phillips is also expected. With the resumption of specie payments an accomplished fact, in spite of the inflationists' opposition, this greenback conference will be very like a funeral.

Shocking Affair.

On Monday, at Byfield, Mass., about [illegible] miles from Newburyport, John H. Caldwell was instantly killed by his wife, who has been partially insane for some time. Mr. Caldwell was a well-off farmer, his family consisting of his wife and sister. Mr. Caldwell was performing family devotions, and Mr. Caldwell and Mrs. Caldwell's sister knelt, but Mrs. Caldwell did not. During the prayer Mrs. Caldwell rose from her chair, and taking an axe in the room struck Mr. Caldwell a terrible blow on the back of the head, the axe penetrating the skull several inches. Mr. Caldwell fell upon the floor and died instantly. Mrs. Caldwell's sister sprang up, and taking hold of her, led her immediately across the road to a neighbor's house, Mrs. Caldwell saying, "My husband thought to kill me, but I guess I have killed him." There is no doubt of the insanity of the woman. Mr. Caldwell was aged forty. He leaves no children.

Four Per Cent Bonds.

This loan continues in great favor with all classes of investors. The absolute security it offers, its entire exemption from all taxation, the frequency of its interest payments, and the readiness with which these bonds may be converted, are attracting the attention of prudent and careful investors in all parts of the country. The Maverick National Bank of Boston was the first bank to publicly announce their appointment as government agent for the subscription and sale of this loan. This was about a year ago, and since that time their sales have aggregated many millions of dollars. The records of the department at Washington, from the recent report of Secretary Sherman, show that the Maverick National Bank has done the principal business for New England, and that only two banks in the whole country have exceeded it in amount. Upon assuming this agency it established a United States bond department as a branch of their business, affording to banks and individuals every facility for the purchase, sale and exchange of every description of government securities. In this they have been eminently successful, and the immense volume of their business enables them to give every advantage to those having any transactions in government bonds. As this is the season of the year when capitalists, trustees and persons of every class are seeking the best methods of employing funds, and changing present investments, we are glad to call the attention of our readers to the safety and convenience of this very popular loan of the government.

"Gobble" Investigated.

Senator Grover of Oregon, the "Gobble" of the Oregon cipher dispatches, is just at present under a cloud. For about two months a commission appointed by the Legislature of Oregon has been investigating the books and papers connected with the State Department. Their report, now submitted, shows that funds to the amount of $97,000 either have been unaccounted for or paid out without the authority of the law. Among these amounts are the following items: Swamp land fund, unaccounted for, $27,875; illegal fees, paid for conveying convicts and insane persons to places of confinement, $37,382; quartermaster stores in the Modoc war unaccounted for, $13,200; overpaid to Secretary of State Chadwick, $36,000, and to his assistant, T. H. Cann, $1800; school and school land funds, about $9000 deficiency. The report is very severe in its condemnation of Gov. Grover,—now United States Senator from Oregon. It lays on him a large part of the blame for a loose and corrupt administration. The report is particularly severe in relation to the conduct of the Board of the School Lands and School Fund Commissioners, of which Grover was the head. It charges that the State's educational fund has been squandered until it is not worth fifty cents on the dollar, and it is shown by the committee that Grover himself took large sums from the fund on very trifling and inadequate security, and used the money for his own purposes; also that he loaned large sums out of the fund to others in such ways that the money came back to his own pocket, taking for money, in the name of the State, almost worthless security, in consequence of which there is great loss to the fund. Grover, by virtue of his office as governor, had the loaning and management of municipal funds. The committee say that to the sin of obtaining money dishonestly is added that of the violation of an oath-bound trust—that of guarding the fund sacredly.

Life in Louisiana.

Letters and affidavits published in New York on Tuesday give evidence of a shocking condition of affairs at the south. R. F. McConnell reports to United States Marshal Wharton that he has thoroughly investigated the facts of the massacre at Waterproof, La., and found that after the democrats had held their parish convention, they, through the local authorities, forbade the republicans to hold one. The negroes gathered for consultation at the residence of Alfred Fairfax, whereupon the democrats attacked them and killed sixty-five colored men. In Bossier parish the colored people were driven from the polls by about 100 armed white men, and one woman and one child were killed, and voters were driven away by thousands. In Bossier, white men would not let the ballot-boxes be opened, and drove the deputy sheriff back to Bohune with the boxes, and the same was practiced in Webster parish. This was a concerted thing all over the district with the democrats. Henry Adams, colored, writes to Attorney-General Devens that—

I trust God that the United will give us some territory to ourselves, and let us leave these slaveholders to work their own land, for they are killing our race every day and night. Excuse me for speaking so plainly, for it is our dire necessities have driven me to it, and I speak for the race. The white republicans are not allowed any more showing than the poor colored people, and we pray God that the northern people will take this into consideration and do something for our race.

Another correspondent writes that "such is the completeness of the organization at Monroe that anyone suspected of being a Republican cannot send a telegram or letter without the contents thereof being known by others than those for whom the message is intended." U. S. District Attorney Leonard, of Louisiana, summarizes matters thus: "From fifty to seventy-five negroes killed in Caddo parish. In Ouachita parish, the republican voters were generally and effectually intimidated and compelled to join democratic clubs to save their lives. Three prominent local leaders of the republican party were killed by a large company of armed men, and other negroes are reported to have been killed. In this parish the negroes have a large majority. In Tensas parish, fifty negroes were killed." Mr. Leonard concludes by saying that "Throughout Caddo, Natchitoches, Ouachita and Tensas, a reign of terror was inaugurated which is still maintained and which will long continue. It is probable that such is also the case in many other parishes."

News and Notes.

The disturbances in Russia by students have resulted seriously. The students in a meeting decided to protest against closing the university. Two companies of military tried to disperse the students, who resisted, and a collision ensued, in which eighty persons were killed and wounded on both sides. Many of the students were subsequently banished to Siberia.

A San Antonio (Texas) special says advices from Mexico confirm the report that Col. Garcia of the Mexican army captured two bands of raiding Indians at San Carlos; ten or fifteen were killed. The surviving Indians are to be removed to the interior. If this proves true the border question is nearly settled.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. ditsept1679

The concert complimentary to Miss Edith Wendell to-morrow evening will be a success in point of attendance, this being assured by the sales of tickets already made; there has never been any room for doubting its success as an entertainment, for one duet by Miss Wendell and the celebrated contralto Mrs. Barry is enough to make a concert go off well, not to mention solos by each of the ladies named, character songs and recitations by Mr. Hunt, and readings by Miss Carter. See advertisement.

In another place will be found a notice of a copartnership formed between Mr. John H. Wells and his son, Charles F. Wells, who will for the future do business under the firm name of John H. Wells & Son. The senior partner has been a dealer in flour, groceries, provisions, country produce and ship stores for over thirty years, having started in business in 1847, and throughout that long period he has maintained the reputation of a "square" dealer in good articles; and the new firm propose to continue giving their patrons good provisions at as fair prices as the times will allow. The old stand, No. 56 Market street, will be the place of business of John H. Wells & Son.

THE MERRILL WILL CASE.

The noted will case in which an adopted son of Mrs. Caroline A. Merrill, (formerly of this city,) and other persons, contest her bequest of almost her entire estate to the Catholic Bishop of Portland, Me., for the benefit of that church, came up again before Surrogate Calvin in New York city last week. Moses Taylor, president of the National City bank, testified that he made the acquaintance of Mrs. Merrill between 1860 and 1870, bought stocks for her by her direction, and furnished her with bills of credit when she went abroad. He saw her the day her will was drawn, and declined to accede to her request to be one of her executors. He said: "Mrs. Merrill was eccentric; from the beginning of my acquaintance with her I was of the opinion that she ought to have a home and a lady to take care of her." An envelope and inclosure were produced in court, on the envelope being written:

Dear Mr. Taylor: When you hear of my death please open this and post the inclosure. You are my only dependence. You have my confidence in everything. I feel quite sure that you will carry out my wishes. For all you have been to me my heart thanks you more strongly than do my words. From the very depths of my soul I thank you. Yours, with much regard, CAROLINE A. MERRILL.

The inclosure was addressed to "Right Rev. D. D. Bacon, Bishop of Portland, Me.," and read:

Right Rev. and Dear Bishop: I have bequeathed to you by my last will all the residue of my estate, which will place in your hands an important account. I know that the legal effect of my bequest is to vest the same in you personally and absolutely, and such is in fact my intention; nor do I wish to qualify in any respect the provisions of my will. I am satisfied that without any request from me you will apply it for the advancement of religion, especially in your own diocese, and I impose no restriction whatever upon your own discretion and judgment. I have only to add that I have made this disposition of my estate with full deliberation and perfect knowledge of the nature of my act and its consequences to others, and of my own free will and good pleasure, without suggestion from any quarter. Your dutiful child in Christ, CAROLINE A. MERRILL.

New York, Nov. 20, 1871,
Fifth Avenue Hotel.

Right Rev. Bishop: Of course you will complete the education of the young gentlemen you have been so kindly directing for me. C. A. M.

The envelope was inscribed, "The Bishop being dead, not mailed." Further hearing was adjourned.

The members of Osgood Lodge of Odd Fellows will be entertained at half past six o'clock on Friday evening next, in Pythian hall, at a supper given by the ladies, who cordially invite the brethren and their families, and request all contributions of articles for the tables to be sent in to the hall as soon as possible after one o'clock Friday afternoon.

THE VICINITY.

Rev. Messrs. Merrill and LeLacheur of Biddeford, and Blades of Saco, were all too unwell to preach on Sunday last. Epizootic.

O. A. & A. H. Buzzell, stove and tinware dealers of Kennebunk, are in trouble, their store being in charge of the sheriff. Their liabilities are mostly to Boston dealers and stove manufacturers.

Mark Curtis, of Biddeford, has been held by the United States commissioner at Portland for trial before the district court on a charge of being a retail dealer in liquors with paying out the government special tax.

The Baptists of Kennebunkport have secured the services of their former pastor, Rev. Lyman Chase, who has recently been preaching in San Francisco, California. Rev. John E. Dame of Farmington, N. H., has received and accepted a call to the pastorate of the Baptist church in Springvale, Me., and entered upon his labors at the beginning of the year. Mr. Dame was formerly a Free Baptist, but withdrew from the organization two years ago and united with the First Baptist church in Haverhill, Mass.

Hosts of People are Martyrs

To sick headache, that infallible symptom of a disordered stomach, liver and bowels. Many suffer from it as many as three or four times a week. They do so needlessly, for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, by toning the digestive organs and regulating the bowels and liver, removes the cause, and dispels the painful symptoms. The intimate sympathy between the brain and the abdominal region causes the slightest disorder affecting the latter to be reflected, as it were, in the organ of thought. The reform instituted by the Bitters when the digestive, secretive and evacuative functions are in a state of chaos, has other and more beneficial results, viz., the complete nutrition of the whole physical economy, the restoration of appetite and repose, and an increase in the power of the system to resist diseases of a malarial type.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. tjan1

A Good Resolution for New Years.

Many, on the entrance of the new year, form new resolutions of good conduct to be observed during the coming year. One of the best determinations is to try all fair means of securing a competency at little cost, and the easiest, best and most attractive method is to send at once to M. A. Dauphin, P. O. Box 692, New Orleans, La., two dollars and secure a chance in the 10th grand monthly drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery, which takes place at New Orleans, La., on Tuesday, January 14, 1879. Here all is honestly conducted, and there is no such thing known as the postponement of the drawing or scaling of the liberal list of prizes offered.

CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE

No other is recognized in the world of fashion by either sex. Its swift operation, the ease with which it is applied, the remarkable naturalness of the browns and blacks it imparts, its exemption from all unpleasant odor or caustic ingredients, and its general effect on the hair and skin, are the good and sufficient causes of its unprecedented popularity. Manufactured by J. CRISTADORO, No. 93 William St., New York. Sold by all Druggists. Applied by all Hair Dressers. tjan15

The following are some of the varieties now produced by the machine:

We give the following letter to show the absolute freedom of Devoe's Brilliant Oil from any inflammable vapor, and as a curious incident:

PATERSON, N. J., April 17, 1877.

DEVOE MANUFACTURING CO.

Gentlemen:—I take great pleasure in sending this unsolicited recommendation of your Kerosene Oil.

At the great fire in this place, which destroyed Norwood's Paint and Oil establishment, and other buildings, on the 13th inst., your Oil stood one of most severe tests that Oil could be put to; for four [4] hours the Oil was in the hottest part of the fire, and such a fire as only Varnish, Turpentine, Oils and Paints can make, and in all that time there was no explosion of your Oil, and the cans containing the Oil were in very near the same condition after the fire as before.

I take great pleasure in recommending this Oil, as in my opinion it is the safest Oil for sale in the market. I remain, very respectfully,

JOHN E. REGNER,
Chief of Fire Department.

"What are you going to do about it?"

Because the penalties of physiological laws are not executed speedily, some fancy they are void. But when the system breaks down, and almost hopeless complications arise, which the family physician, by reason of his limited experience, fails to relieve, the pertinency of the above inquiry is apparent. Many remedies have been specially prepared for these cases, and many physicians are bidding for their patronage. As before making a purchase of land, a "search" is required, and the title carefully examined, so invalids should carefully investigate the claims of any physician offering to treat chronic diseases. Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines are well known, and have effected many cures where eminent physicians have failed, yet to accommodate surgical and complicated cases, and those desirous of being restored speedily, Dr. Pierce has erected an elegant sanitarium, at a cost of nearly half a million dollars. No institution in the world offers advantages superior to those found in this establishment. Half a score of physicians are in attendance, several of whom have been prominently connected with leading American and European Hospitals. Every improved facility for hastening a cure that a liberal expenditure of money could secure can here be found. Before fully deciding where to go, address Invalids' and Tourists' Hotel for circular.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the scurvy, even down to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Eruptions, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Baths, Carbuncles, Sore, Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellow blotches upon you face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from "Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it is the most perfect and radical cure.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and drastic ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Hot Flashes, Feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharges falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, mucous accumulations, scabs and ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The disease may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which germs and ulcers frequently lurk and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

"Justice" in the Mines.

A fellow named Donks was tried at Yuba for entering a miner's tent and stealing a bag of gold dust valued at $84. The testimony showed that he had once been employed there, and knew exactly where the owner kept his dust; that on the specified night he cut a slit in the tent, reached in, took the bag, then ran off. Jim Butler, the principal witness, testified that he saw the cut, saw the man reach in, and saw him run away.

"I rushed after him at once," continued the witness, "but when I catched him I didn't find Bill's bag; but it was found afterward where he had throwed it."

"How far did he get in when he took the dust?" inquired the counsel.

"Well, he was stoopin' over, half way in, I should say," replied the witness.

"May it please your honor," interposed the counsel, "the indictment isn't sustained, and I shall demand an acquittal on direction of the court. The prisoner is on trial for entering a dwelling in the night time with intent to steal. The testimony is clear that he made an opening through which he protruded himself half way, and stretching out his hands committed the theft. But the indictment charges that he actually entered the tent or dwelling. Now, your honor, can a man enter a dwelling when one-half of his body is in, and the other half out?"

"I shall leave the whole matter to the jury. They must judge of the law and the fact as proved," replied the judge.

The jury brought in a verdict of "Guilty as to one-half of his body and not guilty as to the other half."

The judge sentened the guilty part to two years' imprisonment, leaving it to the option of the prisoner whether the innocent part be cut off or he take it along with him.

—When Rev. J. S. Day was pastor of the Methodist church in Weston, he was to exchange one Sabbath with the Waltham minister, and starting Sabbath morning to walk down, about half a mile from home, he found a little boy playing in a mud-puddle, and asked him, "Do you known what day this is?" "Yes, sir," was the prompt reply, "it is Mr. Day, the Methodist minister." The minister walked along.

—Two journalists had been haunting the Belgian frontier since three o'clock in the morning, seeking a sequestered spot where they might settle their affair. It was then nine o'clock, and the police had followed them everywhere. Presently a fine idea struck one of the seconds. He took the party to the boundary line, and then, placing one of the duellists in France and the other in Belgium, he bade them blaze away. There was no duel in France and none in Belgium. Several shots were exchanged in the presence of the gendarmes of both countries, who stood by greatly shocked but absolutely helpless.—French paper.

Hosts of People are Martyrs

To sick headache, that infallible symptom of a disordered stomach, liver and bowels. Many suffer from it as many as three or four times a week. They do so needlessly, for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, by toning the digestive organs and regulating the bowels and liver, removes the cause, and dispels the painful symptom. The intimate sympathy between the brain and the abdominal region causes the slightest disorder affecting the latter to be reflected, as it were, in the organ of thought. The reform instituted by the Bitters when the digestive, secretive and evacuative functions are in a state of chaos, has other and more beneficial results, viz., the complete nutrition of the whole physical economy, the restoration of appetite and repose, and an increase in the power of the system to resist diseases of a malarial type.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English, sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. 4jan1

Wednesday, the 1st inst. [illegible] Haynes of Kennebec was chosen president of the Senate, and Samuel W. Lane of Augusta as secretary, they being the republican candidates. The candidates of the democratic-greenback caucus for officers of the House were elected, Mr. P. Frank of Portland being chosen speaker, and B. L. Staples of Houlton clerk.

The Providence Tool Company, which three years ago, after a brief suspension, gave extension notes for $3,200,000, on the last day of December paid the last of these notes.

The Merrimac Manufacturing Company of Lowell, on the evening of Dec. 30th illuminated one of their weave rooms and a portion of the room overhead with Prof. Brush's electric light. Twelve jets in the large weave room brilliantly illuminated it, producing more light than 130 gas burners have done in the same room. The machine is attached to the main shaft in the basement, having an application of fourteen horse power. It is on sixty days' trial.

Colonel Walten Dwight's will has been admitted to probate and is remarkable, among other things, for its provision for annual banquets for the city poor, the firemen and the newpaper press of Binghamton, N. Y.

The Providence Journal gives a summary of all the savings institutions in Rhode Island. The total amount of deposits is $44,266,882, a decrease in a year of $5,300,000; whole number of depositors, 63,053, a decrease in a year of 6573; excess of assets over liabilities, $1,547,970; amount loaned on mortgages of real estate, $24,400,000.

On the 28th ult., at Sparta, Tenn., two brothers named McPherson attacked Joe Dibrell, son of Congressman Dibrell, when he killed one instantly with a shotgun, and dangerously wounded the other.

The trial at Norwich, Conn., of Kate M. Cobb and Wesley W. Bishop, charged with the double poisoning of Bishop's wife and Mrs. Cobb's husband, began Dec. 31st.

On the body of Henry Schultz, the German who was murdered by unknown parties at Norwalk, Conn., the other day, were found nearly $20,000 in bills which had been overlooked by the robbers, who got only $357 for their foul work.

Luther Colburn has never been thirty-five miles from the locality in Glover, Conn., where he was born, but has nevertheless succeeded in raising a family of nine daughters, all of whom are married, the result of these marriages being twenty-five children.

Albert Chalmers of Newbury, Conn., has been ordered by the Orange county court to pay $841 damages to the father of a girl whom he seduced and who died in childbirth.

Peter Skeitch, a boy thirteen years old, while watching doves near Thom's hotel at Parksville, near New York, on the 31st ult., was seized by a chained bear, his head crunched and the jugular torn out by the jaws of the brute. The boy died instantly. The bear was shot. The same hotel still has another pet bear.

The Semi-weekly Reporter, of Lynn, not only pays thorough attention to local matters, but "aims to be a journal of Society, Fashion, Literature, Art, Music and the Drama," and makes out pretty well, too. It is always bright and readable, and is an excellent paper for the family.

We have received from the Scientific American a little package of the most recently-discovered of the aniline (or coal tar) group of coloring substances, "uranine," which is said by chemists to be the most highly fluorescent body known to science. Its coloring power is astonishing; a single grain will impart a marked color to nearly five hundred gallons of water. An interesting experiment consists in sprinkling a few atoms of uranine upon the surface of water in a glass tumbler. Each atom immediately sends down through the water what appears to be a bright green rootlet: and the tumbler soon looks as if it were crowded full of beautiful plants. The rootlets now begin to enlarge, spread and combine, until we have a mass of soft green-colored liquid. Viewed by transmitted light, the color changes to a bright golden or amber hue; while a combination of green and gold will be realized, according to the position in which the glass is held.

Recently a crowd at the latter place were favored with several songs by Mr. Linsley on the summit. Mr. Jewell, also on the summit, informed the gathering that the thermometer stood at thirteen degrees below zero, the snow was ten feet deep and the wind blowing at the rate of 100 miles per hour.

—A very diminutive specimen of a man lately solicited the hand of a fine buxom girl. "Oh, no," said the fair lady; "I can't think of it for a moment. The fact is, John, you are a little too big for a cradle, and a little too small to go to church with."

THE CITY.

A correspondent wants a place announced where postage stamps can be purchased when the post-office people take a holiday.

"The way to resume is to resume." The dividend on the shares of the Portsmouth & Dover railroad was paid on New Year's day in gold.

New Year's callers found a less number than usual of ladies receiving on Wednesday, many being sufferers from the prevailing epidemic of colds, or whatever it may be.

The total number of arrivals at this port for the year ending Dec. 31st was 1695, as follows: twenty-eight schooners from foreign ports, with a total registered tonnage of 3307; from coastwise ports sixteen steamers, one brig and 650 schooners, with a total registered tonnage of 104,163.

Capt. Edward J. Ford has received orders from Col. Dillon, commanding the 1st Regt. New Hampshire State Militia, to recruit his company (the City Guards) up to its full number. When this is done he will receive notification to have the men measured for the new uniforms, which B. F. Haley of Newmarket, is to make.

Mrs. Eliza B. Ricker, whose death we chronicle in another place, was the widow of Charles Ricker, formerly of Madbury, and who was a soldier in Capt. Andrew Peirce's company in the war of 1812. Mr. Ricker also served in Capt. John D. Hardy's company in that war. Mrs. Ricker drew the first instalment of her pension only a few days ago.

Capt. Hilton has secured for the evening of January 22d, in the Rockingham Course, the eminent orator and elocutionist, Prof. Wm. N. Van DeMark, of California, said to be one of the most eloquent and finished speakers and readers of the day. Season tickets for the remainder of the course, (four entertainments,) $1.50; for sale at Dr. Preston's drug store.

At the close of the Walker grammar school the master, Mr. Charles E. Buzzell, was presented by the pupils of his room with a very beautiful silver spoon-holder. It was lined with gold, finely engraved and appropriately marked. The kind feeling and ever prevailing harmony existing between pupils and teacher in this school is thus very pleasantly expressed.

Those who had a holiday forced upon them, and others who voluntarily made a holiday of New Year's, to the number hundreds visited the north mill-pond in the afternoon to see the horses exercise. There was but little racing, though it was apparent that some of the animals had "go" in them. Some new stock was brought out, and extra sport may be expected during the winter.

The depositors in the Rockingham Ten Cents savings bank are being paid at the rate of from two hundred and fifty to three hundred each day. A police officer admits but a given number at a time. The depositors show a commendable zeal in punctual attendance at the hours for payment. Possibly they are afraid the concern will "bust" again, if they don't get their money out quick.

Notwithstanding the counter attraction of Uncle Tom's Cabin at Music hall on the same night, the stereopticon exhibition by Mr. Maynard at Franklin hall was largely attended on Wednesday evening. This is far the best show of the kind ever given here, the views being well selected and very pleasing, and the lecturer intelligent and entertaining. Exhibitions are to be given each afternoon and evening of this week,—at 2:30 and 7:45 o'clock. Tickets ten cents; reserved seats fifteen cents.

"My dear," said Mrs. Turtledove, returning home from the opening entertainment of the Rockingham Course, "suppose you had been Mr. Dupius, would you have ignored that letter to your wife in the apparently unconcerned manner shown by Dupius?" "Well," replied the sly Turtledove, "at this season of the year, the chances would be that what might seem to a man inexperienced in matrimonial life to be a billet-doux to his wife would prove only an invitation to an opening of a swell millinery, or what would be worse, a bill of particulars for a generous amount from some such establishment, in which I should have not the slightest interest, and I should be just as much inclined to trust my wife as had been the dealers in fine apparel to trust her before." Mrs. Turtledove is still in doubt upon the question.

The following notice of a Portsmouth boy and his doings we take from the Candia correspondence of the Exeter News-Letter: "William H. Gardiner, a graduate of Dartmouth College, has given notice that he will open a high school in school district No. 2, on February 3d, to continue twelve weeks. Mr. Gardiner has taught in several places with eminent success, and comes highly recommended as a teacher. He is now teaching in district No. 8, and those who have visited his school speak of it in high terms."

This evening, at Music hall, the concert complimentary to Miss Edith Wendell, the favorite young soprano, will be given. Neither the beneficiary nor Mrs. Barry, the great contralto, need any introduction. Mr. Hunt, the basso, as a humorous vocalist is said to be "immense," and Miss Carter is highly spoken of as a reader. The sale of tickets has been large, and the house will certainly be well filled—and should be crowded, considering the merit of the entertainment, the low price of tickets, and the readiness with which Miss Wendell has responded when asked to appear in aid of local charities. An extraordinary attraction will be offered in the shape of a song by Miss Wendell, written and composed expressly for this occasion by Mr. E. A. Tilton.

THE VICINITY.

The Second Congregational society of Exeter contributed last year over $1100 for the yellow fever sufferers, and for other charitable purposes.

The Exeter Gazette reports "Fish trade brisk on the Swamscot; the fishermen are taking bass weighing from three to thirty pounds each, and sending them to the Boston markets."

On Friday morning, 27th ult., Mr. Levi W. Downs took from his herring-net at the Isles of Shoals about one thousand herring, and has got from thirty-five to one hundred each morning since. Nothing of the kind has occurred before for over twenty years.

On Monday evening, the 30th ult., the Kittery band serenaded Capt. David Frisbee, who reciprocated the compliment by furnishing a nice collation. It is understood that the insurance on the hotel which belonged to Mr. Frisbee and was burned some months ago, is to be paid to him soon.

The approximate value of property belonging to the United States at this naval station, according to the estimates submitted to the Secretary of the Navy, is (exclusive of the marine barracks) $6,634,899.01; marine barracks, $104,100. This is exclusive of boilers and engines in shops, ordnance stores and equipment supplies on vessels in commission, hulls of ships, and stores under cognizance of the bureaux of navigation, provisions and clothing, and medicine and surgery.

Mr. Alexander Shapleigh of Eliot, with his wife and daughter was returning from church on Sunday, the 29th ult., when his horse got frightened at a team coming up behind, and ran away. In the endeaver to stop him one of the reins was broken and the horse sheered into the fence of Mr. Benjamin Kennard, throwing the party out and hurting them severely. Mrs. Shapleigh was picked up unconscious, having received injuries on the head and back. Mr. Shapleigh and his daughter were also badly bruised.

The erection of the new bleachery building of the Cocheco Manufacturing Co., of Dover, in place of the one destroyed by fire, has been contracted for by the Messrs. Howe of Lowell, Mass. The contract includes the building only, all complete; the price is not made public. The work will be completed within about a month, probably; a large gang of men are employed in clearing away the rubbish from the old site. A considerable portion of the old brick walls stand, sound and uninjured, and will not be taken down.

The Methodist church at East Eliot had a festival on Christmas night, with a tree which was handsomely decorated and on which the presents were numerous, and many of them valuable. There was also singing, with dialogues and tableaux, and it was considered a very enjoyable affair. This church has lately purchased a new organ, which is presided over by Miss Lizzie Goodwin, who received on this occasion a silver cake-basket from the society, and a silver napkin-ring from her Sunday school class. The pastor received a purse containing a generous sum of money.

The Lewiston Journal says: "Capt. Sprague, of the Auburn Light Infantry, has further investigated the charge that the Biddeford company employed unenlisted sharp-shooters to win the first prize for them at the shooting match of company teams last fall. He forwarded a list of seven names of men in the Biddeford team to Adjt.-Gen. Cilley and inquired if the men had been regularly mustered into the company. The Adjutant-General replied that only one of the seven names was on the muster roll. The other six had no right to shoot, and the Biddeford company will not probably receive the prize." The Biddeford Times replies by showing that all but one of the men objected to were bona fide members of the company before the order for the shooting match was given, and that the remaining one joined within the prescribed time.

BOARD OF INSTRUCTION.

Regular meeting Wednesday evening, 1st inst. Present, the Mayor, Mrs. Knight, Mrs. Wilson, Messrs. Wendell, Sherburne, Hoyt, Hackett, Gardner and Knight.

Several bills were ordered to be paid.

Application of Miss Shackley for increase of salary was referred to the committee on salaries.

An amendment proposed by Dr. Sherburne relating to the commencement of schools after vacation, providing that the winter term shall begin on the first week-day after January 1st and continue to the third Monday in April, when there shall be a vacation of one week, the spring term commencing on the fourth Monday in April and ending on the Saturday preceding July 1st, was laid on the table until the next meeting.

A committee of three upon the revision of the rules and regulations was appointed, consisting of Messrs. Pender, Hoyt and Wendell.

The subject of drawing in schools was discussed, upon a proposition to authorize the masters to introduce the teaching of drawing in their respective schools; laid over till next meeting.

The question of suspending the rules and confirming a teacher was brought up, and the motion to suspend failed of a passage.

THE FIRST PLANTING OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Notes on the first planting of New Hampshire, and on the Piscataqua Patents: by John S. Jenness.

This volume, though already in much request, was privately printed by Mr. Brewster for the author, who is well-known to a large class of readers from his interesting historical sketch of the Isles of Shoals, published five years ago, as well as to persons of historic tastes by his carefully-edited "Transcripts of original documents in the English archives relating to the early history of New Hampshire," a large volume of which he collated and printed at no little expenditure of time, money and labor, in 1874.

Mr. Jenness undertakes these labors, the results of which are of such incalculable value to us to of to-day and to posterity, from a love of history and a desire to see it properly and correctly transmitted. He always requires facts. He takes nothing upon mere tradition, when the narration is not sustained by corroborating circumstances. In short, he brings to bear a mind naturally acute and discriminating, added to the training of a well-read and successful lawyer, and always sustains his points not by evidence alone, but by proofs.

A few years ago, the question as to the precise spot within the limits of our State where the first settlement was made, whether at Little Harbor near the mouth of the Piscataqua river or at what is now known as Dover neck, was much discussed. A charter having been presented to our Legislature to incorporate certain gentlemen as an association for the purpose of erecting a monument at Odiorne's point "in commemoration of the first settlement of the State at this spot," was immediately followed by a charter with a different set of grantees but in nearly the same language, excepting it located the first settlement at Dover point. A distinguished member of the Legislature from this city who had introduced the first bill, found himself suddenly between two fires, the escape from which was only achieved by allowing both bills to be enacted, with slight amendments which deprived each of any historic superiority to the other.

Mr. Jenness shows us that the date of the settlement at Odierne's point is not a matter of dispute. Here the ship Jonathan of Plymouth arrived in the spring of 1623. Mr. David Thompson, who had in the November previous procured a patent for six thousand acres of land, to be by him selected in New England, was at the head of a little band of colonists, he having previously visited this country and found the opportunities which presented themselves for fishing from our shores. Had we space we should like to make liberal extracts from Mr. Jenness' array of facts and collection of data.

The patent of Hilton's point, as Dover neck was originally called, was granted to Edw. Hilton, March 12th, 1629, (1630, according to the present style of reckoning,) about seven years after the settlement at Pannaway,—the name Thompson gave to his plantation. It is hardly probable that Hilton actually founded a colony and began a settlement seven years before he had obtained a right to settle anywhere. Indeed, Mr. Jenness' conclusion seems to have exhausted the subject, and left no other rational supposition than the result stated in his book.

An appendix gives a copy of the Hilton or Swamscot patent, the grant of Piscataway to Sir Fernando Gorges and Captain Mason and others in 1631, and other interesting papers.

Mr. Jenness also sheds light upon the previously befogged history of the Piscataqua patents. All this is written not as a dry or uninteresting recital, but invested with charms in composition that will compel one to go through the book, before he is willing to lay it aside. A sketch map of Piscataway showing the ancient names of the places of settlements is an interesting feature of the volume.

The author has presented to the Athenæum of his native city an elegantly-bound copy of his work, and the service he has done the State in thus giving us the result of his historic researches, cannot be too greatly appreciated.

We give the following letter to show the absolute freedom of Devoe's Brilliant Oil from any inflammable vapor, and as a curious incident:

PATERSON, N. J., April 17, 1877.

DEVOE MANUFACTURING CO.

Gentlemen:—I take great pleasure in sending this unsolicited recommendation of your Kerosene Oil.

At the great fire in this place, which destroyed Norwood's Paint and Oil establishment, and other buildings, on the 13th inst., your Oil stood one of most severe tests that Oil could be put to; for four [4] hours the Oil was in the hottest part of the fire, and such a fire as only Varnish, Turpentine, Oils and Paints can make, and in all that time there was no explosion of your Oil, and the cans containing the Oil were in very near the same condition after the fire as before.

I take great pleasure in recommending this Oil, as in my opinion it is the safest Oil for sale in the market. I remain, very respectfully,

JOHN E. REGNO,
Chief of Fire Department.

—A Kentucky divine writes to the New York Observer: "Your mention of the minister who prayed, 'If thou remember-est,' etc., is more than equaled. It was a Monday morning prayer meeting, and the preacher prayed, 'Thou hast seen by the morning papers how the Sabbath was desecrared yesterday.'"

—At the opening of a recent session of the New Hampshire Supreme Court, the following model petition was offered, it being known that the docket was crowded: "O Lord, bless this court; bless these lawyers, and make them know that life is short and time is precious and not to be wasted in empty declamations; for Christ's sake. Amen."

—A Milford man, stupefied by drink and the cold, was found near the Fair Haven Rolling Mill the other night, and taken in and resuscitated amid too lurid glare of the molten iron and the din of the machinery. As he slowly came to and was asked where he belonged, he looked about him in a frightened manner and replied: "Well, when I was on earth I lived in Milford."

Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

TO ADVERTISERS

THE N. H. GAZETTE

Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

PENNSYLVANIA

RAILROAD.

GREAT THROUGH LINE

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mercury in Bones, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-Rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially but it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Ringworm, Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are expressed. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects a perfect and radical cure.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and early stages of Consumption, it has established the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medicinal discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets.

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Distended feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH

SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stoppage up, or obstruction, of the nasal passing to clear the throat, ulceration, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY

produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The liquid remedy may be easily by the other applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument by which and with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, even the worst cases or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists. R. V. PIERCE, M. THE SUN FOR 1879.

THE SUN will be printed every day during the year to come. Its purpose and method will be the same as in the past. To present all the news in a readable shape, and to tell the truth though the heavens fall.

THE SUN has been, is, and will continue to be independent of everybody and everything save the Truth and its own convictions of duty. That is the only policy which an honest newspaper need have. That is the policy which has won for this newspaper the confidence and friendship of a wider constituency than was ever enjoyed by any other American Journal.

THE SUN is the newspaper for the people. It is not for the rich man against the poor man, or for the poor man against the rich man, but it seeks to do equal justice to all interests in the community. It is not the organ of any person, class, sect or party. There need be no mystery about its loves and hates. It is for the honest man against the rogues every time. It is for the honest Democrat as against the dishonest Republican, and for the honest Republican as against the dishonest Democrat. It does not take its cue from the utterances of any politician or political organization. It gives its support unreservedly when men or measures are in agreement with the Constitution and with the principles upon which this Republic was founded for the people. Whenever the Constitution and constitutional principles are violated—in the outrageous conspiracy of 1876, by which a man not elected was placed in the President's office, where he still remains—it speaks out for the right. That is THE SUN'S idea of independence. In this respect there will be no change in its programme for 1879.

THE SUN has fairly earned the hearty hatred of rascals, frauds, and humbugs of all sorts and class. It hopes to deserve that hatred not less in the year 1879, than in 1878, 1877, or any year gone by. THE SUN will continue to shine on the wicked with unmitigated rightness.

While the lessons of the past should be constantly kept before the people, THE SUN does not propose to make itself in 1879 a magazine of ancient history. It is printed for the men and women of to-day, whose concern is chiefly with the affairs of to-day. It has large the disposition and the ability to afford its readers the promptest, fullest, and most accurate intelligence of whatever in the wide world is worth attention. To this end the resources belonging to well-established prosperity will be liberally employed.

The present disjointed condition of parties in this country, and the uncertainty of the future, lend an extraordinary significance to the events of the coming year. The discussions of the press, the debates and acts of Congress, and the movements of the leaders in every section of the Republic will have a direct bearing on the Presidential election of 1880—an event which must be regarded with the most anxious interest by every patriotic American, whatever his political ideas or allegiance. To these elements of interest may be added the probability that the Democrats will control both houses of Congress, the increasing feebleness of the fraudulent Administration, and the growth and strengthening everywhere of a healthy abhorrence of fraud in any form. To present with accuracy and clearness the exact situation in each of its varying phases, and to expound, according to its well-known methods, the principles that should guide us through the labyrinth, will be an important part of THE SUN'S work for 1879.

We have the means of making THE SUN, as a political, a literary and a general newspaper, more entertaining and more useful than ever before; and we mean to apply them freely.

Our rates of subscription remain unchanged. For the DAILY SUN, a four page sheet of 28 columns, the price by mail, postpaid, is 55 cents a month, or $6.50 a year; or, including the Sunday paper, an eight-page sheet of fifty-six columns, the price is 65 cents a month, $7.70 a year, postage paid.

The Sunday edition of THE SUN is also furnished separately at $1.20 a year, postage paid.

The price of the WEEKLY SUN, eight pages, fifty-six columns, is $1 a year, postage paid. For clubs of ten sending $10 we will send an extra copy free. Address

A Preston Mystery.

For some time past the colored people of Preston have been talking about a mystery in a house occupied by a Mr. W. It was said that noises followed a young woman of twenty-one years of age, neice of Mr. W., and that whenever she was around the doors were violently opened, and the latches were frequently pushed up, and the windows opened, and the smoke of the fireplace would not ascend the chimney. Our reporter visited the place to ascertain the truth of these stories. On his arrival at the place the girl was out, but shortly after returned. On her entrance to the kitchen a loud noise was heard overhead like a heavy wind, followed by three or four loud knocks on the ceiling, as if some one was hammering with an axe overhead. The front door and the one leading to the hall were violently pushed open, and a gust of wind entered the room. Just as the young lady got her things off, a noise as if a lot of glass was being broken in the closet. On the door being opened it was found that a quantity of the dishes were upset. Knockings were heard between the wooden partition of the kitchen and bedroom. Groans proceeded from under the stairs, and with much difficulty a portion of the woodwork was torn away but nothing was to be seen. Near the door was a table with a bell on it for the purpose of calling the men in to their meals, which was frequently rung during our reporter's visit, although he had taken the precaution to tie it down two or three times, but the unknown who rung the bell always managed to break the cord. Sometimes he would hear noises overhead as if a gun was fired off, but on examination of the premises no gun could be found. The young woman told him that during the night heavy groans, as if some one was dying was heard through the house, and that they could not sleep at all; one night while she was dozing off, she was thrown clean off the bed, all the chairs were upset, and a bright light appeared in one corner of the room. On Sunday as they were cooking their dinner a quantity of water came down the chimney and immediately extinguished the fire. The inmates of the house are Mr. W. and wife, two grown up sons and a daughter, besides the neice. Mr. W. states that nearly every night for the past fortnight faces appeared at the window, and though he went all over the premises, nothing at all was visible. As our reporter was about leaving, the neice, with Mr. W's daughter came to the door, and about a minute afterwards a large puncheon which was standing at the right hand corner of the house and which was nearly full of water, upset. He can in no way account for the mysteries, although he has made a careful search all over the premises.—Halifax Reporter.

"What are you going to do about it?"

Because the penalties of physiological laws are not executed speedily, some fancy they are void. But when the system breaks down, and almost hopeless complications arise, which the family physician, by reason of his limited experience, fails to relieve, the pertinency of the above inquiry is apparent. Many remedies have been specially prepared for these cases, and many physicians are bidding for their patronage. As before making a purchase of land, a "search" is required, and the title carefully examined, so invalids should carefully investigate the claims of any physician offering to treat chronic diseases. Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines are well known, and have effected many cures where eminent physicians have failed, yet to accommodate surgical and complicated cases, and those desirous of being restored speedily, Dr. Pierce has erected an elegant sanitarium, at a cost of nearly half a million dollars. No institution in the world offers advantages superior to those found in this establishment. Half a score of physicians are in attendance, several of whom have been prominently connected with leading American and European Hospitals. Every improved facility for hastening a cure that a liberal expenditure of money could secure can here be found. Before fully deciding where to go, address Invalids' and Tourists' Hotel for circular.

—No matter how good-natured a man may be, he will invariably get mad when he discovers that there is no towel in the room, and is compelled to dry his face on the bed-quilt.

Relief and Cure of

Dr. Sherman's Treatment

The dangers of rupture and the dreadful injuries from the use of trusses are at once removed, and the patient saved from their eventual horrifying results, some of which are nervous debility, impaired memory, loss of energy, physical incapacity, impotency, and many other affections which make life miserable. During treatment the patient can circulate freely and perform any labor.

TERMS MODERATE.

Dr. Sherman is now in Boston, where he may be consulted daily for a limited period at his OFFICE 43 MILK STREET, nearly opposite the new Post Office.

Old Books Wanted.

The New Hampshire State Library does not have a complete set of the printed Journals of the Senate and House. It is not unlikely that the missing volumes may be supplied from private sources. In the hope that some one having an odd volume or two of these Journals will send the same to the State Librarian at Concord, we publish a list as follows of the years that are incomplete:

1785, Feb., Senate; June, both; Oct., both. 1786, Feb., Senate; June, Sept., House; Dec., both. 1787, June, Senate; Sept., Dec., both. 1788, Jan., House; June, both; Nov., Senate. 1789, 1790, '91 and '92, any Journals of either session. 1794, House. 1795, Dec., House; 1804, Nov., House; 1806, June, House; 1818, June, House; 1825, June, House; 1826, June, House.

The Library ought to have a duplicate set of all these Journals, and whoever reads this with an impression that the garret of his house contains some old books of this sort, would do well to institute a search. The journals were not printed regularly before 1785. In this connection we may add that the State Library is already a subject of just pride to every New Hampshire man, and it is to be hoped that our people will show a general interest in everything that promises to extend its usefulness, or add to its resources. Newspapers throughout the State may aid in furthering this design by copying this article.

The Maine Legislature.

The Senate, after organizing, passed the following resolutions under suspension of the rules:

Resolved, That the attainment of coin resumption puts an end to the myriad evils inseparable from an irredeemable, depreciated and fluctuating currency, gives to labor a sure reward, places our commercial exchanges upon the only stable foundation, tenders a hearty and permanent revival of business possible, and best of all, preserves the faith of the nation inviolate.

Resolved, That national honor, public credit and private interest alike demand that specie resumption, now happily achieved, shall be maintained honestly and uninterruptedly at every hazard, and to this end our Senators and Representatives in Congress are requested to use their best endeavors.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to each Senator and Representative from Maine in Congress.

In the House the hard-money resolutions of the Senate were laid on the table by a vote of 80 to 60, the democrats (with the exception of one) voting with the greenbackers.

In the evening a fusion caucus for the nomination of State officers was held, and the following officers selected: For Secretary of State, E. H. Gove of Biddeford; for Attorney-General, William H. McLellan; for Adjutant-General, Samuel D. Leavitt; for Councillors, John B. Foster of Bangor, E. C. Moody of York, Hanson H. Monroe of Thomaston, F. G. Parker of Presque Isle, Charles H. Chase of Portland, Frank M. Fogg of Auburn and Simon S. Brown of Fairfield.

Camp-meeting John Allen was chosen chaplain of the House.

An Indignant Democrat.

The editor of the Peoria (Ill.) National Democrat, the leading democratic paper of its section, has evidently read not only the shrieks of "bloody shirt" raised by his northern brethren, but the evidence from the south as well, and he seems to be pretty mad with the southern members of his party and their editorial apologists in the north. This is the way he talks:

We think it high time for democratic papers everywhere, especially in the north, to "dry up" about the "bloody shirt" and "southern outrages." The sneaking, cowardly murder of White and Clark, two colored witnesses on their way to New Orleans, to testify, under subpoena of the United States court, before the United States grand jury, is an "outrage" that cannot be excused, palliated, patched up, nor defended by any honest white man, and the sooner Blaine and his whole committee, and the federal army, too, get after the perpetrators, the better for the peace of the country. If these southern devils think that the northern democracy are going to back them up in all and any sort of diabolism they may perpetrate they are very much mistaken. They have cursed the northern democracy long enough and often enough by their inhuman barbarism; and if they want any further support from northern democrats they must act like civilized white men, and not like demoniac savages. The country has had exactly enough of that sort of conduct, and no more will be tolerated. Let us hear no more about the bloody shirt or of southern outrages in a single northern democratic paper. These southern devils have made their bed; let them lie in it.

News and Notes.

Henry E. Frisbie, a seventeen-year-old son of Captain Frisbie, of New Haven, Conn., and Annie W. French, aged twenty-three and a domestic in the Captain's family, were married in New Haven Dec. 31st. The groom is about four feet six inches high, and weighs about eighty pounds.

Fred Rice of the firm of Jenks & Rice, hotel keepers at Hoosac Tunnel station, Mass., was accidentally shot Wednesday by a double-barrelled gun which fell from its nook in the office, discharging both barrels into his foot, injuring it so that he will lose part of it. The gun was probably hung up by the hammer and slipped off, discharging both barrels at the same time.

Washington Chaplin, Jr., of Naples, Me., was caught in the machinery of his mill Wednesday, tearing his right hand nearly off and crushing his arm and shoulder. He also sustained severe internal injuries. The chances of his recovery are doubtful.

The cotton press and warehouses of the Union Cotton Press Co., at Charleston, S. C., were burned on the morning of the 1st inst., with 10,121 bales of cotton. Loss on buildings and presses, $100,000; insurance $60,000. Loss on cotton, $475,000; insurance, $72,250. The fire was incendiary. A man, seen running from the spot where the fire broke out, was hailed by the watchman who shot at him, but he escaped.

The Connecticut Valley railroad, extending about fifty miles from Hartford to Saybrook Point, Conn., will this month pass into the hands of the holders of the first mortgage bonds, the original stockholders and the holders of the second mortgage bonds losing every cent of their investment. This is the railroad which it is alleged was wrecked by Forber, the Charter Oak Life Ins. Co. man, J. C. Walkeley and other great financiers. It was pretty thoroughly wrecked by somebody, beyond question, the job having been as effectually done as though engineered by Tilden and reform himself.

The annual meeting of the New England Historic-Genealogical Society was held in Boston Jan. 1st. Hon. Marshall P. Wilder was re-elected president.

Texas has 1700 convicts, of whom some 500 are kept in prison, and the rest are hired out to work on railroads and farms. One, undergoing a life sentence, is hired by his wife, and lives comfortably at home.

At the United States sub-treasuries in Washington and New York, Wednesday and Thursday, there was no call for gold worth mentioning. Extra tellers had been sent to New York in anticipation of a slight rush, but they found nothing to do.

Caleb Cushing was reported to be dying at his home in Newburyport on Thursday.

The blowing up a Japanese coasting steamer is reported, with the loss of eighty-three lives.

Miss Mattie Todd, a niece of Mrs. Abraham Lincoln, is an applicant for the post-office at Cynthiana, Ky.

Mr. Jeffrey Richardson of Boston, who is ninety years old, is still a director of the Suffolk bank of that city, and has held the position for more than fifty years.

Mr. C. E. Stowe, a son of Harriet Beecher Stowe, was ordained a minister at Hartford, Conn., this week.

Mr. George Curtis Rand, who died Dec. 30th in Newton Centre, Mass., printed the first edition of "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

W. H. Edson of Granville, Vt., who has a wife and child, has been arrested for outraging two little girls, nine and ten years old.

The crop of metals gathered on the Pacific slope last year is given as follows: Gold, $38,956,231; silver, $30,746,039; lead, $3,452,000; the total being less by $17,267,132 than for 1877.

The silver question is a weighty one, and presents itself in a very bulky form. Some idea of the length, breadth and thickness thereof may be gained from the dimensions of the new vault in the United States sub-Treasury, which has been preparing for the storage of silver dollars. It is forty-eight feet in length, thirty feet in width and twelve feet high. If every available inch should be packed solidly with 412 1-2 grain dollars it would hold not far from $40,000,000. Every one knows that silver is bulky, but few persons are aware how bulky it is. A bag of 1000 412 1-2 grain dollars weighs 59 3-15 pounds avoirdupois. Accordingly 100,000 of these dollars weigh not far from three tons. If a merchant or banker having a payment of $30,000 to make is compelled by circumstances to pay with silver dollars, he would need a vehicle as strong and as large as an ordinary coal cart (made to carry a ton of coal) to transport them, and if this should be heaped up, no more than 32,000 silver dollars could be loaded on it.—Syracuse Journal.

New Hampshire Items.

The funeral of Ex-Gov. Onslow Stearns took place in Concord on Thursday, the public services being held at the Unitarian church, prayers having previously been offered at his late residence. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Bean of Concord and Rev. Mr. Woodbury of Providence, R. I. The attendance of State, city and railroad officials was very large, the employes of the Concord, Northern and Old Colony railroads acting as escort, and master mechanics Lander and Langmaid of the Northern, Gordon and Flanders of the Concord, and Taylor and Gleason of the Old Colony railroads officiating as carriers.

A distressing accident took place at the Spring Hill mines near Amherst on Saturday. A lad named Hall, aged fourteen, son of the resident manager, went too near the cog gear of the rotary screen. His mitten caught between the cog wheels, and inch by inch his hand, and then his arm, with coat and shirt sleeves, were drawn in and literally chopped to bits. His side and face came in contact with the revolving wheels, and were severely scraped and bruised. His shoulder-bone finally stopped the machinery, and the young sufferer was promptly released from his perilous position. Very slight hopes of recovery are entertained.

The New Hampshire Centennial Home for the Aged in Concord, was formally opened Wednesday afternoon, the dedicatory exercises being participated in by the clergy of the city. The amount credited to the permanent fund of the institution is $8770.73, which has been invested, besides another fund from which an income of $2500 per annum is derived. The association also owns $3000 worth of land.

Mr. D. W. Patrick of Colebrook had a leg broken recently by the kick of an ox, and was otherwise seriously injured. A merciful beast is merciful to its owner.

Prof. Ambrose P. Kelsey, principal of the State normal school at Plymouth, has accepted the Stowe professorship of Natural History in Hamilton college, N. Y., where he graduated. Prof. Kelsey's wife has recently inherited a fortune.

Littleton voted almost unanimously at the November election against the sale of cider and lager beer, it is claimed through a misunderstanding, and at a special town meeting on the 28th ult. reconsidered the vote, and decided, 180 to 155, to have the stuff.

Amos Clark, a prominent citizen of Plymouth, died suddenly on Wednesday, aged seventy-seven years. He had been off with a horse and a sled, and a short time afterward the horse returned, when Mr. Clark was found lying dead upon the sled.

The idea of being married on Christmas eve was probably a very sudden freak on the part of a couple in Raymond, who called a clergyman out of church for that purpose. The lady is but fourteen years of age, and the minister declined to perform the ceremony unless the consent of the parents was first obtained; this they would not give. We think it would not be amiss for the lady to enjoy several more Christmas eves before she assumes the duties of the married state.

Miss Mary Cooke of Hartford, Conn., has attained a high position as a practical printer. Miss Cooke has been a compositor on the Hartford Courant for a long time, but last year took her summer vacation upon Mt. Washington and had charge of the printing of Burt's Among the Clouds.

—This is a good time for bashful young men and maidens to break the ice.—But they should be careful and not tumble in.

—It is annouced in Paris that dancing is to supersede walking at balls, and that therefore short ball-dresses will be adopted.

—Struggling journals should hold on just a little longer. Paniers are to be worn again, and the increased demand for newspapers will be very great.

—Groveland boasts of a very absent-minded man, who was getting ready to go to Haverhill and actually got into his wagon, pulled the robe around him, and got hold of the reins, when he noticed that the horse was not harnessed in, and upon investigation found the animal quietly standing in the barn.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder on the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few cents more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsept10 79

THE CITY.

A shark fifteen feet long was caught on one of the trawls set by one of the Newburyport schooners fishing out of this this port week.

Maynard's Spectacular Illuminations at Franklin hall afford an evening's entertainment of unusual merit. Everybody should avail themselves of the opportunity offered, and see these very beautiful views and transformations. Keep the hall warm.

The Portsmouth members of Osgood Lodge, No. 48, I. O. O. F., and their ladies, have been invited by the members of the lodge resident in Rye to an entertainment in Rye town hall on the evening of Wednesday, 8th inst., if fair; if stormy, the next Friday evening. Those members intending to go will please inform W. S. Hazel, at Goodrich's store, on or before Jan. 7th.

The fishing schooner Mary S. Hontvet, Hontvet master, left this port on Saturday, Dec. 28th, set her trawls the next day, and on Monday carried into Portland 27,000 lbs. of fish. She set again on Tuesday, and carried in 17,000 lbs. more on Thursday morning. Leaving Portland at ten o'clock Thursday forenoon, she made the run up in four hours. Her crew shared $33.01 per man.

On Monday evening of this week some of the custom house officials were notified that several packages of contraband goods were thrown from the cars at or near the Green street crossing, and was taken in charge by the driver of one of thejob wagons. A watch were set for the night around the house where it was supposed the goods would be carried, but nothing was seen to excite suspicon; next morning the house was searched but nothing contraband was found, the proprietor informing the searching officer that he was "three weeks too late."

THE VICINITY.

The Young Men's Christian Association of the State has arranged to hold a series of meetings at Epping, beginning Jan. 14th and continuing three days.

Some fishermen who were out in their dories off Hampton beach, New Year's day, picked up a box containing the body of a child over a year old, which had apparently been dead for a month or more.

The term of office of Deputy Sheriffs Durgin and Grant, who have made things so uncomfortable for the liquor sellers of Saco and Biddeford for several years past, expired on New Year's day, and Sheriff Stevens of York county appointed Horace B. Stuart and James B. Marr, both well-known citizens of Saco, to fill the vacancies.

On Christmas day Mr. Daniel P. Spinney of South Eliot killed a hog which weighed when dressed 740 pounds, the fat from the intestines weighing twenty-five pounds, making a total weight of 765 pounds. Mr. Spinney during the late cider-making season ground up over 6000 bushels of apples in his mill, and made 700 barrels of cider.

Our old friend Edward C. Moody, of York, has got another office; he is one of the executive council of Maine, having been nominated by the greenodemback caucus on the evening of the 1st inst. Ah, Ed. is the chap who knows how to make politics pay! But come to think of it, isn't it in the council where they put politicians when they're done with 'em, and want to kill 'em off? It will not matter, though, if it is, for if the greenodembackery of Maine think they can end Edward's running for office merely by making him a councillor, they don't know their man, that's all.

The new city government of Dover organized on the 1st inst. Samuel H. Hall was chosen president of the common council, John B. Stevens, Jr., city clerk, and Samuel D. Brownell city messenger. The city marshal's report gave the whole number of arrests for the year as being 372, of which 333 were of males and thirty-nine of females. During the year 1878 the number of "transient people" applying at the police station for food and lodgings was 685, a decrease of 266 from 1877; during the first seven months of the year the number was 644; for the five months following August 1st, the date when the "accursed tramp law" went into effect, the number was but forty-one,—a pretty good showing for the tramp law.

The billiard saloon proprietors in Saco and Biddeford are running vigorously in opposition to each other. The Saco house proprietor having offered prizes for the best runs at pool in his rooms during the month of December, drew most of the pool and billiard players from other saloons. Upon this the proprietors of the New Era saloon in Biddeford came out with an advertisement offering more numerous and higher prizes to the players at their saloon during the month of January; whereat the proprietor of the Pioneer saloon advertises free tables for pool and billiard playing, for one month.

A New Year's entertainment was given by the Sabbath school of the Orthodox church at Eliot on New Year's night, and consisted of singing, dialogues and tableaux. Rev. Mr. Smith and Miss Flora Hayes of Kittery, and the Misses Dame of South Eliot, sang several pieces which the audience were highly edified with. The entertainment was one which the amateurs should well be proud of, as many a private company would have to do their best to excel. Two trees were loaded with presents which were distributed among the audience. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Hibbard, was the fortunate recipient of a purse containing $30 from the ladies. V.

Miss May Belle Sherman—the Biddeford Times spells the name Mabel Sherman, but it was May Belle Sherman when she tramped around Franklin hall in this city—on New Year's day walked fifty miles inside of eleven hours in the City hall at Biddeford. John Meagher of Biddeford walked the first twenty-five miles with her, trying to beat the time made by the "champion of York county," the latter's acceptance of a challenge from Meagher depending on Meagher's succeeding in the attempt. On the last twenty-five miles Miss Sherman was accompanied by J. N. Driscoll of Portland, previously announced to start January 6th on a walk of 400 miles in 130 hours, at Franklin hall in this city.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The Portsmouth Aqueduct Company has chosen the following officers:

Ichabod Goodwin, John J. Pickering, William A. Peirce, William L. Dwight, Directors;

Oliver Ayers, Treasurer and Proprietors' Clerk.

The following officers were installed in Osgood Lodge, No. 48, I. O. O. F., on Thursday evening:

William C. Robinson, N. G.;
Howard Frisbee, V. G.;
Edward R. Morrison, R. S.;
C. Dwight Hanscom, S.;
Charles N. Neal, T.;

POLICE COURT.

THURSDAY, Jan. 2; Batchelder, J.

Horace Tetherly, for malicious mischief at Newington, in breaking in a door and committing other misdemeanors at the house of Mr. Ephraim Downing, was bound over in the sum of $50.

Henry Tetherly, for drunkenness, got off with a fine and costs amounting to $10.14.

THE CONCERT.

Miss Edith Wendell was complimented on Thursday evening by such an attendance at her concert as could hardly have been expected, for nothwithstanding the driving snow-storm and the very difficult walking the audience was a large one, showing that with any decent kind of an evening the hall would have been filled. And all who attended were well repaid for facing the storm and blundering through the snow, for the entertainment was good. Reinewald & Taylor's orchestra performed their selections in a pleasing and artistic manner; Miss Carter showed herself an accomplished reader; Mr. Hunt as a humorous vocalist and reciter was amusing, and Mr. Tilton accompanied carefully and acceptably. But the great attraction, of course, was the singing of Miss Wendell and Mrs. Barry. The audience insisted on Miss Wendell's singing something else after her first song, "Beautiful bird, sing on," and she responded with "Comin' thro' the rye;" Mrs. Barry in response to the determined clapping of hands at the end of her first song—the audience not making much noise with their feet, because they all had rubber boots on—gave "Sleep, baby, sleep," most charmingly; and when the ladies sang a duet the greedy audience refused to be satisfied with one recall, but kept up their clatter until the ladies appeared a third time. The song, "Inconstancy," written and composed by Mr. Tilton, is quite pretty and was nicely sung by Miss Wendell, who in response to an encore gave "Home sweet home," very pleasingly. The three ladies each received beautiful bouquets during the evening, and the audience evidently enjoyed the entire programme.

WORSE THAN PRIZE-FIGHTING.

In view of the epidemic of long-distance-walking-matches which is now raging with such virulence all over the country, and of the fact that Portsmouth is promised a dose of it, the following extract from the Illustrated London News, giving the views entertained by sensible people in the native land of the prize-fight and the long-distance-walking-match, may be of interest:

We cannot take leave of the subject without expressing an earnest hope that we have seen the last of these painful struggles against nature. It may be an advantage to know that a man can travel 520 miles in 138 hours, and manage to live through a week with an infinitesimal amount of rest, though we fail to perceive that any one could possibly be placed in a position where his ability in this respect would be of real use to him. Still, assuming the knowledge to be useful, we have now seen five or six different men cover upwards of 500 miles in less than six days; so, what is to be gained by a constant repetition of the feat? As long, however, as prizes are offered, so long will men come forward to compete for them; and we suppose the public will continue to flock to these races until a man dies upon the track. Then there will be a sudden revulsion of feeling, a howl of virtuous indignation, and such exhibitions will be sternly repressed. But why not repress them before anything so serious has occurred? We have no hesitation in stating that prize-fighting is mild and humane, compared with such sport (?) as six-day races; and that the one should be rigidly put down and the other encouraged, in the same country, is a gross and glaring inconsistency.

—The Marquis of Lorne has made himself popular with the boys living about the vice-regal residence at Ottawa, by rebuking officious policemen who undertook to drive a batch of them from the pond where he was going to skate, and joining in their sports.

—The Chicago Inter-Ocean finds food for reflection to the extent of three-quarters of a column, in the complex idea that a woman, when abroad in the severest cold weather, never has her ears protected, never slaps them as men do theirs, and yet never apparently gets them frozen.

—The New London Telegram has the following: This story is told of a pair of robins which Lieut. J. C. Shepard once owned and which afterward came into the possession of Col P. W. Hudson of South Manchester. In the early part of last spring a friendship was formed between the male bird and a maseless female robin. The latter made frequent visits to her caged friend, who fed her with the choicest of worms. Finally the male robin's affections were so completely alienated from his mate that he killed her, dragged her body into the bath tub in the cage and covered it with the sticks and shreds given him to make a nest of. After her death the free bird was admitted to the cage and the two mated. Later, both were freed and during the summer they built a nest in a neighboring tree and brooded six young ones.

Hosts of People are Martyrs

To sick headache, that infallible symptom of a disordered stomach, liver and bowels. Many suffer from it as many as three or four times a week. They do so needlessly, for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, by toning the digestive organs and regulating the bowels and liver, removes the cause, and dispels the painful symptom. The intimate sympathy between the brain and the abdominal region causes the slightest disorder affecting the latter to be reflected, as it were, in the organ of thought. The reform instituted by the Bitters when the digestive, secretive and excretive functions are in a state of chaos, has other and more beneficial results, viz., the complete nutrition of the whole physical economy, the restoration of appetite and repose, and an increase in the power of the system to resist diseases of a malarial type.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. tjan1

PATERSON, N. J., April 17, 1877.

DEVOE MANUFACTURING CO.

Gentlemen:—I take great pleasure in sending this unsolicited recommendation of your Kerosene Oil.

At the great fire in this place, which destroyed Norwood's Paint and Oil establishment, and other buildings, on the 13th inst., your Oil stood one of most severe tests that Oil could be put to; for four [4] hours the Oil was in the hottest part of the fire, and such a fire as only Varnish, Turpentine, Oils and Paints can make, and in all that time there was no explosion or your Oil, and the cans containing the Oil were in very near the same condition after the fire as before.

I take great pleasure in recommending this Oil, as in my opinion it is the safest Oil for sale in the market. I remain, very respectfully,

JOHN E. REGNER,
Chief of Fire Department.

The Texas & Pacific Railroad.

Our able correspondent at Washington, D. C., writes:

Congressman Alex. H. Stephens has published a statement in favor of the Texas & Pacific railroad aid bill, and includes in it a severe attack upon the Huntington Southern Pacific ring, who, he asserts, are pretending to be constructing a railroad across the continent for the sole purpose of defeating any and all lines competing with the Central Pacific monopoly, which is really furnishing the money to help Huntington's diversion along. Mr. Stephens charges that the Southern Pacific line will be extended across the continent only so far and for such time as will deceive Congress into refusing aid to any other line, and then turn north to find an outlet somewhere else. The statement sends consternation to the Central Pacific lobby, who are working like beavers to defeat the Texas & Pacific bill now before the Senate. Mr. Stephens is confident that this state of things will arouse the people and Congress to the support of the Texas road, and says that all that is asked is that the government will guarantee the interest on the construction bonds, and in return take back its great land grant, take a mortgage of the whole line and control the affairs of the road for the public interest.

The flag case at Worcester, Mass., which attracted so much attention during the late gubernatorial campaign, has been decided in favor of the Butler colored men, from whom it was replevined just about the time they proposed to raise it in honor of their leader. The court decides that the flag must be returned, and the question of costs is left to be settled hereafter.

PENNSYLVANIA
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.
Tickets for sale at the lowest rates at the Ticket Offices of the Company in all important cities and towns.

THE NEW YORK TIMES
ESTABLISHED 1851.
The position of the foremost republican newspaper in the United States will be sustained by The New York Times by the same policy in virtue of which that position has been attained.
The Times will continue to place fidelity in the interests of the Republican party above the pursuit of personal aims or private ambition, and will steadfastly insist that the usefulness of any party must be measured by the extent of its devotion to the honor and welfare of the country. In the future, as in the past, the attitude of The Times will be that of independence within the Republican Party. The maintenance of the national credit, the purification of the public service; the advocacy of all sensible projects of fiscal reform; rigid economy in public expenditures; opposition to sumptuary and corporate jobbery in all its forms, and the preservation of equal rights to all citizens, North and South, will be the salient points of the policy of The Times.
The Times will continue to be distinguished as an enterprising, accurate, and carefully edited newspaper. The acknowledged excellence and fullness of its correspondence by mail and telegraph, from all parts of the world, will be adequately maintained, and the facilities for collecting domestic and foreign news will be expanded to meet the increasing demands of our time.
In the sphere of literary and artistic criticism, of scientific, social, and general discussion, The Times will address itself, as heretofore, to the appreciation of the educated and intelligent classes of the American people. It will be lively without being sensational, aggressive without being coarse; at all times it will strive to be fearless and independent in the championship of the right. No theories subversive of the principles on which the sacredness of family ties, and the existence of society alike repose will be promulgated in its columns.
The Times rejects all advertisements of lotteries, of quacks and medical pretenders, and of all other agencies by which the insidious poison of vice is disseminated throughout society. It will be in the future, as in the past, a newspaper especially adapted for family reading.
The Weekly Times, containing selected editorials on topics of national and general interest from the columns of the daily issue, as well as a concise summary of political, social, and foreign news, both of other countries and at home, commends it to all classes of readers, is a paper admirably fitted to circulate in every portion of the United States. It will be the aim of its conductors to use every means, not only to maintain its well-earned supremacy, but to make its popularity still more decided.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.
Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Neck, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.
In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets
SIZE OF PELLETS.
THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.
No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved uninjured for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the nasal passages, as recommended by the physicians or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

THE SUN FOR 1879.

THE SUN will be printed every day during the year to come. Its purpose and method will be the same as in the past. To present all the news in a readable shape, and to tell the truth though the heavens fall.

THE SUN has been, is, and will continue to be independent of everybody and everything save the Truth and its own convictions of duty. That is the only policy which an honest newspaper need have. That is the policy which has won for this newspaper the confidence and friendship of a wider constituency than was ever enjoyed by any other American Journal.

THE SUN is the newspaper for the people. It is not for the rich man against the poor man, or for the poor man against the rich man, but it seeks to do equal justice to all interests in the community. It is not the organ of any person, class, sect or party. There need be no mystery about its loves and hates. It is for the honest man against the rogues every time. It is for the honest Democrat as against the dishonest Republican, and for the honest Republican as against the dishonest Democrat. It does not take its cue from the utterances of any politician or political organization. It gives its support unreservedly when men or measures are in agreement with the Constitution and with the principles upon which this Republic was founded for the people. Whenever the Constitution and constitutional principles are violated—as in the outrageous conspiracy of 1876, by which a man not elected was placed in the President's office, where he still remains—it speaks out for the right. That is the true position of independence. In this respect there will be no change in its programme for 1879.

THE SUN has fairly earned the hearty hatred of rascals, frauds, and humbugs of all sorts and sizes. It hopes to deserve that hatred not less in the year 1879, than in 1878, 1877, or any year gone by. THE SUN will continue to shine on the wicked with unmitigated brightness.

While the lessons of the past should be constantly kept before the people, THE SUN does not propose to make itself in 1879 a magazine of ancient history. It is printed for the men and woman of to-day, whose concern is chiefly with the affairs of to-day. It has both the disposition and the ability to afford its readers the prompt-est, fullest, and most accurate intelligence of whatever is the wide world is worth attention. To this end the resources belonging to well-established prosperity will be liberally employed.

The present disjointed condition of parties in this country, and the uncertainty of the future, lend an extraordinary significance to the events of the coming year. The discussions of the press, the debates and acts of Congress, and the movements of the leaders in every section of the Republic will have a direct bearing on the Presidential election of 1880—an event which must be regarded with the most anxious interest by every patriotic American, whatever his political ideas or allegiance. To these elements of interest may be added the probability that the Democratic will control both houses of Congress, the increasing feebleness of the fraudulent Administration, and the spread of a strengthening sentiment everywhere of a healthy abhorrence of fraud in any form. To present with accuracy and clearness the exact situation in each of its varying phases, and to expound, according to its well-known methods, the principles that should guide us through the labyrinth, will be an important part of THE SUN's work for 1879.

We have the means of making THE SUN, as a political, a literary and a general newspaper, more entertaining and more useful than ever before; and we mean to apply them freely.

Our rates of subscription remain unchanged. For the DAILY SUN, a four page sheet of 28 columns, the price by mail, postpaid, is 55 cents a month, or $6.50 a year; or, including the Sunday paper, a eight-page sheet of fifty-six columns, the price is 65 cents a month, $7.70 a year, postage paid.

The Sunday edition of THE SUN is also furnished separately at $1.20 a year, postage paid.

The price of the WEEKLY SUN, eight pages, fifty-six columns, is $1 a year, postage paid. For clubs of ten sending $10 we will send an extra copy free. Address

A Vast Workshop.

Of the great mechanical workshops now in existence there are two which stand pre-eminent, and whose names are familiar throughout the civilized world. We of course refer to the works of Krupp in Prussia and the Creuzot Works of France. We give here a few particulars of the latter concern, the largest in the world. These great works comprise within themselves collieries, blast furnaces, forges, rolling mills, steel works and extensive mechanical workshops, beside an extensive system of railways, connecting the various departments. In addition to the works at Creuzot there are coal and iron mines, bridge and ship-building works, and also ship works at other places owned by the same firm and forming one establishment. Altogether the land occupied at Creuzot and dependencies, amounts to more than a thousand acres besides 1800 acres of agricultural lands owned by Messrs. Schneider & Co., the sole owners of the works. In connection with the concern there are 190 miles of private railway, worked by 27 locomotives and over 1500 wagons. On the 1st of last May the staff included 15,252 persons, as follows: In the collieries 4960; iron mines, 1921; blast furnaces, 734; steel works, 793; forges and rolling mills, 2637; mechanical shops, 2708; railways and miscellaneous, 1449. Total, 15,252.

The products of these works last year amounted to 594,000 tons of coal, 155,000 tons of pig iron, of which 126,000 tons were made into iron and steel, while 25,000 tons of engines and machines were turned out of the mechanical workshops. The raw material used in the same year was of coal, 572,000 tons; coke, 165,000 tons; minerals, 400,000 tons; water, 770,000,000 gallons; gas, 77,680,000 feet. The full capacity of the works is estimated at 700.000 tons of coal, 160,000 tons of wrought iron and steel, and 30,000 tons of engines and machinery.

Is it any cause for surprise to our readers that a work of the above magnitude finds itself requiring a steam hammer that weighs 1282 tons and costing half a million dollars? The anvil of the hammer alone weighs 782 tons. Just contrast the difference between a blow from this hammer and that from the sturdy arm of a village blacksmith. Is it any wonder that such a tool should require a crane capable of handling a weight of 160 tons, or that the workshop in which the hammer works cost a million and a half of dollars? One of the rolling mills at these works covers a space 1247 feet by 328. Add to this the fact that hundreds of powerful steam engines are constantly at work and we have some understanding of the largest concern in the world, and a sample of the magnitude of what the present age can accomplish, for while these works were commenced nearly a century since it is principally within a single generation that they have grown to their present magnitude.

—Theodore Tilton recently sat in the box of an Indianapolis theatre while Bessie Turner acted in "A Celebrated Case."

—A recent writer in the Cornhill Magazine, in discussing plagiarism and the like, would thus turn all literature into an Afghanistan: "In the free field of thought the master thief has a right to his booty." We do not know the name of this great teacher of English ethics, but must he not be the Judicious Hooker?—Saturday Magazine.

Portsmouth Chronicle

SATURDAY, JANUARY 4, 1879.

The Maine Legislature.

On Friday the House voted for two candidates for the Senate to choose a Governor from. The fusionists threw 85 votes for Alonzo Garcelon, democrat, and Joseph L. Smith, repudiationist; the republicans threw 64 votes for Selden Connor and Frederick Robie, both republicans.

The Senate, by a vote of 21 to 10, elected Garcelon, who is the first democrat elected Governor of Maine for twenty years. There is something comical about the election laws of Maine, where the republicans, with a large plurality on the popular vote, a plurality in the House and a majority over all in the Senate, have had to elect the candidate who received the smallest popular vote and who is opposed to them in politics.

Winter Weather.

A cold wave swept over the country from the far west to the Atlantic coast on Thursday. Great interruption to travel was experienced from the cold and snow. In Missouri the thermometer ranged from three to twenty degrees below zero; at Chicago twenty-three below; at Cleveland seven below; at Nashville thirteen below; at Springfield, Ill., twenty below; St. Paul, Minn., thirty below; Detroit, Mich., thirteen below; Yankton, Dakota, twenty-five below. Blockading snowstorms are reported thoroughout the northern States and the British Provinces, and in many places a heavy gale blew at the same time.

Vital Statistics of New York City.

There were 27,005 deaths in New York city last year, as against 26,203 in 1877, phthisis causing the most deaths—4427—and only two resulting from small pox, the smallest number for any year since 1824. Though the number of deaths in '78 was larger than in '77, the list of marriages shows an increase from 7129 in 1877 to 7629 in 1878, and the list of births an increase from 25,569 in 1877 to 25,729 in 1878. One mother bore triplets and 206 gave birth to twins; ten mothers gave birth to their 15th child, four to their 16th and three to their 17th. The death record contains the names of fifteen alleged centenarians, all but three of whom were born in Ireland, and the oldest of whom was Patrick Corrigan, 106.

Our New York Fashion Letter.

NEW YEAR RECEPTIONS.

'Tis common enough to say that "figures don't lie." This certainly, however, cannot apply to New Year's day. Somebody or something in reckoning up the numbers of beaux who called, is responsible for the way in which fives grow into fifties; fifties into five hundreds, and many other kindred performances, and we prefer to think it the fault of the lady's arithmetic, rather than to suppose that she would begin the year by telling fibs. At all events, the New Year's reception is an important affair, the success of which depends much of course on numbers, and therefore such results are not astonishing. Cards are often sent out about ten days in advance. These are in plain script, and do not differ from the visiting card except that in the left hand corner, "January 1st, 1879," is transcribed.

COSTUMES.

But it is with the costume that we have especially to do. Many of these are exceedingly elaborate, but in general, a black or dark colored silk with a soft reching of tulle or lace about the neck is considered sufficiently dressy. Then again, we find New Year's costumes of additional importance from the fact that changes are often made at that time which influence the style of dress during the remainder of the season. This year, however, they are so slight as to amount rather to modifications of what has been seen, rather than to deserve the appellation of novelties. We see the same close corsages, long trains, rounded or square, while on the other hand, some new toilettes show a fullness on the hips, with the panier, which however is more written about than actually worn. Polonaises are not discarded, and in this style, the Renzia has been introduced, while for those who prefer a basque and trimmed skirt, the Varina train may be combined with Marjolaine basque. The Minerva Princess dress is a stylish design recently presented, but as affording variety the Adrienne Princesse costume may be mentioned. For the benefit of ladies who study economy, I may add that a great impetus has of late years been given to the making of dresses at home, by the perfection which has been reached in the devising of patterns, in consequence of which so many difficultities are solved, and the way made plain for professionals. Apropos of this, the Singer sewing machinecompany announce that took taken a gold medal at the recent Paris Exposition, and on other occasions have won the first prize more than two hundred times. Last year its sales were increased by twenty thousand, and this year the advance is estimated at sixty thousand. After the Chicago fire, when the relief committee furnished sewing machines to the needy women of the city, out of three thousand applicants nearly twenty-five hundred chose Singer machines. The strong points are great simplicity, by which it is easily managed, while at the same time it is so strong that it is not readily injured. The wear is even throughout.

RECEPTION TOILETTES.

An elegant reception toilette is of pale blue satin trimmed with white crepe lisse set on inside plaitings, made close corsage, high neck, elbow sleeves, and square train. Satin boots to match the dress, Prevost side buttoned gloves of white kid, ear-rings of carved gold in fan shape with ganteline wrought in similar design, give finish. Another rich toilette was of deep orange green satin combined with pale pink and green brocade. The sleeves reaching to the elbow, were of satin, the basque made Pompadour front, was of the brocade, while the square train made full on the hips was of the brocade. Side buttoned gloves of very pale green, half high shoes of olive green satin, enameled ear-rings, brooch and ganteline gave finish. Mrs. Chas. P. Daly received in a costume of deep green velvet united with pearl colored brocade; Mrs. W. H. Vanderbilt in a seal brown satin combined with Pompadour silk; Mrs. S. L. M. Barlow in a superb garnet velvet, combined with satin of a somewhat lighter shade; Mrs. Lorillard in a toilette of deep blue velvet and pearl grey brocade; Mrs. Roosevelt in a bronze velvet with pale yellow embroidered silk.

COIFFURES.

Chatelaine braids drooping low at the back are very much worn, not only by young ladies, but by matrons, and strange to say, the silliest fashion known—that of "banging" the front hair,—is now also adopted by ladies no longer young. A coil either crimped or braided with short curls attached at the back is often worn high on the head, but remember that long curls are an offence to all beholders, and completely out of vogue. The front hair is twisted, curled, frizzed, waved, and scalloped in so many different ways that I could not begin to tell you the half. In writing of the front hair I decline to state whether it be the lady's by inheritance or purchase. If masculines in their simplicity are deceived, let them remain so. But the sight of a hair dresser's window would incline to the belief that a good many are sold. Who buys them, it would be ill natured in me to say.

HOLIDAY GIFTS.

From a list of prices for holiday gifts, put forth by a holiday house, I quote the following. Garters, $85 and upwards; suspender mountings, $125; a cup and saucer is quoted at $50, and a single decanter (glass) at $300. A pair of vases on exhibition is valued at $10,000.

LUCY CARTER.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2d.

Caleb Cushing.

Hon. Caleb Cushing died at Newburyport on Thursday evening at 11:14 o'clock, at the age of seventy-nine years. He graduated at Harvard at the age of seventeen years, was a tutor in the university for two years after, and then studied law at Newburyport. He was the first mayor of Newburyport, (in 1850,) served many terms in the Massachusetts legislature, and four terms in Congress; was United States Commissioner to China, and negotiated our first treaty with that country; was justice of the supreme court of Massachsetts, U. S. Attorney General under Frank Pierce, and recently Minister to Spain. He was a whig up to the time of John Tyler's defection, when he became a democrat, and acted with that party up to and after the breaking out of the civil war. He is said to have written the platform of the Charleston convention which nominated Breckinbridge. He was in full sympathy with the south for some months after the breaking out of the war between the States, and became so unpopular in Newburyport that he believed he would be mobbed. Finding that he had espoused the wrong side of the question he proposed to raise a regiment in eastern Massachusetts; but his proposal was declined by Lincoln. He had a military experience, having gone to Mexico as colonel of a regiment, raised in Massachusetts largely by his own means. Recently he has been a republican, and much of the time since the war has practised law in Washington, between which city and Newburyport he divided his life. He had wide reputation as a constitutional and international lawyer, and made money in his profession. He has published a number of works, and was always an untiring student.

News and Notes.

John Clifford seriously stabbed a young man named McKnight at a New Year ball in New York, and Clifford was fatally shot while subsequently trying to escape.

Two men were taken to McMinnville, Tenn., Dec. 21st, heavily guarded, and lodged in jail, charged with murder during the war. They belonged to Tinker Davis' command, and killed a man named Baker in Cumberland county. Baker's son was a child when his father was killed, and having attained manhood's estate he intends to see his father's murderers punished.

A 38-ton gun recently burst during practice on the British man-of-war Thunderer. The vessel's turret was destroyed, seven men killed and forty wounded.

On Thursday afternoon ten convicts in the penitentiary at Dubuque, Iowa, broke out of the stone-cutters' shed and made a desperate effort for liberty, the yard being enclosed only by a board stockade. One convict was shot dead by the guard and another was shot through the bowels and will die. The remainder escaped from the yard. Two were shot by guards, both dropping with a broken leg. Five others were soon recaptured, only one gaining his liberty.

A daring robbery was effected in the government printing office at Washington on Thursday, when two men succeeded in getting away with $8200.

Dr. Charles Carroll O'Donnell is a member of the California Constitutional Convention, in which body he strongly advocated the most rigorous measures against newspapers. Charles Carroll O'Donnell is from Baltimore, Md., and claims to be a descendent of Charles Carroll of Carrollton. The San Francisco Chronicle accused him of being a criminal of a very deep dye, and of having boasted that he had, while a surgeon in the confederate army, needlessly cut off the legs of captured union soldiers in order to prevent the captives from ever afterward serving in the army. O'Donnell prosecuted the Chronicle for libel, and the case has been partly heard. The plaintiff went on the stand, and his own evidence was more than sufficient to establish the authenticity of the accusations. He begged the court, in a pitiable manner, to protect him from being made to tell the truth about himself, but the request was denied. The Chronicle proved in court that he had falsely represented himself as a graduate of a medical college, and that he had been three times arrested for malpractice. Charles Carroll O'Donnell will not institute another libel suit in a hurry.

The fastest train in England is the "Flying Dutchman," a Great Western train which makes the 77 miles from London to Swindon in 87 minutes, or at the rate of 53 miles an hour. But the Pennsylvania railroad runs a train that rivals it. It covers 99 miles from Jersey City to Philadelphia in 110 minutes; from New Brunswick to Trenton, 26 miles in 27 minutes; from Millstone Junction to Deans, 5.66 miles in 6 minutes. There is one stretch of three miles that it makes in 163 seconds—less than 2 3-4 minutes.

Reports received at the Navy Department at Washington state that the recent successful trial of the U. S. ship Richmond from Boston to New York showed her capable of a speed of ten knots, one knot more than her previous performance. She now has a screw propeller of four blades, designed by the bureau of steam engineering, this having taken the place of the former two-bladed screw. Ten knots can undoubtedly be exceeded as her machinery becomes better fitted for higher speed.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder on the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes us, although she has to pay a few cents less more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. disep1t79

THE CITY.

A number of the workmen's noses, ears and finger-ends were frozen when they were crossing the river to and from the navy yard, Friday morning and evening.

The schooner Free Wind, of this port, Frisbee master, now discharging her last cargo for the season at Jamestown, near Newport, R. I., will lay up for the winter at the latter port.

The Concord railroad will sell tickets from this city to Concord and return at reduced rates, during the session of the State Musical Festival at Concord, from Jan. 28th to the 31st, inclusive.

A petition has been numerously signed by the merchants, ship-owners and business men of our city, urging the necessity of Congress prohibiting a combination of the Pacific railroad companies with the Pacific Mail Co., under which enormous charges are likely to be made for transporting freight to San Francisco.

Chesley J. Willey, who was committed to jail early last month on a charge of unlawfully voting for a candidate for Congress at the November election, being then unable to find sureties, was admitted to bail before U. S. Commissioner Hackett on Friday, Messrs. L. Pitman and Freeman H. Mason of North Conway becoming his sureties.

To-day's exhibition will end the display of Maynard's Spectacular Illuminations in this city, and we advise all who wish to enjoy a really beautiful and instructive show to attend. At the afternoon exhibition the price of admission will be ten cents to all parts of the hall, and the views presented will be of especial interest to pupils in the public schools, and other young people. In the evening Rome and other Italian cities will be illustrated, and the last half hour of the exhibition devoted to statuary and paintings; this will be one of the most interesting of the very interesting series of entertainments. See advertisement.

Boston has left off ringing its nine o'clock P. M. bell; why it has been rung so long no one knews; once it was an established signal for the town to retire, but the city has outgrown that surveillance. We know of no use in keeping up this old custom in Portsmouth. What is more ridiculously annoying than to hear in the most artistic and tender portions of a concert, or in the pathetic part of a play, the ding-dong of the North church bell? Who there is that finds a comfort in this stated ringing we know not, but think a vast majority would be found to advocate the abolition of the custom, which to many persons, sick and well, is a source of annoyance.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The annual meeting of the Rockingham Mutual Relief Association was held in Masonic hall on Friday evening, and the following officers elected:

William P. Walker, President;
John H. Cheever, Vice President;
William H. Sise, Treasurer:
Amos S. Foster, Secretary.
William A. Ashe, John H. Lowd and William F. Batten, Auditing Committee.

From the secretary's report it appears that seventeen persons joined during the year just ended; four members were dropped, and three died, the latter being John Stokell and Charles C. Akerman of this city, and Frederick Hazelwood of Epping. The total number of members in the association at the end of the year was three hundred and thirty-one.

CITY COUNCILS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Thursday evening, Mayor Sise in the chair:

Communication from Mr. Loyne, volunteer missionary, giving a monthly statement of his doings, was received and accepted.

Application of Rev. J. Pollard for use of south wardroom was referred to committee on city lands and buildings, with power.

Reading of the reports of the chief engineer of the fire department was postponed until next meeting of the Board.

Voted, that the time for making a personal examination of the new highway asked for by Edward J. Clough be left with the mayor.

Committee on schoolrooms reported that the application of Mr. A. C. Hoyt to have a partition erected in one of the rooms of the Bartlett schoolhouse be laid on the table. Report accepted and adopted.

Same committee reported in the matter of the division of the room occupied by Mr. Kidder in the Cabot street schoolhouse, recommending that the Board of Instruction make some arrangements with Mr. Moses, the lessee of the schoolhouse on State street now occupied by Miss Chesley. Report accepted and adopted.

THE COCHECO MILLS FIRE.

The following letter from the secretary of the Manufacturers' Mutual Fire Ins. Co., of Boston, to the editor of the Boston Advertiser, under date of Dec. 31st, 1878, explains itself:

Incorrect reports of the recent fire at the Cocheco Manufacturing Company's print works having appeared in several papers, I think it right to state that, in the opinion of the insurers, the company's fire department was well organized and managed, and showed great efficiency, full streams of water having been put upon the fire in from six to ten minutes after the first alarm, and the fire held midway in the building, a large part of which contained much combustible material. Respectfully yours,

WILLIAM B. WHITING, Secretary.

Prizes for York County Farmers' Boys.

Hon. Stillman B. Allen, formerly of Kittery, now a leading lawyer of Boston, having an evident earnest desire to encourage farmers' boys, makes the following offers of prizes to boys in York county, Maine, of sixteen years of age and under:

To the boy who shall raise the most Indian corn on one-eighth of an acre of land in the year 1879, one hundred dollars. To the boy who shall raise the next largest quantity, fifty dollars. And to the five boys who shall raise the next largest quantity, ten dollars each. The awards will be made subject to the following conditions:

1st—Every contestant must have resided in York county at least two years, and be under seventeen years of age on June 1st, 1879.

2d—All entries must be made and communicated to the President of the York County Agricultural Society on or before May 1, 1879.

3d—The land shall be measured by some person appointed for that purpose by the President of said Society, during the summer of 1879. The corn may grow to the edge of line, but in no case beyond it.

4th—The land may be of any shape, but not less than two rods wide.

5th—The contestant must do all the work in raising the corn, except that he may have some one to drive the oxen or horse in plowing and cultivating.

6th—The contestant may use as much and any kind of manure, as he please; and may hoe the corn as many times as, and when he chooses.

7th—The corn is to be measured under the direction of the President of said Society.

8th—At the end of the season, each contestant shall make and sign a full report, giving shape, description and location of land, when plowed, when and how manured, when planed, when and how many times hoed, when stalks were topped if at all, when harvested and how much is raised, and nearly as can be estimated the value of manure and number of days labor spent upon the crop, excluding the husking when he may have all the help he wants from the boys and girls in the neighborhood.

9th—All awards to be made by the President of said Society at the end of the season, and his decision shall be final.

The Saco Independent calls the life-saving crew at Biddeford Pool sharply to task. It charges that at two wrecks which have lately occurred all the assistance rendered from the shore was by citizens, and that the life-saving crew were conspicuous only by their absence.

Hosts of People are Martyrs

To sick headache, that infallible symptom of a disordered stomach, liver and bowels. Many suffer from it as many as three or four times a week. They do so needlessly, for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, by toning the digestive organs and regulating the bowels and liver, removes the cause, and dispels the painful symptom. The intimate sympathy between the brain and the abdominal region causes the slightest disorder affecting the latter to be reflected, as it were, in the organ of thought. The reform instituted by the Bitters when the digestive, secretive and evacuative functions are in a state of chaos, has other and more beneficial results, viz., the complete nutrition of the whole physical economy, the restoration of appetite and repose, and an increase in the power of the system to resist diseases of a malarial type.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. tjanl

Colds are flying about in the air thicker than flakes in a snow storm—everybody is catching them, yet everybody knows, or ought to know, that Adamson's Balsam is warranted to cure colds and coughs and all diseases of the throat and lungs.

Reflect that in every cemetery ¼ of the silent tenants are the victims of neglected Coughs and Cold; and if you are thus afflicted, avoid their fate by resorting at once to Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar, an immediate, agreeable, and certain means of cure. Sold by all Druggists. tfebl

PATERSON, N. J., April 17, 1877.

DEVOE MANUFACTURING CO.

Gentlemen:—I take great pleasure in sending this unsolicited recommendation of your Kerosene Oil.

At the great fire in this place, which destroyed Norwood's Paint and Oil establishment, and other buildings, on the 12th inst., your Oil stood one of most severe tests that Oil could be put to; for four [4] hours the Oil was in the hottest part of the fire, and such a fire as only Varnish, Turpentine, Oils and Paints can make, and in all that time there was no explosion of your Oil, and the cans containing the Oil were in very near the same condition after the fire as before.

I take great pleasure in recommending this Oil, as in my opinion it is the safest Oil for sale in the market. I remain, very respectfully,

JOHN E. REGNER,
Chief of Fire Department.

RAYMOND.

Many country schools have so few scholars, that they can hardly be made interesting, especially as classes will be too small. It was very gratifying to find in District No. Three in this town a good number, about forty. It was the examination at the close of the term. Miss Alice S. Nichols of Epping was the teacher, and but few that I have seen evinced more capability in the important work. There was readiness not only to ask the right questions, but to illustrate and have everything well understood. Rev. J. Fullonton read the following, prepared for the occasion:

I saw a grand and glorious sight,
'Twas not the sun at noonday bright;
Nor silvery moon that shines from far,
Nor morning bright, nor evening star.

'Twas not a cataract's loud roar,
Nor waves that break on inland shore;
Nor yet sweet flowers in lovely dune,
In beauty's form with rich perfume.

'Twas not an army well arrayed,
With bristling bayonets round each head;
'Twas not a maid in rich attire,
When wedded to her heart's desire.

'Twas not some vast cathedral dome,
In Europe's land, nor church at home;
Nor palace grand where nobles live,
And earth's high honors free receive.

You'll ask me what this sight could be?
'Tis Raymond school in Number Three;
Made up of tender, lovely youth,
Loved children with the brow of truth.

I see here workmanship divine,
A marvelous lady, wondrous mind;
The human mind, who can it scan?
It is the mind that makes the man.

The teacher comes with winning grace,
To lead in Knowledge's path apace;
She says, "see Science's towering hill,
I'll lead you up, I will, I will."

Young friends, seek knowledge more'n gold,
Its real worth cannot be told;
Find wisdom's path the good have trod,
It leads to peace, to heaven and God.

New Hampshire Items.

On Thursday Hon. George W. Nesmith of Franklin was chosen temporary president of the Northern railroad, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. Onslow Stearns.

Miss Jenness of Pembroke, sister of the late Mrs. Betsey Whitehouse, who bequeathed $75,000 to the New Hampshire Bible Society, observed Christmas day by presenting two of her nephews, Mr. Henry Dearborn and Mr. Cilley, $25,000 each.

The democratic New Orleans Times calls attention almost daily to savage assaults, shootings and homicides in that city where the perpetrators escape punishment. It asks the democratic officials of the city how much longer these things are to continue.

In Cincinnati a democratic club has been formed to reform city politics. At the first ballot for the election of officers sixty-two democratic reformers cast eighty-seven ballots.

—"Pants for $5!" said a seedy-looking man, reading the sign in the window of a clothing store he was passing—"so do I. I never panted so for $5 in all my life."

—Every one is familiar with that form of lunacy where the patient insists on believing that he is a millionaire or an emperor, a something especially grand and glorious. "How is old Langtime?" said some one, the other day, meeting a country doctor. "Poor fellow, his reason has given way; hopeless, hopeless!" "Indeed!" "Yes, indeed. He's mad on the subject of earthly honors—thinks he's a member of the village council."

—Proof that Abraham Lincoln was, in 1858, a railroad deadhead, exists in the following letter written by him, on file in the Chicago and Alton company's office:—"Says Sam to John, 'Here's your old rotten wheelbarrow. I've broke it usin' on it. I wish you would take it and mend it, case I shall want to borrow it this afternoon.' Acting on this as a precedent, here's your fold 'chalked hat.' I wish you would take it and send me a new one." What Lincoln wanted was a renewal of his annual pass.

—Edison's sister tells a good story of Edison's boyhood. "He tried to set on eggs," she said. "What's that? How? What do you mean?" inquired the listener. "Why he was about six, I should think, and he found out how the goose was setting, and then saw what the surprising result was. One day we missed him, called, sent messengers, couldn't find him anywhere. By and by, don't you think, father found him curled up in a nest he had made in the hay and filled with goose and hen's eggs—actually sitting on the eggs and trying to hatch them!"

THE NEW YORK TIMES
ESTABLISHED 1851.
The position of the foremost republican newspaper in the United States will be sustained by The New York Times by the same policy in virtue of which that position has been attained.
The Times will continue to place fidelity in the interests of the Republican Party above the pursuit of personal aims or private ambition, and will steadfastly insist that the usefulness of any party must be measured by the extent of its devotion to the honor and welfare of the country. In the future, as in the past, the attitude of The Times will be that of independence within the Republican Party. The maintenance of the national credit, the purification of the public service; the advocacy of all seasonable projects of fiscal reform; rigid economy in public expenditure; opposition to subsidies and corporate jobbery in all its forms, and the preservation of equal rights to all citizens, North and South, will be the salient points of the policy of The Times.
The Times will continue to be distinguished, as an enterprising, accurate, and carefully edited newspaper. The acknowledged excellence and fulness of its correspondence by mail and telegraph, from all parts of the world, will be adequately maintained, and its facilities for collecting domestic and foreign news will be expanded to meet the increasing demands of our time.
In the sphere of literary and artistic criticism, of scientific, social, and general discussion, The Times will address itself, as heretofore, to the appreciation of the educated and intelligent classes of the American people. It will be lively without being sensational, aggressive without being coarse; and all times it will strive to be fearless and independent in the championship of the right. No theories subversive of the principles on which the sacredness of family ties and the existence of society alike repose will be promulgated in its columns.
The Times rejects all advertisements of lotteries, of quacks and medical pretenders, and of all other agencies by which the malfeasance of vice is sanctioned throughout society. It will be in the future, as in the past, a newspaper especially adapted for family reading.
The Weekly Times, containing selected editorials on topics of national and general interest from the columns of the daily issue, as well as a concise summary of political, social, and foreign news, besides other features which recommend it to all classes of readers, is a paper admirably fitted to circulate in every portion of the United States. It will be the aim of its conductors to use every means, not only to maintain its well-earned supremacy, but to make its popularity still more decided.

SIZE OF PELLETS.
THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.
No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of chalk, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets contain a larger than mustard seed.
Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sensitive impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

CATARRH
SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and spitting to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired hearing, perception of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, enlarged tonsils, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.
DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY
produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter how long standing. The liquid remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. Patrick's nasal syringe. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which liquid medicine can be carried, thick, CLEAR AND PERFECTLY AGAINST to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the common catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Improved Nasal Syringe, $1. Sold by druggists.

THE SUN FOR 1879.

THE SUN will be printed every day during the year to come. Its purpose and method will be the same as in the past. To tell the whole news in a readable shape, and to tell the truth though the heavens fall.

THE SUN has been, is, and will continue to be independent of everybody and everything save the Truth and its own convictions of duty. That is the only policy which an honest newspaper need have. That is the policy which has won for this newspaper the confidence and friendship of a wider constituency than was ever enjoyed by any other American Journal.

THE SUN is the newspaper for the people. It is not for the rich man against the poor man, or for the poor man against the rich man, but it seeks to do equal justice to all interests in the community. It is not the organ of any person, class, sect or party. There need be no mystery about its loves and hates. It is for the honest man against the rogues every time. It is for the honest Democrat as against the dishonest Republican, and for the honest Republican against the dishonest Democrat. It does not take its cue from the utterances of any politician or political organization. It gives its support unreservedly when men or measures are in agreement with the Constitution and with the principles upon which this Republic was founded for the people. Whenever the Constitution and constitutional principles are violated—as in the outrageous conspiracy of 1876, by which a man not elected was placed in the President's office, where he still remains—it speaks out for the right. That is THE SUN'S notion of independence. In this respect there will be no change in its programme for 1879.

THE SUN has fairly earned the hearty hatred of rascals, frauds, and humbugs of all sorts and sizes. It hopes to deserve that hatred not less in the year 1879, than in 1878, 1877, or any year gone by. THE SUN will continue to shine on the wicked with unmitigated brightness.

While the lessons of the past should be constantly kept before the people, THE SUN does not propose to make itself in 1879 a magazine of ancient history. It is printed for the men and women of to-day, whose concern is chiefly with the affairs of to-day. It has both the disposition and the ability to afford its readers the prompt-est, fullest, and most accurate intelligence of whatever in the wide world is worth attention. To this end the resources belonging to well-established prosperity will be liberally employed.

The present disjointed condition of parties in this country, and the uncertainty of the future, lend an extraordinary importance to the events of the coming year. The discussions of the Press, the debates and acts of Congress, and the movements of the leaders in every section of the Republic will have a direct bearing on the Presidential election of 1880—an event which must be regarded with the most anxious interest by every patriotic American, whatever his political ideas or allegiance. To these elements of interest may be added the probability that the Democrats will control both houses of Congress, the increasing feebleness of the fraudulent Administration, and the spread and strengthening everywhere of a healthy abhorrence of fraud in any form. To present with promptness and clearness the exact situation in each of its varying phases, and to expound, according to its well-known methods, the principles that should guide us through the labyrinth, will be an important part of THE SUN'S work for 1879.

We have the means of making THE SUN, as a political, a literary and a general newspaper, more entertaining and more useful than ever before; and we will employ them freely.

Our rates of subscription remain unchanged. For the DAILY SUN, a four page sheet of 28 columns, the price by mail, postpaid, is 55 cents a month, or $6.50 a year; or, including the Sunday paper, an eight pages sheet of fifty-six columns, the price is 65 cents a month, $7.70 a year, postage paid.

The Sunday edition of THE SUN is also furnished separately at $1.20 a year, postage paid.

Chronicle Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 2d, 1879.

The Blaine investigating committee has finally decided to send a sub-committee south, and New Orleans is made the first objective point. This committee work was laid out after a contest in committee, the democratic members of which proposed to delay action, first, by objecting to the use of the $20,000 fund upon which the investigation depended; and second, by urging the necessity of attending to other legislative work first. The republican members, however, were for immediate action, and voted to proceed, (to use the language of Senator Kirkwood) as soon as they could pack their shirts. News is received from U. S. Attorney Leonard of Louisiana that he is gathering evidence for the committee as rapidly as possible, but that all sorts of impediments are thrown in his way; and his friends assert that his life is in danger from those who fear the results of this investigation, or criminal prosecution.

A "movement" has been started, by what influence is not to me known, in favor of the United States government erecting habitations or palaces for its cabinet officers similar to the White House; and of each State erecting houses here for its Senators, of a like character. This idea is modelled after European nations, and has a foothold among a certain class who are eternally yearning after systems that are not our own, and calling them "reforms" indiscriminately. It is not likely to be adopted very soon.

Gen. Sheridan has telegraphed here that his response to Sec. Schurz' demand for specifications to sustain his charges of inefficiency, corruption and extravagance in the Indian service is ready and on the way to Washington. A good deal of curiosity is felt to see what the gallant Phil has to say, and it is undeniable that the Indian bureau is not easy in anticipation of the proposed raid of the Lieut. General.

New Year's day was observed very generally, and with more spirit even than in better times. There seems to be no lack of money for holiday purposes, however commercial affairs may be straitened for means. Everybody seemed to be "receiving," and more than everybody must have been calling, from the lively appearance of Washington. KNOX.

—Not only does the Princess Louise walk more than drive around Ottawa, but the other day she actually went into a tin shop and bought a little tin tea-pot. The loyal inhabitants of Ottawa are consequently in a state of blissful exhilaration.

—Mr. Joseph Sabin, the well-known bibliophile of New York, made an estimate of the value of the library of Mr. Irving Browne of Albany, before it was sold by auction in that city. Mr. Sabin made the value $11,170; the books were sold for $11,180.

Portsmouth Chronicle

MONDAY, JANUARY 6, 1879.

News and Notes.

Gardner C. Tingley, of North Attleboro, Mass., on Friday night cut his wife's throat with a razor, nearly severing her head from her body. His wife was unwell and he out of work and despondent, having three children to care for besides himself and wife. He brought his mother from Wrentham, where she lives, and in the evening rose up smiling, kissed his mother, wife and children, and told them that he was going to kill them all. His mother ran out for help, taking the children with her, but before help arrived his wife was dead. Tingley then cut his own throat and gashed his arm in three places, but did not sever any important artery. He was probably insane. Neither Tingley nor his wife had reached the age of thirty years.

At Hingham, Mass., Friday night, the public library building, which cost $15,000 about ten years ago and was a present to the town from the late Hon. Albert Fearing, was burned, with the library and mails, the post office being in the lower story. Loss over $30,000; insurance $21,500.

Chicago had a big fire Saturday afternoon, when the Honore block was destroyed. Loss over $600,000.

On Saturday, the Secretary of the Treasury issued the first call of the year for bonds, consols of 1867, to the amount of $10,000,000.

Noah Williams and "Modoc" Gainey, of Green county, Ind., visited Oaktown, forty miles south of Terre Haute, Thursday night, to rob the store of Watts Bond. The citizens of Oaktown, apprised of their coming, awaited them in a liquor saloon near Bond's store, the lights being put out. The burglars went first to the saloon to get liquor, when the citizens opened fire, which was returned by the thieves. Williams was killed and Gainey mortally wounded. One citizen was hurt slightly. A fine set of burglar's tools was captured.

Manila advices state that the gunboat Ashuelot is at Manila to protect the United States vice-consul there, who has taken charge of the steward of the bark Masonic for murdering Capt. Kilman of that vessel. Spanish officials of Manila showed an unfriendly disposition in the matter.

The following particulars of the disaster on board a British ironclad in Turkish waters are given: "One of the thirty-eight-ton guns of the turret ship Thunderer burst on the morning of Jan. 2d, killing Lieuts. Coker and Daniel, two petty officers, four seamen and a marine. The gun burst just in front of the trunnions, the muzzle blowing overboard. The gun had just been fired with a battering charge, but when it burst it was loaded with a full charge and empty shell. A boatswain and thirty-two seamen were wounded, twelve very badly. The turret is disabled, but the ship otherwise uninjured."

An old lady named Neal, seventy-five years of age, was burned to death in her house at Walpole, Mass., Friday.

Five hundred and thirty-six vessels belonging to or bound to or from the United States were lost during the year 1878. The value of the last vessels of every class was $9,462,000.

A tipsy man in Lee, Mass., on his way home on Christmas night, fell from the railroad bridge to the ice below, a distance of about twelve feet, and broke through the ice and disappeared in the river. A companion hurried back to the depot for help, but when the rescuers arrived only his hat could be found. Hooks were procured at the mill and the body grappled after for some time without avail, and a man went to notify the widow of her loss. To his surprise he found the old chap at home drying his clothes by the fire. He had crawled out while his companion was getting help.

A very sad case of affliction is that of the family of Mr. Charles Morse of Plainfield, Vt., seven of his ten children having died of diphtheria within two weeks, their ages ranging from one to thirteen years. They were obliged to bury them without any ceremony, except a prayer at the time the first two were buried. The disease is reported to have been taken from some clothes that were given to the children by a friend who recently lost two children by diphtheria.

The Portland Argus says the Sullivan Mining Company, whose headquarters are Boston, has decided to establish a concentrating mill in Portland, to which eight mining companies, five in Maine and three in New Hampshire, will send ore as soon as the machinery is in running order. The mill and machinery are expected to cost from $15,000 to $20,000, and parties are now considering which of three buildings and lots now offered will best serve the purpose of the company.

New Hampshire Items.

An interesting event in Salem recently was the marriage of the twin daughters of Mr. Wm. Colby, Ida D. and Ada D., the first to Mr. Wallace W. Cole, of West Boxford, the latter to Mr. Charles A. Dow, of Windham. Rev. C. W. Dinsmore officiated. The brides were attired exactly alike, and looked so much alike that a brother of one of the gentlemen said he could not tell which was his new sister-in-law. A large gathering of family connections was present, and many valuable tokens of esteem were given to both couples.

The New Hampshire State Musical Festival will hold its sixteenth annual session in Concord Jan. 28th, 29th, 30th and 31st, with Joseph P. Cobb as conductor and Mrs. Martha Dana Shepard as accompanist, and a large array of soloists.

Mr. E. Jones of Barnstead has in his possession an old-fashioned flint-lock musket which has been in the family for seven generations. It was first owned by one Nathan Tibbetts, an English soldier, who, in battle before the Revolution, wrenched it from an enemy. It was used in the Revolution, through the Indian wars previous, and in the war of 1812.

Naval Matters.

The Marion was at Madeira Nov. 30th, on her way home.

The board of education of New York city has decided to appoint Commander Henry Erben to command the State school ship St. Marys.

Lieut. F. Augustus Miller is ordered to the Ticonderoga, and left per steamship Illinois from Philadelphia on the 2d inst.

Gunner Thomas H. Fortune is detached from the Plymouth, and granted sick leave. Acting Gunner P. Lynch is detached from the Franklin and ordered to the Plymouth.

Rear Admiral Leroy is detached from the European station and ordered home. Capt. Davis, commanding the Trenton, is in charge of the station.

Commander John A. Howell has been ordered to report at the Naval Academy as senior member of a board for testing night signals, in place of Commander William T. Sampson, detached.

A bill passed by the House of Representatives Dec. 13th amends the appropriation act of May 18th, 1872, so as to include, in the settlement therein provided for, accounts for services of government laborers, workmen and mechanics, including watchmen and shipkeepers, for deduction in pay on account of the eight hour law.

A bill is now before Congress giving assimilated rank to warrant officers of the navy, namely: "boatswains, gunners, carpenters and sailmakers, shall rank as follows: to rank with, but after ensigns, but with no additional right to other quarters than those now occupied by them; and when retired after good and faithful service, to rank with masters on the retired list. Sec. 2. That this act is not to be construed as to affect the present rate of pay of the above mentioned officers, as they are not in the line of promotion, only as provided in this act."

Insects on House Plants.

The principal insects troubling house plants are the green fly, the mealy bug, the scale and the red spider. The most effectual remedy for the green fly is fumigation with tobacco. Some wooded plants—such as heliotropes, salvias, etc.—will not bear fumigation without injury to the leaves, and for these a weak solution of tobacco is quite as effectual. Steep some tobacco in water and sprinkle the plant with the solution, and afterwards syringe with clean water. Mealy bug is to be searched for and destroyed. Frequent sponging do much to keep down this pest. Scale is to be treated in the same way. Warm soap-suds are peculiarly distasteful to this little creature. A little turpentine diluted with water (one part to sixteen) will destroy the mealy bug. Alcohol, applied with a camel's hair brush, will kill any insect it touches. Plants treated with these remedies must be syringed with clear water immediately thereafter. White hellebore (to be obtained at the drug store) is infallible. It can be put in water and applied through a watering pot, or put in two or three thicknesses of gauze and shake the hellebore under and over the plants while they are wet. Red spider, which is seldom found on house plants, is nourished by a dry, warm atmosphere. It is a very small insect, first appearing on the under side of the leaves; and though difficult to see, its effects are quickly noticeable, by the browned appearance of the leaves. It yields readily to moisture. Water is certain death. Keep the foliage syringed and atmosphere moist and you will have no red spider. To kill white worms in flower-pots, take common lime, dissolve it, and pour the liquid on the soil. It does not injure the plants at all.—American Cultivator.

Things Worth Knowing.

It is worth knowing that fish may be scaled much easier by dipping into boiling water about a minute. That salt fish are quickest and best freshened by soaking in sour milk. That salt will curdle new milk; hence, in preparing milk porridge, gravies, etc., the salt should not be added until the dish is prepared. That clear, boiling water will remove tea stains and many fruit stains; pour the water through the stain and thus prevent it spreading over the fabric. That ripe tomatoes will remove ink and other stains from white cloth; also from the hands. That a teaspoonful of turpentine boiled with your white clothes will aid the whitening process. That boiled starch is much improved by the addition of a little sperm, or a little salt, or both, or a little gum arabic dissolved. That beeswax and salt will make your flatirons as smooth and clean as glass; tie a lump of wax in a rag, and keep it for that purpose; when the irons are hot rub them first with the wax rag, then scour with a paper or cloth sprinkled with salt. That kerosene will soften boots or shoes which have been hardened by water, and render them as pliable as new. That kerosene will make tin teakettles as bright as new; saturate a woolen rag and rub them with. It will also remove stains from cleaned varnished furniture.

Hosts of People are Martyrs

To sick headache, that infallible symptom of a disordered stomach, liver and bowels. Many suffer from it as many as three or four times a week. They do so needlessly, for Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, by toning the digestive organs and regulating the bowels and liver, removes the cause, and dispels the painful symptom. The intimate sympathy between the brain and the abdominal region causes the slightest disorder affecting the latter to be reflected, as it were, in the organ of thought. The reform instituted by the Bitters when the digestive, secretive and evacuative functions are in a state of chaos, has other and more beneficial results, viz., the complete nutrition of the whole physical economy, the restoration of appetite and repose, and an increase in the power of the system to resist diseases of a malarial type.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. tjanl

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder tin the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes thus, although she has to pay a few cents more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsept10 79

THE CITY.

"The Times says: "Mr. Henry L. Harlow, who journeyed to Europe some months ago, has returned and is now in Chicago."

Mr. J. M. Driscoll of Portland will at one o'clock this afternoon start on his attempt to walk 400 miles in 130 hours, at Franklin hall.

The blow of Friday night was the heaviest one of the winter. The barometer shortly after midnight was down to 28.7 inches, the lowest point it has reached here for years.

Mr. H. W. Maynard, the popular advance agent for J. C. Myers' New York Combination, was in this city Saturday making arrangements for the presentation at Music hall next Friday evening of the great play "Rose Michel," with Dollie Bidwell in the title role. The advertisement will be found in another column.

While New York harbor is full of ice, we would call the attention of the navy department to the fact that not a particle of ice is in the Piscataqua river; and that if any ship is needed to be sent home from southern latitudes, if the weather is now cold enough to permit the Kittery authorities to allow the vessel to come to the navy yard there will be no ice to prevent it.

The first sleighing of the season caused the appearance of many fine turnouts in our streets on Saturday. Among the most noticeable were the pair of clipped blacks diven by Capt. F. W. Hilton, a smart stepper by Col. Chas. A. Sinclair, and the establishment of W. F. Putnam of Exeter. The best sleighing was found in town, the roads beyond the thickly settled part of the city being badly drifted.

The roads in many places in this vicinity were badly blocked with snow-drifts, Saturday. A gentleman of this city who started for Rye was compelled to return without reaching his destination, on that account. A gentleman from Greenland reported the traveling very fair between that town and Portsmouth. The roads in York county, Me., were in a very bad condition, and in some places were quite impassable.

It is said that the new inquisitorial tax law, the questions under the authority of which have been issued, has caused a lively demand for government bonds, and a general looking around among capitalists and others to see how it affects them in regard to the interesting statistics of their property they are so soon to submit for the examination of assessors of taxes. The law will not be popular with everybody.

"May Fiske's Blondes" gave an entertainment in Music hall Friday evening, to the smallest audience yet gathered there —about seventy-five persons all told. An indiscreet young gentleman who went, and who informs us that he had the gallery entirely to himself until about ten minutes to eight o'clock, when a dozen or two of fishermen from some of the schooners came in, says the show was "a good one of the kind."

Among the walkists entered for the New England amateur ten-mile championship, the contest for which is to take place Jan. 14th in the Mechanics' Fair building at Boston, is a Portsmouth pedestrian, who is thus described by the Boston Herald: "Charles G. Locke, of Portsmouth, N. H., stands six feet two inches in his stockings, and recently accomplished a forty-mile stretch in his native city, making his thirty-eighth mile in eight minutes."

Wednesday evening, at Music hall, the Martinez English Opera Co. will present Auber's beautiful and popular opera "Fra Diavolo," in the Rockingham Course of Entertainments. Mrs. Flora E. Barry and Miss Matte Lancaster are of the company. Tickets for the remainder of the course, (four entertainments, including a concert by the famous Swedish Lady Quartette and other noted musicians,) $1.50; reserved seats for Wednesday evening, 50 cents; admission 35 cents.

The United States steam-tug Leyden, which has been undergoing repairs at the Charlestown, Mass., dry dock, left Boston for this port on Friday, and arrived at the navy yard on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. Lieut. William A. Morgan, with a crew of seventeen men, brought her around; her officers returned to Boston the same day, but the crew will remain in her, as she is to be attached to this navy yard as a tug, and for wrecking duty if required.

At the annual meeting of the Rockingham Masonic Mutual Relief Association last week, two members from Epping were added to the Board of Directors, and one from Kittery.

The Journal says: "The frigate Ticonderoga arrived at Madeira on the 25th from this port via Norfolk. Also at Funchal on the 27th." Where is Funchal now, anyway? It used to be in Madeira.

Capt. McFadden, of the brig Clara J. Adams, denies in a recent letter that the report of a disaster to his vessel was correct. The captain says that he did not have a hogshead of water on deck at any time during the passage. Splitting an old jib was all the damage sustained.

We clip the following from an exchange: "In Washington on New Year's day New Hampshire had its headquarters at the hospitable home of Thomas L. Tullock, where Mrs. Tullock was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Ex-Senator Cragin, Mrs. Henry W. Blair, Mrs. Colonel Kimball and Miss Lida C. Tullock."

THE VICINITY.

S. W. Ricard of Kennebunk has obtained a patent for moulds for boot and shoe stiffeners.

The Universalists of South Berwick netted about $80 from a Fair recently held in that town.

The total loss by the fire in the Cocheco Print Works at Dover on the 24th of December is appraised at $44,500.

Mr. Gilman C. Fisher, formerly principal of the West school in Malden, Mass., has been appointed principal of the Sawyer grammar school at Dover, at a salary of $1000 per annum.

Andrew Bradeen, fireman in Jesse R. Horne's mill, at Berwick, recently dropped his pocket-book into a lot of sawdust, and threw it into the furnace, where it was consumed. It contained his month's wages.

At the meeting of the Dover city government last week the board of aldermen unanimously re-elected John W. Rines city marshal, and on the twenty-eighth ballot elected George H. Caverly assistant marshal.

The Biddeford Times of Friday says: "The May Fisk blondes played to about one hundred and fifty persons in City hall last evening. Not a woman was to be seen in the audience. The two b's prevailed—bald-heads and boys."

Mr. David Lamprey of North Hampton has contracted with W. H. Chase & Co., of Lynn, Mass., to fill the new ice-house near the Hampton depot; capacity 1000 tons. Ice cutting has commenced in good earnest, the ice being about ten inches thick.

After Mabel Sherman finished her walk of fifty miles in a few seconds less than ten and a half hours, at Biddeford last week, an attache of the Biddeford Times office went on the track and walked a mile in eight minutes and fifty-seven seconds.

Col. B. W. Hoyt, of Epping, is now receiving orders for the spring trade, and intimates that the prospects are favorable for a busy season. His large shoe factory is run regularly in the manufacture of sewed shoes altogether, and gives employment to a large number of men and women.

On Thursday evening, the 2d inst., at Hampton, while Mrs. Ann Cutler was at work over the stove her clothing caught fire and she was shockingly burned. She survived until Friday morning. Mrs. Cutler was formerly of Exeter, and resided with her son, John G. Cutler, at Hampton beach.

At the Biddeford depot of the Boston & Maine railroad, Thursday morning of last week, a brakeman slipped on the rails as he stepped forward to shackle two cars together, and fell in such a manner that his right arm was caught and crushed between the elbow and wrist. The injured man belongs in Salmon Falls.

According to the official canvass of the popular vote for governor in Maine at the late election, the vote of York county was: Seldon Connor, republican, 5761; Joseph L. Smith, greenbacker, 3825; Alonzo Garcelon, democrat, 3079; J. L. Smith, one. In the whole State the vote was: Connor 56,554, Smith 41,371, Garcelon 28,218, scattering 36.

CHAPPED HANDS.

The season for chapped hands and wrists having arrived, many persons will be interested in the following "sure cure," which we take from an exchange. Whether the remedy does any good or not it will certainly do no harm, and it is easily and cheaply procured:

The easiest and simplest remedy is found in every grocery store. Take common starch and grind it with a knife until it is reduced to the smoothest powder. Take a tin box and fill it with starch thus prepared, so as to have it continually at hand for use. Then every time the hands are taken from the suds, or dish-water, rinse them thoroughly in clean water, wipe them, and while they are yet damp, rub a pinch of the pulverized starch thoroughly over them, covering the whole surface. The effect is magical. The rough, smarting skin is cooled, soothed and healed, bringing and insuring the greatest degree of comfort and freedom from this by no means insignificant trial. We know many persons formerly afflicted with hands that would chap until the blood oozed from minute crevices, completely freed from this trouble by the use of this simple remedy.

POLICE COURT.

SATURDAY, Jan. 4; Batchelder, J.

Sarah Smith, for indulging in one drunk and getting caught at it, was assessed $9.90, fine and costs. She was sent to jail as a punishment for not having that amount of money.

THE CONTRACTOR'S FRIEND.

The editor of the American Ship, a paper recently established in New York apparently to advocate the building of national ships by contract instead of on the navy yards, seems not to like it because we expressed disbelief in the statement that two or three guns put in the waist of a newly-built live-oak ship twenty years ago so twisted her "out of true" that her state-room doors would not open! He says he saw it himself; then he has a perfect right to believe it; but we didn't see it.

He stated that the repairs on government vessels in the navy yards often cost more than a new vessel could be built for outside by contract, and he of superior model, strength and speed, and that such repairs often "far exceeded the cost of the same vessel when new." We asked him for the names of such ships as have been repaired in the navy yards at sums exceeding or equalling their first cost, in answer to which he says: "We reiterate our charge." The reiteration of an unsupported charge is not proof that it was correct when first made; so we reiterate our request for the names of the ships referred to,—and add the statement that we don't believe our contemporary can give the name of one. Concerning the assertion about the superior cheapness and worth of contract-built ships over navy-yard-built ones, we said we knew something of that, as a vessel called the Enterprise was built here by contract, and if the American Ship wished it we could get the figures showing how much it cost the government to make her seaworthy after the contractor called her finished; to which the New York paper replies: "As regards the figures, please excuse us"—it knows all it wants to in that line already. We may give the figures, for all that.

We suspect that our contemporary's prejudices against navy yards are as fervent as his zeal for contract-work, and that he would much rather "make a point" against navy yards than deal justly by them. His idea of fair play is pretty well illustrated by his copying into the American Ship of Dec. 14th from another paper (of date Nov. 30th) the statement that "The Ticonderoga, Commo. Schufeldt's ship, which made a safe run from Portsmouth, N. H., to Norfolk, will be docked for a thorough inspection, previous to her leaving for the coast of Africa," and then commenting as follows:

If the ship and the machinery were entirely seaworthy on leaving Portsmouth (N. H.) navy yard, where they have a dry dock, what has made her unseaworthy in steaming these few hundred miles? Why the necessity of going into another dry dock at Norfolk? Is she a fit vessel to send on such an important cruise?

As nearly two weeks had elapsed from the time it was made public that the ship did not "make a safe run" from this port to Norfolk (unless hitting a rock when steaming at full speed is "safe") and the date of the American Ship criticism, it seems hardly possible that the editor could have been ignorant of the accident. But he could not forbear getting in a fling at Portsmouth navy yard, even though it were based on a misstatement. This style of journalism may be smart, but it does not help a cause any in the long run.

The Portsmouth members of Osgood Lodge, No. 48, I. O. O. F., and their ladies, have been invited by the members of the lodge resident in Rye to an entertainment in Rye town hall on the evening of Wednesday, 8th inst., if fair; if stormy, the next Friday evening. Those members intending to go will please inform W. S. Hazel, at Goodrich's store, on or before Jan. 7th.

We give the following letter to show the absolute freedom of Devoe's Brilliant Oil from any inflammable vapor, and as a curious incident:

PATERSON, N. J., April 17, 1877.

DEVOE MANUFACTURING CO.

Gentlemen:—I take great pleasure in sending this unsolicited recommendation of your Kerosene Oil.

At the great fire in this place, which destroyed Norwood's Paint and Oil establishment, and other buildings, on the 13th inst., your Oil stood one of most severe tests that Oil could be put to; for four [4] hours the Oil was in the hottest part of the fire, and such a fire as only Varnish, Turpentine, Oils and Paints can make, and in all that time there was no explosion of your Oil, and the cans containing the Oil were in very near the same condition after the fire as before.

I take great pleasure in recommending this Oil, as in my opinion it is the safest Oil for sale in the market. I remain, very respectfully,

JOHN E. REGNER,
Chief of Fire Department.

—Some signs never fail. When a wife who usually addresses her husband as "Smith" or "Smiley" begins to call him "Robert, dear," or "hubby," you can bet your bottom dollar there'll be either a new bonnet or a doctor in that house within a fortnight.—Puck.

—"Gentlemen of the jury," said an Irish barrister, "it will be for you to say whether this defendant shall be allowed to come into court with unblushing footsteps, with the cloak of hypocrisy in his mouth, and draw three bullocks out of my client's pocket with impunity."

An unreconciled Mississippi paper of democratic politics and high-toned southern impudence phrases it in this blunt and honest style: "The questions of the war have simply been removed from the battlefield to the ballot-box. The principles of the Southern people must and shall rule this country." But our chivalric contemporary forgets that it takes two to make a bargain. The "must and shall" business is among the things of the past. It is with solid gratification, however, that we reproduce this plain indication of the non-sectional tendencies of our southern Bourbon brethren.—Washington Republican.

PENNSYLVANIA
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

THE NEW YORK TIMES
ESTABLISHED 1851.
The position of the foremost republican newspaper in the United States will be sustained by The New York Times upon the same policy in virtue of which that position has been attained.
The Times will continue to place fidelity in the interests of the Republican Party above the pursuit of personal aims or private ambition, and will scrupulously insist that the usefulness of any party must be measured by the extent of its devotion to the honor and welfare of the country. In the future, as in the past, the attitude of The Times will be that of independence within the Republican Party. The maintenance of the national credit, the purification of the public service; the advocacy of all seasonable projects of fiscal reform; rigid economy in public expenditures; opposition to unsoundness and corporate jobbery in all its forms, and the preservation of equal rights to all citizens, North and South, will be the salient points of the policy of The Times.
The Times will continue to be distinguished as an enterprising, accurate, and carefully edited newspaper. The acknowledged excellence and fullness of its correspondence by mail and telegraph, from all parts of the world, will be adequately maintained, and its facilities for collecting domestic and foreign news will be expanded to meet the increasing demands of our time.
In the sphere of literary and artistic criticism, of scientific, social, and general discussion, The Times will address itself, as heretofore, to the appreciation of the educated and intelligent classes of the American people. It will be lively without being sensational, aggressive without being coarse; at all times it will strive to be fearless and independent in the championship of the right. No decries subversive of the principles on which the sacredness of family ties, and the existence of society alike repose will be promulgated in its columns.
The Times rejects all advertisements of lotteries, of quacks and medical pretenders, and of all other agencies by which the baleful poison of vice is disseminated throughout society. It will be in the future, as it has been in the bygone years, especially adapted for family reading.
The Weekly Times, containing selected editorials on topics of national and general interest from the columns of the daily issue, as well as a concise summary of political, social, and foreign news, besides other features which recommend it to all classes of readers, is a paper admirably filled to circulate in every family and fireside. It will be the aim of its conductors to use every means, not only to maintain its well-earned supremacy, but to make its popularity still more decided.

ANTI-FAT

"ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable not perilously heroic; it acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 2 to 6 pounds a week."
In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen:—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. Using it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKMAN'S drug store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 195 pounds to 162 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, the bottle of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me forty and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOOLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds in three months, commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & FLIMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "To THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen—The following report is from a lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. 'It (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from five to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost.' Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, cures dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.
ROYAL MEDICINE CO., PROP'S, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated nearly thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these disorders.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, been fully impressed with the crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and stand it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Paralysis, Misnutrition, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness.
do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a single class of purposes, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

Chewing Gum.

Among the quiet little manufactures of the country is that of chewing gum. Only one factory exists in New York city, and the few others are in New England, New York State, Ohio, Illinois and Tennessee. The gum is sold by druggists, grocers and confectioners in cities, and any country grocery that hasn't it is considered incomplete. Gum from spruce trees was exclusively used until recently, when it found a rival in gum mastic, a white and attractive article made from paraffine, which is sweetened. The consumption of this chewing gum in the United States is about thirty tons yearly; that of spruce gum somewhat less, and that of a gum made in Tennessee from balsam tolu and sold in the Southern States, about twenty tons. Lately a material has been used styled "rubber gum." It is from the sap of the sapoin tree of South and Central America. The sap, like that of the india rubber tree has a milky look. The gum was first imported into the United States with a view of melting it with india rubber, in order to produce a cheaper article than the latter. It was found to be impliable and therefore useless for that purpose. It had long been chewed by South and Central American Indians and found useful in allaying thirst. Experiments were, therefore, made here in purifying it for chewing, and with final success. It is tasteless and has the merit of lasting longer than other gums, which more quickly dissolve and crumble in the mouth. So great is its ductility that a piece half an inch wide, after being heated in the mouth, can be stretched into a thread a hundred feet long. Its consumption is about fifty tons a year. Chewing gum does not, like tobacco, require that the saliva shall be expectorated; it does not, like smoking, excite the nerves; nor, like a superabundance of food or drink, hurtfully overload the stomach.—N. Y. Sun.

"What are you going to do about it?"

Because the penalties of physiological laws are not executed speedily, some fancy they are void. But when the system breaks down, and almost hopeless complications arise, which the family physician, by reason of his limited experience, fails to relieve, the pertinency of the above inquiry is apparent. Many remedies have been specially prepared for these cases, and many physicians are building for their patronage. As before making a purchase of land, a "search" is required, and the title carefully examined, so invalids should carefully investigate the claims of any physician offering to treat chronic diseases. Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines are well known, and have effected many cures where eminent physicians have failed, yet to accommodate surgical and complicated cases, and those desirous of being restored speedily, Dr. Pierce has erected an elegant sanitarium, at a cost of nearly half a million dollars. No institution in the world offers advantages superior to those found in this establishment. Half a score of physicians are in attendence, several of whom have been prominently connected with leading American and European Hospitals. Every improved facility for hastening a cure that a liberal expenditure of money could secure can here be found. Before fully deciding where to go, address Invalids' and Tourists' Hotel for circular.

It appears that the burning to death recently of two men in Custer county, Nebraska, was the result of a determination of the cattle men to keep homesteaders out of that country. Custer, the most extreme northwest county in the State, is almost exclusively given up to cattle-ranges. The two men burned to death had taken homesteads and resolved to stay, despite the fearful threats made against them.

The Belfast, Me., Journal says: The schools and other advantages now enjoyed by the Oldtown Indians are fast obliterating all traces of their native character. We have seen a letter written by one of the dusky maids of Oldtown to a family in this city, near whom the Indians camp in the summer, the composition and penmanship of which would put to shame many of her white sisters.

Portsmouth Chronicle

TUESDAY, JANUARY 7, 1879.

Governor Garcelon of Maine

Was born in Lewiston (where he still resides) in 1813. He graduated at Bowdoin college in 1836. In 1839, Dr. Garcelon received his diploma from the Ohio Medical college. He was one of the founders of the Maine Medical Association, and was president of that body in 1862; and during the rebellion he was Surgeon-General of Maine. For a number of years, he was president of the Androscoggin railroad. He has also been president of the State Board of Agriculture, and has served in both branches of the legislature, as a republican. In fact, he started in life as an abolitionist. In 1871 he was elected mayor of Lewiston. In 1872, he followed Horace Greeley into the democratic party, and has since been a democratic candidate for Congress against Mr. Frye. He was nominated last summer to lead a forlorn hope, and nobody can be mere surprised at the result than himself, unless it may be the men who put him in nomination without the slightest expectation of electing him. He is an extreme hard-money man, believing in a gold basis and denouncing the depreciated silver dollar as a fraud and a lie. He does not believe in State banks.

The New York Herald,

The leading newspaper of the country, if not of the world, presents itself through our advertising columns. Many persons in New York could not exist a day without reading the Herald. It has news from all parts of the globe, and its liberality in obtaining the latest advices from the Old World, and its enterprise in giving its readers full accounts of what is transpiring in the Western Hemisphere, are proverbial.

The Weekly Herald is one of the cheapest papers for the contents it gives its readers, in the universe; and for those who have lived in New York, or have seen the Herald and know of its almost unlimited amount of news-matter, it need but be said that in point of enterprise, ability and discrimination, it fully maintains, to-day, the high repute it has so long enjoyed among its thousands of readers all over the globe.

The Fishermen and the Treaty.

A meeting of some fifty persons actively interested in fisheries was held in Gloucester, Mass., Saturday evening, to consider the injury resulting to the fishing business from the fishery provisions of the Washington treaty, and to consider what measures of relief should be sought. The meeting was called to order by Capt. Fitz J. Babson, Collector of the port, and organized by the choice of Henry A. Parmenter, as chairman; a number of prominent citizens addressed the meeting, the prevailing sentiment being that the fishery clauses of the treaty have operated disastrously for the New England fishing interest, and that, inasmuch as a protest against said clauses was filed in Washington by Gloucester memorialists at the time of its adoption, it would be consistent and proper to seek the immediate abrogation of the treaty, if they could be guaranteed the same tariff protection that preceded it, or other substantial relief. After a full discussion of the question it was voted that a committee of three be named by the chairman, at his convenience, to prepare a memorial expressing the sentiments of the meeting, and report the same at an adjourned meeting next Saturday evening.

Chinese in Oregon.

An Oregon letter in the Prairie Farmer, gives some facts about the Chinese that by no means support the popular clamor on the Pacific coast. Two-thirds of western Oregon are timber or brush land, rich and well watered. The white men would not grub these lands and they laid idle, except for timber. Seven or eight years ago the Chinamen came there to grade railroads and afterwards went to work on the grub lands at such rates that the first crop of wheat paid for clearing and fencing, and since then hundreds of thousands of acres have been brought into cultivation. The Chinamen go from one farm to another, inquiring for jobs of grubbing. If not employed in one place they go to another, making no threats to burn out or kill those who do not give them work. The writer has seen no tramps or bummers among them, and they do not become county paupers. If there is no grubbing to be done they saw wood, pick fruits, gather hops, work in mines, cook, wash and iron. They are peaceable, harmless, industrious men, boarding and lodging themselves, living cheaply and working hard in all weather.

Chronicle Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 3d.

A good deal of astonishment is expressed by politicians here at the news received about the organization and first act of the new legislature in Maine. It will be recollected that the republicans carried the Senate and the democrats and greenbackers together had a majority of the House. It was said that the hard-money democrats would join the republicans in the organization and in any vote upon the financial policy. But this supposition was wrong. The democrats not only surrendered to the greenbackers a good part of the patronage, but a hard-money resolution adopted by the republican Senate was rejected by the House, only two democrats voting for it. The republicans here are in high glee over this "surrender," since it appears to indicate that there will be but two parties to the contest next fall, and the consistent hard-money men will have to vote the republican ticket. It will be remembered that at the late greenback conference in Washington it was agreed that one of the points for that party to observe was the concentration of their full fighting force upon Maine for the initial contest in 1879. The greenbackers having swallowed the democratic party there, the republicans say that they will now have plain sailing, and may anticipate sure victory. The contest will be a very interesting one, at any rate, if the success of resumption doesn't have a too dampening effect upon the greenback voters. Senator Blaine is now in Maine to attend a meeting of the Republican State Committee for the purpose of marking out some vigorous work for the coming campaign, so that it is not likely the greenbackers will steal a march on the republicans as they did last year.

The political gossip from Ohio relative to the coming campaign in that State grows more interesting daily. The democrats still appear to demand Senator Thurman as a sacrifice, although some differences of opinion have been developed which have an ugly appearance. In fact, the Senator has some opposition as a Presidential candidate even among his own constituents. On the republican side all is not altogether harmonious. A few days ago the movement for the nomination of Charles Foster appeared to be too formidable for resistance, but now the aspect is somewhat changed. Our accounts here show that the anti-Hayes republicans in some parts of the State declare open warfare upon Foster, Sherman, Matthews or any other man who has been identified with the policy. Among the names of republicans for the gubernatorial nomination who are not objectionable on account of the policy may be mentioned Judge Taft and Hon A. F. Perry, who, their friends confidently believe, could defeat even Senator Thurman, should he finally consent to run, and it looks now as if he would be forced to do so.

The Senatorial contest in Kansas has aroused some interest here on account of the parties to it, but more particularly on account of a disagreeable development relative to Senator Ingalls, who wants to be re-elected. A letter of Ingalls has been published in which he threatens a Kansas postmaster with removal if he does not pay over a certain monthly stipend to a certain person "according to contract" with him, the Senator. This looks rather bad, and confirms the belief in the minds of many that Ingalls was at the bottom of the "put up job" on Senator Pomeroy, by which a legislator accused the latter of bribery in order to defeat him. The general belief is that Mr. Pomeroy was greatly wronged at that time, and his name is now mentioned for the succession. A shrewd political calculator here made the following estimate of the republican vote for Senator before the Ingalls scandal came out: Ingalls 50, Anthony 30, Philips 20, Simpson 15, and Anderson, Campbell and Pomeroy the balance of the 130 in both Houses. As the democrats have but 35 votes in all they will not have much to say about it. It is said that many of the Ingalls and Anthony men will cast complimentary votes at first and then go over to Mr. Pomeroy, who retains a good deal of popularity as the best representative of Kansas interests ever in Washington.

Reports from banks in all the large business centres coincide substantially with the experience of those here, since resumption. That is, since people know they can get the gold by asking and that its purchasing power and its capacity for discharging debts is no greater than the more convenient promises to pay, the latter are preferred. Although we have indulged in no outward demonstrations of rejoicing over the momentous achievement of the 1st inst., the exchange of congratulations is general among reflecting men. And the fact that resumption has been formally accomplished without the accompaniment of one of the thousand disasters predicted, has increased the satisfaction that pervades business circles all over the country at our safe transfer from an inflation to a sound currency basis. And it surprises not a few people that business has required so little readjustment to harmonize it with the new order of things, they forgetting that the suffering and distress that was inseparable from any method for reaching resumption, have been gradually encountered and to a great extent overcome, in the preliminary steps taken to achieve the consummation so devoutly wished at the date fixed by law.

Political matters seem to be the sole topic at the Capital to-day, and among other reports of interest is the confirmation of Senator Conkling's withdrawal from the Presidential contest, which seems to be final and authentic. He prefers to stay in the Senate. KNOX.

News and Notes.

Captain Tom Lewis, the last survivor of the Lewis and Clark expedition that explored Louisiana territory, was frozen to death in Albemarle county, Virginia, last Friday night.

A train of nine locomotives and a snow plow left the track of the N. Y. Central railroad near Fairport on Friday. One man was killed and nine seriously hurt. Friday night a wrecking train drawn by eight engines left Rochester to clean the track, but was itself wrecked before reaching Fairport. On Sunday fourteen passenger trains were in Syracuse, awaiting a passage west.

The wind Friday night did considerable damage through a part of the Connecticut river valley, unroofing barns, houses, etc. Westfield, Conn., suffered the most damage, perhaps to the amount of $3000.

In the trial of Mrs. Cobb at Norwich, Conn., for the murder of her husband by poison, her paramour, Bishop, testifies strongly against her as being the actual poisoner, tho' he owns up to furnishing it for her at her request. The miserable our deserves hanging for his attempt to throw the blame on the wretched partner of his misdeeds, irrespective of his guilt of the crime of murder.

The Rankin house, thirteen stores, and another block two squares distant, in Columbus, Ga., were burned Saturday. Loss $90,000.

The formidable character of the recent snow blockade between Buffalo and Rochester may be inferred from the fact that the first train through from Buffalo to Rochester consisted of eight locomotives and nineteen coaches, or a locomotive for every two cars. The train was covered with snow and icicles when it entered the station, and presented a fine sight. The next train comprised seven engines and sixteen cars.

A lady made a snowball one day last week on the Blue Ridge, in Virginia, and carried it to New Orleans, still unmelted.

Moncasi, the would-be assassin of the king of Spain, was executed at Madrid on Saturday.

Trains are snowed in and many abandoned in various parts of New York State, and passengers are fed by the farmers, villagers and small hotel keepers, who are taxed to their utmost in several localities. The snow still drifts badly.

Lieut. Thomas S. Wallace of the Third U. S. Infantry perished from cold while on a hunting expedition in the vicinity of Fort Missoula, near Helena, Montana, on Dec. 7th.

The United States sailing ship Supply, with goods from the Paris Exposition, left Havre Saturday for New York.

A Lincoln (Neb.) physician claims that the excessive use of the potato is provocative of diphtheria.

The Washington correspondent of a democratic newspaper on Monday telegraphed: "Hon. Samuel J. Tilden has addressed a letter to Clarkson Potter, asking that he be summoned before the Potter committee so that he may clear up all charges that have been made against him of being an accomplice in the alleged cipher dispatch frauds. This request will of course be granted." He has taken his time about making this request—if indeed he has made it.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. THE CITY.

The different bureaux at the navy yard have notified the Navy Department that the Kearsarge will be ready for sea on the 1st. of Febuary.

All the caulkers but two were discharged from the navy yard on Saturday. The amount of funds allowed for the bureau of construction and repair at this station for the ensuing year is $15,000.

The following-named officers have been detached from the navy yard and ordered to the relief steamer Leyden; Lieut. Charles Seymour, as commander, and Mates Hugh Kuhl and John L. Vennard.

Schooners T. J. Trafton, Hoyt master, George M. Brainard, Kenniston master, and another, are loading apples at this port. Two of these vessels are being loaded by C. L. Brown & Co., and the other by Dover parties.

Miss Helene Freeman, who gave an exhibition of walking in Franklin hall some time ago, is matched to walk against John W. Thomas in the city hall at Lawrence, Mass., Jan. 10th, the latter to walk fifty miles to the lady's forty-four.

The schooner Mary E. Caswell, belonging to Laighton Bros. & Co., of the Shoals, parted her moorings in the heavy blow of Friday night and went ashore on Smuttynose island, where she bilged and filled. She lies in a bad position and is badly stove, but efforts will be made to float her.

To-morrow evening, at Music hall, the second entertainment of the Rockingham Course will be given—"Fra Diavolo," Auber's pleasing opera, by the Martinez English Opera Co. Mrs. Flora E. Barry is a member of the company. Season tickets for the remainder of the Course, $1.50; reserved seat tickets for to-morrow evening, 50 cents; admission, 35 cents.

There was some pretty fast driving up and down Congress street Monday afternoon, and several foot-passengers narrowly escaped being knocked over by the flying teams. The police put a stop to the illegal and dangerous sport, complaint having been made at the station-house. A better plan would be for the police to do their plain duty in the premises without waiting for complaint to be made.

J. M. Driscoll, of Portland, on Monday afternoon at twelve minutes past one o'clock commenced to tramp around Franklin hall, hoping to be able to walk four hundred miles between that time and twelve minutes past eleven o'clock Saturday night, a stretch of one hundred and thirty hours. To make one mile he has to make the circuit of the hall twenty-six times. At nine o'clock Monday evening he had made his 36th mile. The number of visitors to the hall was fair, and all pronounced Driscoll a good walker. This evening Miss May Belle Sherman will walk with him.

An Eastport, Me., paper refers as follows to the crew of the schooner Elizabeth Smith, of this port, commanded by Capt. Raymond, who has for part of his crew two of his daughters, who it is said can do the work around the deck as well as two able-bodied men: "An apple vessel from New Hampshire has been the prevailing charm for young America for three weeks past, and still draws a crowd, and since her crew numbers two of the fair sex and they excel in the humble pastimes of sawing wood and grinding out cider, we still look for stirring events." Capt. Raymond took a load of apples from this port to Eastport, and is now on his passage back loaded with frozen herring.

The schooner Caroline Knight, of Rockland, Me., which went ashore at Straw's point, Rye beach, some weeks ago during a heavy gale, was pulled off the beach Monday morning by the steamtug Clara Bateman, and towed into this harbor. She is leaking badly, but considering the rough usage she experienced she got off in a remarkably good condition. A wrecking crew from Rockland, under Mr. Mehan, has been at work on her for some time; they had her all blocked up once, a week or two since, ready to be pulled off when a favorable opportunity came, but a storm came instead and knocked her back into her old position. They again get her ready for launching last week, and this time their efforts were crowned with success.

We are requested to state that the installation of Grange officers will be this (Tuesday) evening, Jan. 7th, instead of Wednesday as usual, on account of the opera.

New Hampshire sent but one delegate to the recent New England Conference of greenbackers. Of the New Hampshire greenbacks "many are called but few are chosen."

The Manchester Union of one day last week contained the following: "The new firm of Carney, Lynch & Conner, having possession of the brewery in Bakersville, has been fortunate enough to secure the services of Mr. Moat, a veteran brewer who has been in the employ of Hon. Frank Jones for the past fourteen years. Mr. Moat will take charge of the brewery, and commence operations on Monday next. A great deal of difficulty has been encountered by the owners of the brewery in this city to find a competent brewer, but their efforts have at length been crowned with success."

Maynard's Spectacular Illuminations, which exhibited in this city last week, was far the best show of the kind ever in this city. Important improvements have been made in the apparatus since Mr. Maynard was here in the fall of 1876 with the views of the Centennial Exhibition, and the entertainment is correspondingly improved. His collection of views numbers over two thousand, and they are very beautiful. The show is really a good one, instructive as well as entertaining; the views of the Paris Exposition are finer than were those of our Centennial, and a visitor to the Illuminations can get a better idea of the wild beauty and grandeur of the Alps from this exhibition than from a flying visit to Switzerland. The entertainment was not patronized as it deserved, the very unfavorable weather no doubt having much to do with this, as on Saturday and Sunday evenings the audiences were quite large.

In spite of the heavy storm which prevailed, the first lecture in the Methodist course by Rev. C. B. Pitblado of Portsmouth, N. H., came off in Wesley church last evening. The subject of the lecture was "Wanted." The speaker stated that what was wanted was men of courage, fidelity, humanity and religion. He dwelt especially upon the points "where did we come from and whither are we going?" Stating scientific skeptical theories, he believed, he said, their true answers could be found in the old Bible. Many interesting stories were interspersed, one of which was that of the visit by the Irish to the Scotch giant. The wife of the latter told the latter to go to bed. Having done so, the other was admitted, who asking where the husband was, was told he had gone away. Seeing the large form stretched on the bed in an adjoining room he asked who it was. "The baby," replied the wife. "Faith, and if this is a baby, what will the man be when the child grows up?" said the giant. The speaker applied the story to the condition of our country, and wanted to know what would our state become in the future, great as it now is in infancy. About one hundred persons were present, and were thoroughly paid for breasting the storm, by the eloquence and interest of the speaker.—Portland Press, Jan. 4th.

RYE LETTER.

RYE, Jan. 4th.

On Saturday evening of last week the revival meetings came to a close, the last one being held at the Christian church. A small congregation was in attendance, and Rev. Mr. Jones carried on the meeting.

On Sunday Rev. Willis E. Hadley, pastor of the Congregational church, preached his farewell sermon to a large congregation, including some persons out of town. In the forenoon Mr. Hadley preached a very eloquent sermon, giving good advice to the young men and to the society, and thanking the latter for their kindness to him since he had been their pastor. He was listened to with the closest attention, and many of the congregation were affected to tears. Mr. Hadley has been pastor of the church a year, during which time he has won many friends; he has been an active worker in the Sabbath school as its superintendent, and gathered one of the largest Sabbath schools we have ever had here. Our sympathies go with him, and we wish him success in the ministry wherever he may be called.

Rev. Charles S. Hurd, for three years pastor of the Advent church, also severed his connection with his society, his farewell sermon being preached to a large congregation. He has been a faithful Christian worker, and has made many friends.

On Sunday evening a Sunday school concert came off at the Congregational church. The exercises, which were very interesting, were conducted by Rev. Mr. Hadley, and consisted of an organ voluntary by Mrs. Cornelius Philbrick, which was followed by a song of greeting by Estella Churchill, aged eight years, and prayer by Mr. Hadley. Then came singing of No. 44 by the school; exercises on 23d Psalm, by Miss Gess' class; song, "The Good News," by Estella Churchill; recitation "The Storm," by Anna Sawyer; song, "Gathering home," by a quartette Mr. Hadley, Mr. Hoyt, Willis Foss and Miss Leona Drake; recitation, "The loom of life," by Miss Eliza Parsons; singing of No. 44 by the school; recitation, "God knows," by Mary Odion; organ voluntary, and singing of "Come, Great Deliverer," by Rev. Mr. Hadley; recitation, "Twilight," by Miss Minnie Page; exercise of Miss Bunker's class; singing, "Are you leaving home to night?" by the quartette; exercise by Mrs. Rand's class, "Passing away;" singing of No. 28 by the school; recitation, "Review," by Clara Parsons; class exercise, "Duty of children," Miss Etta Remick's class; singing, "The sparrows are calling," Estella Churchill and Annie Sawyer; exercises, "Mercy," Miss Brown's class; singing, "Will you meet me at the fountain," by quartette, the solo by Mr. Hadley; select readings by Mrs. Otis Jenness; singing of No. 21 by school; recitation, "An invitation to give;" a volunteer song by Estella Churchill, and closing remarks and benediction by Rev. Mr. Hadley. The concert was the most successful one ever given here.

The meeting at the Christian church, Sunday evening, was conducted by Chas. W. Rand and Sylvanus Foss, and lay exhortations were given.

On Tuesday evening the members of Osgood Lodge of Odd Fellows residing in this town met at C. Jenness' store, and made arrangements for an Odd Fellows' entertainment at the town hall on Wednesday evening next, the 8th inst., when the brethren from Portsmouth and their ladies are expected, and no pains will be spared to make it a good time and pleasant gathering.

The Christian society will hold a festival at the town hall on the 14th and 15th of this month. They held a meeting at the church on Wednesday evening, and appointed a committee of arrangements.

Mr. Thomas H. Philbrick, a very industrious citizen who had a paralytic shock on Christmas day, is now lying very ill at his residence, and fears are entertained that he will not recover.

A town meeting is to be held here Jan. 8th, to take the sense of the voters as to the propriety of appropriating money for the purpose of having a high school at the town hall. SCRIBE.

The Portsmouth members of Osgood Lodge, No. 48, I. O. O. F., and their ladies, have been invited by the members of the lodge resident in Rye to an entertainment in Rye town hall on the evening of Wednesday, 8th inst., if fair; if stormy, the next Friday evening. Those members intending to go will please inform W. S. Hazel, at Goodrich's store, on or before Jan. 7th.

PATERSON, N. J., April 17, 1877.

DEVOE MANUFACTURING CO.

Gentlemen:—I take great pleasure in sending this unsolicited recommendation of your Kerosene Oil.

At the great fire in this place, which destroyed Norwood's Paint and Oil establishment, and other buildings, on the 13th inst., your Oil stood one of most severe tests that Oil could be put to; for four [4] hours the Oil was in the hottest part of the fire, and such a fire as only Varnish, Turpentine, Oils and Paints can make, and in all that time there was no explosion of your Oil, and the cans containing the Oil were in very near the same condition after the fire as before.

I take great pleasure in recommending this Oil, as in my opinion it is the safest Oil for sale in the market. I remain, very respectfully,

JOHN E. REGNER,
Chief of Fire Department.

The Perfect Draft Horse.

A good draft horse must possess strong vital organs, which fact is usually indicated by the form and relative size of the trunk. His joints and legs must be strong and perfect, free from curbs and spavins, the skin lying close and firm to hard and elastic cords, with an entire absence of "beef" upon those parts. The feet should be large, neither flat nor mule-shaped, the horn hard and elastic, but not brittle. The bottom of the foot should be examined to see that it possesses the desired concave appearance, and that the frog does its work perfectly, because it is in the feet that our heavy draft horses are most notoriously defective. The principal requisite of a good draft horse, is good size, made up without a superabundance of fat; but to this must be added docility, soundness and endurance. Given all the valuable qualities above described, in perfection, and then the more of action and style he possesses the better. He may be nearly perfect in all respects, and yet be too small to be classed as a first-class draft horse. On the other hand, he may weigh a ton, but if the weight be made up mainly of fat, or if he be ill-tempered, unsound, or lacking in endurance, his value is materially lessened. He may possess all the points above enumerated and yet be so deficient in energy, and so heavy and sluggish in his movements, as to come far short of a perfect draft horse.—N. E. Homestead.

Boston women are beginning to follow the Princess Louise's fashion of carrying a small cane.

At a sleighing party in Lafayette, Ind., one sled came into collision with another. Mr. Timberlake was stunned and did not recover consciousness for some hours; Mrs. Timberlake's ear was nearly torn off; Mr. Fullenwider was severely bruised; Mr. Heeness had a leg broken; and "many minor accidents occurred, fingers being broken and teeth knocked out."

An Ohio peddler does business on an extensive scale. He carries five wagon loads of a great variety of goods, and is accompanied by several salesmen. He puts up a large tent with counters and shelves, and show windows in front, like a regular store. His stay in each place is regulated by the business, and when the sales fall off he packs up and moves on.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. Its Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. Its tracks are double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are in the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the safety of life of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 3 to 5 pounds a week. In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "GENTLEMEN—The Anti-Fat duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug-store for the remainder of the bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says, "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 180 pounds to 152 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOLLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & PLIMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat, "At the Anti-Fat had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost." Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to women, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and our part will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly. I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid by whose use it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under a POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a single class of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

A Glimpse of Some Montana Beavers.

Our road passed down along Hell-Gate river, leaving Deer Lodge City some eight miles to the left. As one goes down the country changes, and occasional pines appear along the banks of the stream, and the landscape becomes much more interesting. At one place, where a tiny tributary flows in, a large community of beavers were building a dam. They were not at all afraid of us, and so we leisurely observed the process, wishing to settle the vexed question as to whether beavers do actually do intelligent mason-work.

They had already sunk a great deal of brush, together with limbs of trees, and were now filling this wicker-work in with earth and rocks which they procured a little distance above on the opposite bank. A beaver would run up, flatten his tail on the mud near the bank, then another beaver would scrape the earth up and upon the tail of the first, and pack it down. After he had his load complete, the carrier-beaver would swim away rapidly, his tail with the load of earth floating on the surface, the swift movement of the animal alone keeping it afloat.

The sagacious creature would invariably swim to the right place and dump the load, and then return for another, the stream presenting a scene of great activity, as several of these curious animal-masons were constantly and swiftly passing and repassing each other with their heavy loads.

Others, the carpenters among them, were at work in the thicket opposite, cutting brush. We saw many large trees which had been cut down by them. The stumps looked as though some boy had chopped them down with a dull axe. It is surprising to reflect upon the pertinacity of these creatures which enables them to gnaw down such immense trees, and the wisdom with which they calculate the direction is which the trees will fall.

It is said here that the beavers cut the limbs off from these trees and then sever them into lengths of about three feet each, and after that float them to the centre of their pond, sink them to the bottom and fasten them there, where they remain and are used as food during the winter when the pond is frozen over. This is thought to be one of the principal uses of the pond—to provide a pantry which will not freeze. The pond furnishes a depth of water that is always still, and never freezes to the bottom.

Although, after witnessing this almost human sagacity, we had many compunctions, we concluded to shoot one fine animal for his skin. We shot one through the head. His companions immediately disappeared; and before we could secure our wounded beaver he also had dived beneath the waters of their pond, and although we waited sometime in the vicinity we failed to discover him again. The inhabitants say it is nearly impossible to kill a beaver with a rifle, and never, on any occasion, does the trapper shoot.—Wide Awake.

—Hush-money—the money paid a baby's nurse.

—Charles Lamb defended the custom of New Year's resolutions in this way: "The man who does not at least propose to himself to be better this year than he was last, must be either very good or very bad indeed. And only to propose to do better is something. In fact, to propose to one's self to do well is in some sort to do well positively."

—The fashion which permits or requires gentlemen who attend the opera to go ungloved is having an immense effect upon the applause, making it twice as loud and decisive as ever before. Bare hands are, of course, much more potent than covered as sound producers, and there is no occasion for the enthusiastic owner to be timid about using them, as he might be about a new pair of kids.

—A Chicago girl did not wish to marry her lover, but said yes to his proposal for the fun of being engaged. The young man was very much in earnest, and when she at length informed him that she had only been joking he threatened to kill her if she did not keep her promise. Thus bulldozed she submitted to matrimony. That was a year ago. Lately she appealed to the courts and the superior court has decided that the marriage, having been accomplished by a threat of violence, is void.

Louisiana and the Potter Frauds.

Judge Southworth of Louisiana publishes a card in a Washington paper, in which he denies that he has made any statement reflecting upon Marshal Pitkin, or that he ever pronounced the issue of certain warrants as fraudulent, as stated in the democratic papers. The story so extensively published by the democratic press that Judge Southworth was in Washington to testify before the Potter committee about the alleged fraudulent issue by the republicans of six or eight thousand registration papers in Louisiana, is also pure fiction.

The republican members of the Potter committee have evidence of a gentleman named St. Martin, a cousin of Gov. Nicholls of Louisiana, and who served as deputy sergeant-at-arms of Stenger's subcommittee in New Orleans last summer, which will give the democrats a good deal to to think about. St. Martin has made affidavits charging, with much detail, that money was raised and paid to secure those witnesses who came before the committee and denied their former testimony before the returning board. He also declares that Mr. Stenger himself directed him to ascertain whether the witnesses summoned would give testimony of value to the democrats, and if they would not, to return them as not found.

The democratic members of the Potter committee, who have returned from New Orleans, admit that nothing of importance was developed by their trip. The expedition seems to have been undertaken almost wholly upon the belief that Mrs. Jenks' bogus papers were genuine; but when it was shown that that vivacious lady tried to "lose" the said papers three times before she finally found some one gullible enough to send them to the Potter committee as a great prize, the finder in each case returning the "lost" documents to the Jenks, who would immediately proceed to "lose" them again—on receiving this evidence the Potter frauds hastened to leave New Orleans, and bought their return tickets in less than twelve hours from the time they arrived there.

Polygamy Deemed.

An important decision was rendered at Washington on Monday, in the United States Supreme Court, in the case of Geo. Reynolds against the United States, taken to Washington by appeal from the supreme court of Utah. This case involves the whole question of polygamy in the territories and the constitutionality of the laws passed by Congress for its suppression. Reynolds was indicted by the grand jury for contracting a bigamous marriage. He was tried in the third judicial court of Utah and found guilty. He appealed to the supreme court of the territory, and finally to this court, which now affirms the judgment of the lower tribunals and decides that Congress has the power to pass laws prohibiting polygamous marriages in Utah, and that such laws are constitutional.

Another Call for Bonds.

The Secretary of the Treasury on Monday issued the seventy-eighth call for the redemption of the 5-20 bonds of 1865 and consols of 1867. The call is for $10,000,000, of which $6,000,000 are coupon and $4,000,000 registered bonds. The principal and interest will be paid at the Treasury on and after the 1st of April next, and interest will cease that day. The following are descriptions of the bonds:—

News and Notes.

Nine of the men who burned Mitchell and Ketchum at the stake in Custer county, Nebraska, a few weeks ago, were arrested on Monday at Plum creek by a deputy sheriff and posse, and lodged in jail at Kearney to await trial for murder. The men who were tortured to death were men who had taken up homesteads in Custer county, and refused to vacate when ordered by the lawless cattle-herders, who in consequence burned them to death to terrify other homesteaders from settling in the county.

The republicans of France obtained a great victory in the Senatorial elections on Sunday. The general result shows the election of sixty-four republicans and fifteen conservatives. The former will have a majority of about fifty-seven.

A squad of fifty revenue men, under Capt. Burnside, have returned from a raid upon moonshiners in the border counties of Kentucky and Tennessee. They report the destruction of over fifty distilleries, and the capture of a large number of distillers. It is thought the business is pretty well broken up in that region.

The county court at Harrisburg, Va., has acquitted J. Snyder of the charge of murder for killing Pete Slaughter, who had been quite intimate with the former's wife.

Four tramps were frozen to death at Glasgow Junction, Ky., Friday night, and one had a log run over at Mitchellville, Tenn., Saturday night.

Jacob Van Heusen, aged sixty-two years, went out Friday night to dig a grave in Greenbush, N. Y., and was found Saturday morning in the cemetery, frozen to death.

J. H. Smith, Secretary of the Memphis Howard Association, has completed his report, which shows the receipts to have been during the late epidemic, $417,536.60; disbursements, $415,790.53.

At an entertainment New Year's night in the city hall in Barnesville, O., called the Feast of Mondamin, upward of one hundred and fifty persons were taken violently ill, some miscreant having mixed croton oil with the food.

Two children named Nolan were found frozen to death in bed near Crawfordsville, Ind., Saturday; their father came home drunk Friday night, and threw the clothes off the children's bed. At Maple Rapids, Mich., Sunday, a party of hunters found a man and his wife frozen to death in a log cabin, lying on the floor before a fire-place and clasped in each other's arms.

The United States Supreme Court has rendered a decision in the case of the United States vs. the Union Pacific railroad and others, commonly known as the Credit Mobilier case. The decision of the lower court sustaining the demurrer to the bill in equity is affirmed, and the government's suit is therefore ordered dismissed.

Niagara river below the falls is spanned by a bridge of ice one mile long and sixty feet wide. The river has been spanned in this way before, but seldom if ever so early as now.

At a fire in Vesey street, New York, Tuesday, one fireman was instantly killed and nine others seriously injured by the fall of a building.

Mrs. General John H. Eaton, who, it will be remembered by many, was the cause of a rupture in President Jackson's cabinet, of which her husband was at that time a member, and which created considerable sensation in Washington society, is still living in that city. Mrs. Eaton, though now in her seventy-eighth year, is in good health, retaining her physical and mental powers to a remarkable degree.

There is residing in Washington city a native and well known business man, who has always resided in that city, who has never been inside of the National Capitol, and has never visited the White House but once, and that during the administration of President Jackson, more than forty years ago.

Among the noted men—some famous and some infamous—who died during the past year are Bryant, the poet; Henry, the scientist; Taylor, the author; B. F. Wade, the patriot politician; Gideon Wells, Lincoln's secretary of the navy; Samuel Bowles, the journalist; and Tweed and Morrissey, the New York politicians.

Mrs. Mary Marters of Boston claims to be the heir of $12,000,000 worth of property in Maryland and Scotland left in 1722 by William Mackey, of whom she is a direct descendant, and she has employed eminent lawyers to look up the case.

Representative Wilson of West Virginia is engaged on the preparation of a report to the committee on foreign affairs, of which he is a member, and which he thinks will be agreed to by the committee, in favor of returning to the Chinese government $400,000 or $500,000.

A Washington correspondent says: "The letters of Admiral Porter, lately published, have attracted much attention among members of Congress. The current opinion is divided in respect to the social scandal imputed to him, but members freely condemn his violation of the neutrality of the United States government during the Franco-Prussian war, which his own letters disclose. They regard it as very discreditable that an officer of the highest rank in the naval service should have endeavored to injure a friendly nation which had aided this country to achieve its independence. In all probability there will be a Congressional investigation of the subject if the President shall fail to notice the facts developed in the letters."

New Hampshire Items.

An agricultural convention was held in Concord Tuesday, and was well attended.

The house and barn of H. J. Brown were destroyed by fire Sunday night. A horse and cow perished in the flames. Loss, $1500; insurance, $700.

Please put it down to the credit of New Hampshire, that, if she was represented at all in the New England greenback convention at Boston, Thursday, the delegate took no part in the proceedings; and the crowd, in making up a committee of one from each Congressional district, could find no one to do duty for this State and had to leave the place vacant. Vermont seems to have been equally honored.—Mirror.

Political.

Not a single republican paper that we have seen or heard of has anything but words of commendation for the consistent action of the republicans of the Maine Senate in electing a hard-money democrat governor in preference to a republican greenbacker. We have not noticed in any democratic paper any panegyric of the "devotion to principle" which impelled the democrats who were elected to the Maine Senate as hard-money-men, to vote for a greenback republican for governor in preference to a hard-money democrat!

The legislature of Virginia has passed a resolution authorizing the governor to ask foreign bondholders or their authorized representatives, and all such creditors or their representatives as wish to participate, to meet the general assembly on the 22d inst., for conference about a plan of settlement of the State debt. The cheapest and best plan for Virginia to adopt for the settlement of her State debt is the only honest plan—to pay it; but this is just what the people of the State, or at least a disgracefully large proportion of them, don't want to do. "Re-adjustment,"—another name for repudiation—is a very popular plan there just now.

The text of that indignant letter sent by Tilden and reform to the chairman of the Potter-Tilden-fraud committee, demanding that he (Tilden and reform) be summoned before the pottering frauds to clear himself from all complicity in the "pretended" cipher despatch villainy, is not yet published. Something is no doubt the matter with the mail service—that letter won't get to Washington before Congress adjourns.

The Virginia Star being a democratic paper is no doubt a sound confederate logician. It reasons thus in regard to General Longstreet: "The people of the south do not owe him any gratitude for his services during the war, for the reason that he has since given in his allegiance to the government with which the south was at war." Allegiance to the United States is stamped as treason to the south now, and that is no doubt sound confederate logic.

Why, Verily!

Why be an animated tallow-shop when Allan's Anti-Fat is a safe and sure remedy for obesity, or corpulence, and will reduce the most ill-proportioned form to a graceful outline within a few weeks. It contains no ingredients that can possibly prove deleterious to the system. A well-known chemist, after examining its constituents and the method of its preparation, gives it his unqualified endorsement as a remedy that "cannot but act favorably upon the system and is well calculated to attain the object for which it is intended."

Dear Sir—I have taken two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat and it has reduced me eight pounds. Very respectfully,

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few cents more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it is economy to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsuplt079

E. G. PIERCE, Jr., P. M.

THE CITY.

Hon. Frank Jones commenced cutting ice on his pond at Peverly hill on Monday.

The beautiful and interesting exhibition, Maynard's Spectacular Illuminations, is to return to this city shortly, when it will be duly announced. We have no doubt that it will be well patronized next time, as all who attended it on its recent visit are volunteer advertisers of its merits.

The Times says that Mr. John W. Caswell, of the firm of Randall & Caswell, fish dealers, of this city, has just purchased of the trustees of Valentine Doane, Jr., all the estate at Newcastle belonging to Doane, including vessels, seine boats, seines, wharf property and buildings, etc.

"The New Hampshire Register and Business Directory for 1879" is issued by the Claremont Manufacturing Company, and contains all the political and business statistics, and other information, which has rendered previous issues so valuable for reference. Price twenty-five cents; for sale in this city by Willis E. Myers, at the Congress Block bookstore.

The installation of officers of the Piscataqua Lodge took place Monday evening. The officers are Langdon M. Perkins, N. G., Ira W. Brock, V. G., and the remaining officers the same as last year. The vote to indefinitely postpone the subject of the new hall passed at the previous meeting was sustained on Monday evening, although strong efforts were made to have it reconsidered.

On Friday evening, at Music hall, the J. C. Myers combination will present for the first time in this city the great play "Rose Michel," with Dollie Bidwell as the heroine. Reserved seats at only thirty-five cents each can now be procured at Preston's; admission, twenty-five cents. This play has had an extensive run in New York and other cities, and at the low price of tickets will probably draw a large audience.

A ludicrous instance of the would-be "seller" getting badly "sold" occurred in this city last week. Some brilliant genius sent to the Weekly a temperance poem—we suppose that is the proper name for it—which was also an acrostic, the initial letters of the several lines forming a silly insult to the editor. But the "poet's" grammar, while about on a par with his wit was far inferior to his petty spite, and in correcting the grammar the editor ruined the acrostic! So as nobody paid any attention to it, the funny fellow had to send to the Times a long explanation of what he meant to have got into the Weekly, but didn't.

The entertainment at Music hall this evening in the Rockingham Course will be one of the best things—if not indeed the best—of the season. The Martinez English Opera Co.,—which includes nine soloists and a strong chorus,—will present one of the most pleasing of the operas, "Fra Diavolo." Mlle. Martinez will be remembered by all who attended the performance of "The Bohemian Girl" at Music hall in October last, as a charming singer and actress, and Mrs. Barry has always been deservedly a favorite here; and the other leading performers are highly spoken of by the press wherever the organization has appeared. For fine voices, personal appearance, and everything necessary for the success of an opera company, this combination is not equalled by any English opera company in America at the present time. Tickets for this evening—reserved seats 50 cents, admission 35 cents.

THE LONG WALK.

Driscoll, who on Monday commenced his attempt to walk 400 miles in 130 consecutive hours, completed his first hundred miles in twenty-six hours, forty-six minutes and thirty seconds from the time of starting, having rested five hours, fifty-eight minutes and thirty seconds. He is a good walker, whether he manages to get through with the job he has undertaken or not. He made his 75th and 78th mile in ten minutes each, and his 99th miles in ten minutes and thirty seconds. Miss May Belle Sherman took the track with Driscoll at seven o'clock Tuesday evening, and walked with him until quarter past ten o'clock, when he left the track to get some sleep, having walked 119 miles. His attendant informs us that he is in good condition, and feels confident of succeeding in his attempt.

REFORM CLUB ELECTIOE.

At the regular meeting of the Portsmouth Reform Club, held Tuesday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:

President, James W. Marden.

Vice Presidents, George W. Randall, Horace A. Martin, Joseph French, Frank G. Thurston, Sewell W. Webber, Joseph Pettigrew, Samuel Taylor, F. Herbert Peverly, Samuel Stringer.

Secretary, James Treat.

Treasurer, James Janvrin.

Ticket Seller, Augustus Ham.

Ticket Takers, Benjamin Powell, Morris Tobin.

Chaplain, Charles T. Wiggin.

Finance Committee, Stephen W. Clarke, Sylvester Wright, James Sanborn.

Trustees, Albert A. Fernald, John S. Treat.

Standard Bearer, James Janvrin.

THE POSTAGE-STAMP RAGE.

Fewer and fewer come the boys stamping up the stairs of our office, all out of breath, asking for old postage stamps. Less lovelier,—no, lovelier less are the young girls who modestly request the same favor. It is one of the passions of the hour, that seems to have come and gone with the ever changing days. Numerous enquiries have been made by confiding collectors, for the kindly-disposed gentleman who was to pay the handsome sum for a million of stamps. Alas, he has gone into bankruptcy, and his assets amount to nothing!

The whole affair turns out to be a humbug. Stamps have been collected, cleaned, gummed and resold, but the kindly-disposed party who was to encourage the collection by good little boys and persevering girls, who could beg all the stamps from their friends and reach the high figure in the sweet by and bye,—he or she, as the case may be, is non est inventus. Curiosity has been excited as to the disposition of these stamps, many of which have been sent in small packages in the mails; and even in England the work of collection has been going on. Some one wrote to the London Notes and Queries to ascertain what use could be made of cancelled stamps, and to explain the process by which they were converted into the beautiful papier mache. But the practical editor informs correspondents that the cancelled stamps are not used for such purpose.

In the meantime, perhaps some government official (we believe the economical democracy have substantially done away with the secret service detective system,) will discover how the thing is done, and the demand for pictures of Geo. Washington and his cotemporaneous friend with a black eye, will cease, while the fertile genius of the projector of the enterprise of restoring these little pictures, will find a new field of adventure.

THE VICINITY.

The Portland, Saco & Portsmouth railroad pays a semi-annual dividend of three per cent on the 15th inst., at the office of the Eastern railroad in Boston.

Sheriff Stevens of York county, Me., has appointed as two of his deputies Horace B. Stuart of Biddeford and William E. Towne of Kennebunk. The name of Josiah Paul of Kittery is on Sheriff Stevens' bond, which is for $40,000.

On Sunday last the treasurer of the Free Baptist church in Biddeford announced, just before the morning sermon, that all bills against the society were paid in full. In the afternoon, when the pastor after the sermon lifted the cloth which covered the communion table, to his surprise and that of the congregation a splendid silver service was disclosed, the gift of some unknown friend of the society.

Sheriff J. Horace Kent furnishes the following list of his acting deputies, with their post office addresses: George E. Eaton, Candia; Ezra A. J. Sawyer, Deerfield; Isaiah A. Dustin, Derry; Geo. W. Tilton, Epping; Thornton B. Hoyt, Exeter; Samuel E. Woodman, Kingston; William Clark, Derry; John W. Smart, Newmarket; Joseph A. Trickey, Northwood Narrows; Chas. A. Shepard, Raymond; John N. Brown, Seabrook.

A Lemon Cure for Consumption.

A correspondent of an English medical journal furnishes the following recipe as a new cure for consumption:

Put a dozen lemons in cold water and boil until soft (not too soft), roll and squeeze until the juice is all extracted, sweeten the juice enough to be palatable, and then drink. Should they cause pain or looseness of the bowels, lessen the quantity; use five or six a day until better. By the time you have used five or six dozen you will begin to gain strength and have an appetite. Of course as you get better you need not use so many. Follow these directions and we know that you will never regret it if there is any help for you. Only keep it up faithfully. We know of two cases where both of the patients were given up by the physicians, and were in the last stages of consumption, yet both were cured by using lemons, according to the directions stated by us. One lady in particular was bedridden and very low; had procured everything that money could procure, but all in vain, when, to please a friend, she was finally persuaded to use the lemons. She began to use them in February, and in April she weighed one hundred and forty pounds. She is a well woman today, and likely to live as long as any of us.

Fun at Home.

Don't be afraid of a little fun at home, good people! Don't shut up your houses lest the sun should fade your carpets, and your hearts, lest a hearty laugh should shake down some of the musty old cobwebs there! If you want to ruin your sons, let them think that all mirth and social enjoyment must be left on the threshold when they come home at night. When once a home is regarded as only a place to eat, drink and sleep in the work is begun that ends in gambling houses and reckless degradation.

Young people must have fun and relaxation somewhere. If they do not find it at their own hearthstones, it will be sought in other, and perhaps, less profitable places. Therefore, let the fire burn brightly at night, and make the home ever delightful with all those little arts that parents so perfectly understand. Don't repress the buoyant spirits of your children; half an hour of merriment around the lamp and firelight of home blots out the remembrance of many a care and annoyance during the day, and the best safeguard they can take with them into the world is the unseen influence of a bright little domestic sanctum.

—A bad boy—a burglar's "Jimmy."

—A useful boy—a Congressman's "Frank."

Our Tenure of Life

Depends in great measure upon our regard for or neglect of the laws of health. If we violate them we cannot expect to "make old bones." But that the span of existence allotted to a naturally delicate constitution, or one which has been shaken by disease may be materially lengthened, is a fact of which we have daily proof. The vivifying and restorative influence of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters upon a failing physique affords a striking illustration of the power of judicious medication to strengthen the hold on life. Restored digestion, complete assimilation, renewed appetite, sound repose, these are among the benefits conferred upon the debilitated by that supreme renovant. With a circulation enriched, a frame invigorated, and a nervous system tranquilized, the invalid, after a course of the Bitters, feels that his life-tenure is no longer the precarious thing that it was—that he may yet enjoy a "green old age."

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. ljan1

The True Girl.

The true girl has to be sought for. She does not parade herself as show-goods. She is net fashionable. Generally, she is not rich. But oh! what a heart she has when you find her! so large and pure and womanly. When you see it, you wonder if those showy things outside were women. If you gain her love your two thousands are millions. She'll not ask you for a carriage or a first-class house. She will wear simple dresses and turn them when necessary, with no vulgar magnificat to frown upon her economy. She'll keep everything neat and nice in your sky-parlor, and give you such a welcome when you come home that you'll think your parlor higher than ever. She will entertain friends on a dollar, and astonish you with the new thought how little happiness depends on money. She'll make you love home (if you don't you're a brute) and teach you how to pity while you scorn a poor, fashionable society that thinks itself rich and vainly tries to think itself happy. Now, do not, I pray you, say any more: "I can't afford to marry." Go, find the true woman, burn up that switch-cane, be sensible yourself, and seek your wife in a sensible way.—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

DEVOE'S BRILLIANT OIL

1st. Is absolutely safe.
2d. Gives a powerful, brilliant white light.
3d. Does not smoke, nor smell, nor crust the wick.
4th. Is the most economical oil, because it gives the most light in proportion to its price.

We give the following letter to show the absolute freedom of Devoe's Brilliant Oil from any inflammable vapor, and as a curious incident:

PATERSON, N. J., April 17, 1877.

DEVOE MANUFACTURING CO.

Gentlemen:—I take great pleasure in sending this unsolicited recommendation of your Kerosene Oil.

At the great fire in this place, which destroyed Norwood's Paint and Oil establishment, and other buildings, on the 13th inst., your Oil stood one of most severe tests that Oil could be put to; for four (4) hours the Oil was in the hottest part of the fire, and such a fire as only Varnish, Turpentine, Oils and Paints can make, and in all that time there was no explosion of your Oil, and the cans containing the Oil were in very near the same condition after the fire as before.

I take great pleasure in recommending this Oil, as in my opinion it is the safest Oil for sale in the market. I remain, very respectfully,

JOHN E. REGNER,
Chief of Fire Department.

—To get an idea of the new panier style look at engravings of ladies of the Marie Antoinette period.

—"Rather than touch another drop of liquor," said a zealous convert at a temperance meeting at Alton, Illinois, the other night, "I would take a razor and blow out my brains."

— A Somerville school teacher, wishing to impart a lesson in natural history, doubtless, called the attention of a miss of five summers to a lobster in a provision dealer's window the other day, with the question: "What is that, Hattie?" "Dat's Santy Claws, I dess," was the reply. The teacher did not probe the matter further.

—A Rockland man gave a vest into his wife's hands to be repaired, and when he came home to dinner she showed him three pencil stubs, a piece of chalk, four watch-keys, nineteen matches, six pants and four coat buttons, a receipe for making milk-punch, a buckle, a blank lottery ticket, a small handful of cloves, part of a roll of lozenges, three seat coupons to a last winter's lecture, a poker chip and a chew of gum that had slipped down into the lining of the vest through a hole in the pocket. It was the most startling disclosure the Rockland man has seen since he read the cipher dispatches.—Rockland Courier.

—The other day while Major Robertson of Rock Hill, S. C., was lecturing his 15-years-old son on the careful use of firearms, he took up a gun to illustrate how a gentleman of his acquaintance, with a gun standing before him with its butt on the ground, shot himself fatally by carelessly dropping his upraised foot upon the hammer, thus discharging the weapon in his body. As the Major's foot went down in graphic illustration, bang went the gun, and he received the charge (luckily a small one) in his left jaw, inflicting a severe, but not a dangerous wound. It is thought that the boy was deeply impressed by this object lesson.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 3 to 5 pounds a week.
In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 189 pounds to 152 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-half pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOGLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWERS & WEBSTER, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. (It is the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost." Anti-Fat is an unprecedented blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, cures dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.
BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon pertinent observation. There while witnessed its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for the class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, do good and not harm, I stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it fora fair trial, I hereby GUARANTEE it to perform, and to fulfill under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Menstruation, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatening Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a single end or purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a work of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

Daily Chronicle.

Chronicle Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 6th.

Senator Thurman does not mean that the Blaine committee shall lack suggestions on the democratic side to justify his amendment to Mr. Blaine's resolutions. He has sent to chairman Teller another batch of information, including affidavits from persons in Florida and Alabama relative to the alleged misconduct of United States marshals at the polls on election day. Uncharitable people assert that this second installment of facts has been hurried in on the heels of the first because of the evident lack of material included in that one, as well as to raise all possible dust to conceal whatever developments may be made against his friends in the south. Some of the democratic papers have handled with particular severity the outrage upon United States witnesses in Louisiana, and the argument of "you're another" must be resorted to in a measure as an offset. However, every honest man hopes that Mr. Thurman will not cease to drive at wrong, whether real or imaginary, for there are many things that should be corrected in the electoral system, and agitation will tend to accomplish the object, whether the agitator means it or not. I should not fail to note in passing that Senator Thurman has reiterated his determination not to run for Governor of Ohio, and that the democrats who have urged him to consent are also more than ever determined in their views. They want him to be in Columbus on "Jackson day," when they hope that judicious wining and dining will "bring him around." But Mr. Thurman is a very shrewd man. He has more head than most of those who think they can use him as they like. His ambition to be President is a commendable one, but his pride as a Senator is equally justifiable, and he does not desire to give up a certainty for an uncertainty in running for the Ohio Governorship, and if it is possible he will refuse to the end to allow the use of his name for that purpose. The republicans are in equal tribulation, and the threats of dissensions against Charles Foster and Secretary Sherman have caused a decline in their stock so far as the Washington market is concerned. Ohio unfortunately threatens to be a "pivotal" State in politics for some years to come, and there is danger that several personal political fortunes may be wrecked upon its shore.

It is an interesting fact in connection with the resumption of specie payments that our balance of exports over imports for the last year has reached the value of about $270,000,000, which is an increase of more than $100,000,000 over the previous year. This has had a remarkable influence upon resumption, of course, and more than that it has aroused new life in many industrial branches and encouraged the very general belief that, with proper legislation, we may still more largely increase this favorable balance. By our lack of facilities for communication with the countries to the south of us we are every day giving away immense opportunities for trade which our industrial people need. While every European country of any consequence has several lines of ocean steamships to South America, supported by government subsidies, we have but one eking out a doubtful existence without any permanent aid, and that must soon be withdrawn unless a more liberal policy be adopted. Should this line be sacrificed to the rapacious monopolists of Europe, then our balance of trade will be materially reduced, for our South American trade would suffer serious loss. And the question is, why not rather enlarge our commercial facilities by liberal legislation than abandon the field we already occupy, by the continuance of a narrow and "penny wise" policy? Had we equal facilities even with the third-rate powers of Europe, our favorable balance of trade with South American nations alone would equal that which now so handsomely represents our trade in general. KNOX.

Why, Verily!

Why be an animated tallow-shop when Allan's Anti-Fat is a safe and sure remedy for obesity, or corpulence, and will reduce the most ill-proportioned form to a graceful outline within a few weeks. It contains no ingredients that can possibly prove deleterious to the system. A well-known chemist, after examining its constituents and the method of its preparation, gives it his unqualified endorsement as a remedy that "cannot but act favorably upon the system and is well calculated to attain the object for which it is intended."

BALTIMORE, M. D., July 17th, 1878.

Another Prayer for the Lawyers.

Not long ago a paragraph went the rounds of the papers, to the effect that at the opening of a court in Concord the clergyman who opened the proceedings with prayer, so-called, informed the Deity that the lawyers were there in court for the purpose of making the worse appear the better cause, etc. A friend informs us of a somewhat similar instance which occurred at the opening of the Supreme court for Hillsborough county at Manchester on the 7th inst., when the clergyman, after giving the Creator considerable information regarding the duties of a grand jury—a good part of the said information being incorrect, by the way—prayed that the lawyers might have "the unusual ambition to do right rather than to gain causes!"

News and Notes.

Judge Ward Hunt of the United States Supreme Court is completely paralyzed on one side, and will probably never take his seat on the bench again.

President Hayes on the 7th inst. sent to the Senate the name of Thomas L. Nelson to be United States District Judge for the District of Massachusetts.

A vessel recently arrived at New York reports having passed a large steamship, on fire and abandoned, at sea. She was so far burned that no name could be made out; was brig rigged, and painted black.

The Handkerchief shoal lightship went adrift in the northwest gale of the 3d inst., and up to the 8th no tidings had been heard of her. The revenue cutter Samuel Dexter has been sent after her.

Suspicious circumstances have come to light at Norwalk, Conn., in connection with the murder of the eccentric old German, J. H. Schulte, and his servant, Buckholz, a letter written by the latter to Victor Rohe of New York, asking him not to divulge the circumstances of Buckholz' past life and certain money transactions between the two, having been intercepted. A brush similar to one which Buckholz had has also been found in the field near the scene of the murder.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue Raum has rendered a decision in the Hostetter's Bitters case, in which he decides that dealers in these bitters are not obliged to take out a retail liquor dealer's license. He says: "From all the statements and representations thus made in this case, I am satisfied, notwithstanding the fact that these bitters are sometimes sold by the glass by retail liquor dealers, that they have been properly classed as medicinal bitters, and when duly stamped, under the provisions of Schedule A, of the Revised Statutes of the United States, that they may be sold as other medicinal articles, and sold without the vender being required to pay a special tax as liquor dealer."

David R. Stevens of South Britain, Conn., was bitten by a mad dog in October, and has recently died of hydrophobia. Thompson Beardley's son, and several animals, were bitten at the same time.

On Dec. 26th the consort of James Hubbell of Bennington, Vt., presented to him three charming infants, a son and two daughters, weighing together sixteen pounds. Mrs. Hubbell and her children are in a comfortable state of health.

Vick's Floral Guide is before us, and those who send five cents to James Vick, Rochester, N. Y., for it, will be disappointed. Instead of getting a cheap thing, as the price would seem to indicate, they will receive a very handsome work of 100 pages, and perhaps 500 illustrations—not cheap, but elegant illustrations, on the very best of calendered paper, and as a set-off to the whole, an elegant colored plate, that we fancy would cost twice the price of the book.

Among the licenses to marry recently granted in Boston was one to Lee King, a chinaman, who is to marry a young Boston lady.

The full bench of the supreme court of Massachusetts has overruled the exceptions taken in the case of William H. Devlin of Lowell, found guilty of murder in the first degree for killing his wife, and he will be sentenced shortly.

In one cargo of 1310 hogs received by a New Haven pork-packing firm last week from Buffalo, N. Y., 100 were frozen to death.

There is skating in Atlanta, Ga., for the first time in twenty years. Thousands of pounds of ice have been cut and packed there, the first time anything of the kind was ever known.

The law forbids any issue of national bank notes under $5 after the resumption of specie payments. The smaller bills are accordingly retired, as fast as they are worn out, and this makes room for the silver dollar. Now if the issue of silver dollars should be limited, or provision made for their redemption on demand, they would make a good token currency.

A correspondent of the New York Herald has seen General Kaufmann, at Tashkenk. The Russian commander says that the Afghans are beaten, but the English column will not advance, on account of the severity of the weather and the difficult and dangerous roads. General Kaufmann says the Afghans are good soldiers but have been wretchedly commanded.

In the municipal court at Providence, R. I., upon a petition for the appointment of an administrator on the estate of Thos. R. Carpenter, the famous horse trainer, claims were set on behalf of three wives. The court decided in favor of Mrs. Irene H. Carpenter, now living in Woodstock, Conn., who had a certificate of marriage at Concord, N. H., in 1866. Another woman, Mary E. Carpenter, who was living with him as his housekeeper, claims to have been married in New York, but says that the clergyman retained the certificate. A claim was set up of a still earlier marriage, the fruit of which was a son, whose residence is unknown. It is not known whether the matter will be further contested.

The new city government of Manchester was inaugurated Tuesday, 7th inst. The net indebtedness of the city Jan. 1st, 1879, is $992,297.70; decrease during the year, $33,660.73; disbursed, $410,844.28; unpaid bills, Jan. 1st, 1878, $24,751; cash on hand Jan. 1st, 1879, $24,971.41. The common council organized by the choice of John Whittle president, and S. B. Putnam clerk. The aldermen met Tuesday afternoon and elected the following officers: city marshal, Horatio W. Long; assistant marshal, William B. Patten; captain of the night watch, David Perkins. In joint convention, N. P. Kidder was elected city clerk, and Col. H. R. Chamberlain, who has already served twenty-eight years, was re-elected city treasurer.

Isolation of Diphtheria.

In a paper read at a late meeting of the American medical association, Dr. Bowditch of Boston took the grounds:

1. That, in case of diphtheria occurring in a pupil attending school, the patient should be wholly separated from other children until two or three weeks after his recovery, that those who had been especially exposed should be allowed to attend only after careful medical examination; that where several were afflicted, the school should be closed, and as many of the scholars as possible removed from the place.

2. That all clothing used by diphtheristic patients should be subjected to intense heat either of dry air or boiling water.

3. That the room should be thoroughly ventilated during the patient's illness, and afterwards disinfected.

4. That where the disease is prevailing as an epidemic, it would be desirable to erect a large hospital tent in an airy position, whither all the patients might at once be transferred, and in winter fit one of the houses or even a barn for the same purpose.

5. That we should treat diphtheria as we do scarlatina and small-pox.

Naval Matters.

Lieut. Andrew J. Iverson is detached from the Powhatan and ordered to the Boston navy yard.

Lieut. Albert S. Snow is detached from the Boston navy yard and ordered to this yard as executive officer.

Political.

At Hartford, Conn., Judge Carpenter of the superior court has decided the contest over the result of the October election of the selectmen in Hartford by throwing out Thomas J. Blake and George W. Fowler, democrats, first and second selectmen, and putting Roswell W. Brown and A. L. Sisson, republicans, into those offices. The decision was given on the ground that numerous "kiss-joke" tissue ballots found in the ballot-boxes were fraudulent.

Henry Watterson is going to do terrible things to New England if she don't let the south alone. He says: "She will be hoisted by her own petard. Maine and New Hampshire will be consolidated into one State. Connecticut, Rhode Island and Massachusetts into a second. Vermont will be attached as a county to New York."

—Aunt Dorothy wants to know if billiard matches are any better for home use than the old-fashioned ones.—Lynn Reporter.

—Cedar Rapids, Ia., is justly indignant over a report that diphtheria was very prevalent in that city, and sends aboard a denunciation. "It is a gross exaggeration," says the official card; "there have been but 170 deaths here, all told, since April 1, and only about 100 of those were from diphtheria." "Only about 100" is very good.

—Samuel and Jas. Wilkins, of Groveland, Mich., are a remarkable pair of twin brothers, looking so nearly alike, though born in 1799, that they can hardly be told apart. They married sisters on the same day; have always lived on adjoining farms, and, most singular of all, when one is taken with fever or other prostrating sickness, the other has the same complaint within a few hours.

—Mme. Cornu, the foster sister of the late Emperor Napoleon III, has been giving some interesting particulars concerning the early youth and manhood of the exile of Chislehurst. It appears that the idleness of the Emperor was excessive, he was strangely obstinate, and his sense of right and wrong was of the dullest. In a letter written to Mme. Cornu in 1860 he describes the Tuileries as a prison, second only to Ham, and longs for the pleasures of country life. His leading trait seems to have been generosity, for he never forgot a service rendered. In this at least he differed from several of his predecessors on the throne of France.

—A safety sand-bag has been invented by a man in Illinois. It is made to be attached to the legs of one's pantaloons, and by touching a spring sand is scattered over slippery places, making locomotion safe.

—"The Lord loveth a cheerful giver"—but there's no use chucking a copper cent into the contribution box loud enough to make the folks on the back seat think the communion service has tumbled off the altar.

—A newspaper in the inside coat-pocket saved a New Yorker's life from an assassin's bullet. The time is not far distant when it will be suicidal for a man not to take a paper. Now is the time to subscribe.—Boston Courier.

—A good, honest laugh at a good, honest joke or bit of sarcasm rubs out the gathering wrinkles of care; but an ill tempered joke is like a poisonous arrow, which makes a wound and leaves its poison after it has been withdrawn.

Its plan includes ESSAYS, REVIEWS, BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES, HISTORICAL PAPERS, TRAVELS, POETRY, NOVELS, and SHORT STORIES; and in the case of SCIENCE (to which much space and attention are given) no special prominence is allowed to any particular phase of opinion, but place is given impartially to the most valuable articles on both sides of the great themes of scientific discussion.

The following lists comprise the principal periodicals from which selections are made and the names of some of the leading writers who contribute to them:

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

CONSUMERS should bear in mind that the incomparable "Royal" is now the only Baking Powder in the market made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine-growing district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works so much better, that it proves cheaper to use it. Another says she uses the powder in puddings, cakes, and all sorts of pastry, without eggs. An old lady writes that it makes the only biscuit her dyspeptic husband can eat. This is because the best and most wholesome materials are used. Approved by the New York Board of Health, and by such eminent chemists as Dr. MOTT, New York; Dr. HAYES, Boston; Prof. GENTH, Philadelphia, etc. Sold in tin cans only. dtsep1079

E. G. PIERCE, JR., P. M.

THE CITY.

Dollie Bidwell in "Rose Michel" or "The Hidden Hand"—the advertisements say the former and the bills the latter—at Music hall to-morrow evening.

Rev. C. B. Pitblado of this city has since the middle of October last up to Jan. 8th, lectured thirty-five times in as many cities and towns in New England.

Miss May Belle Sherman, the pedestrian, is in correspondence with parties relative to a walking tournament to be participated in by ladies only, to be walked in one of the large cities.

The January number of the "New England Historical and Genealogical Register," which is just issued, contains a memoir of the late William H. Y. Hackett, preceded by an excellent likeness on steel. John Ward Dean, A. M., is the editor of the Register.

A very handsome engraving of the late Hon. W. H. Y. Hackett was on Wednesday presented to the high school, of which Mr. Hackett in his early years was principal. The picture, which is a striking likeness of Mr. Hackett, was placed on the wall near the principal's desk.

Prof. George Riddle, Professor of Elocution in Harvard university, is to give a reading from Shakespere on Friday evening at Miss Morgan's school, for the benefit of the Eclectic club. Mr. Riddle is quite a young man, having graduated at Harvard in 1874, and from there gone upon the stage, playing engagements in Providence, at the Theatre Royal, Toronto, and at the Boston Museum; and it is convincing testimony to his abilities that at his age he should be called to fill his present position. His readings at the Hawthorne rooms in Boston have been among the most fashionable and popular entertainments in Boston this year. Tickets will be on sale this morning at Rundlett's drug store. They will be limited in number, so purchasers cannot afford to delay, as this is the only reading Mr. Riddle will give here.

THE VICINITY.

Mr. J. Wesley Young of this city was reported by the Dover Democrat of the 7th inst. as being in that city introducing the "Vienna" compressed yeast.

The new bonds of the Portsmouth, Great Falls & Conway railroad are now ready for delivery, and the first three coupons thereon are now payable at the Maverick National bank of Boston.

The Exeter Gazette says that "In a will made at Portsmouth, Province of New Hampshire, in 1745, a certain sum is given payable in 'Proclamation Money,'" and the editor wants to know what kind of money that was, and how much a lot of it was worth.

It is reported that the scaling of the Squamscott savings bank of Exeter twenty per cent was necessitated on account of a note of $3000, held by the institution and given by the late Joshua Getchell. The paper was indorsed by men who, at the time of signing, were estimated to be worth $200,000. The Getchell note is the only doubtful paper owned by the bank.

A town meeting at Hampton on the 4th inst. voted to authorize the town to purchase the tide-mill property and remove the same to prevent flowage. There was much feeling about the matter, and the vote was carried by only one majority. An attempt was made to annul the vote passed to remove the buildings of "squatters," without effect. An agent was appointed to see that the vote was executed.

At North Berwick, on the evening of the 4th inst., a Mr. Chase, recently of Gorham, N. H., went into his house and asked his wife, who sat at a sewing machine at work, for a piece of cloth with which to make a bandage for a horse. She arose, procured a piece of cloth and then sat down to the machine again. Chase said the cloth was too wide, at which Mrs. Chase remarked, "there are the shears, you can cut it to suit yourself." Upon this Chase raised a chair and struck his wife a heavy blow with it across the back of the head, knocking her down. She was taken up senseless and medical aid summoned, but lay insensible for about twenty-four hours, and for a time it was thought she would not recover. She is however improving, and will probably get well. He is very ill tempered man and his wife left him for a while last fall but went back to live with him.

THE OPERA.

The second entertainment in the Rockingham Course was given by the Martinez English Opera Company on Wednesday evening, the audience being superior in point of numbers and quality even to the one that greeted the Boston Museum Company. The Martinez Company merits the laudatory notices it has received from the press, and presented "Fra Diavolo" in a manner to delight the audience and seemingly to justify the company's claim to be "the strongest English opera company in the country." M'lle Martinez as Zerlina was pretty and piquant enough to justify the love of Lorenzo, and the peeping of the three rascals in the chamber scene; she is a charming actress as well as singer, and if there was any failure on her part we could not detect it. Mrs. Barry as the flirting young bride, Lady Allcash—well, she was the little flirt, and her singing was what is always expected of this favorite vocalist. Mr. Walter Kennedy was heard in this city for the first time, and would be gladly listened to again; he has a rich, powerful and well cultivated voice, and his Fra Diavolo was a good piece of acting. Mr. Percy J. J. Cooper appeared as the jealous, close-fisted Lord Allcash, and pleased us as much as any one we ever saw in the part. Mr. Charles H. Thompson as Lorenzo, Mr. Digby V. Bell as Beppo, Mr. John Benitz as Giacomo, and Mr. John A. Phillips as Matteo were all good—all fine singers and good actors; Messrs. Bell and Benitz meriting special commendation, they having until recently taken only subordinate parts, though well qualified for important ones, as was shown by their making the best robbers that have appeared here.

But it is not only in soloists and leading characters that this company is strong; the chorus is large and well balanced, and attacked the concerted pieces with a firmness and precision most admirable; we are assured that every member of the chorus is qualified to appear creditably in solo, and we do not doubt it; and the orchestra is efficient, well trained and well directed. We have never enjoyed "Fra Diavolo" more than we did on Wednesday evening, and the audience seemed much of our mind, judging from the liberality of the applause and the remarks we heard after the close of the entertainment. Altogether, we do not hesitate to say that we never saw English opera more pleasingly presented in this city, and while we are perfectly willing to see it done better we have little hope that we soon shall. There were several persistent encores, Zerlina, Lorenzo and Beppo each being obliged to give repetitions; and Capt. Hilton can hug to himself the consciousness of having given us the most generally satisfactory entertainment yet.

The Martinez Opera Company are bound on a tour through the British Provinces, and will play in Montreal next Monday night.

Since the last previous performance in Music hall the front row of parquette chairs has been removed, and also the close board fence which surrounded the orchestra, the latter being replaced by an ornamental open-work rail so located as to give the musicians more room; this alteration is not only an improvement in the appearance, but adds very perceptably to the effect of the music.

STOP THAT CLAPPER.

Mr. Editor: In your advocacy of the giving up of the "nine o'clock bell" you but express the feelings of many persons, and the writer is one of them; but a far greater nuisance, and one which should be prohibited by law, is the tolling of bells at funerals. It is a worse than useless custom, for while the doleful sound is merely a disagreeable annoyance to those in health, it often exerts a seriously depressing influence on the sick. Public opinion is ripe for reform in this direction; will our city government merit the gratitude of everybody by abolishing the tolling of bells at funerals? BELL-METAL.

THE LONG WALK.

At one o'clock Wednesday morning Mr. Driscoll took the track once more, (having rested since quarter past ten o'clock the previous evening,) and walked until seven o'clock; he then took a short rest, after which he walked until five minutes before twelve o'clock, when he left the track for dinner.

Mr. Driscoll recommenced his walk against time at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon, and stepped off with apparent freshness. He takes a pretty long stride, three or four measurements on Tuesday evening each giving three feet and five inches. Miss Sherman again accompanied him in the walk, Wednesday afternoon, and there were several little spurts of speed between the two pedestrians, the lady being no mean antagonist in a pacing match. She also walked in the evening.

Driscoll's 155th mile was made in ten minutes, and his 161st in nine and a half minutes. Up to midnight Wednesday he had covered 185 miles, and was reported in good condition when he left the track.

The attendance was fair through the day and evening, more people being present than on either of the previous days.

At the last meeting of the society the secretary was instructed to correspond with the Massachusetts society to see if united measures cannot be taken to prevent cruelty to cattle in transportation; and the secretary was also instructed to prosecute the Eastern railroad if upon investigation he shall obtain evidence that they have violated the law requiring the unloading of animals once in twenty-eight hours for rest and feeding, or if evidence shall be obtained that the leaving a car-load of cattle exposed on the north side of the depot all night during the last snow storm was due to the fault of the company.

The committee on the distribution of literature were instructed to expend such sum for the distribution of humane publications during the current year as they may see fit.

Rev. E. M. Grant was elected an honorary member of the society.

A picture entitled "Before the Magistrate" was presented as a New Year's gift by Mr. Joseph Hiller Foster. The thanks of the society were voted to Mr. Foster for his gift.

The secretary was directed to inquire concerning the feed of the "Hourly" horses, and the number of miles per day travelled by them.

The president reported that a circular had been received from the American Humane Society, giving an account of the doings at the last annual meeting at Baltimore.

The president was appointed a committee to nominate five of this society as members of the American society, of whom the president should be one.

The president was also appointed to prepare suitable resolutions of respect for Mrs. King, who founded the Georgia Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and who has lately deceased.

Attention was called to the recommendation of President Hayes in his annual message for a general cruelty law to prevent cruelty in the transit of cattle. The following preamble and resolutions were then adopted:

Whereas, The remarks of President Hayes in his recent message, in regard to the important subject of the transportation of cattle, cannot fail to be of great assistance in the removal of existing evils,

Be it Resolved, That we, the directors of the New Hampshire Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, return him our sincere thanks for the influence he has exerted in behalf of the cause in which we are engaged.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to the President.

Dress-making in Schools.

The school commissioners of Indianapolis, after a careful investigation of the matter, have voted to introduce a novel feature into the advanced grades of the girls' schools, which is nothing more nor less than the somewhat intricate science of dressmaking. It seems that Mrs. Jackson, a lady of standing in that city, has invented a system of dress cutting and fitting which she believes to be adapted to schools, and has asked the privilege of trying an experiment in that direction—the system being entitled the "Science and geometry of dress." After mature deliberation the school authorities decided to accede to the lady's proposal, have purchased a number of her text books, and have further made twelve lessons of one hour each in dress fitting and cutting a part of the course in two grammar schools for one term. The lady who has invented the system will instruct the classes. The decision of the school officers has created much interest in Indianapolis, and the newspapers contain letters both favoring and denouncing the innovation.

—The Phillips Phonograph is not dead yet. It says: "While two persons were enjoying a sleigh ride, last Saturday, a sudden turn threw them both out, when the horse struck a lively gait for home. The gate he struck when entering the yard, was also quite lively for an instant, it being scattered to the four winds."

—Lieut. Williams of Greencastle, Ind., has recovered the speech he lost some years ago, in a singular manner. While standing by his horse in the stall, the animal was frightened and jumped back suddenly, violently squeezing the lieutenant's chest, and loosening his tongue again, to his great surprise and joy. But this sort of treatment could hardly be recommended.

Our Tenure of Life

Depends in great measure upon our regard for or neglect of the laws of health. If we violate them we cannot expect to "make old bones." But that the span of existence allotted to a naturally delicate constitution, or one which has been shaken by disease may be materially lengthened, is a fact of which we have daily proof. The vivifying and restorative influence of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters upon a failing physique affords a striking illustration of the power of judicious medication to strengthen the hold on life. Restored digestion, complete assimilation, renewed appetite, sound repose, these are among the benefits conferred upon the debilitated by that supreme renovant. With a circulation enriched, a frame invigorated, and a nervous system tranquilized, the invalid, after a course of the Bitters, feels that his lifetenure is no longer the precarious thing that it was—that he may yet enjoy a "green old age."

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. tJan1

PATERSON, N. J., April 17, 1877.

DEVOE MANUFACTURING CO.

Gentlemen:—I take great pleasure in sending this unsolicited recommendation of your Kerosene Oil.

At the great fire in this place, which destroyed Norwood's Paint and Oil establishment, and other buildings, on the 13th inst., your Oil stood one of most severe tests that Oil could be put to; for four [4] hours the Oil was in the hottest part of the fire, and such a fire as only Varnish, Turpentine, Oils and Paints can make, and in all that time there was no explosion of your Oil, and the cans containing the Oil were in very near the same condition after the fire as before.

I take great pleasure in recommending this Oil, as in my opinion it is the safest Oil for sale in the market. I remain, very respectfully,

JOHN F. REGNER,
Chief of Fire Department.

A Heroic Convict.

In Memphis when the fever's deadly breath first smote the city, a man, a stranger, offered his services as a nurse. They were accepted, and he began his duties in the hospital. He was skillful, unremitting and attentive in his care of the sufferers. It turned out later that this man had but recently been released from prison, where he had served out a sentence of ten years. Some of the physicians on learning this part of his history, regarded him a little suspiciously, and hinted that his attention to the sick was not without questionable motives. They watched him sharply. Finally from the funds sent from the north, he was paid for a month's services. It was enough to have taken him out of the fever stricken country had he chosen to go. He was seen to go out of the hospital on the day he received the money, and a colored policeman followed him. He hurried along the streets until he came to the post office. There was a box in which to deposit contributions to the fever fund. The ex-convict dropped in every dollar he had received for the month, and returned to his post at the hospital. Two or three days later he was missed from his accustomed place, and it was not until the next week that his body was found with that of an old negro, in a miserable shanty. He had gone to nurse this negro who had been left to die alone, and so met his fate, being himself stricken with the fever. There was none to offer as much as a cup of water to him who had tenderly cared for more than a hundred of the fever victims. This man had spent ten years behind prison bars. His crime is not told. Perhaps a thief, perhaps a forger, possibly a murderer. But however black his blotted upon life's page, let it be said that death has wiped them out. If living he had trod only the path of sin, his death was at least divine—he died for others.

PENNSYLVANIA

GREAT THROUGH LINE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. Its Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rail, laid upon a broad oak tie, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 4 to 5 pounds a week.
In making this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to DEKEMAN'S drug store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient in New York, R. I., says, "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 160 pounds to 132 pounds, and there is general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or alteration in diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOLLITTER & SMITH, of Boston, Mass. write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. COWELL & FLEMING, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N.Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen,—For following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. 'It (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I have never to regain what I have lost.' Allan's Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, cures dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career, in its merits as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for the class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly. I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician, and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottles.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not offer this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 300 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

Appetite for Liquor.

A drinking man can supply himself easily with the remedies used at nearly all the inebriate asylums, and be his own physician at his own home without the necessary expense and publicity of visiting the Washington home or any other reformatory institution.

His laboratory need contain only a small quantity of cayenne pepper, a pot of concentrated extract of beef and a few grains of bromide of potassim. When the desire for drink recurs make a tea from the cayenne pepper, as strong as can be taken with any degree of comfort, sweeten it with milk and sugar, and drink. This tea will supply the same place that a glass of liquor would fill, and will leave no injurious effects behind. Repeated daily, or often as the appetite returns, it will be but a few days before the sufferer will have become disgusted with the taste of the pepper, and with the appearance of this disgust disappears the love for liquor. The fact is proven every day. The extract of beef used according to the directions on the pot, in quantities as may be needed for the time being; it furnishes a cheap, easily digestible and healthy nutriment, it being made "to stay on the stomach" when heavier articles of food would be rejected. The bromide of potassium is to be used carefully and only in cases of extreme nervousness, the dose being from fifteen to twenty grains, dissolved in water. This is a public exhibit of the method of treatment adopted at the inebriate asylums.

In addition thereto the drinking man should surround himself with influences which will make him forget the degrading associations of the bar-room, and lift him upward. He should endeavor, so far as his business avocations will permit, to sleep, bathe, and eat regularly, and obey the laws of health. By the adoption of this course energetically and sincerely, no man who has the will to resist can fail to do so. Hundreds and thousands can attest the truth of these statements.

Jerry Black's Story.

Judge Black of Pennsylvania tells a comical story of a trial in which a German doctor appeared for the defense in a case for damages brought against a client of his by the object of his assault. The eminent jurist soon recognized in his witness, who was produced as a medical expert, a laboring man who some years before and in another part of the country had been engaged by him as a builder of post-and-rail fences. With this cue he opened his cross-examination: "You say, doctor," he began with great deference and suavity, "that you operated upon Mr. ——'s head after it was cut by Mr. ——?"

"Oh, yaw," replied the ex-fence builder; "me do dat; yaw, yaw."

"Was the wound a very severe one, doctor?"

"Enough to kill him if I not save his life."

"Well, doctor, what did you do for him?"

"Everything."

"Did you perform the Cæsarian operation?"

"Oh, yaw, yaw; if me not do dat he die."

"Did you decapitate him!"

"Yaw, yaw; me do dat too."

"Did you hold a post-mortem examination?"

"Oh to be sure, Schudge; me always do dat."

"Well, now, doctor," and here the judge bent over in a friendly, familiar way, "tell us whether you submitted your patient to the process known among medical men as post-and-rail-fenciorum?"

The meek doctor drew himself up indignantly. "Scherry Plack," said he, "I always know'd you was a tam jayhawk lawyer, un' now I know you for a tam mean man."

—A waiter uncorked a bottle of wine in a Parisian cafe. "How long did you say this wine had been bottled?" "Fourteen years." "Ah, that is a long time for a fly to live; see, he is swimming round quite lively."

—But presently the clown turned a double-back somersault and the house was wild with excitement. "There, ma," exclaimed Miss Kellogg, laughing, "you'll admit that I couldn't do that?" "No, I won't!" said Mrs. Kellogg, warming up; "you know well enough you could do it, Clara, if you had on your Mignon suit, and nobody was looking."—St. Louis Times.

—"Treacherous" opera glasses are so made that every particle of beautifier of whatever kind stands out in bold relief as soon as the glass is levelled at the victim. They come from a new maker, and their power can hardly be guessed until they are placed to the eye. They alter the face of the person examined, enlarging it somewhat and making any outward application appear like a coarse mark.

Why, Verily!

Why be an animated tallow-shop when Allan's Anti-Fat is a safe and sure remedy for obesity, or corpulence, and will reduce the most ill-proportioned form to a graceful outline within a few weeks. It contains no ingredients that can possibly prove deleterious to the system. A well-known chemist, after examining its constituents and the method of its preparation, gives it his unqualified endorsement as a remedy that "cannot but act favorably upon the system and is well calculated to attain the object for which it is intended."

BALTIMORE, M. D., July 17th, 1878.
Prop'rs Allan's Anti-Fat, Buffalo, N. Y.:
Dear Sir—I have taken two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat and it has reduced me eight pounds. Very respectfully,
MRS. I. R. COLES.

He Hasn't Done It.

The glad tidings was recently sent out from Washington by the democratic correspondents that Tilden and reform had written a letter to Potter, chairman of the Tilden fraud committee, asking to be summoned before the committee that he might clear himself from all complicity in the "alleged" cipher despatch frauds. A similar statement was once before made by the democratic papers, but was soon denied; and now we are told that "The report that Mr. Tilden had written to chairman Potter asking to be subpœnaed to testify about the cipher despatches is not true." Tilden hasn't written any such letter, and he won't.

News and Notes.

Benjamin Hunter is to be hung today at Camden, N. J., for the murder of Armstrong. He confesses the murder.

A young man, supposed to be a tramp, was found nearly frozen in R. H. Filley's barn at Windsor Falls, Conn., the other morning, taken to the house and carefully nursed. After he had recovered he was fed, clothed and given a ticket to Springfield, Mass. Now his kind friends have learned that he is an escaped prisoner from the Hartford jail, for whom a reward of $125 is offered.

The Secretary of the Treasury on the 8th inst. issued another call for $10,000,000 in bonds.

A Lowville, N. Y., despatch says a very fatal disease has broken out at Martinsburg, near there. It was thought to be diphtheria or scarlet rash, but is now called black tongue. A few days ago four of Edward Williams' children died. Three more of the same family have since died. A young man named Millard, aged seventeen years, died after a few hours' sickness, and many more are lingering on the point of death. The people of that section are almost panic-stricken.

Hon. Julian Hartridge, representing the First District of Georgia in Congress, who has been ill several days, died in Washington on the 8th inst., of pneumonia. This is the third member of Congress who has died within one month.

Mr. Herbert H. Smith, who is now in Brazil, collecting material for a series of papers on that interesting empire, to appear in Scribner's Monthly, writes as follows: "People in the United States know little about this great famine that is raging in the northeastern part of Brazil; I myself had no idea of its importance until very lately. It is enough to state that it affects at least one-fourth of the whole population of the empire; that hundreds are dying of starvation, and thousands of disease incident to exposure and insufficient food. In the city of Ceara, which will be my principal point of study, the normal population of 30,000 has been swelled to 80,000 by fugitives from the drouth-smitten interior country; and among this 80,000, the death-rate has reached the enormous figure of 300 per day. These droughts are periodical, occurring once in twenty or thirty years; it seems to me, therefore, that a study on the spot will be of very great importance; it is entirely another side of Brazil from that which I have before seen and written of."

T. D. Conyngham, a forger, has been captured at Rio Janeiro, and is being sent back to the United States. He is wanted at Wilkesbarre, Pa., where he victimized the Second national bank in 1876 to the amount of $200,00.

The committee appointed by the executive committee of the United States Centennial Commission to investigate the accounts of the centennial board of finance has completed it work. The credit and debit accounts balance at $11,161,155.35.

It is stated that the cattle men of northwestern Nebraska are organizing to rescue Olive (who is one of the wealthiest cattle owners in the west) and his eight fellow herders, who are in jail in Kearney, Neb., for the murder of Mitchell and Ketchum, the two homesteaders who were burned to death by the savage herders. The citizens are arming to hold their own against the herders, who have in previous years captured the town. Serious troubles are apprehended.

A new phase of quickened conscience was lately shown by an erring young granger of Brookfield, Mass., who requested the local justice to compel his marriage to his sweetheart, then in an interesting condition. He said the girl was willing, so was her father, but she was a minor, bound out, and her employer wouldn't even let him see her. So the justice and deputy sheriff served a writ on the girl, the groom paid the costs, and the dominie put a satisfactory ending to this chapter of the story.

Twelve years ago the American debt was nearly two thousand eight hundred millions of dollars, the greater part being six per cent bonds. Now, as we have seen, the capital sum has been diminished by fully one-fourth, and of the remainder only 667 millions pay six per cent, 703 millions five per cent, and 250 millions 4 1-2 per cent, while the four per cent bonds, of which 117 millions have been issued, are rapidly supplanting the higher denominations. If the Americans can accomplish these things in "hard times," we are almost afraid to ask ourselves what they will be able to do in the period of prosperity which, as Mr. Hayes and Mr. Sherman are agreed, is opening before them. It seems difficult to understand how Mr. Sherman's ability to give effect to the resumption act could ever have been seriously questioned.—London Times.

Political.

Senator Thurman sent a letter to the democratic gathering at Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 8th, in which he glorified the democratic party, but had not a word to say on the currency question except to imply that a democratic war on the national banking system will be a continuation of Jackson's war against the Bank of the United States.

Gov. Garcelon of Maine was inaugurated on the 8th inst. In his speech he declared himself a friend of specie payments, denounced the legal-tender act as unconstitutional, the national banking system as too costly for the people, and protection as the source of much misery and disaster to the country. Notwithstanding his opinion of the unconstitutionality of the legal-tender act, he would retire the bank currency and substitute treasury notes.

Senator Grover of Oregon says that the charge made against him in certain newspapers of misappropriating the public funds when he was Governor of Oregon, is not true, and that he can show vouchers for every dollar disbursed by him. It will be well for his good name if he can, for the charge of failing to account for the funds is made by a committee of the Oregon legislature and not by the newspapers; and "Gobble's" connection with the attempt of the Tilden coparceners to buy the presidency of the United States is not calculated to give the public a very lofty idea of his honesty.

Even so good a Louisiana democrat as Representative Randall Lee Gibson speaks right out in meeting about Gov. Nicholls and the State finances. He says that Nicholls is "stupidly indifferent," and doesn't care whether the January interest on the State debt is paid or not. Nicholls' indifference to the importance of sustaining the credit of the State is all the more unpleasant to Gibson because the latter induced banker Corcoran of Washington and others to take Louisiana bonds when the Nicholls goverment superseded that of Packard. Gibson appreciates the value of State credit if Nicholls does not, and he is now at New Orleans working like a beaver to get the bankers and private capitalists to loan the State money enough to meet the January interest.

Dr. Garcelon, the new Governor of Maine, and Hon. William P. Frye, republican Congressman from that State, married sisters. The brothers-in-law once ran for Congress on opposing tickets.

The difference between republican and democratic rule in Louisiana, financially speaking, is marked. Under Gov. Kellogg the State debt was reduced by compromise with the creditors from $25,000,000 to $15,000,000, taxation was reduced from 21 1-2 mills to 14 1-2 mills, the interest on the debt was regularly and promptly paid, and when the government was turned over to Nicholls there was $300,000 in the treasury. Now the State treasury is empty, the January interest on the debt is unpaid, there is nothing to pay it with, and a frantic appeal is made to the bankers and capitalists for a loan of $900,000 to meet the January interest, provide for the coming session of the legislature, and pay the current expenses of the State government.

New Hampshire Items.

It is stated that the seats of the two democratic Representatives who were declared elected last November in Newport will be contested, one of them having only one majority, and this it is alleged was obtained by throwing away a vote which was cast for a republican candidate. The second member, it is said, was given a majority by counting for him votes cast for Jerry Elkins and for Jeremiah Elkins, while the correct name of the candidate was Jeremiah S. Elkins.

A subscription has been raised from the merchants of Concord who have been favored with the trade of St. Paul's school for a long term of years, amounting to $1150, towards building a gymnasium for the pupils. There is annually paid the sum $50,000 to the Concord trade by this institution, not taking into account that paid by the boys individually.

The annual meeting of the Knights of Pythias Mutual Relief Association of New Hampshire was held in Dover, Tuesday night. The following officers were elected: President, George W. Varney of Dover; Vice President, W. A. Frye of Newmarket; Secretary, W. K. Chadwick of Dover; Treasurer, Larkin B. Moulton of Rochester. The Society has 275 members. The next meeting will be held at Farmington.

—A European traveller has discovered a new flower of gigantic proportions in the forests of Sumatra. Its average diameter is thirty-three inches, and the discoverer has given it the specific name of "Titanum."

—A match safe—when the minister has tied the knot.

—The United States has suffered from Chinese cheap labor, English sparrows and foreign lecturers. We are now threatened with a revival of the Shanghai rooster.

—It is a Chicago Tribune personal advertisement which reads: "A young lady would like to make the acquaintance of a nice young gentleman who will take her sleighing."

—Being in Ireland, Grant very properly did as the Irish do, and so perpetrated this bull: "We have had our day of depression. Yours is just coming on. I hope it is nearly over."

—The custom in Texas of carrying arms was illustrated in San Antonio the other day when a chained Mexican lion in a show seized a little girl, and fourteen revolvers were instantly emptied into the brute.

—A lady in Dumfriesshire, Scotland, went into the kitchen, when the boiler in the range exploded, injuring her seriously. This would be a lesson to mistresses if at the same time the cook hadn't been killed.

—Suspicion dwells innate in every human breast. Even the word of George Washington would be doubted if he attempted to account for a black eye by stating that a stick of kindling wood flew up and hit him.

—"American drinks" known at Paris: Blue Blazes, Fairy's Kiss, Flash of Lightning, Heap of Comfort, Boston Float, Dog's Nose, Rattlesnake, Arctic Region, Corpse Reviver, Colleen Bawn, Maiden's Blush, Morality Punch, Spelling Bee, and Prairie Oyster.

—"Over the hills to the poorhouse" was the title of a new play to be produced in Battle Creek, Mich., by a traveling theatre company. The leading actor got so drunk that he could not perform, creditors seized the baggage, and one of the unpaid employes actually did go over the hills to the poorhouse.

—It was a rich old widow who wondered that the handsome young man had fallen in love with her. "Yes, it is wonderful," said Mr. Sprucebig, "but I love you to distraction. Why, I even love the ground you walk on." "I thought so," observed the widow, "but I am not in want of a landlord at present."

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Most of the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 2c. a ℔. Cream of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. diseptl0

THE CITY.

The Weekly says Mrs. H. O. Houghton gave a reception for Mrs. Celia Thaxter at her residence in Cambridge on Friday evening, 5th inst.

Dollie Bidwell in "Rose Michel" at Music hall this evening, supported by J. C. Myers' New York Combination. Popular prices; see advertisement.

The Good Templars of Biddeford are building themselves a hall, as many Granges do. In Portsmouth, the Good Templars "hire a hall" of a brewer, and the Sons of Temperance are located directly over a beer shop.—Weekly.

The schooner Lizzie M. Stewart, formerly of this port, and some time ago reported as wrecked at Barrington, N. S., was towed into Yarmouth, N. S., Dec. 28th, and sold on the 31st to Nehemiah Nickerson for $785. She was put on the marine railway for repairs.

"Three stars" writes: "I desire to make a slight correction to your article on 'Fra Diavolo.' Mr. Kennedy, who sustained the leading part, has sung in this city before. Those few of our citizens who attended Mrs. Rockwood's Easter concert well remember the pleasure his singing gave on that occasion." That accounts for our error—we did not attend Mrs. Rockwood's concert last year. Several of those who occupied front seats at the opera also complain that the prompter had too much to do; this may be—no doubt is—so; but as we, with the modesty universal among newspaper men, occupied a chair at the rear of the hall, we could bid defiance to the prompter and all his works, and enjoy the excellent singing and good acting to our heart's content.

THE VICINITY.

The county commissioners of York county, Me., have organized by the choice of Joseph Bragdon of York as chairman.

The Biddeford Times says that Mrs. "Aroostook or Bust" Simpson, late of Biddeford and now of Aroostook county, Me., writes that she and her husband do not want any more shovels, forks, hoes, rakes, wrenches, scythe stones, spoke shaves or cultivators. What they are most in need of is food.

Joseph Chase of North Berwick, the brutal fellow who assaulted his wife with a chair on the 4th inst., as previously reported, was taken to Saco on the 7th inst., and lodged in jail to await trial at the supreme judicial court now in session at Saco, he having been bound over by Justice Haven A. Butler of North Berwick, and been unable to procure bonds.

In the Supreme Court at Saco, Wednesday, the case of Hannah T. Lord vs. the Boston & Maine railroad, for damages for injuries received in alighting from a train at Old Orchard about two years ago, was entered neither party. This case was tried a year ago, and a verdict of $2000 rendered for the plaintiff. Exceptions were filed, and before the full bench the verdict was set aside and a new trial ordered. The case has been abandoned by the plaintiff.

The names of Warrington Paul of Kittery, Samuel Clark of Eliot, David Clark of Wells, and Humphrey C. Weymouth of North Berwich, appear in the list of grand jurors in attendance at the court at Saco. Henry Riley of Kittery, John Nelson of Eliot, Alma H. Merrow and Elijah Blaisdell of York, George Thompson and Sullivan C. Hatch of Wells, William B. Littlefield of North Berwick, William H. Rich of Berwick, and Ivory L. Goodwin of South Berwick, are traverse jurors. Sullivan C. Hatch, of Wells, is foreman of the first traverse jury.

It was in the town hall of the refined and classical Exeter. The manager of the evening had presented him to a lovely young lady of faultless attire, and as the couple waited the signal to begin, the young student from the Modern Athens remarked as he took in the situation, "What a fine assembly. There is something so inspiring, so developing of refined tastes in these select assemblies, that I am always delighted to partake of such æsthetic enjoyments. Do you not consider this a cultured and polished assemblage, a gathering of the gentler and most polite people of this celebrated educational resort?" asked he. "It's the boss," answered the sweet partner, as she shook out the folds of her skirts, preparatory to obeying the call to the first four, while the disciple of Phillips nearly lost his breath before he could get a glass of lemonade.

THE LONG WALK.

Driscoll continued his weary tramp on Thursday, and at quarter past one o'clock P. M., seventy-two hours after starting, had completed his 217th mile. Up to 4:30 o'clock P. M. he had rested twenty-four hours and twenty-two minutes in all, and accomplished 226 miles, the 226th mile being walked in thirteen minutes. At 4:50 he again took the track after a short rest, and at 10:30 had walked 239 miles. A lameness of one ankle, occasioned by his turning it Wednesday evening, troubled him some all day, but was improving on Thursday evening. On Thursday afternoon he was presented with a handsome bouquet and a candy cane; on Wednesday he received two bouquets.

The Fife and Drum Corps have volunteered their services for this evening.

The gallery is reserved for ladies, and during their presence no smoking is allowed in the hall.

CITY COUNCILS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen, Thursday evening:

The monthly bills were presented and ordered to be paid.

Voted that the bill for a ventilator to be placed on the School street school house be referred to the Board of Instruction; also the bill of Dr. S. C. Whittier, for services as coroner, be referred to committee on claims.

The annual report of the Chief Engineer was read, accepted and referred to committee on fire department.

C. W. Bailey requested the board to take some action in regard to the slaughter house of Cyrus L. Brown, on Hancock street.

Voted that Mr. Brown be notified and that the board make an examination of the premises at two o'clock Monday afternoon.

Adjourned.

A BAD JOB.

Intelligence was received in this city on Thursday that smoke and steam were issuing from the coal-pocket of the Cocheco Manufacturing Company at Dover, and that serious results were feared, as it was thought the vast mass of coal was on fire in the middle, and flames were expected to break out at any moment. The pocket will hold about 15,000 tons of coal; the amount actually in store, as we learn from E. F. Sise & Co., the Portsmouth agents, being about 13,000 tons. A fire in a large coal-heap is an ugly thing to handle under any circumstances; and when the coal is bituminous, as that in the coal-pocket at Dover is, the difficulty is greatly increased, as the burning coal "cakes" or runs together in such a way that water has little more effect than to cool the outer crust.

POLICE COURT.

THURSDAY, Jan. 9; Batchelder, J.

Thomas Collins, for drunkenness, was sent to Brentwood for thirty days, and ordered to pay costs of $6,90.

Mrs. Artie Barney, for the same offence, will stop at Brentwood for four months, and $6.90 worth longer.

John Caton, another drunk, goes to Brentwood for not having $9.90 to pay fine and costs with.

William Robinson, of Newton, an elderly man, was bound over in $200 for his appearance at a higher court to answer to the charge of keeping liquor for sale. Robinson keeps a hotel in Newton, and we are informed keeps a respectable house, and drinks no liquor himself; but a search of his place revealed several bottles of liquor in a cupboard and two or three jugs in the cellar, so he was brought before the court for breaking the law.

U. S. COMMISSIONER'S COURT.

Hackett, Commissioner.

Edward Eastman of Freedom was brought before Commissioner Hackett, on Thursday, by United States Marshal Patterson, charged upon two complaints with being a retail dealer in liquors without payment of the special tax as required by law. Eastman pleaded guilty to one complaint and not guilty to the other, and thirty days time was allowed to give him an opportunity to confer with the Collector of Internal Revenue upon the subject. Eastman recognized in $200 to appear February 19th.

PROPOSED NEW HIGHWAY.

The Dover Board of Trade at its last meeting discussed the proposed new highway and bridge between Dover and Eliot; and the Dover Democrat, commenting on the subject, says:

In regard to the new road to Eliot there is no dispute about the advantages sure to accrue to Dover. The road if built is to be a continuation of the Gulf road, so called, to the South Berwick river. Crossing that river involves a new bridge, which it is proposed to construct by a stock company, and make it a toll bridge. The company for its construction has already been chartered by the New Hampshire Legislature, but it requires permission from the Maine Legislature to land it on the Maine side of the river. This will be attended to during the present session of that body at Augusta. When this road and bridge are completed there can be no doubt that about all the trade of Eliot and York and a good portion of South Berwick will come to Dover. It is their nearest and most available market as soon as this road is completed.

A committee of three members of the Board of Trade, was appointed to aid in the prosecution of the scheme by all proper means. There is no doubt that its completion would transfer considerable York county trade from this city to Dover.

LOCAL NEWS, FROM CALIFORNIA.

Two spiritual mediums went from Boston to Portsmouth, N. H., and designated, while professedly controlled by the spirit of Captain Kidd, the spot where a large amount of treasure was buried. As this was in accordance with an old tradition the villagers were greatly excited. Digging was kept up night and day for a week, but nothing was found.—Oakland (Cal.) Radiator.

Villagers indeed! Where is the man who wrote that item? Villagers! We'll show him! What makes it all the worse is that the business manager of the Radiator is Mr. John O. Hanscom, a Portsmouth boy—and yet the editor of that paper calls the people of this metropolis "villagers." And how true it is that one has to go away from home to get the news of home. The disclosure by spiritual agents of the locality where Kidd buried his gold, the excitement of the "villagers," (we hereby challenge the editor of the Oakland Radiator to a duel on Gerrish's island—time, April 1st, 1879—weapons, swords—distance, ten paces—winner to have all the stakes and half the gate-money,) and the digging night and day, are all mythical; is fact, the only true statement in the Radiator's item is that "nothing was found."

Probably the item grew out of the treasure-hunting performances in Stratham, where some very large holes have been dug by hunters after Capt. Kidd's buried treasure, acting no doubt under the influence of spirits.

—No matter how hard it is to find a rocking chair during the day, a man is sure to fall over one when he is looking for the match box after dark.

—A preacher in Kentucky, the other Sunday, becoming exasperated, paused in his discourse to say: "Ladies, if you will give me your close attention I will keep a lookout on that door, and if anything worse than a man enters I will warn you in time to make your escape."

Our Tenure of Life
Depends in great measure upon our regard for or neglect of the laws of health. If we violate them we cannot expect to "make old bones." But that the span of existence allotted to a naturally delicate constitution, or one which has been shaken by disease may be materially lengthened, is a fact of which we have daily proof. The vivifying and restorative influence of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters upon a failing physique affords a striking illustration of the power of judicious medication to strengthen the hold on life. Restored digestion, complete assimilation, renewed appetite, sound repose, these are among the benefits conferred upon the debilitated by that supreme renovant. With a circulation enriched, a frame invigorated, and a nervous system tranquilized, the invalid, after a course of the Bitters, feels that his life-tenure is no longer the precarious thing that it was—that he may yet enjoy a "green old age."

Consumption Cured.
An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. tjan1

Thousands of living grave-robbed witnesses proclaim the wonderful virtues of Adamson's Botanic Balsam as a speedy cure for coughs, colds, asthma and consumption. Sample bottles free. Large bottles, 35 and 75 cts.

Reflect that in every cemetery [illegible] of the silent tenants are the victims of neglected Coughs and Cold; and if you are thus afflicted, avoid their fate by resorting at once to Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar, an immediate, agreeable, and certain means of cure. PATERSON, N. J., April 17, 1877.
DEVOE MANUFACTURING CO.
Gentlemen:—I take great pleasure in sending this unsolicited recommendation of your Kerosene Oil.
At the great fire in this place, which destroyed Norwood's Paint and Oil establishment, and other buildings, on the 13th inst., your Oil stood one of most severe tests that Oil could be put to; for four [4] hours the Oil was in the hottest part of the fire, and such a fire as only Varnish, Turpentine, Oils and Paints can make, and in all that time there was no explosion of your Oil, and the cans containing the Oil were in very near the same condition after the fire as before.
I take great pleasure in recommending this Oil, as in my opinion it is the safest Oil for sale in the market. I remain, very respectfully,
JOHN E. REGNER,
Chief of Fire Department.

PENNSYLVANIA
RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. Its Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed:
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and roadbed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 3 to 5 pounds a week.
In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions, and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ALLEMAN'S drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says, "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 199 pounds to 122 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOBBITTS & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & PLIMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. 'It (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from five to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost.' Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet of Testimonials sent on receipt of stamp.
BOYANIC MEDICINE CO., PROPRS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the occasion of confinement, alighted it out the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and efficacious remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician, and so confidently am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under the A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfils a slugginess of purpose as a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

Daily Chronicle.

Chronicle Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 8th.

The holidays are over, and yet with Congress this is only constructively true, since, although it reassembled yesterday, even to-day it is scarcely ready for work, many members not having yet returned. The only noticeable events yesterday were the introduction in the Senate by Senator Edmunds of a resolution declaring the power and duty of Congress to adopt measures for the complete enforcement of the late constitutional amendments for the protection of the rights of citizenship, and instructing the judiciary committee to inquire what action is necessary to that end, and Mr. Acklen's request in the House for a committee to investigate the slanders against him, which the House declined to grant.

The yellow fever commission will return to Washington in a few days, laden with much valuable information relative to the disease and its prevention. One cause of alarm is the report of physicians that the germs of the disease may not be entirely eradicated in the houses that are kept at a high temperature during the winter. This must constitute a very dangerous element if next summer the disease should be imported by incoming vessels, since it would be a groundwork from which death and commercial disaster might spread up the Mississippi and Ohio rivers and so on throughout the entire country perhaps. Some means must be adopted, therefore, to prevent this importation—some means more effectual than our clumsy, expensive and perilous quarantine service. One plan proposed is to apply the "freezing out" process to arriving vessels. Several methods have been discussed, but that of Prof. Gamgee of London is the most favorably received by scientific men. He says it can be applied to this service economically so as to be a thorough protection; and Surgeon General Woodworth of the Marine Hospital service endorses his views. It would be necessary to this work to construct a small steam vessel which should be stationed, say, at the mouth of the Mississippi, or any other threatened point, having all the machinery necessary to the rapid refrigeration of the atmosphere and the manufacture of ice. The vessel would have to be constructed purposely for the work, and in this view, so that no time may be lost, a scientific gentleman connected with the War Department is already at work on plans for such a vessel, so they may be laid before Congress without loss of time. Prof. Gamgee says that the largest vessels may be thoroughly "frozen out" and cleansed in twenty minutes, and no part of the vessel or any of its contents escape fumigation if the process is properly applied. The great danger threatening the country through a repetition of last year's epidemic is sufficient justification for a liberal expenditure in any plan of this sort which science approves, and no doubt prompt action will be had upon this matter. Should the plan be adopted and prove successful, it would finally be applied at every point exposed to infection by any epidemic disease.

The first installment of evidence before the Blaine committee has a decidedly "bloody-shirt" aspect, and the republicans aver that worse is to come even from democratic sources.

Since resumption there is a very gratifying increase in the demand for the four per cent bonds, and from this and other evidences it is hoped that the monthly reduction in the public debt after a short time will be much larger than ever before. The greenback inflationists and repudiationists are dumbfounded at the solid triumph of the hard money policy, as it developes more emphatically day by day.

The woman suffragists will meet tomorrow for their annual convention, and for the twentieth time, more or less, they will demand of Congress equal political rights with men. One of their special objects besides, at this time, is to demand some decided action against polygamy in Utah or anywhere else, and in this they will have the co-operation of many who do not usually agree with them.

KNOX.

—The Pennsylvania couple who were married a few days ago at the age of eighty-six and eighty-seven are considerably outdone by two representatives of the Jewish race in Russian Poland. The bride was a widow precisely 100 years old; the groom was a youth of eighty-eight. Indeed, the bride has a daughter, with whom she has lately lived, whose age is as great within four years as her step-father's, while a great-great-great-grand-daughter is a girl of thirteen. Notwithstanding her advanced age this bride is said to be strong in her faculties. She goes out of the house alone, hears and sees "perfectly well," and retains all her mental powers.

Portsmouth Chronicle

SATURDAY, JANUARY 11, 1879.

A Blow at Polygamy.

The Washington despatches of Thursday say:

Delegate Cannon says that there is a great consternation in Utah over the decision of the United States Supreme Court against polygamy, and that polygamy will cease.

We have already briefly referred to this decision, which settles the question raised in Utah involving the constitutionality of the law of the United States passed July 1st, 1862, which declares that any person having a husband or wife living who marries another, whether married or single, in a territory or other place, over which the United States have exclusive jurisdiction, is guilty of bigamy, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500, and by imprisonment for a term of not more than five years. Under this law George Reynolds, a prominent Mormon, was indicted by a grand jury for contracting a bigamous marriage. He was tried in the United States district court and found guilty. He appealed to the Supreme court of the territory, which sustained the lower court, and then he took an appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States. He was represented by able counsel, who took the ground that polygamy was a part of the Mormon religion, and that religious freedom was guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States. Attorney-General Devens appeared for the Government, and his position was that polygamy is a part of no religion, but a practice that is barbarous and destructive of society and government. Chief Justice Waite delivered the opinion of the court, in which he is sustained by the entire bench, and he held that the plea of religious convictions is not a valid defence, and that the polygamous marriages in the Mormon church are not protected by the constitution of the United States. The effect of this very important decision can hardly be less than far-reaching and fatal to the corner-stone of the Mormon delusion. How it will be received remains to be seen. Submission or resistance is the alternative, though some way may be found for a time to evade the law.

An Office Seeking a Man.

The office of Assistant U. S. Treasurer, recently resigned by Franklin Haven, Jr., seeks an incumbent who will give two hundred and fifty thousand dollar bonds, be responsible for the honesty of his subordinates, and be content with a salary of five thousand five hundred dollars a year. In fact, the place with the liabilities offers no inducement, and Mr. Haven, though he has resigned, still is obliged to remain because no successor appears.

Bloody Affair.

The hostile Cheyennes confined at Fort Robinson, Nebraska, on Thursday night attempted to escape, jumping out of the windows of their prison, and firing on the guard with revolvers as they ran. The guard returned the fire, and killed over forty of the Indians, and over 160 cavalry men, mounted and dismounted, started in close pursuit of those who escaped at first.

An Interesting Comparison.

The purchasing power of gold, or the value of commodities now as compared with other years, is thus shown by the editor of the New York Public, who has been and is still engaged in an exhaustive comparison of prices of commodities, extending over the past twenty to fifty years. Having examined tables of prices of over eight hundred articles, representing four-fifths in value of all commodities entering into commerce or consumption in the country, he concludes that they establish the approximate correctness of the following ratios, reducing quotations to gold, viz: "$100 in 1860 equals in purchasing power $126 in 1864, and $124 in 1873, and $81.67 on Nov. 1st, 1878. The shrinkage in the average gold value of commodities—exclusive of all stocks or bonds, and of real estate—from January 1st, 1873, to November 1st, 1878, appears to have been about 34.1 per cent."

News and Notes.

Hon. John Lowell of Boston took the oath of office as Circuit Judge on Thursday.

Provincetown, Mass., advertises for sealed proposals to print 700 copies of the town reports.

Portland has had an oyster famine, happily relieved by an arrival of 2700 bushels of oysters from Virginia.

The British steamship Bayard, from New Orleans bound for Rouen, France, foundered at sea Dec. 10th, and all but two of her crew were lost.

Benjamin Hunter was hanged in the jail at Camden, N. J., on Friday, for the murder of John M. Armstrong on the evening of Jan. 23d, 1878, the motive being to get $26,000, Armstrong's life being insured to that amount in Hunter's favor. Hunter confessed his guilt before the execution, but the confession will not be made public until it is used on the trial of Thomas Graham, who was hired by Hunter to murder Armstrong, and who did strike him the first blow with a hatchet.

Capt. Bogardus on Thursday evening concluded his attempt to break 6000 glass balls out of 6200 thrown in the air, at Gilmore's Garden, New York. He broke 5686 balls before missing one; then, after a rest, he missed thirteen in succession, and then finished breaking the 6000 without missing another ball.

A court-martial has been called in the case of the collision of the German ironclads in the English Channel on the 31st of May, 1878, in which nearly 300 lives were lost.

A meeting of those engaged in the fishing interests was held in Portland, Thursday, at which resolutions were adopted urging that the fishery clause of the Washington treaty should be at once annulled, and expressing sympathy with the Gloucester movement.

At Avoca, Wisconsin, Wednesday, an examination was held over the body of Henry Doty, aged eighteen years, who was recently found in Wisconsin river. It appeared that the father of the boy is a hard character, who, when enraged, was in the habit of whipping the boy terribly. The evidence showed that the father struck the boy on the head with some weapon, killing him; then, fearing detection, he shot a pistol ball through his head, and, to give the appearance of suicide, threw the body and pistol into the river. The father and his nephew, Wilson Doty, are in jail.

The marriage in Woburn, Mass., of Thomas Taylor, a colored man, to Sophia Carpenter, an eighteen-years-old white girl, is making a great deal of town talk. Rev. Mr. Pomfret of the Methodist church performed the ceremony.

Out of the 80,288 youth in San Francisco, 38,672 were enrolled last year in the schools. The average daily attendance was 26,932. The average salary paid per month to male teachers was $159.32—to female teachers $81.32. The estimated value of school property is $2,711,000. The principals of the two high schools each receive $4000 a year. The teachers in grammar schools vary from $85 to $70, according to period of service, grade of certificate and rank of classes taught. In the primary schools principals' salaries vary from $150 per month to $100. Teachers' salaries vary from $50 per month for teachers on probation, to $70 for teachers with three years or more experience, holding a first-grade certificate. The total expenses for the School Department for 1878 were $980,258.99, which is 21.2 per cent of the total expenses of the city.

During the eight months of last year in which Providence tried the plan of making lodgers at her station houses pay for their entertainment by work, her tramp visitors decreased to 1568, from 5191 for the same period in 1877.

In West Goshen, Conn., Wednesday night, John Fanning cut the throat of Myron Beach, aged twenty-two years, killing him instantly. Fanning was subsequently shot by a party named Alling, but not fatally.

The legal representative of Thomas Kenna, who, with his wife and daughter, was drowned in the Hamlet trench at Woonsocket, R. I., last year, has presented a claim against the town for $15,000. Other claims for the death of his wife and daughter will be presented.

It is said that the Nova Scotia members of the Dominion government will ask the government to lay a sub-marine cable from Berryhead, N. S., to Sable island, a distance of eighty miles. It is contended that this island lies in the centre of the storm track, and that warning could be sent from there of the advent of storms from the Atlantic.

The Boston & Albany railroad earned one hundred and forty-six thousand dollars less in 1878 than in 1877, but saved more than that in expenditures, so as to return an increased net income,—not a healthy result, as the morals of railroad bookkeeping usually show.

On Thursday night three men, named McFarland, Peterson and Maloney, went to the house of an old man named Neval, near Pecatonia, Ill., brutally beat the old man and tied him to a tree, and then criminally assaulted his wife and daughter. The ruffians were arrested.

The American railroad construction for 1878 amounts to 2,688 miles, the largest for any year since 1873. It has been mostly in the middle and northwestern States. Forty-eight railroads, having about 4,000 miles of track, and nominally representing originally more than $300,000,000 of capital, have been sold under foreclosure during 1878.

The Netherland Trading society, which has a paid-up capital of $14,400,000, and which acts as commercial agent of the Dutch goverment in connection with its colonies, has established a branch at New York.

A new literary magazine. The Dollar Magazine of current foreign literature is announced by the American Book Exchange, 55 Beekman street, New York, the first number to appear January 15th. It will be similar in character to the well known Littell's Living Age and Eclectic Magazine, containing in a year's numbers, about one-third as much matter as the former, and four-fifths as much as the latter. Monthly, 128 pages, $1.00 a year. Specimen number sent for six cents postage.

A Young Lady's Diary.

A young lady shouldn't keep a diary too much in detail, particularly when she is pretty and otherwise attractive and receives a great deal of attention from men. A girl of Snyder county, Pa., has got a whole lot of people into trouble by this sort of business, some one having found her diary and not exercised much care about keeping its contents from the public. The little book is full of human nature, shown up in underscored words and a great many capital letters. "I went riding," she says, on a certain day, "with Mr. Perkins; he kissed me a good deal." Then Mr. Jenkins went home with her from church services and "hugged me for a quarter of an hour at the front gate," and there are an endless number of sensational entries of this kind, until one would suppose the kissing and hugging would have become monotonous to this young woman; and no doubt they would, but the recorded facts are that no man seems to have had a monopoly of either branch of the business. As this young lady was the conceded belle of the village, and dangerously smart and handsome, it was not a very strange sort of thing, so far as the men were concerned, and it probably never would have agitated the community had Mr. Perkins and Mr. Judkins and all the others fellows been single men. But they were not, and a great deal of domestic unhappiness has resulted from the indiscretion of the young woman who couldn't resist the temptation to set down her victories in a book, and then put the book where somebody could get it.

A Laughable Mistake.

It occurred at the Nashua & Lowell passenger station, A Nashuan who had arrived on the train discovered what he supposed to be his dog in possession of a stranger. Said he to the stranger: "I'll take that dog, if you please!" whereupon he slipped the rope from the dog's neck, said "come Dan!" hastened away, leaving the stranger (a well known Greenfield physician) puzzled and dissatisfied with that way of doing business. The doctor would have followed him and obtained satisfaction, but the Greenfield train was ready to move, and he must go home, dog or no dog. The Nashuan, whose dog has been stolen two or three times, felt happy over his good luck, and so on his way home he dropped in to laugh with Joe Ackerman and other friends, and tell them all about it. Imagine his surprise on reaching his residence to find his dog snoozing in the chimney corner, and to realize that he had stolen another man's canine. He hastened to the street, learned the owner's name, telegraphed an apology and promised to send the dog home by the morning express. In the meantime the Greenfield physician had telegraphed the police to arrest the thief that had stolen his dog, and make an example of him at his expense. The police were in ignorance of the facts and had no suspicion that the person named for the larceny was the well known citizen, and consequently a warrant was issued and a search made, whereupon the captain of the night watch discovered the facts and left a memorandum for the marshal, saying: "Mr. —— has the dog; it's a mistake; no arrest; he will make it all right." In the morning the doctor put in an appearance by the first train. He was met at the station by the Nashuan and dog, an explanation made, charges paid, and a good laugh enjoyed by the parties concerned and the crowd. The two dogs were together and it would puzzle a fancier to tell "t'other from which."—Telegraph.

Foreign Literature, Science, and Art.

THIRTY-FIFTH YEAR.

THE ECLECTIC MAGAZINE reproduces from foreign periodicals all those articles which are valuable to American readers. Its field of selection embraces all the leading Foreign Reviews, Magazines, and Journals; and while the tastes of all classes of readers are considered nothing trivial in character, or of merely transient interest is admitted to its pages. Its plan includes ESSAYS, REVIEWS, BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES, HISTORICAL PAPERS, TRAVELS, POETRY, NOVELS, and SHORT STORIES; and in the case of SCIENCE (to which much space and attention are given) no special prominence is allowed to any particular phase of opinion, but place is given impartially to the most valuable articles on both sides of the great themes of scientific discussion.

The following lists comprise the principal periodicals from which selections are made and the names of some of the leading writers who contribute to them:

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "royal," finds that it goes so much further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Most of the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 5c. a lb., Cream of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. dtsep10

THE CITY.

The reform club holds a free meeting in Mechanics' hall, Sunday evening.

Rev. Mr. Hubbell of the North church and Rev. Mr. Owen of the Freewill Baptist church exchange pulpits to-morrow afternoon.

Commodore John Guest, commandant of this navy yard, is seriously ill with gastric fever, combined with an affection of the heart. Drs. Wentworth, Cleborne and Burbank are attending him.

The Times and the CHRONICLE locate Doane's wharf and buildings at Newcastle. They are really in Portsmouth, being on Marvin's island, which is a part of this city. The wide-awake editor of the CHRONICLE is well posted on the location of Funchal, but he is not so well acquainted with the geography of his native town. —Journal.

THE VICINITY.

The Exeter paper mills are doing a full business, running night and day, entirely on Manila paper.

Newington has 414 inhabitants, and during 1878 only four deaths occurred there. There were five marriages and seven births.

The Dover cornet band at their annual meeting, Jan. 6th, re-elected Ralph L. Reinewald leader and W. D. Taylor second leader.

The Boston & Maine railroad has petitioned the Maine Legislature for permission to discontinue the South Berwick branch railroad.

Rev. R. D. Sawyer of South Newmarket has been called to the pastorate of the Universalist church at Milford, Mass., at a salary of $1200.

The schooner Mary E. Caswell, before reported ashore on Smuttynose island, was get off the rocks on Thursday and towed over to Appledore island.

Mr. Orrin Foye of Rye is having his spacious ice house packed with ice of a superior quality and thickness. Mr. John L. Downs of this city has the contract.

Felix Courtois, a French boy of twelve years, was sliding down Main street, Great Falls, on a sled, Thursday, when he ran into a post and was probably fatally injured.

Mr. E. C. Moody, of York, having been elected a member of the governor's council of Maine, declines the appointment of deputy sheriff for the towns of York, Kittery, Eliot and Wells, tendered him by High Sheriff Stevens of York county.

Hope Division, Sons of Temperance, of Newcastle, has elected the following officers: W. P., Silas H. Harding; W. A., Mrs. Marian White; Chaplain, N. B. Yeaton; Rec. Scribe, Rufus A. Preble, Jr.; Asst. R. S., Benjamin F. Curtis; Fin. Scribe, John Kinnear; Treasurer, Mrs. Octavia Amazeen.

The agent of the Cocheco Print Works desires us to state that the capacity of their coal shed is about 7000 tons, and the amount now in store not above 6000 tons. That steam was discovered arising from the coal, causing some uneasiness, but it having been promptly attended to the damage will be but trifling.

The docket for the term of the supreme court to commence at Exeter on Tuesday, 21st inst., has 370 civil, sixty-four equity, thirty State and five sessions cases for attention. Judge Foster will preside. On the State docket, the indictments against George Roberts of Salem for arson, and Mrs. Matilda Perry of Deerfield for cruelty to a child, will probably be tried.

Sheriff Chick and officer Davis of Great Falls on the 8th inst. went to Milton and captured Patrick Kerrigan, a sneak-thief whose plan of operations is to snatch goods from store-doors in the evening. Kerrigan made a hard fight, but was overpowered and taken to Great Falls, where he was arraigned on Thursday in the police court on three charges, and fined $10 and costs on each charge, making a total of $70.

On Wednesday the voters of Rye met in town meeting at the town hall, to take action on the establishment of a high school. But little interest was taken in the matter, only about fifty persons being present. Joseph W. Garland was chosen moderator. Hon. Emmons B. Philbrick made remarks in favor of the proposal to establish a high school, but it was defeated by a vote of eighteen nays to eleven ayes. The law requires that two-thirds of the legal voters of the town shall take part to make affirmative action legal. Rye will have no high school just yet.

A strange affair occurred in Biddeford on Thursday. Charles W. Ross, administrator of the estate of Alonzo L. Berry, brought suit to recover a balance of $292, claimed to be due Berry for services in Day's store, and the case was taken up on Thursday. The case has been before a jury twice before; at the January term of 1876, Berry, the plaintiff, died soon after leaving the witness stand, and the case was withdrawn from the jury; the case was tried again at the May term, last year, the jury disagreeing. On Thursday the jury returned a verdict of $292 for the plaintiff. The defendant, Mr. Day, left the court room immediately after the verdict, drove home, and at half-past four o'clock was discoverd hanging from a beam in his stable. He had driven in, taken the reins from the harness and hanged himself with them from the beam, and when discovered was dead. Mr. Day was an old citizen of Biddeford, and the owner of considerable real estate; he was probably rendered temporarily insane by the trial.

THE LONG WALK.

On Friday Driscoll continued to make his miles, and moved around the track like clockwork, the lameness of his ankle having greatly decreased; he was in good spirits, and expressed his confidence of being able to accomplish his 400 miles on time. His stride was measured several times during the day, and was exactly the same as when he commenced walking—three feet and five inches. Driscoll on Friday received an offer for a match with "Unknown" of North Attleboro', Mass.

At midnight Thursday he had walked 241 miles; on Friday at 11 o'clock P. M., when he left the track for a rest, he had made 316 miles, and was in fair condition, and confident. The last five miles previous to this rest he walked in sixty-six minutes.

The Metcalf Flute and Drum Corps, composed of young lads, gave some good music during the evening, and were frequently applauded by the audience, which was quite large. The Drum Corps will be present this afternoon and evening.

Miss May Belle Sherman, who has been here through the week to encourage Driscoll on his weary tramp, and has kept on the track with him a large portion of the time, is a very graceful walker, and apparently has the endurance to succeed in a long walk should she attempt it. She informed our reporter on Friday afternoon that she had slept but four hours since Monday night. She has been asked on what terms she will perform a fifty-mile walk in New Bedford.

THE CITY GUARD.

The members of the Portsmouth City Guard, Capt. J. E. Ford commanding, turned out in good numbers on Thursday evening for measurement for their new uniforms, which are not inferior in appearance to the dress of the other companies in this city. The style is somewhat after that of the Rockingham Guards of years ago; a coat of dark blue, with buff trimmings bordered with red on the skirt sleeves and collar, with three rows of buttons in front, ten buttons on the skirt three on each sleeve, and two each side of the collar; buff epaulettes, with fringe of the same color, with red headings. The cross-belts are white. The pants are a medium shade of blue, with inch and a quarter buff stripes on the sides, bordered with red. The hat is of black plush, glazed top, with a white plume tipped with red. This company has recruited to the full number, and when in possession of their new outfit, which will probably be within a month, they are invited to the residence of one of our public-spirited citizens to partake of a collation, etc.

CHIEF ENGINEER'S REPORT.

Chief Engineer Fletcher of the fire department, in his annual report to the city government, submitted Friday evening, makes a number of recommendations and suggestions for improving the efficiency of the department, and lays before the city fathers the condition of the apparatus, a list of the reservoirs, hydrants, etc., and other items of interest.

The department numbers one hundred and thirty-two men all told. The apparatus consists of four steam fire engines, (one of which is held in reserve,) two fire extinguishers, one hook and ladder truck, one supply wagon, and one hose carriage for extra hose. There are 7400 feet of leathern hose, 4000 feet being in good condition and the rest poor; 1000 feet of linen hose is absolutely worthless.

He recommends the purchase of 1000 feet of leathern hose; the erection of a suitable building for the hook and ladder truck; that a larger supply pipe be attached to the Market square reservoir, and that the reservoir on the south side of Puddle Dock be put in such condition that an engine can be placed there when required; also that there be a hydrant placed at the corner of Pleasant and State streets, suitable for a steamer to draw from, as the water from the south pond at low tides would not allow the department to use the reservoir at the Universalist church, consequently that part of the city at low tide would be without water. He also recommends that a reservoir be constructed in the vicinity of the distillery on Dennett street at Christian Shore.

There were twelve alarms of fire from Jan. 1st to Dec. 31st, 1878. The total value of the property destroyed by fire is given at $5950, which was covered by insurance. There was one false alarm, three incendiary fires, two from defects in chimneys, two from benzine-igniting, two from causes unknown, one from burning out of a chimney, and one from newspapers taking fire.

The amount expended under direction of the board of engineers was $7860.69 of which $5600 was for salaries and $2260.69 for contingent.

New Hampshire Items.

The residence of Curtis Gates at Littleton was burned Thursday morning. Loss $6000; insured $3500. Most of the furniture was saved.

Towne's new block in Manchester was damaged to the amount of $2000 by fire and water, Thursday morning. The fire broke out in a closet in Arion hall, where a dance had been held the previous evening.

Rev. L. P. Cushman of Fisherville, who has been selected as presiding elder of the Houston district in Texas, and who has taken his departure for his new field of labor, is a native of Vermont, fifty years of age, and was a member of the first class that graduated from the Biblical Institute in Concord. Mr. Cushman has been in the ministry in Vermont and New Hampshire nearly thirty years, and his assignment to Texas is no ordinary loss to his denomination in this section. He will make it his home at Houston. Mr. Cushman's eldest child, a daughter, sailed for China as a missionary a few months ago.

The Yankee characters in "Joshua Whitcomb" were drawn from living persons in Swansey, and when the play was on the stage in Boston a large excursion party went from Swansey to see it.

Howell, who is ordered to take charge of the Mediterranean squadron, will take passage in her.

Our Tenure of Life

Depends in great measure upon our regard for or neglect of the laws of health. If we violate them we cannot expect to "make old bones." But that the span of existence allotted to a naturally delicate constitution, or one which has been shaken by disease may be materially lengthened, is a fact of which we have daily proof. The vivifying and restorative influence of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters upon a failing physique affords a striking illustration of the power of judicious medication to strengthen the hold on life. Restored digestion, complete assimilation, renewed appetite, sound repose, these are among the benefits conferred upon the debilitated by that supreme renovant. With a circulation enriched, a frame invigorated, and a nervous system tranquilized, the invalid, after a course of the Bitters, feels that his life-tenure is no longer the precarious thing that it was—that he may yet enjoy a "green old age."

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, New York. tjan1

1st. Is absolutely safe.

4th. Is the most economical oil, because it gives the most light in proportion to its price.

We give the following letter to show the absolute freedom of Devoe's Brilliant Oil from any inflammable vapor, and as a curious incident:

PATERSON, N. J., April 17, 1877.

DEVOE MANUFACTURING CO.

Gentlemen:—I take great pleasure in sending this unsolicited recommendation of your Kerosene Oil.

At the great fire in this place, which destroyed Norwood's Paint and Oil establishment, and other buildings, on the 13th inst., your Oil stood one of most severe tests that Oil could be put to; for four [4] hours the Oil was in the hottest part of the fire, and such a fire as only Varnish, Turpentine, Oils and Paints can make, and in all that time there was no explosion of your Oil, and the cans containing the Oil were in very near the same condition after the fire as before.

I take great pleasure in recommending this Oil, as in my opinion it is the safest Oil for sale in the market. I remain, very respectfully,

JOHN E. REGNER,
Chief of Fire Department.

Political.

The republicans of the Colorado legislature have nominated Prof. N. P. Hill as United States Senator. This is equivalent to an election.

A San Francisco despatch says Senator Jones will be re-elected by the Nevada legislature.

An Indianapolis despatch of Thursday says: "Leading democrats of the Indiana Legislature yesterday endorsed Tilden as their choice for the Presidential nomination in 1880, and pronounced the financial question a dead issue."

The New York Gold Room has been closed and will not be opened again until the democratic party plunges the country into another scrape.—Burlington Hawkeye.

The action of the republican Senators of Maine deserves the highest praise. They have a right to claim that they elevated a democrat solely for his faithfulness to the cause of honest money.—Buffalo Courier, dem.

Why, Verily!

Why be an animated tallow-shop when Allan's Anti-Fat is a safe and sure remedy for obesity, or corpulence, and will reduce the most ill-proportioned form to a graceful outline within a few weeks. It contains no ingredients that can possibly prove deleterious to the system. A well-known chemist, after examining its constituents and the method of its preparation, gives it his unqualified endorsement as a remedy that "cannot but act favorably upon the system and is well calculated to attain the object for which it is intended."

BALTIMORE, M. D., July 17th, 1878.
Prop'rs Allan's Anti-Fat, Buffalo, N. Y.:
Dear Sir—I have taken two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat and it has reduced me eight pounds. Very respectfully.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In Construction AND Equipment
THE

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE, forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 3 to 5 pounds a week. In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so delighted over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says, "Your bottles have reduced her weight from 189 pounds to 152 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or alteration in diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOLLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & PLIMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen.—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. 'If the Anti-Fat had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds, I hope never to regain what I have lost.'" Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.
BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROPRS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN
By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for those diseases.
To designate this natural specific, I have named it
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special disease incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the diseases for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)
The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most potent specific for the diseases peculiar to the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.
Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.
Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

Captain Boyton's Adventures.

Captain Paul Boyton, the well known swimmer, has sailed for New York from Queenstown. The captain has lately been sequestered in Belgium, having crossed the French frontier in consequence of the threatenings of the law which followed a challenge to a duel. He had been engaged in a lawsuit, brought by the guardians of a little girl whom he had accidentally wounded during one of his torpedo experiments. A verdict of 550 francs fine and 1,000 francs costs had been returned, and some difficulty ensuing with one of the opposing counsel, the captain promptly challenged him to "coffee and pistols for two." The authorities getting wind of the matter, the intrepid swimmer was constrained to depart for Belgium, whence he now returns to his native land, covered with medals, one of which was presented him by the late Queen Mercedes.

Treatment of Diphtheria.

I wish to suggest to physicians in treating diphtheria to use internally a very weak solution of carbolic acid, and for throat or fauces a solution of hydrochloric acid, about the strength of strong cider vinegar. I have treated every case successfully so far with the above named remedies. Croup is relieved instantly with the acid solution. As far as my experience goes, the last named remedy stops all morbid development in the throat as surely as a hoe will stop pigweeds on a hot sunny dry. Apply it to the throat with a brush or sponge, or use as a gargle.—Journal of Chemistry.

To Remove Ink.

The following methods are said to be infallible: "To extract ink from cotton, silk and woolen goods, saturate the spots with spirits of turpentine, and let it remain several hours; then rub it between the hands. It will crumble away without injury to the color or the texture of the article. To extract ink from linen, dip the stained part in hot tallow; when cool, wash the garment in soap suds and the ink will disappear."

ECLECTIC MAGAZINE

OF

THIRTY-FIFTH YEAR.

The ECLECTIC MAGAZINE reproduces from foreign periodicals all those articles which are valuable to a American reader. Its field of selection embraces all the leading Foreign Reviews, Magazines, and Journals; and while the tastes of all classes of readers are consulted nothing trivial in character, or of merely transient interest is admitted to its pages. Its plan includes ESSAYS, REVIEWS, BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES, HISTORICAL PAPERS, TRAVELS, POETRY, NOVELS, and SHORT STORIES; and in the case of SCIENCE (to which much space and attention are given) no special prominence is allowed to any particular phase of opinion, but place is given impartially to the most valuable articles on both sides of the great themes of scientific discussion.

The following lists comprise the principal periodicals from which selections are made and the names of some of the leading writers who contribute to them:

PERIODICALS.	AUTHORS.
Quarterly Review.	Rt. Hon. W. E. Gladstone.
British Quar. Review.	Alfred Tennyson.
Edinburgh Review.	Professor Huxley.
Westminster Review.	Professor Tyndall.

Fortnightly Review.	J. Nor. Lockyer, F. R. S.
The 19th Century.	Dr. W. B. Carpenter.
Pop. Science Review.	E. B. Tylor.
Blackwood's Mag.	Prof. Max Muller.
Cornhill Magazine.	Professor Owen.
Macmillan's Mag.	Matthew Arnold.
New Quar. Magazine.	James Anthony Froude.

Good Words.	William Black.
London Society.	Mrs. Oliphant.
Saturday Review.	The Queen.
The Spectator, &c., &c.	Miss Thackeray, &c., &c.

☞ It is frequently remarked that in England the best literary talent of the time is being diverted from the writing of books to contributing to the periodicals. THE ECLECTIC garners the choicest sheaves from this rich harvest.

The Wages of Labor.

An interesting communication from a manufacturer at Laconia, in this State, published in a leading Boston newspaper, upon the subject of wages and labor, suggested by Joseph Cook's lecture of Monday last, contains the following statement:

One great cause of inadaquate wages is our system of encouraging immigration; foreigners of every nationality have poured in upon us, and while it is true that many have brought money with them and valuables to add to the wealth of the country, it is also true that they have brought the necessity of gaining a livelihood by employment, and the capacity to reproduce their kind in a most prolific manner—thus further adding to the numbers crowding upon our industries for employment. The standard of living, too, that they acknowledge as sufficient is not what the native American demands, and as a result they are willing to accept the low rate of wages (and to live upon them) that the native American will not accept. Consequently they are supplanting the native American everywhere, and one only needs to go through the manufacturing establishments in our large cities to verify this, and to some it may perhaps be a surprise to find more than half of all employes foreigners. This is an unnatural growth of our country.

The writer asks:

Why do the native Americans allow themselves to be crowded out? The answer is, that they demand a better, higher standard of living; they want better food, better clothes, books, papers, luxuries of many kinds, and to form a higher grade in the social scale; they want wages that will afford all this; the foreigner steps in and offers his labor for much less than will support "style" of this kind, and the native American steps out. Meantime the customers, the consumers, are engaged in moving from store to store beating down the price of every article offered for sale, until in desperation the manufacturer is appealed to for something cheaper again; he sees his trade vanishing at the old prices, his property is threatened with unproductive idleness; he, himself, as is too often the case, must run his shop or fail; he savagely cuts again here and again there, and so the sickening process goes on, and "still they come" from Canada, England, Germany, everywhere to "the land of the free and the home of the brave," to work for still lower wages. As the manufacturer finds his profits dwindling, his pride in his mills and his boarding-houses, which has stimulated him to keep them up in nice healthy condition, begins to go from him; discouragement takes its place, and he finds himself unwillingly taking what to him may for a time seem part of his profits out of his mills, machinery and boarding-houses, which grow poorer and poorer, and less fit for his business and less healthy for his laborers, and this goes on until the first-rate shop may become what Mr. Cook calls fourth-rate, and the owner's pride is new seldom touched by appearances.

The manufacturer hints at other causes which depress manufactures in our country. The labor question he seems to understand. As long as the native young man prefers the store and the office to the workshop and the farm, the foreign born, or their sons, will do the work; and while the native prefers to "speculate," even if he does not succeed, he will be crowded out. One trouble is, too many propose to get on in the world by dodging the process which the Almighty suggested to the outgoing tenant of the garden of Eden was the one by which a living was thereafter to be obtained, in this world,—"by the sweat of the brow."

At Last.

The democratic members of the Potter fraud committee have at last voted to investigate the cipher despatches. The following preamble and resolution were passed on Friday, solely by democratic votes, the republican members maintaining that it was a matter of purely democratic concern:

Whereas, Alleged dispatches in cipher have been published indicating that attempts were made after the Presidential election of 1876 to influence, by money or other fraudulent methods, the votes of electors or the action of returning officers in the States of Louisiana, Florida, South Carolina and Oregon; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the chairman of the committee be directed to apply to the House for authority to investigate the same, and any other matter connected with the said election in said States, and for the means of conducting the inquiry.

There are two theories as to the reasons which induced the democrats to decide to enter upon an investigation of the cipher dispatches. One is that Mr. Tilden really desired it; the other is that democratic enemies of Tilden forced the investigation in order to destroy any possible chance he might have of being renominated as a Presidential candidate.

News and Notes.

Congressman Schleicher, of Texas, died in Washington Friday night.

The Handkerchief shoals light-ship, which was blown off shore from her moorings in the great gale of the 3d inst., was spoken on the 7th by a pilot boat, with all well on board, and trying to get back to her proper position.

The Secretary of the Treasury still calls the 1867 bonds, and intends as fast as the sales of four per cents accrue to call in the six per cents. The four per cents are bought heavily by capitalists, and are today the most generally purchased security in the financial world.

Two of the crew of schooner Hattie V. Reed, of Gloucester, while fishing on Jeffrey's in seventy-five fathoms of water, hauled up a broken pitcher, partially covered with mussels, and containing a sea-clam. The pitcher is of a very ancient pattern, with a band around the centre handsomely inlaid with cubes and circles, and is a curiosity in ceramics. It has been forwarded to Prof. Baird for the National Museum at Washington.

Robin Brown of Bethel, Me., committed suicide by hanging, Thursday morning. On the same day John Temple, who married Brown's sister, was killed in the woods by a tree falling upon him.

Superintendent Cheney of Boston has reinstated C. W. Searle, mail agent from Newport to St. Albans, Vt., who was suspended a few days since, and he resumed his duties Friday. Searle was suspended on account of a charge of criminal intimacy with a married woman being brought against him by the woman's husband, the woman confessing her guilt; but it was claimed at the time by Searle and his friends to be merely a blackmailing attempt, and has since been thrown out of the courts.

The bill for the relief of William and Mary college in Virginia was defeated in the United States House of Representatives on Friday, by a vote of 127 nays to 87 yeas. Conger of Michigan made this action final for this session, by moving to reconsider the vote, and to lay the motion to reconsider on the table. All the New Hampshire Congressmen voted against the bill. The country is not yet quite ready to give much money to that nest of sessession and treason, William and Mary college, the entire faculty of which went into the rebel army on the breaking out of the rebellion.

New Hampshire Items.

Mrs. Sarah M. Russell, of Bow, seventy-four years old, was so severely burned about the body on the night of Dec. 31st that she died on the 9th inst. Her husband, who is about sixty years old, says she got out of bed in the night to dress a sore on her foot; he heard a fall, arose, and found her insensible on the floor and the bandage on her foot on fire; he put out the fire, laid her on the bed, and next morning called in the neighbors, but the extent of her injuries was not known until late in the day, when it was found that her body badly burned; a physician was called, and at once said the woman could not recover. She regained her senses before she died, but could not or would not tell how the accident happened.

The grand jury at Manchester reported 134 indictments Friday, after a four days' session, eighty being liquor cases, mostly from Manchester and Nashua.

A Nebraska Wolf Hunt.

From numerous persons complaints of wolves have been heard during the winter, but the boldest action yet heard of was an attack by one on the calves of James Stackhouse while feeding in the cornfield a few days since. The calves running pellmell to the house attracted the attention of the family, and as his wolfship followed clear into the yard, Mr. Stackhouse concluded to return the compliment, which he did by seizing an old musket and mounting a fleet horse, following the untoward visitor very much after the fashion of John Gilpin. Jim says it was fine sport, and kind o' excitin' like. But after putting a charge of shot into the fellow with no perceptible result, with a determination to take him in, it became "raal animatin'." The animal had become very much fatigued, but as no ammunition had been taken along it was resolved into a rough and tumble tilt or no tilt at all. Jim was bent on a square tussle, and spurring up his steed a dash was made and a blow aimed that would have knocked the cheek off of a stall-fed politician; but, alas for human hope and expectation, the horse jumped to avoid the stroke, planting Jim's cocoanut in the rich prairie soil, and standing up his manly frame for all the world like a big forked tree, while the old musket punched the ground with a determination that left only the barrel, the wolf meantime leaving as fast as his weary legs could carry him off. Jim recovered a perpendicular, with his dander very much elevated, and, after viewing the situation for a moment, started in pursuit of the enemy, harboring a burning rancor within that boded extermination. The result soon proved the conclusion of the boy who was licked with the ramrod: that a gun was a dangerous thing without lock or stock, for Jim marched home triumphantly with a scalp hanging from his belt.—*Hebron (Neb.) Female Gamblers.

A lady of rank in Paris died three weeks ago, in the fashionable quarter of the Arc de Triomphe of whom an interesting story is told. She was a famous card-player, and was credited with knowing every game there was to know. When travelling in a foreign land she met, one day, in a hotel, a Russian lady with that passion for gambling said to be inherent in the Russian nation. Anxious to play with the lady from Paris, she wrote requesting a few games. Her request was granted, and the ladies played all night, the Russian losing at every hand, until her opponent had won from her more money than the mines in the Ural had produced for her revenues in twenty-five years. At last the Russian lady made a desparing effort to regain her fortune, but without avail. Rising from the table, she told the French lady how she had lost more than she possessed, but that in her desire to pay a debt of honor she would instruct her steward to convey to her the title deeds of all the mines and estates she owned. At this the victorious antagonist smiled and requested that she might have her own way in the matter, since she had won. A priest and a lawyer were sent for. When they arrived, the Russian lady was asked to bind herself by a solemn oath never again to touch a card or risk money at any game of chance. She did so, and then signed an engagement to pay her antagonist the annual sum of $2000. The vow never to play cards for money again she faithfully kept, and the $2000 was punctually paid every year, the French lady giving it the name of the "Queen of Spades Bounty," and invariably giving it to the poor of Paris.

Our Tenure of Life

Depends in great measure upon our regard for or neglect of the laws of health. If we violate them we cannot expect to "make old bones." But that the span of existence allotted to a naturally delicate constitution, or one which has been shaken by disease may be materially lengthened, is a fact of which we have daily proof. The vivifying and restorative influence of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters upon a failing physique affords a striking illustration of the power of judicious medication to strengthen the hold on life. Restored digestion, complete assimilation, renewed appetite, sound repose, these are among the benefits conferred upon the debilitated by that supreme renovant. With a circulation enriched, a frame invigorated, and a nervous system tranquilized, the invalid, after a course of the Bitters, feels that his life-tenure is no longer the precarious thing that it was—that he may yet enjoy a "green old age."

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Most of the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 2c. a lb., Cream of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. discp1tf

THE CITY.

Gov. Prescott was in town Saturday.

It is stated that Miss Boynton has resigned her position in the choir of the Unitarian church.

The Eldredge Brewing Company received seven hundred bushels of malt one day last week, coming via the Hoosac Tunnel line.

Rev. E. M. Grant, pastor of the Universalist church in this city, is announced to deliver a lecture on "Success, and how to attain it," in the town hall at Kingston on Friday evening of this week.

Hon. Frank Jones had stored five hundred tons of excellent ice, twelve inches thick, up to Friday afternoon of last week. About two hundred tons more will be put in—all from Mr. Jones' pond at Peverly hill.

The Times says: "The first suit of Thomas Quinn against this city for damages for injuries received about two years agofrom an alleged defective highway, has been settled, by an order on the city treasury for $800."

Senator Rollins on Thursday presented the petitition of Chas. H. Garrett, and others, merchants and shipowners of this city, praying for the passage of the bill to regulate inter-State commerce and to prohibit unjust discrimination by common carriers.

A special despatch to the Boston Journal informs us that Sheriff Kent and Collector Howard are at Washington on a visit. Notwithstanding the efforts of the former to keep this important intelligence from getting into the newspapers, "Perley" seems to have regarded the movements of these functionaries of so much public consequence that he gives it to the world.

Certainly the lovers of Shakespere and of good reading have never had a greater treat than was presented to them Friday evening in Mr. George Riddle's reading of "The Tempest." Every character was perfectly individualized, and every scene was painted in words as well and as clearly as it is usually on the stage. Particularly praiseworthy were the personations of Caliban, Stephono, Ariel and Miranda. In response to many urgent requests Mr. Riddle will give a course of six readings here, as follows, if sufficient encouragement is given: Jan. 31st, "Romeo and Juliet;" Feb. 1st, "As You Like It;" Feb. 7th, "Midsummer Night's Dream;" Feb. 8th, "Macbeth;" Feb. 14th, "Antony and Cleopatra;" Feb. 15th, "Hamlet." Tickets for the course will be only three dollars, and subscription lists for a limited number have been placed at Rundlett's and Myers' stores.

It seems that Andrew Stevenson, the second lieutenant of marines who some months ago disgraced the service and himself by acting the part of a brawling bully on the public streets of this city, and who was fined in the police court for so acting, did not resign after all, as was currently reported. He was recently ordered to report at Mare island, Cal., navy yard, for duty in the marine barracks there. The private marine who, not long after Stevenson's exhibition, got drunk and made another display of ruffianism, was not "granted leave of absence" until the affair blew over; not at all; he was promptly court-martialled, and the last we heard of him he was sent to Charlestown in custody of a guard, and delivered to the commandant of the navy yard there—possibly to be hung or imprisoned for life. It evidently makes a great difference whether a drunken rowdy is "an officer and a gentleman," or only an enlisted man.

THE VICINITY.

W. H. Brackett and others are building a large ice-house opposite the post-office in Greenland.

The proposed festival of the Christian church at Rye, in the town hall at that place, has been postponed to Jan. 29th and 30th.

The largest bass taken this winter in the Squamscott river was captured by Mr. Isaac S. Wiggin of Stratham, and weighed twenty-six pounds. The bass-fishermen have done better this season than for some years past; one fisherman is reported as having taken six hundred pounds at one tide, and others from two hundred to three hundred pounds. The catch is very light now.

Owing to the prevalence of colds there were but seven scholars present at the South school in Rye on Wednesday of last week, and the school was suspended until Monday.

Representative Staples of Eliot has presented two petitions in the lower house of the Maine legislature, for an act of incorporation, with power to erect and maintain a toll-bridge over the tide waters of Salmon Falls river in York county.

There is a rod in pickle for some fellow in Exeter who is amusing himself by stealing whips and robes from sleighs, if the victims can only catch him. The thief was seen to take a whip from a sleigh Friday evening, and was chased by the owner, but got clear. Deputy Sheriff Odlin had his whip stolen a few evenings previous.

Mr. Elijah E. Roberts, master mechanic in the Cocheco mills at Dover, met with a bad accident Friday forenoon, being knocked from a staging on which he was standing superintending the adjusting of a shaft, and falling about eight feet, striking his knee on the flange joint of an iron pipe, badly fracturing the lower part of the thigh bone, the fracture extending through the knee. It is feared that a permanently-stiff knee will result.

About noon on Wednesday of last week the barn of Mr. William Raitt, of Eliot, took fire and was totally destroyed, with most of the contents, which included some fifteen tons of hay and a lot of farming tools. The carriages and live stock were got out and saved. The house was cleared of its furniture, but some of it took fire and burned after it was taken out of the the house. The house itself was not injured. The barn was insured $400; the hay and tools $150.

In 1874 or '75, a young lady graduating at the Biddeford high school read an essay entitled, "After graduation, what?" Some time after this a wealthy Dhican, travelling westward, picked up a piece of a newspaper in the car, which contained an extract from the young lady's essay. A correspondence followed, then a courtship, and finally a wedding. The parties to the happy affair were Andrew J. Packard, a prominent citizen of Youngstown, Ohio, and a member of the democratic State central committee, and Miss Eldena Elden, a young and handsome graduate of the Biddeford high school. In the Youngstown Daily News of January 6th appears the following, which adds another chapter to this interesting affair: "Another democratic victory! It is a boy, and is registered at the residence of Mr. A. J. Packard on Wood street." The question, "After graduation, what?" is no longer asked.—Boston Post.

COMMODORE JOHN GUEST.

Commodore John Guest, U. S. N., commandant of the navy yard here, died at his residence at the yard on Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock, of a complication of diseases. His last hours were tranquil. On Saturday he was formally received into the Roman Catholic church by Rev. Eugene M. O'Callahan, pastor of St. Mary's church in this city. Funeral services will be held at the navy yard on Tuesday, and the remains will then be taken to Philadelphia for interment.

He was born in Missouri, and entered the service from Arkansas on the 16th of December, 1837; was commissioned lieutenant Dec. 28th, 1850, commander July 16th, 1862, captain July 25th, 1866, and commodore Dec. 12th, 1872; at the time of his death he was third on the list of commodores.

He was second in command of the ship Plymouth in 1854, in the fight with the Chinese at Shanghai; was in command of the steam frigate Niagara in 1861, and with her boats cut out the schooner Aid from under the guns of Fort Morgan in Mobile bay, in August of that year; commanded the steamer Owasco at New Orleans, and was detailed by Commander Porter to demand the surrender of Forts Jackson and St. Phillip; was in the battles on the Mississippi, up to and including Vicksburg, and was mentioned most favorably by Porter in his report to the Secretary of the Navy; commanded the Owasco at the capture of the forts at Galveston; commanded the steamer Iosco of the North Atlantic blockading squadron in 1864—65, and took part in both attacks on Fort Fisher. His entire war record was excellent.

He was twice stationed at this navy yard, the first time in 1867—69, when with the rank of captain he held the position of executive officer of the yard. In 1867 he was appointed commandant.

He leaves a widow and four sons, one of whom is a lieutenant in the 8th U. S. Cavalry, stationed at Fort Clark, Texas, and another at school in Ottawa, Canada; and one daughter, the wife of Lieut. Charles Seymour, U. S. N., in command of the Leyden at this station.

Commodore Guest was very easily approached; he was kind and courteous, and though a strict disciplinarian was popular with his men. He had the universal respect and good will of civilians here, and was regarded by his brother officers as one of the first and best officers in the service. In his death the navy has sustained a great loss.

When Admiral Farragut's body was transferred from this city to New York, the Brooklyn, then under Capt. Guest's command, was one of the vessels that accompanied the Guerriere, which had the body on board; and when the latter ship was run upon Nantucket shoals the Brooklyn took the body and conveyed it to New York.

THE LONG WALK.

Mr. James M. Driscoll accomplished his feat on Saturday evening, Jan. 11th, of walking his four hundred miles in one hundred and thirty hours. He finished at 10:34, having thirty-eight minutes to spare. On the last mile, which he made in thirteen minutes, he was presented with an American flag, which he waved on his walk. He was greeted with cheers as he made his laps, and on the finish was taken to the stage where he was honored with rounds of applause. There was no sign of a blister on his feet, and he was in good spirits and did not complain of anything but lameness in his right ankle. His shortest mile was the 137th, which he made in 9 minutes and 30 seconds, the longest in 20 minutes, which was the 340th. His actual walking time was 82 hours 25 minutes; rests 42 hours 35 minutes. Miss May Belle Sherman, who has coached him during his long tramp, has been on the track with him during a large portion of the time, and it is conceded by all who have seen her that she is the squarest-walking pedestrian on the track, Driscoll's stride did not vary an inch during his walk. He was allowed to sleep only at intervals during Saturday night. On Sunday he walked twenty-five miles.

DANCING SCHOOL.

The last half of Prof S. S. Smith's school will commence on Tuesday night at Mechanics' hall; a social assembly will be given after nine o'clock each Tuesday evening until the close of the term.

INTERESTING LAW CASE.

A case involving an important question of law is now before the Supreme Court. It seems that some years ago the Boston & Maine railroad directors thought to make Dover a station for changing engines on trains between Portland and Boston, and the Cocheco Aqueduct association of Dover attempted to make and contend that they did make, a contract by which they were to furnish the railroad at their round house in Dover sufficient water for their use, not exceeding sixty thousand gallons per day for a certain price, depending upon the height at which the water should be delivered for a term of years to begin when the round house should be completed.

The railroad corporation denied that such contract was ever made. The aqueduct association proved a conversation between Col. J. E. Bickford, then a director of the railroad, and the officers of the water company in the fall of 1872, resulting in a proposition from the company being communicated by Mr. Bickford to President White to furnish thirty thousand gallons daily, as Mr. Bickford understood it, for five or ten years. No answer was returned to this proposition and it was contended that Mr. Bickford had not requisite authority to make a contract, and it does not appear that the subject matter was brought before the committee from the railway directors, appointed to consider the feasibility of erecting a round house at Dover. The case was sent to a referee who reported in favor of the aqueduct company which had in the meantime gone to no little expense to be prepared to introduce water in the expectation that the railway would consume the quantity indicated. The case then was afterward tried by a jury. The Boston & Maine directors always have great faith in trial by jury, doubtless from the respectable sums juries so often find against them. The jury in this case, though no water had been taken or had been offered, managed to figure up $1850 as damages, as it could not have been for water furnished or not furnished.

The case then went to the full bench. Here the railroad managers thought they had the cold water brigade fast, as this was a contract within the Statute of Frauds, which enacts that no contract for sale of goods, wares or merchandise for the price of thirty-three dollars or more is valid, unless the buyer accepts and actually receives part of the property sold, or gives something in part payment, or in earnest to bind the bargain, or unless some note or memorandum thereof is in writing, and signed by the party to be charged therewith, or by some person by him thereto authorized, and that no action shall be brought to charge a person upon an agreement that is not to be performed within one year unless in writing, etc.

But by some process the Court was able to get around the statute, and gave judgment on the verdict of the jury. Now the railroad company has asked for a rehearing of the case, and again insists on its rights under the Statute of Frauds. They say that the water association, though laying a line of pipe from their fountain toward the railroad's proposed round house, did not enter upon the railroad land, so that no water could have been delivered, nor was any water received before the suit was commenced. The water company claimed to recover the sums they had expended in preparing to bring water to the proposed round house, and for this the verdict was given. The decision of this case is looked forward to with much interest. If the verdict was for damages for not making a contract perhaps it can be made to stand, but if the strict construction is given to the statute the aqueduct company will find themselves under the disagreeable necessity of refunding to the railroad company the large sum paid in "liquidating" the damages, with costs, interest, etc., while they have been put to no little expense both before and since the suit on account of the change of the plans of the railroad.

PATERSON, N. J., April 17, 1877.

DEVOE MANUFACTURING CO.

Gentlemen:—I take great pleasure in sending this unsolicited recommendation of your Kerosene Oil.

At the great fire in this place, which destroyed Norwood's Paint and Oil establishment, and other buildings, on the 13th inst., your Oil stood one of most severe tests that Oil could be put to; for four [4] hours the Oil was in the hottest part of the fire, and such a fire as only Varnish, Turpentine, Oils and Paints can make, and in all that time there was no explosion of your Oil, and the cans containing the Oil were in very near the same condition after the fire as before.

I take great pleasure in recommending this Oil, as in my opinion it is the safest Oil for sale in the market. I remain, very respectfully,

JOHN E. REGNER,
Chief of Fire Department.

—"Yes," observed a friend, "she certainly is cultivated. She is very stylish, plays well, talks well, dances well, and rides well, and succeeds admirably in private theatricals. In fact," he added, "she's just the kind of a girl you'd like one of your friends to marry."

—Not long since, says the Newburyport Herald, a gentleman failed, owing parties in that vicinity. He had been borrowing largely, and was known to have received $4000 only two days before his failure. Some of the creditors asked him what he had done this money, and he very coolly replied, "I have put it in my pocket to live on."

—A resident of Plymouth, England, got married on a Saturday, quarrelled with his wife and thrashed her during the second hour of the honeymoon, thrashed her again at night after clubbing the wedding guests out of the house, spent Monday at the tavern, selling all his clothes except his trousers for drink, and on Tuesday was sent to jail for a month.

—The Raleigh (N. C.) Observer insists that the children must have more schooling, and as one way to obtain it without spending more money, wants women employed as teachers more generally, because they can be got for so much less. But, Mr. Observer, we would just here like to observe that they shouldn't be got for less. A good woman is worth as much as a good man any day, if not more, and should receive as much, and would if justice ruled in our dealings.—Exchange.

—Two learned judges and a lawyer in a London court—the senior having passed his university with high honors, practiced a long time at the bar and adorned the bench for 30 years—were recently sadly stumped to tell where Labrador was. The case was one concerning a marine disaster at Tub Harbor in that favored country. "But where is Labrador?" asked the learned judge. "Labrador, my luds," said the counsel, hesitating; "Labrador," he went on, brightening up—"Labrador is the place where Tub Harbor is"—and that was the nearest they could get to it without an atlas.

AND

UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. Its

Construction AND Equipment

THE

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances

in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,

JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,

THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,

AND THE

WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,

forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars

Are run on all Express Trains

From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,

To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,

WITHOUT CHANGE,

and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery

OF THE

PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE

is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment rooms are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form

A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

Tickets for sale at the lowest rates at the Ticket Offices of the Company in all important cities and towns.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and through blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all humors, from the worst scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption, Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Ring Bone, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goiter or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, sick stomach, flatulency, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from "Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it directs perfect and radical cure.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption it has established the medical fact, that eminent physicians recognize it the greatest medicinal discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets

SIZE OF PELLETS.

THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap drugs, and pulpy insertions. These Pellets are much larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Torpid Liver, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action, upon the natural economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. And does not insure the utmost benefit from these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved uninjured for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most satisfactory results. Sold by druggists.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

A New Postage Stamp.

The post-office department has ordered a new postage stamp to be used on letters not prepaid. Heretofore, a letter being posted, and wanting a stamp, has been held in the office at which it was mailed. Then, after a prescribed time it was forwarded to the post-office department, which notified the sender. The new stamp under the regulation is put on the letter not prepaid, and sent to the postmaster at the office of its destination, who is charged with the amount due, and to collect the same from the person addressed on the delivery. Where there is a carrier's delivery, another new stamp is to be added by which the carrier is made responsible for collection of the postage or a return of the letter. The whole plan seems to us not very good, and is rather a half-way return to the old unpaid letter system. If every letter dropped into the post-office without a stamp was sent by first mail to the department it would work less delay and loss to the people or the department than any other plan yet tried. In villages and small places the post-master usually knows the handwriting of most of the people, and with very little trouble can right many little oversights without delay.

—A tight fit—the delirium tremens.

—The Boston police are about to adopt the plan of making tramps pay for their lodgings at the station houses by work.

—Adam had one consolation when he fell; fifteen or twenty acquaintances didn't stand on the opposite corner and laugh at his mishap.

—An Illinois girl of nineteen daily attends sixty steel traps, which are set for mink and muskrat, and the first week of cold weather netted her twenty-six dollars.

OF

THIRTY-FIFTH YEAR.

The ECLECTIC MAGAZINE reproduces from foreign periodicals all those articles which are valuable to American readers. Its field of selection embraces all the leading Foreign Reviews, Magazines, and Journals; and while the tastes of all classes of readers are consulted nothing of a trivial in character, or of merely transient interest is admitted to its pages. Its plan includes ESSAYS, REVIEWS, BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES, HISTORICAL PAPERS, TRAVELS, POETRY, NOVELS, and SHORT STORIES; and in the case of SCIENCE (to which much space and attention are given) the special prominence is allowed to any particular phase of opinion, but place is given impartially to the most valuable articles on both sides of the great themes of scientific discussion.

The following lists comprise the principal periodicals from which selections are made and the names of some of the leading writers who contribute to them:

PERIODICALS.	AUTHORS.

☞ It is frequently remarked that in England the best literary talent of the time is being diverted from the writing of books to contributing to the periodicals. THE ECLECTIC garners the choicest sheaves from this rich harvest.

STEEL-ENGRAVINGS. Each number contains a Fine Steel-Engraving—usually a portrait—executed in the best manner. These engravings are of permanent value, and add much to the attractiveness of the Magazine.

Does Temperance Pay?

In the following significant facts, lately submitted by the clerk of the circuit court of Edwards county, Illinois, the economy of temperance is strikingly illustrated: "There has not been a licensed saloon in this county for over twenty-five years. During that time our jail has not averaged an occupant. This county never sent but one person to the penitentiary, and that man was sent up for killing his wife while drunk, on whiskey obtained from a licensed saloon in an adjoining county. We have but very few paupers in our poor-house, sometimes only three or four. Our taxes are thirty-two per cent lower than they are in adjoining counties where saloons are licensed. Our people are prosperous, peaceable and sober, there being but very little drinking, except near Grayville, a licensed town of White county, near our border. The different terms of our circuit court occupy three or four days each year, and then the dockets are cleared. Our people are so well satisfied with the present state of things that a very large majority of them would bitterly oppose any effort made in favor of license under any circumstances."

More Bar'ls Wanted.

A despatch from Cincinnati, the latter part of last week, says the re-election of Voorhees as Senator from Indiana is assured, and adds:

The action of the democratic caucus on Tuesday in declaring for Tilden caused general surprise. Thirty prominent democrats attended. It was freely admitted that Tilden was better prepared to bear the financial burdens of the campaign than Hendricks. The latter has met with heavy losses recently.

Hendricks has met with heavy losses recently, and cannot roll out so many "bar'ls of money" as Tilden, to aid the causes of reform, so Tilden must be struck to; that is what the Indiana democrats say. Possibly they may have consided that if Tilden and reform has determined to nominate himself again, as he did before, he will do it just as he did before, and they might as well make a virtue of necessity. But Tilden's bar'ls are no doubt the strongest argument in his favor, in democratic estimation, as the Indiana democrats so openly allege. Tilden is reported to have made vast sums recently by speculations in the elevated railroads of New York, so Moses and Nephew Pelton will be able to bid much higher the next time they try to buy an electoral vote.

News and Notes.

In New Orleans, Sunday, John Zappi shot and killed P. Belsom. Both were barkeepers.

A remarkable cavern has been discovered near Columbia, Tuolumne county, Cal. It has been explored over a mile. Some of the chambers are described as of remarkable beauty and grandeur.

Miss Hewins, the Hartford librarian, says many children of the city read too much, one boy devouring 102 story-books and a girl 112 novels in six months. Some of them have queer tastes, too; a boy recently asking for Jack Harkaway's stories, another for bound volumes of the Police News, and a third for "The Murderer and the Fortune Teller," "The Sisters and the Avenger," and "The Model Town and the Detective," while among the girls there is a great demand for the New York Weekly novels.

The tenement and beer saloon of John Odendorfer, in the Jamaica Plain district, R. I., was burned Saturday night. Odendorfer's wife and ten-year-old boy perished in the flames. The loss on property was $3500.

Chas. S. Leavitt, of Hingham, Mass., has been arrested and held for trial in the superior court, charged with defacing the statue of Governor Andrew in that town.

The government has brought suit against the Central Pacific railroad company, to recover ten thousand dollars for a refusal to render a statement of its business to the auditor of railroad accounts.

A steamer which arrived in Boston last week from Messina, Palermo and Valencia, brought over seventeen thousand boxes of oranges and lemons.

The base ball bas been before the courts. This was as might be expected. A patentee claimed that a double cover to a ball, each of which covers was composed of two pieces of leather and applied to the ball independently of the other, was an infringement upon his patents for covering base balls. Judge Lowell dismissed the bill, on the ground that it was not a patentable invention, this having a double cover for balls.

The Commissioner of Patents decides that there is nothing in the law or in public policy opposed to the registration of Masonic or other society symbols, as trade marks, and the fraternity does not have by law a monopoly of the symbols used by them so as to prevent their being used as a trade mark. This overules a decision of one of the examiners, who declined to register as a trade mark "the figure of a shield of gold with the device of the lion's paw holding the tobacco leaves resting on the wreath and overarched by the rainbow," on the ground that it is opposed to public policy.

Troy Dyer, formerly public administrator of Sacramento county, Cal., has been found guilty of murder in the first degree for procuring the killing of A. M. Tullis so that he could get his fees for administering on the estate.

The New York Times says that Capt. Thomas Blair of the fifteenth United States infantry, who recently married the widow of Gen. Gordon Granger, is a military prisoner at Governor's island, on a charge of forging official signatures to a paper purporting to be his discharge from service. Blair is also charged with being a bigamist, in having married Mrs. Granger while he has a wife and children living in Scotland.

At Toledo, Ohio, W. A. Duryea shot his wife and then killed himself, Friday, on account of jealousy.

A Frankfort, Ky., despatch says fourteen men have been indicted for the murder of Judge Burnett and four for the murder of Freeman, in Breathitt county.

A gale on the coasts of Galicia and Portugal has caused great destruction of small craft. Seventy fishermen and others are reported drowned. Advices from England report continued gales on the coasts of England, Ireland and Scotland, and a very low temperature. The Thames and upper Mersey are filled with floating ice. Loch Lomond is frozen over. All vessels arriving at British ports report terrible weather in the Atlantic and the Channel.

The people of Provincetown, Mass., who are interested in the fisheries, held a meeting Saturday evening to discuss the Washington treaty. A strong protest against the fishery clause was adopted by the meeting.

Barque Gunhilda, of New Glasgow, N. S., bound from Baltimore for Bordeaux with grain, has been totally lost with all hands on Bordeaux bar.

Francis Bennett, for three years city treasurer of Gloucester, Mass., is a defaulter to the amount of $8200, which has been taken at various times since Jan. 1st, 1876, when the sum of $300 was appropriated and a check of Bennett & Marr's for a similar sum put in its place. Treasurer Bennett is senior partner in this firm, the other being Chester Marr, Jr., and both have been considered leading citizens.

Workingmen in Gunston, Va., have circumvented the hard times in a novel and successful way. A co-operative association furnishes its members with constant employment at fair wages, and they board in one large family house, and thereby reduce the cost of living about one-half. They have a large farm and garden, and are employed raising food, making clothing, erecting buildings, making roads and fences, cutting fuel and in housekeeping for themselves, producing with their own labor nearly all that is required to supply their wants and make them comfortable, with a considerable surplus, which they sell. Each member is required to save a considerable part of his wages. None of them have been idle a day during the past nine months.

A Boston firm advertises for "a finished calfskin salesman."

The policy holders of the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York have organized and appointed an executive committee, and promise to resist the payment of any policy issued under the new plan recently started by the company.

John P. Phair's friends have hunted up at Albany, N. Y., Aurelia Brooks, a courtesan who was intimate with him and his victim, Mrs. Frieze, at the time of the latter's murder in Rutland, Vt., and think they have discovered evidence in his favor.

Dr. B. Joy Jeffries has recently examined 8000 of the pupils in the high and grammar schools in Boston. He found that about five per cent of the boys and one per cent of the girls were colorblind.

The railroad commissioners of Massachusetts have ordered the management of the Nashua, Acton & Boston railroad to put another passenger train on between Nashua and Concord Junction, Mass., on or before January 15th.

The officers of the Massachusetts society for the prevention of cruelty to children have just unearthed a case of extreme wretchedness in Rockport, in the family of one John Dorrity, consisting of seven young children. It is said that the family has lived in a hovel, with short allowance of food and fuel, for several years, in an utterly filthy condition. Dorrity is said to be in comfortable circumstances. The children have been cared for.

Mr. Thomas Lord, the New York millionaire whose marriage with Mrs. Hicks about a year ago caused such a sensation, is reported as being at the point of death. He has taken no solid food for two weeks past, and his stomach will not retain fluids. His constitution has broken up greatly of late. He is about eighty-five years of age.

The U. S. sloop-of-war Richmond sailed from New York Saturday, for a two years' cruise. She will touch first at Gibraltar, and then, after taking Gen. Grant aboard at a port in the Mediterranean, proceed through the Suez canal onward.

A large amount of property was destroyed by a fire at Birmingham, Conn., Saturday night.

New Hampshire Items.

Senator Wadleigh, in the committee of the whole in the Senate last week, the bill for revision of the patent laws being under consideration, explained some of the important amendments to the bill.

At an auction sale in New York last week $12,000 of Manchester & Keene railroad first mortgage six per cent bonds, as they were described, $10,000 having coupons of July 1879 attached, and $2000 coupons of January 1877 attached, (hypothecated,) were sold at 13 1-2.

Hon. Moses Humphrey, of Concord, has been granted a patent for a corn-planter, which is a plow, provided with two vertical channels at its rear, the channel for phosphate being round, and that for corn square. The latter is arranged out of line with the former, so the phosphate may not drop on the corn and burn it.

Geo. P. Morrell, of Canterbury, has been granted a patent for an axe-handle attachment which is more complicated than the old-fashioned process of putting the handle through the eye of the axe and wedging it, as has been the fashion in the Shaker region.

Jona. A. Rowell, of Hill, has obtained a patent for a spectacle lens having an annular beveled and polished edge in addition to the usual beveled securing edge, and so arranged as to produce two separate focuses.

The character of Uncle Josh in "Joshua Whitcomb," now being played by Mr. Den Thompson at the Gaiety theatre, Boston, was taken from Mr. Joshua Holbrook of Swanzey, and the latter had made arrangements to go to Boston, and witness the drama with a company of friends and neighbors, but a few days since he went to his barn and suddenly died. The letter announcing his death concludes as follows: "He died as honestly and quietly as he had lived, with no bustle, fuss or confusion. He had carried a bag of meal into his barn, and having placed it on the floor, laid quietly down by its side and died."

Old Time Chronicles, No. 176.

BY UNCLE JOSEPH.

The founder and first minister of the Baptist church in Brentwood, was Dr. Samuel Shepard. He was a native of Salisbury, Mass., was educated a physician, and established himself in practice in Stratham. The second pastor of the Congregational church there was Rev. Dr. Joseph Adams, in office at that time, and Dr. Shepard was a member of that church. About the year 1770 there was a great spread of Baptist sentiments in this section of the State. Dr. Shepard embraced them, began to preach, and in 1770 was ordained in Stratham by Drs. Smith of Haverhill, Stillman of Boston, and Manning of Providence. The next year he moved to Brentwood, and in May a Baptist church was organized, of which he took charge. Rev. Nathaniel Trask, the first pastor of the Congregational church was in office, but the seat of the operations was two miles easterly. The population was 1100, which was larger than it has been since, and there was room for both churches.

Dr. Shepard labored in other towns about, in which he formed branches of the Brentwood church. In all there were about 700 members. He continued in his work, preaching, and in the practice of his profession, till Nov. 4th, 1815, when he died. He had been in charge in town forty-four years. He was seventy-six years of age at the time of his departure. Dr. Shepard has been dead sixty-three years.

Being in that town lately I was greatly interested in being shown a few articles he used to possess. His saddle-bags are in existence, but not in the neighborhood where he used to live. I saw the last hat he wore, a rough felt one; it is very large. He was a man of good size, altho' not very tall, and wore a large wig. Next were his glasses with steel bows. There is a joint in the bows, so the extension could fall over the ears. One or two chairs of his dwelling, tow and linen curtains for windows, very plain of course, although there was some embroidery on them. Small silver spoons, a very small table fork, tea cup, pepper box, etc. All are interesting relics of a former age and of a distinguished man that possessed them.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.
The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.
☞ Most of the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 2c. a lb., Cream of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.
☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. dtscp10

THE CITY.

It is rumored that H. M. S. Pinafore may be ere long expected to come to Portsmouth.

The Portsmouth Temperance Mutual Relief Association will hold a social gathering at Franklin hall on Wednesday evening.

Mr. N. K. Raynes will open a school for young men in the former police court room at the court house, on Monday of next week.

The mayor and aldermen on Monday visited the premises of Cyrus L. Brown & Co., on Puddle dock; we are informed that they found nothing objectionable.

The Washington correspondent of the Boston Herald says: "Colonel J. Horace Kent of Portsmouth, N. H., has been offered a $2500 position in the secret service department of the treasury. He will decline the appointment."

Dr. J. T. Gilman Pike, a prominent and esteemed physician of Boston, died at the Pavilion in that city on Friday of last week. His age was sixty-five years. He leaves a son, and Mrs. Chas. C. Jones of this city is his daughter.

The Times says that the visit of Gov. Prescott to this city on Saturday was "for the purpose of notifying this municipality that the arsenal property here which the city has for many years claimed as its own—charging, it is said, the State $25 per annum for rent of same,—belongs to the State of New Hampshire. A deed of the same was found on Friday by Gov. Prescott among the archives of the State, which is dated November 5th, 1827, and signed by Robert Neal, Edward Cutts and Alexander Ladd as agents, John Haven and Joshua W. Peirce as witnesses, and acknowledged before Hon. William Claggett, all of this city, every one of whom are now dead."

There is a painful rumor that comes from the interior and hints that many of the favored class of lawyers, judges, sheriffs, political wire-pullers and men of note in the State, who had for years enjoyed a free pass over a certain leading railroad, have since New Year's been existing without their annual piece of pasteboard. Whether this proceeds from the fact that statistics show that this "courtesy," as it is denominated, does not pay, and the railroad in question determines to replenish its treasury, or whether the supply of passes has become exhausted, or from whatever unaccountable cause, the horrible fact presents itself to the soldier of fortune that the railroad does not find that "influence" goes a great way toward earning a dividend, and like John Randolph when he arose in the House of Delegates of Virginia and announced that he had discovered the philosopher's stone, they will say to the former army of dead-heads, "Pay as you go."

THE VICINITY.

Work was suspended on the navy yard Monday, out of respect to the late Commodore Guest.

Five shares in the Cocheco Manfacturing Co. sold at auction in Boston last Saturday, at 3525; and two of Salmon Falls Manufacturing Co. sold at $252.50.

Mr. George Kent, recently of Kennebunk, now an engineer on the Elevated railroad in New York city, has removed his family to the latter place. He was an engineer on the Boston & Maine railroad until the time of the abortive strike.

Several persons in Seabrook are cutting ice from the pond of Mr. Wm. H. Noyes' mill; the ice is fourteen inches thick, and very clear and hard. The proprietor of the pond, Mr. Noyes, also rejoices in the possession of thirty-four swarms of bees.

A match game of billiards for $250 was played Saturday at the billiard rooms of Nutter & French, in Farmington, between John O'Brien of Great Falls and Charles Miller of Farmington. The game was 300 points, discount in favor of Miller, and Miller won. The playing was only ordinary.

The Seabrook fishermen complain that the unregenerate come from the Joppa district at Newburyport, underrun the Seabrookers' trawls and steal all the fish, cut the trawls, and otherwise behave in an objectionable manner. A naval battle between the Seabrook and Joppa fishermen is among the probabilities of the near future.

The Lake Boot and Shoe Manufacturing Company, of Wolfeboro', giving employment to upwards of 200 hands, failed on Saturday. Liabilities nearly $100,000; assets, probably $40,000. Thirty-five hundred dollars was due to workmen. It is reported that they will be paid in full. The Cocheco national bank of Dover was the first to serve an atachment for a debt of $10,000. The sales-room of the factory is in Boston.

The schooner Frank W. Emery, of Saco, 306 tons register, Falker master, bound from Savannah La Mar for New York, took the great gale of the 3d inst. near Noman's-land, and at three o'clock that afternoon, while running before the wind and the vessel icing up badly, was boarded by two heavy seas which carried away the fore and main gaff, split sails, swept deck of all movables, carried away rudder and wheel, and stove quarter deck and cabin. By letting go both anchors and paying out chain to thirty fathoms the schooner was kept head to the sea, and by constant pumping the wreck was kept afloat until daylight of Jan. 5th, when the barque Edmund Phinney took off the crew and carried them into New York, where they arrived on Sunday. The barque also brought in the captain and eight men belonging to the schooner Ralph Carleton, of Camden, Me., 339 tons register, having taken them off their sinking vessel on the 8th inst.

OLD-TIME FINANCES.

There has been some enquiry as to what kind of money was meant by the "proclamation money" in which a legacy mentioned in a will executed in this city in 1745 was payable. We do not know, and have not tried to find out—neither shall we try; but if anybody else does, and finds out, and makes his knowledge public, and we notice the item, we will reprint it. We suppose it was some kind of "fiat" money, for which our ancestors seem to have had a penchant that lasted up to the time the continental currency became utterly worthless; after that a change came o'er the spirit of their dream, and when they adopted the Constitution they gave Congress power only "to coin money" and not make it by fiat. An interesting reminder of the fiat money period is now before us, in the shape of a receipt given to an ancestor of Portsmouth's present police magistrate, as follows:

NEWBURYPORT June 13 1780
then receved of James Bachellor the sum of forty-five Hundred Dollars in full for ten quentls of fish. D PUTNAM

Forty-five hundred dollars for a thousand pounds of fish—four dollars and a half a pound! What glorious times those must have been, during that era of "cheap money"—money so cheap that a pound of cod-fish would buy four dollars and a half of it. And how much better the times must have been when that same "fiat" money became so "cheap" that one pound of cod-fish would buy four and a half pounds of the money. Ten thousand dollars wasn't much of a day's work for a fisherman then.

Another interesting document is what appears to be the original of "An Act for Raysing 650£," passed in 1697, and apportioning that amount among the various towns of the province as follows:

Portsmouth	140	1	6
Hampton	187	3	4½
Dover	137	9	7½
Exeter	115	11	0
Newcastle	70	12	6
	£650	00	00

In the act it was stated at what rate merchantable pine boards, red-oak and white-oak hogshead staves, cod-fish and "seal-fish" would be received in lieu of money. No other articles being mentioned as receivable in commutation of taxes, it is probable that at that time no other merchantable articles were produced in the province. It is evident that in 1697 Hampton was the important town of the province in point of wealth, paying a much larger part of the tax than Portsmouth.

PORTSMOUTH, GREAT FALLS AND CONWAY RAILROAD.

The new bonds of this corporation may be well called long bonds, as they have sixty years to run, and have one hundred and twenty coupons attached. The interest is payable on the first days of June and December at the Eastern railroad office in Boston. On each bond appears the certificate of Messrs. Geo. E. B. Jackson, Frank Jones and Edward W. Hooper that the bond is secured by mortgage bearing date Oct. 1st, 1878, delivered to the above-named gentlemen as trustees, and duly recorded. The interest thereon is further secured by pledge of rent amounting to fifty-five thousand dollars annually, and accruing under a lease made to the Eastern railroad company and approved by the trustees under the mortgage to secure certificates of indebtedness of said Eastern railroad company. The interest is at the rate of four and a half per cent. The bonds being secured by mortgage and pledge of earnings, ought to be considered a good investment for any one satisfied with a regular interest at a reasonable rate, or half per cent a year more than the United States government intend to pay. In fact, this is a bond where the rate promised can be afforded, and ere long it will be in demand by our investors who realize that the day for high rates of interest on wholesome securities has passed.

A KNOWING YOUTH.

The CHRONICLE of this morning says: "Orders have been received at this navy yard to put the Leyden (relief steamer,) in commission." Contrary to this, the correspondent of the Boston Globe (the same reporter, evidently,) says: "orders have been received at the navy yard to put the United States steamer Leyden out of commission." The Leyden was ordered into commission at Boston, is now in service here, commanded by Lieut. Charles Seymour, and no orders have been or are likely to be received to put her out of service so soon.—Times, Jan. 13th.

That's a pretty good item, but the man who got it up isn't half so knowing a chap as he thinks himself to be. The item did appear in the CHRONICLE as stated, "in commission" having been substituted for "out of commission" which we wrote—and which was the way it was given us by "the same reporter, evidently," at whom the Times writer endeavors to get in a fling—and the error having passed in proof without correction.

If the knowing youth had only stopped at the end of the extract from the Globe he would have done pretty well; but he couldn't forbear showing off the superior knowledge he possesses over us and our reporter, in naval matters especially, by adding that "no orders have been or are likely to be received to put" the Leyden "out of service so soon." The difference between what he knows and what he thinks he knows is very great. We repeat for his information that "orders have been received to put her out of service so soon," and add that such orders were received last week; and that the stores would have been turned into the yard storehouses on Monday had the yard been in operation. Further, that her crew received their money on Monday, and that she will go out of commission to-day.

Our critic further shows his superior knowledge in another item, as follows:

We understand that the United States steamer Plymouth, now at the Boston yard from this station, will probably be immediately repaired and put in commission again.

The Plymouth is already in commission, and has been for many months.

An Odd Number.

A very curious number is 142,857. Multiplied by 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 or 6 it gives the same figures in the same order, beginning at a different point, but if multiplied by 7 it gives all nines:

142,857 x 1=142,857
142,857 x 2=285,714
142,857 x 3=428,571
142,857 x 4=571,428

A Great Curiosity.

In Iowa, 150 miles west of Dubuque, lies what is known as the "Walled Lake," a body of water covering 2800 acres, and whose surface is between two and three feet higher than the ground about it. In some places the water is twenty-six feet deep; it is clear and cold, and has no apparent inlet or outlet. It is confined by a wall of stone, in some places ten feet high and fifteen feet thick at the base. The stones used in building it vary in size, from about 100 pounds to three tons. In the country around the lake there are no other stones within a circuit of five or ten miles, but a belt of wood-land composed of oak makes the entire circumference of it. It is thought that the trees were planted there at the time the wall was built, and for that reason the wall cannot be of great antiquity. The Dubuque Herald says, however, that no one can form an idea as to the means employed to bring the stones, or who constructed the wall. In the spring of 1866, during a heavy storm, the ice on the lake broke down the wall in several places, and the farmers in the neighborhood were obliged to repair the damage, to prevent an inundation.

Our Tenure of Life

Depends in great measure upon our regard for or neglect of the laws of health. If we violate them we cannot expect to "make old bones." But that the span of existence allotted to a naturally delicate constitution, or one which has been shaken by disease may be materially lengthened, is a fact of which we have daily proof. The vivifying and restorative influence of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters upon a failing physique affords a striking illustration of the power of judicious medication to strengthen the hold on life. Restored digestion, complete assimilation, renewed appetite, sound repose, these are among the benefits conferred upon the debilitated by the supreme renovant. With a circulation enriched, a frame invigorated, and a nervous system tranquilized, the invalid, after a course of the Bitters, feels that his life-tenure is no longer the precarious thing that it was—that he may yet enjoy a "green old age."

PATERSON, N. J., April 17, 1877.

DEVOE MANUFACTURING CO.

Gentlemen:—I take great pleasure in sending this unsolicited recommendation of your Kerosene Oil.

At the great fire in this place, which destroyed Norwood's Paint and Oil establishment, and other buildings, on the 13th inst., your Oil stood one of most severe tests that Oil could be put to; for four [4] hours the Oil was in the hottest part of the fire, and such a fire as only Varnish, Turpentine, Oils and Paints can make, and in all that time there was no explosion of your Oil, and the cans containing the Oil were in very near the same condition after the fire as before.

I take great pleasure in recommending this Oil, as in my opinion it is the safest Oil for sale in the market. I remain, very respectfully,

JOHN E. REGNER,
Chief of Fire Department.

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE
GAZETTE
Established 1756.
The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or $2 at the end of the year.
It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home. While to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.
—THE—
NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE
Contains more original matter
Than any other paper of its size in the State, the editors working more with their pens than with their scissors.

THE N. H. GAZETTE
Presents an excellent opportunity for a WEEKLY INVITATION TO CUSTOMERS, at a reasonable rate, and all those who desire to reach patrons in Rockingham and York counties will find it an economical medium. THE GAZETTE is in many instances the only paper taken by families, and it is read to a large extent in localities whence is derived much of the trade of Portsmouth, a fact which our merchants should not fail to bear in mind.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE

The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of the great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.

The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improved mode and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed:

THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.

Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.

The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an invariable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.
Tickets for sale at the lowest rates at the Ticket Offices of the Company in all important cities and towns. 1feb20 79

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.
Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from "Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.
In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets
SIZE OF PELLETS.
"THE LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.
No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of chalk, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

CATARRH
SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, coloplike up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from nostrils, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion and nervous irritable, tickling cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.
DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY
produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter of how long standing. The worst of foul nasal ulcers may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried high up and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant and easily understood, from directions accompanying each instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant to use, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

Bad for the Potter Investigators.

On Saturday last the Potter Committee took a still further step in self-stultification. S. H. St. Martin, who was appointed sergeant-at-arms of the Potter Committee when it began its inquisitorial labors, comes forward in a sworn statement accusing Representative Stenger, one of its democratic members, with having bribed him to perjure himself and secure false testimony from other witnesses. He gives the details of how three men, named Duncan, Armstead and Steward, were paid certain specific sums for so much specific perjury. He also relates how Stenger instructed him not to serve subpœnas on persons to appear before the committee, until he assured himself that they would give evidence favorable to the democracy. He caps the climax by narrating, with particularity of circumstance, how a witness named Dula was bribed, with a five hundred dollar douceur, to go on the stand and testify to certain facts; how Dula took the money and then told the truth instead of the falsehoods he was bribed to swear to, and went on to tell of the whole corrupt bargain, including the fact that he (St. Martin) was present when the bargain was made; and how he (St. Martin) thereupon, at Representative Stenger's instigation, took the stand and perjured himself, by denying Dula's "o'er true tale." Naturally enough, the Potter Committee held a meeting to consider what it should do about this awkward affidavit of its late sergeant-at-arms, and, after a deliberation which we can well believe was a very solemn affair, they voted to take no notice of it whatever. They would not even receive it and place it on record, but simply returned it, as they got it, to Secretary Sherman, by whom it was transmitted. It will be unnoticed and unanswered. So will the ciphers. The members of the Potter Committee are thus convicted before the country not only of utter incompetence but of utter unfairness as investigators. They have failed even to justify the ancient adage that commends the policy of setting one set of frauds to catch another. It is high time, indeed, that these precious investigators were themselves investigated.—Traveller.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 15, 1879.

News and Notes.

A letter from Georgia to the New York Times gives Col. Alston of that State as authority for the statement that his official investigation has developed a horrible condition of the prisoners who under law are leased to various parties in the State for their labor. They are formed in camps, men and women are chained together and the results are beastiality and rapid mortality. The death rate in the camps varies from ten to forty per cent. There are 1100 criminals leased out in Georgia now, and the State receives $25-000 per year for them. The lessees include ex-Gov. Joe Brown, B. G. Lockett, Senator Gordon and John W. Murphy. Senator Gordon, however, has written his partners to free him from a contract under which such a state of things exists. Col. Alston's investigations were by order of the legislature, of which he is a member.

On Monday about a thousand men at Albany, N. Y., being dissatisfied with the wages paid them as ice-cutters, knocked off work and compelled those men who wished to keep on to knock off too. Three of the ringleaders were arrested.

Sharpe and McDonald were hung at Mauch Chunk, Pa., Tuesday, the drop falling one minute before the arrival of a telegraphic reprieve.

By an explosion in the Dinas colliery in Wales, Tuesday, sixty miners were killed.

At Chester, Pa., four large steamers, four colliers and a city ice-boat were all stuck in the ice on the 11th inst. At Baltimore the ice was reported eight inches thick. At Wilmington, N. C., buoys had been carried away by the heavy ice. In Hell Gate the drift ice was so heavy that vessels needed a tug to get through it. Norfolk, Va., was embargoed by the ice. Portsmouth harbor was as usual clear of anything that could impede navigation.

Three brothers of William Cullen Bryant, good sturdy farmers, live at Princeton, Ill., the old home of Owen Lovejoy. One of the three is a poet, and lives in a handsome house, which was a gift from his distinguished brother.

The difficulty between the Washington Monument Commission and the engineer in charge, Col. Casey, has become so great that the commission has asked the President to remove Col. Casey from charge of the work on the monument.

Fifteen of the ladies connected with the present diplomatic corps at Washington are Americans, who have married distinguished foreigners. Among the number are the wives of the French, Italian, Guatemalian and Turkish ministers, and many others of lesser rank, including Mrs. Yung Wing, of the Chinese legation, who was a Miss Bartlett of Connecticut.

Since Sunday night the three principal rivers in east Tennessee have been gorged with floating ice, and nearly all the low lands of east Tennessee are overflown, causing great damage to property. The recent rains have caused a flood in the Ohio and its tributaries, and the breaking up of the ice has caused much damage to steamboats and other property, many coal barges having been sunk or carried away.

A severe shock of earthquake was felt in Jacksonville, St Augustine, and all along the coast of Florida, Monday night. The shock lasted about thirty seconds, and appeared to move from southeast to northwest. Nothing of the kind was ever experienced there before.

Mrs. Anderson on Monday night concluded her self-imposed task of walking 2700 quarter-miles in same number of quarter-hours, in New York city.

Geo. P. Rowell & Co's American Newspaper Directory, for January, 1879, has made its apearance. The total number of periodical publications in the United States is 8,703 against 8,340 one year ago. There are 13 more daily and 307 more weekly newspapers then were reported in the edition for January 1878. The total increase in the United States of all sorts is 363. The Centennial year, 1876, has been the only one within the period covered by the eleven annual issues of the Directory in which the number of publications has not increased.

The Greenwich (Conn.,) Observer says a few nights ago Billy Denton, son of Benjamin Denton, went home intoxicated and put his feet into the oven to warm them. He soon fell asleep, and when he woke up in the morning he found that his feet were literally roasted, so much so that one of them will have to be amputated.

The mystery enveloping the Schulte murder near Norwalk, Conn., begins to disappear. It now seems that the murdered man, according to his own memoranda, was twice fired at upon his own farm in Germany, and only three days before his departure for America. Conspiracy, incited either by cupidity or hatred, will probably be found to have been the incentive to the murder.

New Hampshire Items.

Representative Blair has introduced in Congress the petition of Sarah H. Thompson and other citizens of Stark, for such legislation as will make effective the anti-polygamy law of 1862.

The action at law of Moran against the Manchester base ball club has been referred to Judge Stanley, as umpire. Of three hundred newly entered actions in the Hillsborough county docket, half of them have been sent to referees. The State pays the judges a moderate salary, and they make it up by serving as referees and fixing their own fees.

A dwelling-house, owned and occupied by Martin L. Palmer in New Hampton, was destroyed by fire Saturday evening. Loss $800; partly insured.

Twenty-two prisoners were arraigned Monday in the Supreme court at Manchester, a few of whom pleaded guilty and received sentences. John O'Brien, a confirmed tramp, was sentenced to the State prison for fifteen months.

Hon. Daniel Clark has been appointed agent pro tem. of the Amoskeag Co., vice E. A. Straw, resigned. Gov. Straw will receive $4000 a year during life, for his past services.

The New Hampshire Missionary society invests $60,000 of its $75,000 received from the compromise settlement of the litigated Betsy Whitehouse will in U. S. four per cents. The society paid $5000 for litigation; the Jenness relatives get $180-000, which the society otherwise would have got as residuary legatees. The terms of the will hold the society to use the bequest for the support of feeble churches in New Hampshire. The New Hampshire Bible society gets $5000. The whole estate is $300,000.

Mrs. Michael Conner of Manchester, who was injured from the bursting of a kerosene lamp Saturday morning, died Monday.

Miss Huldah Smith, the oldest resident native of Hanover, died Sunday, aged ninety-two years. She had been well until a few days ago.

An old settler and pensioner of the war of 1812, named George Libbey, died Sunday night in Warren, aged eighty-six years.

Political.

The evidence taken by the Teller committee at New Orleans fully bears out all the stories previously related regarding ruffianism and wholesale murder about election time, by the democrats.

The Potter committee disgusted even some of its own party friends on Saturday by refusing to consider sworn charges against one of its own members, and officers, when the principal witness was present, and then turning to the stale subject of irregularities in the electoral returns from the State of Louisiana. The publication of the St. Martin affidavit, in spite of the attempts of democrats to prevent it, will now compel Stenger to take notice of the matter, and cause an examination of St. Martin.

It is announced from Washington that during the present week the republicans in the Senate will offer a resolution designed to force the democrats to a vote upon an expression of hard-money views. The resolution will be of a character to either split the democratic vote, or place the party in a very uncomfortable situation for eastern democrats to occupy. Senator Eaton, a few days since, after listening to Voorhees' greenback speech, said that in his opinion the democrats had reached the forks of the road, and if the Voorhees way was democracy, he for one would take the other road.

Coasting.

The boys were coasting down Sycamore street hill last evening, when John Sanscript and his wife came along. They had been up on Baltimore street, visiting, and were on their way home.

"Just see them boys, now," said John, as he braced up at the intersection of Mulberry street. "It really reminds me of the days when I was a lad. Do you know, Jane, that I used to coast down hill on a sled that way?"

"Did you John?"

"Why yes; but that's fifty years ago."

Sanscript scratched his head contemplatively, and then muttered, sotto voce, "Durn my granddady's buttons, if I don't try it!"

"Try what, dear?" anxiously asked Mrs. Sanscript.

"I'm going to coast just once, to revive recollections of fifty years ago."

"Now, John, if I were you—"

"But you are not me, so don't interfere. Here, sonny, (to a lad just puffed up the hill with his sled;) here, sonny, I'll give you a quarter to let me slide down on your sled once."

The bargain was eagerly nailed and clinched.

"Be keerful, old man," urged the boy, as Sanscript squatted rather awkwardly on the sled; "be keerful, I say, and don't let her flunk one way or t'other till she brings up, or you'll git mashed."

"Never mind, younker," assured John; "I've been here afore—some years afore, but—"

But what will never be known, for just then the sled, of its own accord, started down hill, and even John himself has not since been able to recall what he was about to observe. The surprise at the sled's unexpected movement was general.

"Look out," yelled the boy.

"Oh, John!" screamed Mrs. Sanscript.

"Whoa, there!" yelled John.

But the sled wouldn't whoa. It seemed to have set off down that hill to beat its best time. John had time only to clutch hold of both sides and hold his breath for fear the wind would blow off the top of his head. The only thought he had time to foster was that the boy must have greased the sled's runners as a practical joke. And if this was coasting, he had never coasted, if his recollection served him right.

Two-thirds the way down the hill the sled struck an ice hummock, and immediately his course was changed to a parabolic curve.

Whack! bang! crash! clink!

The bring-up was awful sudden and uncertain. Sanscript and the sled disappeared as abruptly as a shooting star. The latter lay shivered to atoms against a lamp post, and Sanscript lay shivering in the grocery just opposite. When the off-runner of the sled collided with the lamp post and stopped the vehicle, Sanscript rose like a circus leaper and went right on turning twenty summersaults to the second. He went through the grocery window as a circus leaper goes through a paper hoop. All the gingerbread horses and candy, apples and other Christmas luxuries were disarranged, of course. Sanscript's body struck a Western Reserve cheese on the counter, scattering the skippers in consternation.

The old coaster bounded five feet at an obtuse angle, touching again for a second at the top step of the cellar stairs in the rear of the store, and then, continuing like a diver into the Plutonic depth below, he went feet foremost through the head of a hogshead filled with something soft. At first he was uncertain whether the contents were Orleans molasses or melted glucose. Before he had time to investigate, the grocer and two policemen came down. The unhappy old boy was lifted out of his sweet pickle and hauled off to the station house on a charge of malicious destruction of property. The grocer appeared soon after, and compromised, upon John paying the following bill:

Window sash,	$10.00
Crushed cheese,	12.00
Hogshead molasses,	48.20
Christmas goods,	1.16
Total,	$71.36

Then the boy came in with a bill of $5 for his sled, to say nothing of the loss of a suit of clothes, a surgeon's bill for plastering sundry skinned surfaces, and the bill of a hackman who conveyed the frinting wife home. In the cooler moments of afterthought Sanscript reckoned it up and discovered that it had cost him $109.78 to recall recollections of fifty years ago, and it required but one minute and five seconds, of old Father Time in which to do the recollecting.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Most of the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 5c. a lb. Cream of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. dtsep10

THE CITY.

Congress street above the academy was very lively on Tuesday afternoon, with the display of fast turnouts.

The lighthouse tender Iris, with the inspector of the first lighthouse district on board, was at the navy yard on Tuesday.

The officers of the relief steamer Leyden were detached and ordered to the navy yard, and the vessel put out of commission, Tuesday forenoon.

The longest freight train over the Eastern railroad for more than a year went over the line on Sunday; it consisted of sixty-three cars and two engines.

The CHRONICLE is politely informed that the item in reference to the U. S. S. Plymouth was received at this office from an officer attached to the Charlestown yard who evidently gave the same to the Boston Journal, as we note that it was published verbatim in one of its editions of yesterday.—Times.

We had nothing at all to say as to where the item came from; we simply asserted that the Plymouth is in commission, and she is.

At the regular meeting of Sagamore Lodge, No. 258, Knights of Honor, Monday evening, the following officers were installed by District Deputy Grand Dictator Clarence B. Mason; Past Dictator, S. W. Clarke; Dictator, Charles H. Marston; Vice Dictator, O. M. Knight; Assistant Dictator, A. M. Lang; Treasurer, George E. Hodgdon; Financial Reporter W. O. Sides; Reporter, C. B. Mason; Chaplain, D. L. Randall; Guide, H. D. Marston; Guardian, C. H. Shaw; Sentinel, T. E. O. Marvin.

Advices from Cape Town, C. G. H., dated Dec. 3d, say that very little of the cargo of rice of the ship Calcutta, of this port, previously reported towed in there with loss of rudder and otherwise disabled, was found unfit for reshipment, only one hundred and thirty-three bags having to be sold; these brought eleven shillings per bag, duty paid. It was expected the ship would be ready to continue her voyage about Dec. 7th. Her expenses, including the salvage award, amounted to about $25,000. The vessel that towed her into port claimed $50,000 salvage.

THE VICINITY.

The new Methodist Episcopal church in Saco has eighty-eight pews, appraised at $11,520. Forty-four of them have been sold for $8220, besides $475.75 of choice money.

While the pupils in the grammar school at Rochester were at recess, Monday afternoon, the chimney of the school house fell over among the children, one brick striking Nettie Jones, the nine-years-old daughter of Mrs. J. Henry Jones, on the head, crushing her skull so that she died in a few minutes.

The Biddeford house, at Biddeford, took fire in one of the rooms from an overheated stove, about two o'clock Tuesday morning, and was damaged by fire and water to the amount of $1200. The boot and shoe stock of T. M. Gove, in the basement of the building, was badly damaged by water.

The schooner Frank W. Emery, Capt. Falker, before reported abandoned in a sinking condition at sea, was a fine vessel, built at Saco in 1874 at a cost of over $50-000, and was owned by her captain and a number of other persons. The captain's share, and one other owner's, were insured, but the insurance amounted to but a small part of the value of the vessel.

James Leavitt, a nineteen-years-old tramp belonging in Lewiston, with several companions was lodged in the Saco police station Saturday night. Sunday morning the bummers were all turned out, and just when the people were going to church Leavitt appeared on the street from some rum-hole, fighting drunk and noisy. He was locked up, and on Monday went to jail for thirty days—just what he wanted, probably.

On Sunday evening the annual sermon before the Saco Provident Association was preached in the Congregational church in that city, the audience being very large. The treasurer's report was as follows: Cash on hand Jan. 14th, 1878, $206.22; collected at annual meeting, Jan. 14th, 1878, $64.15; receipts from Choral Union concert, March 15th, 1878, $105.10; received from visitors during year, $174.60; interest, $9.31; total, $559.28. Paid out, $276.29, leaving on hand $282.99. Collected at close of meeting, Jan. 12th, 1879, $55.53; total on hand at date, $338.52.

The Portland Press says that "O. W. Dow, of Biddeford, lately failed, and it is a question of the creditors what has become of his goods. Dow stopped two weeks ago, owing $14,784, and his stock was valued at $3000. The larger portion of the liabilities is for goods purchased in December, and the creditors want to know what has become of the goods. No books were kept; sales were noted on pieces of wrapping paper, used in turn to wrap up goods. Dow had a partner named Staples, who withdrew without notifying those doing business with the firm, and he has put up an attachment on Dow's stock, and so have Locke, Twitchell & Co., of Portland. The Boston creditors have appointed a committee to proceed to Biddeford and investigate."

COMMO. GUEST'S FUNERAL.

The funeral services of the late Commodore Guest will take place this forenoon, with as little display as is consistent with naval etiquette. Prayer will be offered at the commodore's house on the navy yard by Rev. Father O'Callaghan of St. Mary's church, after which the body will be escorted to the ferry steamer by the officers of the yard and the marine guard. All work on the yard will be suspended from the time the services commence until the cortege leaves the yard. During the passage of the steamer across the river to this city, minute guns will be fired from the saluting battery at the yard, to the number prescribed in the regulations. The body will be accompanied across the city to the Eastern depot by the escort, and will leave on the eleven o'clock train for Boston. The following-named officers will act as pallbearers:

Chief Engineer Thom Williamson, Commander Charles C. Carpenter, Commander Henry L. Johnson, Naval Constructor Theodore D. Wilson, Surgeon Charles H. Burbank, Paymaster Henry T. Wright.

The steamer Emerald will make extra trips to-day, as follows:

Will leave Yard.	Will leave City.
8:00	8:15
8:30	8:50
9:00	9:15
9:30	9:45
10:00	11:20
11:45	12:15

On the arrival of the remains in Boston they will be received by the officers and a guard of honor from the Charlestown navy yard, who will be in charge of the body until it leaves for Philadelphia, where the final services will be held on Thursday forenoon, in St. Mary's church.

The body will be accompanied to Philadelphia by Lieut. Charles Seymour, Commodore Guest's son-in-law.

An invitation was extended to the workmen on the yard, Tuesday afternoon, to view the remains, and nearly all of them availed themselves of the opportunity to take a last look at the late commandant.

PROCLAMATION MONEY.

A correspondent of the Boston Journal gives the following explanation of what was meant by "Proclamation money" in years long gone by:

The early coinage of England was principally silver, but during the reign of the Plantagenets gold began to be coined bearing a certain ratio to silver. This ratio soon began to change, owing to the fluctuations in value of the metals, and it became necessary to fix it from time to time by royal proclamation. In this way it was regulated from 1257 to 1664. From the latter date till 1717 this custom was suspended, and the two metals fluctuated so much that at one time a gold guinea was worth thirty shillings in silver. In 1717, Isaac Newton, then master of the mint, in his famous report, recommended a renewal of the practice of fixing the value by proclamation and that twenty-one shillings silver to the guinea be the ratio. This suggestion was adopted, and this ratio has ever since held. The coinage thus regulated was for a long time called "proclamation money," and means that the debtor can pay in gold or silver at the above rate.

HE KNOWS MORE NOW.

The knowing youth of the Times on Monday evening informed the world in general and the CHRONICLE in particular, that

The Leyden was ordered into commission at Boston, is now in service here, commanded by Lieut. Charles Seymour, and no orders have been or are likely to be received to put her out of service so soon.

The same brilliant and reliable reporter on Tuesday evening said:

The United States tug Leyden went out of commission to-day, though we were informed on Sunday and again yesterday that there was no truth in the report that she was so ordered.

And in the same issue in which he thus confesses that he knew nothing whatever about the matter on which he was so generously willing to instruct those who did know, he undertakes to crush us with a "stickful" of drivel commencing "O gas!" Samuel, my boy, it was not necessary for you to thus label your effusion, for everybody would have recognized what it was at first sight.

THE NATIONAL BANKS.

At the annual meetings of the National Banks of this city on Tuesday, elections were had as follows:

FIRST NATIONAL: Ichabod Goodwin, (President,) John Stavers, William L. Dwight, William H. Hackett, Edward P. Kimball, Ezra H. Winchester, Directors.

NATIONAL MECHANICS' & TRADERS': John Sise, (President,) Wm. H. Rollins, Chas. H. Mendum, Chas. Robinson, John S. Pray, Directors.

ROCKINGHAM NATIONAL: John J. Pickering, (President,) Geo. W. Haven, Wm. Simes, John S. H. Frink, Titus S. Tredick, Wm. Augustus Peirce, Directors.

NEW HAMPSHIRE NATIONAL: Jas. P. Bartlett, (President,) Daniel Marcy, True M. Ball, Wm. R. Preston, John H. Bailey, Henry F. Wendell, Edwin A. Peterson, Directors.

PORTS. TRUST & GUARANTEE CO.: Jeremiah F. Hall, (President,) Frank Jones, Daniel Marcy, Ezra H. Winchester, John Sise, Wm. H. Hackett, Thos. H. Odion, Edwin A. Peterson, Thos. J. Parsons, Wm. D. Fernald, Directors.

NATIONAL GRANITE STATE BANK at Exeter: Jeremiah L. Morrill, (President,) Wm. W. Stickney, Edmund Elliot, Joseph Morrill, Benj. L. Merrill, G. A. Wentworth, Wm. G. Perry, Directors; Warren F. Putnam, Cashier.

There are seventy-one national banks in New Hampshire, having deposits of $28,309,624, and on their capital and deposits they for the year ending May 31st last paid to the United States government a tax of $4423. Maine has sixty-nine banks with deposits of $28,957,428, and they paid a tax only of $1442.19.

DRISCOLL'S WALK.

The Times having announced that the miles walked by James M. Driscoll in Franklin hall last week "were all short, and all of a length—about 5100 feet," a correspondent signing himself "Spectator" writes us that "while people who witnessed the walk may doubt that he accomplished the distance advertised, all were much better satisfied with the exhibition than with anything of the kind given here before," and adds a query, "But if Mr. Driscoll did not walk a mile in twenty-six laps, how about the Locke-Morrison match?" in which he says "the Times man doubtless had a finger." We have no personal knowledge how far either of the walkists actually travelled, nor are we particularly interested to find out: neither do we know whether the "Times man" did or did not "have a finger" in the Locke-Morrison match or any other, nor see what particular bearing on the case it has, anyway. All we know about the matter is that a number of persons who watched Driscoll's walk pretty closely, all agreed in reporting to us that he was a "square walker," and that they believed the whole affair was fairly conducted. Whether the "miles" walked by him or the others mentioned were miles we cannot say.

The above was in type Tuesday afternoon; and Tuesday evening we were informed that the three carpenters who on Tuesday took up the track in Franklin hall, measured the path in which Driscoll walked, and found that the distance he walked for a mile was actually a mile and a trifle more.

The friends of Mr. Driscoll in this city have had made for him a handsome gold medal, which will be presented to him on Saturday at Portland by a delegation from this city. The medal will be on exhibition in the window of C. E. Dixon & Co., on Friday evening.

Naval Matters.

Lieut. Murray S. Day, of the U. S. S. Vandalia, died at St. Thomas Dec. 27th.

The U. S. S. Enterprise, Commander Selfridge, arrived at Gibraltar Dec. 21st from New York, after a passage of thirty-five days.

Suffering for a Life Time.

Persons affected with rheumatism often suffer for a life time, their tortures being almost without remission. The joints and muscles of such unfortunates are in most cases shockingly contorted and drawn out of shape. To afford them even temporary relief, the ordinary remedies often prove utterly useless. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, on the other hand, is avouched by persons who have used it to be a genuine source of relief. It keeps the blood cool by promoting a regular habit of body, and removes from it impurities which, in the opinion of all rational pathologists, originate this agonizing complaint and its kindred malady, the gout. Besides this the Bitters remedy disorders of the stomach, liver and nerves, prevent and eradicate intermittent and remittent fevers, promote appetite and sleep, and are highly recommended by physicians as a desirable medicinal stimulant and tonic.

A Brooklyn Ex-Judge is Suddenly Enriched.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 21, 1878.

The undersigned certifies that he held for collection for account of Zachariah Voorhies, attorney and counsellor at law, 89 Broadway, Brooklyn, E. D., and 63 Bedford Ave., Brooklyn, E. D., whole ticket No. 75,301, Class M, in the Louisiana State Lottery, which drew the second capital prize of $50,000, on Tuesday, Dec. 10, 1878; said ticket having cost the sum of ten dollars at the office of H. L. Plum, 219 Broadway, New York, and that the amount was promptly paid in full on presentation of the ticket at the office of the Company.

Revolution in the Dressing Room!
By the almost unanimous action of the parties interested,

CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE

has replaced the old worn-out inventions for coloring the hair, which the bitter experience of years had proved to be ineffective and deleterious. Unlike the compounds that upon the health of the hair, and dry up and consume the juices which sustain it, this mild, genial and perfect dye is found to be a vitalizing as well as a coloring agent.

Cristadoro's Hair Preservative,

A valuable adjunct to the Dye in dressing and promoting the growth and perfect health of the hair, and of itself, when used alone—a safeguard that protects the fibres from decay under all circumstances and under all climes. Chas. E. Laighton & Son.

DEVOE'S BRILLIANT OIL

1st. Is absolutely safe.

3d. Does not smoke, nor smell, nor crust the wick.
4th. Is the most economical oil, because it gives the most light in proportion to its price.

We give the following letter to show the absolute freedom of Devoe's Brilliant Oil from any inflammable vapor, and as a curious incident:

PATERSON, N. J., April 17, 1877.

DEVOE MANUFACTURING CO.
Gentlemen:—I take great pleasure in sending this unsolicited recommendation of your Kerosene Oil.

At the great fire in this place, which destroyed Norwood's Paint and Oil establishment, and other buildings, on the 13th inst., your Oil stood one of most severe tests that Oil could be put to; for four [4] hours the Oil was in the hottest part of the fire, and such a fire as only Varnish, Turpentine, Oils and Paints can make, and in all that time there was no explosion of your Oil, and the cans containing the Oil were in very near the same condition after the fire as before.

I take great pleasure in recommending this Oil, as in my opinion it is the safest Oil for sale in the market. I remain, very respectfully,

JOHN E. REGNER,
Chief of Fire Department.

Why, Verily!

Why be an animated tallow-shop when Allan's Anti-Fat is a safe and sure remedy for obesity or corpulence, and will reduce the most ill-proportioned form to a graceful outline within a few weeks. It contains no ingredients that can possibly prove deleterious to the system. A well-known chemist, after examining its constituents and the method of its preparation, gives it his unqualified endorsement as a remedy that "cannot but act favorably upon the system, and is well calculated to attain the object for which it is intended."

BALTIMORE, M. D., July 17th, 1878.
Prop'rs Allan's Anti-Fat, Buffalo N. Y.,
Dear Sir—I have taken two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat and it has reduced me eight pounds. Very respectfully,
MRS. I. R. COLES.

Diseased Pork.

The following, from an Iowa paper, is not pleasant reading for those who use western pork and lard:

The health commissioner of Chicago has obtained the opinions of vice president Atwood of the State microscopical society, and Dr. W. T. Belfield, demonstrator of physiology at Rush medical college, upon the subject of trichinæ. Nearly two thousand pieces of pork from one hundred hogs were carefully examined. The result is astonishing, and especially some of the conclusions reached by those gentlemen in their report. It would appear from their report that a great deal of pork on the market is affected by trichinæ: that hogs thus infested very frequently have every indication of good health; that trichinæ pork cannot be reliably detected without the aid of the microscope; that the parasite is not destroyed by salting and smoking, but the meat must be thoroughly cooked to make it safe to eat; that the percentage of infected hogs has rapidly increased within the past eight years; that the disease is more prevalent in America than in Germany, and that it is probably in consequence of the close resemblance of trichinosis to symptoms induced by other causes, as notably typhoid fever, that it may sometimes have been taken for other complaints. The inquiry is an important one, and it is to be hoped that continued research will throw much more light upon a subject heretofore involved in considerable mystery.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Pimple, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.
Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.
In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets
SIZE OF PELLETS.
THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.
No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of chaff, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, and they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, prevents its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 3 to 5 pounds a week.

In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following recent one from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen:—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 199 pounds to 122 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOUGITTE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & PLUMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen,—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. 'It (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost.' Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlets on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.

BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I feel confident in claiming its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, and place it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and certain remedy for the class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician. I feel so confident that I feel it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under a POSITIVE GUARANTEE (for conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are some of those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a positiveness never before dreamed by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppression from any unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion and Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility in Female Women. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a specific indication, and is a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 300 pages, sent post-paid, for the price of $1.50. It treats fully of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

A Young Girl's Obtuseness.

A young man and his favorite companion sat near the front at Burdett's lecture the other evening. When the Hawkeye man had just finished convulsing his hearers with an account of a youth's first shaving encounter with a barber, the young man leaned over and whispered:

"That's true to life, I can tell you."

"How can you tell me?" inquired his girl.

"How?" he replied in a whisper; "why, that's just the way I felt when I first got shaved."

"When was that?" she asked.

"Oh, before I raised my moustache," he returned.

"What moustache?" she queried, a little surprised.

"What moustache do you suppose?" he retorted, turning red.

"Why, Charley," whispered the girl, "I never saw any moustache. Do you mean—"

"Never mind what I mean," hissed the young man between his clenched teeth. And he stared very hard at the lecturer all the rest of the evening, but somehow couldn't see anything to laugh at. Sunday night he went to see a new girl.—Rockland Courier.

Advanced Physicians.

Many of the more advanced physicians, having found Dr. Pierce's Family Medicines prompt and sure, prescribe them regularly in their practice.

TWINVILLE, Tenn., May 28th, 1877.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.:

Dear Sir—For a long time I suffered with catarrh. I finally called in Dr. Zachary of this place. He furnished me with your Nasal Douche, Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and your Golden Medical Discovery. These remedies speedily effected an entire cure. Yours truly,

JOHN S. CHAMLESS.

—After all the slanders perpetrated against the oyster, that interesting bivalve has always stewed by the church and liquidated the inevitable "debt."

—"Sympathetic pipes" are a recent novelty. The bowl of a meerschaum may be colored in five minutes, by first tinting it with a solution of nitrate of silver in ether and alcohol, to which essence of roses and camphor are added. Figures of any pattern are produced by the heat of the tobacco, and when produced are permanent.

—A young man was recently sent by his employer to collect a bill of a family residing in a certain part of Lewiston, Me. He reported on his return that he found the old woman drunk, the old man very tipsy, three daughters just beginning to get excited, and some company who were waxing gay upon the hospitality of their host and hostess. The young man presented his bill, and was invited to find satisfaction in a rum bottle. Temperance evangelists would seem to find a good field for their zeal in Lewiston.

—A correspondent of the Mt. Sterling (Ky.) Democrat, states that in 1866, Ed. and Cale Brown, brothers, entered into an agreement to buy fifteen good Cotswold ewes, continue the partnership ten years, retain the ewe lambs, sell the wool and male sheep each year. The fifteen original ewes cost them $158 cash. July 15th, two years ago, (76), they had sold $4800 worth of wool and sheep. Last year they sold $1560 worth, this year $900 worth, and now have on hand 190 head of sheep that $2850 cannot buy. The neat sum of $10,110 realized by fifteen ewes and their produce, is equivalent to loaning money at nearly the astonishing sum of 630 per cent per annum.

The ECLECTIC MAGAZINE reproduces from foreign periodicals all those articles which are most like to American readers. Its field of selection embraces all the leading Foreign Reviews, Magazines, and Journals; and while the tastes of all classes of readers are consulted nothing trivial in character, or of merely transient interest is admitted to its pages. Its plan includes ESSAYS, REVIEWS, BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES, HISTORICAL PAPERS, TRAVELS, POETRY, NOVELS, and SHORT STORIES; and in the case of ESSAYS (to which much space and attention are given) no special prominence is allowed to any particular phase of opinion, but place is given impartially to the most valuable articles on both sides of the great subjects of scientific discussion.

The following list comprises the principal periodicals from which selections are made and the names of some of the leading writers who contribute to them:

Portsmouth Chronicle

THURSDAY, JANUARY 16, 1879.

News and Notes.

The Handkerchief shoals light-ship arrived at Vineyard Haven, Tuesday afternoon, under sail and unaided. All well. She has been within eighty miles of Nantucket ever since she was blown off on the 3d inst.

Ship Thomas M. Reed, of Bath, Me., was totally wrecked on the coast of Wales, Monday, and three men were lost. She was from San Francisco for Liverpool, with canned fish and meats, and grain. She was built in 1877, and registered 1507 tons.

Vermont has 250 grist mills valued at $1,250,000. The annual yield of wheat in the State is estimated at 455,700 bushels, and of corn 1,700,000 bushels.

Benjamin Dinsmore of Georgia Plain, Vt., publishes an advertisement notifying the rumsellers of St. Albans that he has signed the temperance pledge, asking them not to sell him any more intoxicating drinks, and warning them that if they do he will infocm against them.

By a coasting accident in New Bedford on the evening of the 13th inst., Matthew Hall, son of W. H. Hall, had his right leg broken, and Edward Drew, son of John T. Drew, and William J. Place, a hack driver, were quite severely hurt.

An alleged horse thief named Smith was killed on the 13th inst., near Clarksville, Ark., by a sheriff's posse. A confederate escaped.

Miss Mitchel and Miss Eder, aged sixteen years each, were drowned by breaking through the ice on a canal at New Brunswick, N. J., on the 13th inst.

Peter Rice, a soldier, was found drowned near Fort Adams wharf, at Newport, R. I., on the 14th inst. He had been twenty-eight years in the service; had not missed roll-call for ten years, and was the only surviving private who was with Major Anderson in Fort Sumter. During the war he was offered $10,000 by his father-in-law, a rebel, to spike the guns at Fort Adams, but he refused. He was respected by everybody. A coroner's inquest returned a verdict of accidental drowning.

In the Ohio Senate a bill has been introduced to punish grave robbery by imprisonment from three to fifteen years.

The execution of the two Mollie Maguire murderers at Mauch Chunk, Pa., on the 14th inst., strikingly illustrated the value of a minute in time, for scarcely had the drop fallen when a messenger arrived at the jail with a telegraphic message from the governer granting a reprieve until the 20th. Thirty seconds of time, it appears, might have served to delay the execution. But proceedings pending in court, which were the basis of the reprieve, have terminated adversely to the condemned, and the execution would have taken place on the 20th had the reprieve been effectual. It would have been a harrowing case had even possible innocence been the ground of reprieve.

On Monday afternoon, the 13th inst., the steam colliers Panther and Achilles arrived at the coal pocket in Newburyport, after a passage of thirteen days from Philadelphia. The Panther left on the 1st and the Achilles on the 2d, the Delaware being filled with floating ice and freezing. They were first detained at Marcus Hook, about twenty miles below Port Richmond, but the ice boats being put at work they got clear, and proceeded as far as Newcastle, Del., where they found they could make no further headway. At this point the ice would pour down with the swift ebbing tide in such quantities as to ground in three fathoms of water and pile up in masses out of water eight and ten feet high. The Panther was not in want of company, for about her were thirty-five sail of vessels, frozen up, including fourteen steamers.

Mr. Cannon, the Mormon delegate in Congress from Utah, who is himself the happy possessor of three or four wives, is very busy explaining to the authorities the effect of the late opinion of the Supreme Court. The decision subjects all who have lived in polygamy since July, 1862, to fine and imprisonment, and renders all children illegitimate. Mr. Cannon wants a relief act passed, that will give amnesty for past offences under this law, which the government itself has allowed to remain a dead letter, with provisions that in future all shall be held strictly to account by the government, under the criminal sections of the law. He says this will gradually but effectually break up polygamy. It is said that his arguments and representations are having a good deal of effect, and that there are a good many in the two houses who think such a law would be wise.

Edgar Freeman, the negro who some time ago at Ansonia, Conn., outraged a little girl named Jennie McCrindle, has been condemned to State prison for life.

Captain Harvey Treat, of Milford, Conn., aged 102 years, was probably fatally injured by a recent fall on the ice.

At Norwich, Conn., on the evening of the 11th inst., George Penny undertook to guide his "double-ripper" down hill with a load of seventeen persons. Penny's foot got caught in steering while the sled was going at forty miles an hour; he was thrown off and his right leg broken in two places, and the whole load tumbled into a ditch, every person being more or less hurt. Penny will probably lose his leg.

New York had a disastrous fire on Tuesday night, 14th inst. A five-story building extending from Crosby street to Broadway, on Grand street, 200x100 feet, was consumed, the losers being as follows: Waumburger, Kraus, Souer & Co., manufacturers of clothing, occupying three floors; their stock, reported worth fully $1,500,000, was a total loss; very heavily insured, but amount unknown. Howard, Sanger & Co., fancy goods and notion dealers, occupying the lower two floors, stock reputed to be worth half a million, insured at least $300,000. Edward Bates & Co., stock worth $260,000, insured about $235,000. The building, the property of Messrs. Brooks, clothiers, was worth several hundred thousand dollars, and fully insured. One fireman was killed by the falling walls, and three others were reported missing and it was supposed they too had been buried.

Steamer Alpha arrived at Halifax, N. S., 13th inst., from St. Thomas and Bermuda, bringing fifty-six ship-wrecked seamen. These men were from the British steamships Kate and Sartington, both wrecked at Bermuda, and the brig Herbert H. Raymond and schooner Welcome Home, both abandoned at sea.

The Italian barque Luigi Olivari has been wrecked on the coast of England, and all hands lost.

The annual report of the New York elevated railroad shows that the company has in bank and trust companies $768,000, and no floating debt. Thirty-six miles of track are completed. The passenger traffic for the last quarter of 1878 was 6,088,104.

James H. Prentice, owner of the two large hat factories in Brooklyn, has failed for $200,000 and made an assignment to his creditors. His creditors number seventeen, the largest being his brother John, for $56,000. The factories are closed, and 700 employes discharged.

The giant powder works of Bandmann, Neilson & Co., near San Francisco, blew up on the 14th inst. The works were completely destroyed, and many buildings in the neighborhood, occupied by employes, including the superintendent's residence, were wrecked. The explosion occurred in the nitro-glycerine house. Oscar Carlson, a Swede, Edward Monez and Samuel Thayer, Americans, and one Chinaman were killed. One Chinaman was badly injured and a number of whites and Chinese were more or less hurt. The damage to the property will amount to about $50,000.

The reign of murder which has disgraced Indianapolis for over a year past, and has been largely due to the lax enforcement of law, is likely to be brought to an end at last, for on the 29th three of its brutal murderers swing at once—William Merrick, John Achey and Lewis Guetig.

Charles H. Moulton, of Alfred, Me., the defaulting broker, who has been in jail for some time, was admitted to bail at Washington, D. C., Monday evening, by Judge Wylie, in $3000.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Traders' national bank of Bangor, Me., it was voted to close business.

A new hotel is to be built on the shore of Mooschead lake, about two miles and a half northwest of Greenville village, Me.

New Hampshire Items.

Mr. Whitaker of Hancock, who lost a son by a bite of a mad dog belonging to John Warren of Harrisville, some two years ago, has brought a suit claiming $10,000 damage, holding that a man is liable for the damage his dog does, under the laws of New Hampshire.

Charles Chase of Milton Mills was fatally injured on Tuesday, 7th inst. He was kicked by a horse in the throat, and died in a few minutes.

George Clark of Enfield boasts of a couple of turkeys which, after a month's confinement in a hay mow, without food or drink, came out in good condition.

Political.

A contributor to the New York Tribune thinks it is time to stop talking about the financial unsoundness of the west. The Secretary who foresaw all our troubles thirteen years ago and showed us how to avoid them, was Hugh McCulloch, of Indiana. The President who vetoed the inflation bill passed by a crazy Congress, was Ulysses S. Grant, of Illinois. The Senator who secured the passage of the resumption act, was John Sherman, of Ohio. The Representative whose defence of common sense and common honesty has been most constant and efficient, is James A. Garfield, of Ohio.

The New Orleans Times (dem.) cries out that the intense Bourbonism of the controlling element in State politics ignores the necessities of the people and the demands of business.

Gen. Butler is reported to have notified another member of the Potter committee that had he been present at the meeting of the committee the resolution calling for the investigation of the cipher despatches would not have been adopted. He is understood to place his opposition upon the ground that the seizure of telegrams is a violation of civil rights and gross outrage upon individual liberty. Gen. Butler has served notice upon Potter that he desires an hour to debate the question.

Dakota, with something over 5,000 voters, would like the privilege of becoming the thirty-ninth State in the Union. In view of the necessity of having somebody left over to do the voting, after the offices have been filled, Dakota may be obliged to wait and grow up with the country.—N. Y. Tribune.

A Loud "Call."

The Secretary of the Treasury has issued the eighty-first call for the redemption of five-twenty bonds of 1865, consols of 1865. The call is for twenty million dollars, of which twelve millions are coupon and eight millions are registered bonds, the principal and interest to be paid at the Treasury on and after the 14th of April, interest to cease on that day. The following are the descriptions of the bonds:

Coupon bonds, dated July 1, 1865:

—Col. Foster and Miss Cummings, of Virginia, were engaged to be married in their youth, but the knot was not tied because the lady demanded a settlement of $30,000. A few days ago they were married, a compromise having been effected. The colonel is seventy-two years of age, and his bride is sixty-nine.

—Caleb Cushing, it is said, could read sixteen hours a day for a month and never forget an important fact obtained in that time. While Attorney General he would have his meals brought to him and laid on his writing desk. His custom often was to eat the entire meal without looking at it or resting from his work.

—When Donn Piatt was in New York he was enticed into the opera house, when her majesty's troupe was performing. The good man was evidently shocked, for he wrote home: "I saw enough nakedness to make the loose-jointed Talmage howl with anguish. Women appeared in a style of dress—or undress—that would have made our grandmothers blush to use as a night-gown."

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Most of the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 2c. a lb., Cream of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. dtscp10

E. G. PIERCE, JR., P. M.

THE CITY.

The sixth lecture of the course at Miss Morgan's seminary will be given by Mr. Albee on Friday evening.

Wednesday night was the coldest one yet, we believe; the mercury was nearly down to zero at seven o'clock Wednesday evening.

Mr. Oliver S. Loomis of this city has been appointed a writer in the bureau of construction and repair at the navy yard, in place of Mr. Frost of Eliot, Me., removed.

The funeral rites over the remains of Commodore Guest took place as previously announced, Rev. Father O'Callaghan offering prayer and making appropriate and impressive remarks.

Mr. Lewis E. Staples, recently located on Daniel street, having purchased the Nick-Nack store on Market street of Hartley W. Mason, invites all his old customers and the public generally to his new place of business.

From the wisdom (!) of the CHRONICLE, good Lord, deliver us.—SAMUEL, of the Times.

Samuel, my boy, you were effectually "delivered" by nature from wisdom of that kind or any other, from the start.

Mr. Charles Mitchel, who lives on Bridge street, while at work in the Kearsarge mill Wednesday forenoon ran into his foot a hard pine splinter which penetrated through so as to appear on the top. Dr. Potter was called and removed the splinter.

A very pretty sight of a dark night can be had by standing on the Vaughan street crossing of the Eastern railroad and looking westward through the depot, along the line of lights, white, red and green; when a head-light comes along, with an engine attached, the spectator will move on—or off.

Mr. A. S. Palmer, who conducted a series of gospel temperance meetings in this city, and afterward in Rye, Kittery and other towns, opened a series of meetings in Manchester on Sunday, the 12th inst., meeting with remarkable success. It is said that in two evenings about four hundred persons signed the total abstinence pledge.

A horse belonging to Mr. David Philbrook of Rye made things lively around Market square and its vicinity on Wednesday forenoon, running away and taking the sidewalks for his route, to the discomfort of pedestrians. He was finally caught in front of Butler & Laighton's store, after having made a wreck of the sleigh to which he was attached.

B. F. Patrick, formerly general ticket agent of the Eastern railroad, has been arrested on a charge of embezzlement, preferred against him by the officers of the company. The amount is $1800, and the transactions extend back several months. Mr. Patrick, who was formerly connected with railroad interests in Chicago and the west, was employed by the Eastern road about two years ago, and until quite recently performed the duties of his office satisfactorily to the company. About two months ago his resignation was requested; an investigation of his accounts followed, and the discrepancy discovered. Mr. Patrick acknowledges that his accounts are short, and expresses contrition.

THE VICINITY.

The stockholders of the First national bank in Genic, voted Tuesday afternoon, 14th inst., that the bank go into liquidation, and that the officers of the bank close it up as soon as possible.

The State Fish Commissioners on the 13th inst. visited the fishermen on the river at Exeter who have been catching quantities of bass, and ordered them to desist from fishing with nets. Hundreds have been caught this season weighing twenty-five pounds or more each.

A despatch to the Boston Post from Dover says: "Stephen Stiles, carpenter and builder, who came here from Cambridge, Mass., about eighteen months ago, has left town, leaving numerous creditors. He was building three new houses, which he left unfinished. He owes a month's wages to his men, and also owes for lumber, hardware, etc. He left Friday, the 10th inst., telling his men that he would be back in a few days, but as he took his trunk and all his tools with him, it is not probable he will return."

Dr. J. W. Colcord, residing on the Walton road, Seabrook, attended thirty-four cases of scarlet fever and scarletina in 1878, and lost but two patients out of the lot. Though a young man, Dr. Colcord has won the confidence of the people in his section, and has secured quite an extended practice.

A grandchild of Mr. George Souther of Seabrook, three years old, recently got a two-cent piece into its throat, and was so nearly strangled to death as to be black in the face, and senseless. Mr. Souther as a last resort pushed the piece as far down the child's throat as he could reach with his finger, when the child soon revived, and commencing to vomit, threw up the coin.

The Cocheco national bank, at Dover, has elected officers as follows: James E. Lothrop, (President,) George W. Tash, Frank Freeman, Charles W. Thurston, George A. Thompson, Owen J. Lewis, Leonard S. Rand, Rufus Haley, Ralph Hugh, Directors. A semi-annual dividend of four per cent was declared. The Dover national bank elected the following: Oliver Wyatt, (President,) Eli V. Brewster, George W. Bean, Joshua G. Hall, Thaddeus P. Cressey, B. Frank Neally, Directors. A semi-annual dividend of three per cent was declared.

The graded school at South Seabrook, which has been taught during the past term by Moses Yeaton, Jr., and Miss Ella A. Newton, both graduates of Portsmouth high school, closed Jan. 1st. The examination (which was an examination, and not a mere "exhibition" of memory on the part of the pupils in the recital of lessons specially-studied for the occasion) showed excellent discipline in the school and good progress on the part of the scholars; the Superintending School Committee, Henry C. Chase, Esq., complimented the teachers and their methods very highly. Mr. Yeaton, who taught the upper school, received two presents from his scholars at the close of the school, one of the gifts being a handsome book of poems.

"DRIFT FROM YORK HARBOR, MAINE."

By Geo. Houghton; pp.48. A. Williams & Co., Boston, publishers. The ancient city of Gorgeanna, quiet, peaceful, attractive, natural, with its waving elms, its hills, its sea flavor, its cool breezes and its dreamy remove from the bustle of the haunts of men, is here set out by the poet, who seems to have abode long enough among the attractions of York to have imbibed a measure of comfort, and enjoyed with zest its choice and rare atmosphere of summer days.

The charm one finds in York is the absence of anything that causes exertion; even the telegraph comes no further than "the Corner," and the once projected seaside railroad route from Portsmouth to Kennebunkport and so on, happily never proceeded further than a preliminary survey. The respectable and ancient guest seems here less invaded upon than in any other town upon the coast. Here, it would seem, if one could by any effort shake off the vis inertia of the soothing surroundings, would be the field for poetry, though our poet has transplanted his scenes to his study at home, and wielded his pen in the New and not in the Old York. However, there is much of the inspiration of the famous spot in the book, and there are passages that show a keen appreciation of the locality only to be experienced by the sojourners for a season. The book can be had at the book store of Mr. Myers at thirty-five cents, and we expect every visitor next season to the sands near where "a small blue river pours into the sea," will be ready with quotations from the "Drift."

THE GEOGRAPHY CLASS.

The Journal says: "The frigate Ticonderoga arrived at Madeira on the 25th from this port via Norfolk. Also at Funchal on the 27th." Where is Funchal now, anyway? It used to be in Madeira. —Chronicle.

The Times says that Mr. John W. Caswell, of the firm of Randall & Caswell, fish dealers, of this city, has just purchased of the trustees of Valentine Doane, Jr. all the estate at Newcastle belonging to Doane, including vessels, seine boats, seines, wharf property and buildings, etc.—Chronicle.

The Times and the CHRONICLE locate Doane's wharf and buildings at Newcastle. They are really in Portsmouth, being on Marvin's island, which is a part of this city. The wide-awake editor of the CHRONICLE is well posted on the location of Funchal, but he is not so well acquainted with the geography of his native town. —Journal.

The CHRONICLE published this morning, the above extract from the Journal. We do not claim Newcastle as our native town, but we do know that Mr. Doane occupied Governor's Island and used it and six buildings and two wharves thereon in carrying on the fishing business. The island is within the territorial limits of Newcastle, and has been ever since the incorporation of the town. Mr. Doane occupied a wharf and other buildings within the limits of this city, but the greater part of his business premises was in Newcastle.—Times.

Say, brethren, let's settle this thing up some way before we leave it. If three newspapers, when they get squarely down to business, can't arrange the geography of Mr. Doane's fishing business satisfactorily, it's a hard case.

The Times said (and we copied the statement, giving due credit) that Mr. Caswell had purchased "all the estate at Newcastle belonging to Doane." Then the Journal said that we "located Doane's wharf and buildings in Newcastle"—which we didn't, as we merely copied the Times item, which stated that "all the estate at Newcastle belonging to Doane" had been sold, but did not state that all the Doane estate was situated at Newcastle. The Journal further said that "Doane's wharf and buildings" are "really in Portsmouth, being on Marvin's island, which is a part of this city." Then the Times comes up and says that "Doane occupied Governor's island" and "six buildings and two wharves thereon in carrying on the fishing business," that this island "is within the territorial limits of Newcastle," and that "Doane occupied a wharf and other buildings within the limits of this city, but the greater part of his business premises were in Newcastle."

As the Times and Journal have each located Doane's wharf and buildings where they pleased, we don't see why we should not do the same; so we say they are on Shapleigh's island, (sometimes called Marvin's island,) which is and we believe always has been in Portsmouth; the island bears that name in the city tax books and on the government charts, and we have before us a record showing that in 1816 Wm. Hanscom built there the brig Diamede, of 217 tons, for Reuben Shapleigh, and that Mr. Shapleigh in the same year built at his own yard on the island the schooner Cossack, of 56 tons, and that the island was then called Shapleigh's. Doane did have some property in Newcastle; but the wharf known as Doane's wharf, where nearly all his schooners discharged their fares, and his principal storehouses, counting-room, etc., are in Portsmouth. At any rate, they pay taxes here. Where "Governor's island" is we do not know.

Suffering for a Life Time.

Persons affected with rheumatism often suffer for a life time, their tortures being almost without remission. The joints and muscles of such unfortunates are in most cases shockingly contorted and drawn out of shape. To afford them even temporary relief, the ordinary remedies often prove utterly useless. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, on the other hand, is avouched by persons who have used it to be a genuine source of relief. It keeps the blood cool by promoting a regular habit of body, and removes from it impurities which, in the opinion of all rational pathologists, originate this agonizing complaint and its kindred malady, the gout. Besides this the Bitters remedy disorders of the stomach, liver and nerves, prevent and eradicate intermittent and remittent fevers, promote appetite and sleep, and are highly recommended by physicians as a desirable medicinal stimulant and tonic.

L. Plum, 319 Broadway, New York, and that the amount was promptly paid in full on presentation of the ticket at the office of the Company. T. M. WESCOATT, Revolution in the Dressing Room!

By the almost unanimous action of the parties interested,

CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE

has replaced the old worn-out inventions for coloring the hair, which the bitter experience of years had proved to be ineffective and deleterious. Unlike the compounds that upon the health of the hair, and dry up and consume the juices which sustain it, this mild, genial and perfect dye is found to be a vitalizing as well as a coloring agent.

Cristadoro's Hair Preservative,

A valuable adjunct to the Dye in dressing and promoting the growth and perfect health of the hair, and of itself, when used alone—a safeguard that protects the fibres from decay under all circumstances and under all climes. Why Young Men Remain Single.

It is said that the extravagance of girls is the chief reason why so many young men remain single, rather than marry girls that they could not support as wives in their ante-marriage style. There never was a more absurd charge made than this. The average young man is more extravagant than the average young woman, and the young man who is afraid to marry because girls are extravagant, is usually the most extravagant of his class, and does not desire to marry, because in order to support a wife and children he would have to cut off his extravagances. In the majority of cases the wife is the cause of actual saving to the husband. Before marriage he lived up to his income—saved nothing, and owned nothing. After marriage he saves money because he is compelled to, and usually owns the house he lives in. Before marriage he was not obliged to economize, because he did not look beyond the present with its enjoyments. After marriage he is required to economize, because he has to regard the future, with its responsibilities. In regard to the question of expenses, this writer well says: "Girls' expenses are confined almost wholly to their dress; young mens' expenses are confined—no, they are not confined to anything, they run wild. A young man of the class alluded to will frequently spend as much in one night among his companions as would support a wife for a week. Franklin said that 'one vice will bring up two children.' Then two vices should certainly support one wife, and most of the young men of the day could easily give up two and still have a large variety on hand."—Sunday Chronicle.

—An exchange says: "We heard a man complain about the weight of a baby the other day, and to our certan knowledge that man used to hold the mother of that baby in his arms cheerfully, hour after hour, after the parents of the said girl had gone to their virtuous couch."

—A novel race will soon come off near Boston, a gentleman who owns a fast trotter having made a wager that his son, who has never ridden a bicycle, cannot cover 100 miles, with any practice he may receive beforehand, as quickly as the horse will do it. The boy has been taken in hand by an expert bicyclist. The wager is $100.

PATERSON, N. J., April 17, 1877.

DEVOE MANUFACTURING CO.

Gentlemen:—I take great pleasure in sending this unsolicited recommendation of your Kerosene Oil.

At the great fire in this place, which destroyed Norwood's Paint and Oil establishment, and other buildings, on the 15th inst., your Oil stood one of most severe tests that Oil could be put to; for four [4] hours the Oil was in the hottest part of the fire, and such a fire as only Varnish, Turpentine, Oils and Paints can make, and in all that time there was no explosion of your Oil, and the cans containing the Oil were in very near the same condition after the fire as before.

I take great pleasure in recommending this Oil, as in my opinion it is the safest Oil for sale in the market. I remain, very respectfully,

JOHN E. REGNER,
Chief of Fire Department.

WILLIAM H. HACKETT.

—Buffalo Bill has made $135,000, and retired to a Kansas cattle ranche.

—It is one of the embarrassments of the coal business that when the miners strike they stop striking.

—The newest white ties have peacocks embroided on the ends, the plumage being artfully copied in fine flosses.

—An aristocrat, whose family had rather run down, boasting to a prosperous tradesman of his ancestors, the latter said: "You are proud of your descent. I am on the opposite tack, and feel proud of my ascent."

—The poor, benighted Britishers who glared with astonishment and admiration at the $60,000 diamond Lord Beaconsfield wore at the Lord Mayor's banquet the other day, could never have seen an American hotel clerk.

—The case in St. Louis where a lady sued a reporter for $15,000 damages, for breach of promise, has been thrown out of the court. It was discovered that a saloon slate on which the reporter was charged three beers had absorbed his entire fortune.

—A professor in Cornell, lecturing on the effect of the wind in some western forests remarked: "In travelling along the road I even sometimes found the logs bound and twisted together to such an extent that a mule could'nt climb over them, so I went round."

—A temporary assistant—probably a stranger in those parts—in a Lexington (Ky.) grocery went to the whiskey barrel when a customer called for a quart of vinegar, and there was quite a run on that clerk for vinegar till the storekeeper suspected that something was wrong.

—A resident of Plymouth, England, got married on a Saturday, quarrelled with his wife and thrashed her during the second hour of the honeymoon, thrashed her again at night after clubbing the wedding guests out of the house, spent Monday at the tavern, selling all his clothes except his trousers for drink, and on Tuesday was sent to jail for a month.

The Gazette is published every Thursday, and sent to Subscribers at the low price of $1.50 per year, paid in advance, or

It contains full accounts of all of importance that transpires in Portsmouth and its vicinity, and a condensed summary of NEWS, foreign and domestic; editorials upon current topics; New Hampshire items; carefully prepared marine news, containing reports of vessels owned at this port, or officered by men from Portsmouth or its neighborhood; and is just the paper for residents desiring to be posted on all that takes place at home, while to those living in the vicinity of Portsmouth, or to former residents who retain their interest in the "old home by the sea," it is the best means of keeping informed of what transpires in this city.

PENNSYLVANIA
RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully called to some of the features of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in deference with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and roadbed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must prove
A PLEASING AND MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Pimple, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.
Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from "Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures.
In the cure of Scrofula, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets
SIZE OF PELLETS.
THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.
No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are actually larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Pleurisy, Inflammation of the Chest, Bilious, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in the region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

CATARRH
SYMPTOMS.—Frequent headache, discharge falling into throat, sometimes profuse, watery, thick mucous, purulent, offensive, etc. In others, a dryness, dry, watery, weak, or inflamed eyes, stopping up, or obstruction, of the nasal passages, ringing in ears, deafness, hawking and coughing to clear the throat, ulcerations, scabs from ulcers, voice altered, nasal twang, offensive breath, impaired or total deprivation of sense of smell and taste, dizziness, mental depression, loss of appetite, indigestion, constipation, bowels, irritating cough, etc. Only a few of these symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.
DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY
produces radical cures of the worst cases of Catarrh, no matter how long standing. The Remedy may be snuffed, or better applied by the use of Dr. PIERCE'S Douche. This is the only form of Instrument yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carried HIGH UP and PERFECTLY APPLIED to all parts of the affected nasal passages, and the chambers or cavities communicating therewith, in which sores and ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarrhal discharge generally proceeds. Its use is pleasant, easily understood, from directions accompanying each Instrument. Dr. SAGE'S Catarrh Remedy cures recent attacks of "Cold in the Head" by a few applications. It is mild and pleasant, containing no strong or caustic drugs or poisons. Catarrh Remedy and Douche sold by druggists.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 3 to 5 pounds a week.

In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S druggistore for the second bottle." Another, a physician writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 199 pounds to 132 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, one bottle of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOUGLASS & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. FOWLE & PEMBROKE, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "To THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen—Inclosed find money for the last dozen of Allan's Anti-Fat. "It (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-one pounds." I hope never to regain what I have lost. Anti-Fat is an unerring medicine. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Send one dozen by express." Sold at $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5, by express on receipt of money.

BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, we have cured many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman. I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, studied it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical science. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and as a tonic, I do now, in all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician, and am confident on I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single patient. I may also state that any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under a POSITIVE GUARANTEE. Other conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.

Among the many distinct female diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine, I enumerate, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Leucorrhœa, Ulceration, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations and Weakness, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Leucorrhœa. It does not cure this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a single class of purposes, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats fully of those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

ECLECTIC MAGAZINE

OF

Foreign Literature, Science, and Art.

THIRTY-FIFTH YEAR.

The ECLECTIC MAGAZINE reproduces from foreign periodicals all those articles which are valuable to American readers. Its field of selection embraces all the leading Foreign Reviews, Magazines, and Journals; and while the tastes of all classes of readers are consulted nothing trivial in character, or of merely transient interest is admitted to its pages. Its plan includes ESSAYS, REVIEWS, BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES, HISTORICAL PAPERS, TRAVELS, POETRY, NOVELETS, and SHORT STORIES; and in the case of SCIENCE (to which much space and attention are given) no special prominence is given to any particular phase of opinion, but place is given impartially to the most valuable articles on both sides of the great themes of scientific discussion.

The following lists comprise the principal periodicals from which selections are made and the names of some of the leading writers who contribute to them:

PERIODICALS.	AUTHORS.

Portsmouth Chronicle

FRIDAY, JANUARY 17, 1879.

A Favorable Sympton.

A despatch from Charlotte, N. C., under date of Jan. 15th, says:

In response to a call issued some weeks since, the northern men who have settled in the south since the war assembled here to-day from five States and held a convention, unanimously passing resolutions setting forth the advantages of the south to persons seeking homes, declaring that in this section the laws are equally enforced, that northern settlers are not ostracised, but welcome, and that in no section of the country do all classes enjoy a larger measure of liberty.

We venture the assertion that not one of the members of that convention votes the republican ticket.

In face of the open advocacy, by prominent southern papers, of the ostracism in social life and business matters of all republicans, and the boasts of such papers that this course is often effectual in the elections; and in face of the innumerable cases in which reputable northern men who settled in the south have been fairly "frozen out" of the country because they would persist in voting and speaking as they wished, the "resolution" of a convention that "northern settlers are not ostracised" will have about as much weight as would a resolution from Tammany Hall that there has never been any ballot-box stuffing in New York city. As to the equal enforcement of the laws in the south, the people of the north will probably look to the crime-records of the press for information on that point rather than to the Charlotte convention.

And yet, though the convention did "resolve" a flat-footed lie, the fact that the south has felt it necessary to call such a convention is a cheering symptom. It shows that the bull-dozers, whether they carry their points by the shot-gun, tissue-ballots, social and business ostracism, or the prostitution of the law to partisan ends, are yet not above (or beneath) public opinion; that they recognize the damaging effects to their section, of the belief which has been forced on the people of the north that in many parts of the south no northern man can live comfortably unless he votes the democratic ticket; and that however willing a portion of the southern people may be to make their section "solid" for democracy by the most infamous means, they are very anxious not to have it known outside the "solid" district.

That the south is beginning to get ashamed of the action that has tended so powerfully to drive away northern immigration, is a favorable sympton.

How Southern Republicans Vote.

A letter about Caddo parish, La., to the New York Tribune, says the police jury changed the wards in Caddo, and made one thirty miles long, extending from the Red river to the Arkansas line, and separated into two distinct sections by swamps and lakes. They established the polling place at Willis' School House, on the extreme north end of the ward, and accessible from the other end in times of ordinary high water only by a steamboat journey of sixty miles. As the black population of the ward lived on large plantations on the Red river, this action was evidently intended to cut them off from voting. There were 280 colored voters in Rev. Lafayette Harper's neighborhood, most of them belonging to his congregation. They determined to vote if possible, but none of them knew where Willis's School House was. About a week before the election Harper set out to find the polling-place. He disguised himself as a common field-hand, took another name, and started off on foot across the swamps and bayous. After three days' travel he found the place he was in search of, made his way back to Red river, and on Saturday before election mustered his flock and started on the long journey. They were two days following the trail. They opened a poll themselves, according to law, but after they had voted a body of about twenty-five mounted white men rode up, all heavily armed, and forcibly took away the ballot-box and the poll-books.

A "Conservative" Witness.

The better class of the New Orleans democrats, being tired of the rule of the back slums, at the last election ran a separate ticket, called the "citizens';" every candidate on this ticket was a democrat, but they were all opposed to the corrupt ring, composed of the worst elements of the democratic party, which was ruining the city. There is no shadow of doubt that the citizens carried the city, but the democratic New Orleans ring, like the Tammany one, knows that the count is mightier than the ballot, and all the ring candidates got certificates of election.

Before the Teller committee, on the 15th inst., Clement L. Walker, Esq., City Attorney of New Orleans, a democrat and one of the active promoters of the citizens' movement, testified concerning the election that he believes the returns promulgated were not indicative of the true results, the votes polled for the conservatives being counted for the democrats. He charged generally that there were irregularities and frauds in the conduct of the election, and said: "I have sworn statements of parties who witnessed the frauds. The citizens' party was denied representation at the polls, on the ground that it was not a party but a faction. To judge from the class of men appointed commissioners by the democratic party, a fair return of the vote was not expected. The counting of the vote at the polls was in most instances made in secret or by men determined to elect the democratic ticket, and I am satisfied the statements of the vote at many polls made up for any deficit in the vote for the democratic party; aside from the falsity of the made-up returns illegal votes were cast, there being a great deal of repeating. The conservative party was organized for the purpose of putting respectable men in office."

News and Notes.

At Bell's bend of the Cumberland river, twelve miles from Nashville, Tenn., a horrible double murder was committed on the night of the 14th inst., John Whittemeyer and his wife being beaten to death in bed with billets of wood. When the bodies were found an infant and a child two years old were between them, crowing and playing, unconscious of their horrible surroundings. A negro named Knox Martin is suspected of the murder.

The particulars of the recent trouble at Fort Robinson, Neb., shows that three privates were killed and two mortally wounded; fourteen other privates were wounded more or less seriously. Twenty-two Cheyenne warriors were killed, with eight squaws and one child; six were wounded, and twenty-eight are missing.

A New Hampshire company is about to erect four new starch factories on the St. John river in Maine, one at Fort Kent, one at Fishervilie and one at Grant's isle, at an expense of $10,000 each, or $40,000 for the four. The head of the enterprise is a Mr. Gathercoal, aged about forty years.

The judiciary committee of the Senate has reported adversely on the famous McGarraban claim. The Supreme Court of the United States having some time ago decided the claim in the same way, the controversy is now probably ended.

A young man was recently married in Middlefield, Mass., whose mother is but thirty-three years-old, and he is the second of seven children, all of whom are living.

A railway train in Turkey went through a bridge into a river, near Philippopolis, on the 11th inst., and a Russian general and two hundred soldiers were drowned.

At Brecon Mills, Ontario, a Miss Walker suddenly dropped dead on the 14th inst. Her betrothed lover, Edward Cresins, on hearing of her death cut his throat; and Miss Walker's mother, on seeing her daughter's corpse, also dropped dead.

Willard Carpenter of Evansville, Ind., who for forty years has been considered one of the wealthiest men in that region, his estate being estimated at between one and two millions, has failed, and last week testified that he is not worth $300. He owned an enormous amount of real estate in Indiana, and two years ago applied $500,000 to the establishment of a free museum, library and park in Evansville. His failure was occasioned by losses in building an air-line railroad from Evansville to Indianapolis.

"The American Journal of the Medical Sciences" for January is issued, and contains the usual large amount of matter of interest and value to the medical profession. Published by Henry C. Lea, 706 & 708 Sansom street, Philadelphia; $5 a year, postage free.

Political.

Gen. James Shields, who has already served terms in the United States Senate from Illinois and Minnesota, is to be Senator from Missouri, the democratic caucus having nominated him on the 15th inst.

N. P. Hill, republican, was elected Senator from Colorado on the 15th inst.

Vance of North Carolina will represent that State in the Senate. He is a regular old Bourbon.

New Hampshire Items.

The dwelling-house of Thomas Carey, at Claremont, was burned on the night of the 15th; cause, defective flue. Loss $1000; insured $500.

We have received from the publisher, John B. Clarke, the "Manchester Almanac and Directory for 1879." It contains a map of Manchester, calender, almanac, and other useful matter, besides a full directory of the city. It is of course handsomely printed.

In the celebrated Francestown church case, Hon. W. S. Ladd, referee, has decided that the communion service belongs to the old church organization and not to the minority of the church, who seceded and co-operated with the society in resisting the dismissal of the minister, taking with them the communion service and other church property. There is another suit pending between the parties, involving the title of the chapel.

—"My dear, do you wish to make a fool of me?" "No," replied his wife, "nature has saved me the trouble."

—"Madam," said a doctor one day to the mother of a sweet, healthy babe, "I wish to inquire what you do to have such a lovely, happy, uniformly good child?" The mother mused for a moment over the strangeness of the question, and then replied simply and beautifully: "Why, God has given me a healthy child, and I let it alone."

—In the Marlborough street police court, London, a few days ago, a Mr. Christy was charged with walking up to an inoffensive gentleman named Gibbons, whom he had never seen before, and hitting him in the eye. These facts were admitted. The defence, from a psychological point of view, was novel and interesting. The defendant's lawyer admitted that it was a painful case, but said that "he was instructed that at the time the assault was committed the prisoner was under the impression that he was suffering from some kind of injury to his feelings."

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Most of the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 2c. a lb., Cream of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. disep10

THE CITY.

The train on the Concord road due here at a little past six on Thursday evening did not arrive until nine o'clock on account of delays occasioned on the upper roads above White river junction.

Messrs. Charles A. Neal, Daniel L. Randall, Lowell Jenness and James H. Hurd have been drawn to serve as jurors from ward two at the term of the supreme court which commences at Exeter next week.

Driscoll lost four pounds of flesh during his recent 400-miles tramp in Franklin hall. He is to walk one hundred miles in New Bedford shortly, and will give an exhibition walk of fifty miles in this city on the night of Feb. 22d.

Mr. Joseph S. Pfeiffer has retired from the firm of Pfeiffer & Co., but the business which has been so long and so satisfactorily carried on under that style and title will be continued at the same place and under the same name. The new firm of Pfeiffer & Co., wishing to reduce stock, offer their goods at a large reduction from former prices. See advertisment.

We hope our citizens will not neglect the opportunity to hear Mr. Riddle's readings. The lists can remain open but a few days longer, as Mr. Riddle's engagements elsewhere demand all the dates he can give. The New York Tribune says of his readings, "They are beautifully scholarlike and accurate. He has dramatic talent, real, true, sound and valuable;" and certainly those who heard his reading of the Tempest will concur with that verdict.

THE VICINITY.

The Enquirer reports the Dover Five Cents Savings bank in a flourishing condition, and taking a larger number of deposits than at any time for the past four years.

The Dover Gas Light Co. on the 13th inst. elected Amos Paul, T. B. Garland, Eli V. Brewster, Calvin Hale and Chas. H. Sawyer directors; Eli V. Brewster was chosen president, and T. B. Garland treasurer. It was voted to pay a dividend of three per cent on the capital stock, free of taxes.

It is said that N. W. Day, the man who hanged himself in Biddeford on the 9th inst., had in his pocket the afternoon of his death a pocket-book containing $100, but upon subsequent search no money was found. It must have been taken after he hanged himself, but who took it no one knows.

The York national bank, of Saco, has chosen R. F. C. Hartley, Joseph G. Deering, Cornelius Sweetsir, Hampden Fairfield and John C. Bradbury as directors; the first-named is president, and the last-named cashier. The Saco national bank, of Saco, chose Rishworth Jordan, John A. Berry, Luther Bryant, Abram Cutter, Edward Eastman and William F. Pike as directors; Rishworth Jordan is president, and T. Scamman cashier.

STORER ENCAMPMENT.

At the regular meeting of Storer Encampment, Post No. 1, Grand Army of the Republic, held at their Armory on Wednesday evening, the 15th inst., the following officers were installed by Major D. J. Vaughan for the ensuing term:

Post Commander, James R. Morrison;
Senior Vice Commander, George E. Hodgdon;
Junior Vice Commander, William H. Smith;
Post Adjutant, James E. Ford;
Officer of the Day, John Moore;
Officer of the Guard, John Tibbetts;
Quartermaster, John H. Locke;
Surgeon, John W. Parsons;
Chaplain, Albert L. Lang.

The Post is fast growing in point of numbers; several new members were initiated at this meeting, and a number of proposals for membership were submitted. Arrangements are being perfected for holding one of the camp fires so popular in other cities. A large amount of interest is being taken by the members to bring the Encampment up to a standard which will compare favorably with any in the State.

T. M. R. A. SOCIABLE.

One of the most successful social gatherings of the season was held at Franklin hall on Wednesday evening of this week, under the auspices of the Temperance Mutual Relief Association. The literary and musical exercises were under the charge of Col. T. E. O. Marvin, and were worthy of any occasion, including singing by a quartette of male voices, and remarks by Rev. Mr. Hubbell, Rev. Dr. Alden and Rev. Mr. De-Normandie, which remarks were all just suited to the occasion and added much to the enjoyment of those present. A prominent and pleasing feature of these exercises was the rendering of select readings by Miss Nellie Chesley and Miss Laura E. Giddings; both read finely, and received many well deserved compliments.

The literary exercises were followed by a bountiful banquet, after which the President of the Association, Mr. Stephen W. Clarke, called up several of the invited guests and brethren of the order, all of whom responded most happily. These post-prandial speeches kept the large company in the best of humor for nearly an hour, after which there were various amusements in the lower hall under the charge of Mr. F. Philbrick.

The marked success of the occasion was largely due to the ladies and the efficient committee, of whom Mr. Frank G. Thurston was chairman.

The association now numbers more than seventy-five members, and is in a most flourishing condition. Several of the invited guests indicated their wish to join at an early date.

CITY COUNCILS.

In Board of Mayor and Aldermen on Thursday evening:

The annual and quarterly reports of the city marshal were submitted to the board, and were accepted and referred to the committee on police.

Bill of S. P. Treadwell for commission on collecting taxes for the years 1875 and 1876, and other expenses were ordered paid.

The mayor notified the board that Gov. Prescott had placed in his hands a copy of a deed in which it was shown that in the year 1827 the town of Portsmouth had conveyed to the State of New Hampshire the land and building known as the arsenal or gunhouse. This original deed has never been recorded. The whole matter was referred to the committee on city land and buildings to report.

Report of the city solicitor was received and accepted.

Voted that bill of Kendall and Roberts as corrected be paid.

Voted that a hearing be had on the complaint of Charles W. Bailey regarding the slaughter house on Hancock street on Thursday, Jan. 30th.

Adjourned.

POLICE COURT.

THURSDAY, Jan. 16; Batchelder, J.

The colored troops fought nobly, as was shown by the appearance in the police court, Thursday forenoon, of John W. Sewell and his wife Mary Sewell, who was severally complained of by Marshal Entwistle for violating the law by being common brawlers and railers. A number of witnesses, mostly neighbors of the accused persons, testified that it was a common occurance for this couple to give matinees, the neighbors not at all enjoying the vigorous if not choice language used by the pair on these occasions. The accused were granted permission to tell their own story, which they did, and during the heart-rending recital tears were brought to the eyes of no one but the fair Mary, who by the aid of an onion in a bandanna handkerchief managed to moisten her cheeks a little, but got more onion in one eye than in the other, and so wept a little one-sided. The masculine portion of this happy family, if his story can be credited, has suffered everything except drowning in a washtub. The court after due deliberation sentenced John to confinement in the county house at Brentwood for ninety days, and to pay costs; Mary goes to the same place for sixty days, and also pays costs. Each one was delighted with the other's sentence. The man's share of the costs is $7.64, and the woman's $8.41.

The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children instigated the complaint against Sewell and his wife, for the two-fold purpose of suppressing the disturbers and relieving their little children (three in number) of the suffering and neglect that naturally falls to them from such quarrelsome parents. The county will provide them a home for the present.

Asa Beckman, of Seabrook, was adjudged guilty on a charge of using profane language, and fined $1, costs being taxed at $5.76.

A second charge against Beckman, for disturbing a religious meeting, was continued to Saturday.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT.

THURSDAY, Jan. 16th; Clark, J.

Case Henry vs. Francestown Soapstone Co. Equity suit relative to a patent on soapstone stoves. Case was decided by Shepley, J., who gave a decision in favor of the complainant and the case was sent to a Master, whose report was filed. Subsequently the report was recommitted; a supplementary report was filed, and exceptions filed to the latter. The question upon these exceptions had been argued before Judge Shepley, but not decided at the time of his death.

Now the defendants file a petition for a rehearing of the case on the merits, upon the ground of newly discovered evidence. The complainant's counsel interposed a motion that the case should be heard before the Circuit Judge. The defendants claimed that their motion was for a rehearing, when if case is reopened, they expect to show that the patent under which Mr. Henry claims is not valid. The Court overruled the motion of the complainant's attorney and decided to hear the application for the re-opening. Heard and decision reserved.

T. L. Livermore for complainant; J. S. Holmes, H. S. Clark for deft.

A SET OF SLY JOKERS.

Mr. Editor: That grave and reverend body, the Board of Mayor and Aldermen, must surely have chuckled to themselves when on the evening of Jan. 9th, in response to a request that the board "take some action in regard to the slaughter house of Cyrus L. Brown, on Hancock street," they solemnly Voted, That Mr. Brown be notified and that the board make an examination of the premises at two o'clock on Monday afternoon!

This astute dodge of the city fathers was duly reported in the CHRONICLE of the next morning; so of course, when the CHRONICLE on the following Tuesday announced that "the mayor and aldermen on Monday visited the premises of Cyrus L. Brown & Co. on Puddle dock," it also said "they found nothing objectionable." I do not mean to imply that they would have found anything objectionable had their visit been unannounced; but under the circumstances it was an absolute certainty that they would find everything in the best possible condition. If an officer of the law were to notify a suspected rogue that on a certain date he should search the rogue's house, it is not likely that many stolen goods would be brought to light by the search; but the officer would stand exactly the same chance to find something wrong that the mayor and aldermen did when they went on a lark down to Puddle dock- A set of sly jokers are our aldermen, surely.

BOOTS.

CITY MARSHAL'S REPORT.

Fram the annual report of City Marshal Entwistle for the year ending Dec. 31st, 1878, submitted to the Board of Mayor and Aldermen at the meeting on Thursday evening, we extract the following items of public interest:

The force consists of the City Marshal, two Assistant Marshals, six patrolmen and twelve supernumeraries. The Marshal and one Assistant Marshal are on duty during the day; the other Assistant Marshal acts as captain of the night watch, which consists of the six patrolmen, who go on duty at seven o'clock P. M., four going off duty at four o'clock A. M., the other two remaining on until six o'clock.

During the year, 1308 persons applied at the police station for food and lodgings, nearly every nation being represented; average age of such persons, about thirty years.

Whole number of arrests during the year, 934, an increase of 83 over the year 1877. Arrests were made for the following offences:

There were brought before the police court for trial 403 cases, which were disposed of as follows:

Committed to Jail	8
Discharged by Court	47
Bound over to Supreme Court	35

Leaving a balance of 531, which were disposed of in the following manner:

Returned to U. S. S. Powhatan	1

Total	531

The amount of fines and costs collected was $1025.42; amount disbursed, $103.53; amount paid to City Treasurer, $921.89.

The number of stores found open, and secured by the officers, was three.

Though the total number—1308—of tramps lodged during the year was but 91 less than for 1877, when 1399 were lodged and fed, the decrease since the tramp law went into effect is very marked; during the six months ending Dec. 31st, 1878, only 192 persons lodged here, against 859 for the corresponding portion of 1877—a decrease of 667.

The property reported to the Marshal as stolen from September, 1877, to Dec. 31st, 1878, amounted in value to $3,983.99; of which was recovered and returned to the owners, $8,358.99 in value. Though the silver ware, jewelry and money stolen from Dr. Woodbury Langdon, Mrs. William P. Jones and Mr. James F. Jenness, amounting in value to $525, was not recovered, everything in the power of the department to do was done to regain it.

The report concludes as follows:

The discipline of the force has been most excellent. It is the first duty of a policeman to obey the orders of his superior officer, as upon this, in a great degree, depends the efficiency of the force; no branch of the public service is more depended upon than the police force of a city, and discipline is the power which enables a small number of men to withstand a mob. In this particular the police force of our city will compare favorably with the forces of much larger cities. It has been my endeavor to render the administration of this department as harmonious as possible, and to do away with the jealousies which too often exist among officers and destroy their efficiency as an organization.

To the Assistant Marshals and all the officers under my command I desire to express my sincere thanks; my connection with them has been of a pleasing nature, and I close the year 1878 with the firm conviction that we have labored faithfully together for the welfare of the city and the citizens in general.

And in conclusion I desire to record my thanks to His Honor the Mayor for the many words of cheer and encouragement he has given me, and for wise suggestions and practical advice; to the honorable Board of Aldermen, and particularly to the Committee on Police, for their unfaltering confidence in the rectitude of my intentions, and for friendly counsel and advice; to Wm. Russell Foster, Esq., City Solicitor, for his prompt attention to all duties in connection with this department; and to Hon. Charles E. Batchelder, Justice of the Police Court, for his uniform courtesy, and for patience with me whenever I have sought to mitigate the severity of the law.

Resp'y submitted:
THOMAS ENTWISTLE, City Marshal.

Suffering for a Life Time,

Persons affected with rheumatism often suffer for a life time, their tortures being almost without remission. The joints and muscles of such unfortunates are in most cases shockingly contorted and drawn out of shape. To afford them even temporary relief, the ordinary remedies often prove utterly useless. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, on the other hand, is avouched by persons who have used it to be a genuine source of relief. It keeps the blood cool by promoting a regular habit of body, and removes from it impurities which, in the opinion of all rational pathologists, originate this agonizing complaint and its kindred malady, the gout. Besides this the Bitters remedy disorders of the stomach, liver and nerves, prevent and eradicate intermittent and remittent fevers, promote appetite and sleep, and are highly recommended by physicians as a desirable medicinal stimulant and tonic.

Chas. E. Laighton & Son.

DEVOE'S BRILLIANT OIL

1st. Is absolutely safe.
2d. Gives a powerful, brilliant white light.
3d. Does not smoke, nor smell, nor crust the wick.
4th. Is the most economical oil, because it gives the most light in proportion to its price.

We give the following letter to show the absolute freedom of Devoe's Brilliant Oil from any inflammable vapor, and as a curious incident:

PATERSON, N. J., April 17, 1877.

DEVOE MANUFACTURING CO.

Gentlemen:—I take great pleasure in sending this unsolicited recommendation of your Kerosene Oil.

At the great fire in this place, which destroyed Norwood's Paint and Oil establishment, and other buildings, on the 13th inst., your Oil stood one of most severe tests that Oil could be put to; for four [4] hours the Oil was in the hottest part of the fire, and such a fire as only Varnish, Turpentine, Oils and Paints can make, and in all that time there was no explosion of your Oil, and the cans containing the Oil were in very near the same condition after the fire, as before.

I take great pleasure in recommending this Oil, as in my opinion it is the safest Oil for sale in the market. I remain, very respectfully,

JOHN E. REGNER,
Chief of Fire Department.

WILLIAM H. HACKETT.

—The pressure of business is exemplified in making cheese.

—A gentleman, late one evening, met his servant. "Hallo! where are you going at this time of night? for no good, I'll warrant." "I was coming for you, sir."

—Mr. Heep said to a drunken fellow: "If I were in your place I would go out to the woods and hang myself." The answer was "If you'r in my plaish you couldn't get there."

—Lady (severely):—"I presume you understand about kerosene to kindle the fire with?" Applicant (confidentially):—"Indade I do, ma'am. Show me where ye kane yer ile can, an it'll niver cost ye a cint for kindlin'!"

—Two little girls were talking to each other one morning since the holidays, and one said with the greatest naivete: "We have a new school ma'am, and she don't know nothing—(a pause) she don't know how to whip a scholar."

—A St. Louis beau and belle visiting at Bellville, Ill., went out for a ride last Sunday on a child's sleigh three feet long drawn by a bay horse sixteen-hands high. Their turn-out made a sensation, increased finally by the scholars of a Sunday school that was dismissed as they passed, snowballing them severely.

—A man can fasten skates on his sister in much less than half the time he can fix a pair on some other fellow's sister. Why is this? Figure it out and send us the answer on ice.—Brunswick News.—That's easy enough. It's because he would let his sister slide before the other girl.—Tulare (Cal.) Times.

—There was Joel and Jeanne d' Arc and Madame Roland, but when a modern woman is rummaging through her china closet and puts her hand right into a nest of young mice, she never stops an instant to think of the noble examples set by these nervy ladies, but just tries to climb up to the clock-bracket and screams half the first Monday in the kitchen meeting.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY
By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mercurial Pains, and their effects, Old Sores, Ulcers, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.
It especially has it manifested its efficiency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Tumors, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it expels peccant and radical cure.
In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has established the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Spitting of Blood, Night Sweats, Tortoid Liver, or "Biliousness." Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets
SIZE OF PELLETS.
THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.
No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of aloes, rhubarb, jalap, and cheap cathartics. These Pellets are scarcely larger than mustard seeds. Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Blood Feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sensitive impress. Age and climate impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden or pasteboard boxes, for all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative, is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most satisfactory results. Sold by druggists.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 2 to 5 pounds a week.

In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 189 pounds to 122 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SARTRI, BOWDITCH & SARGENT, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost thirty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & PLIMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen—The following report from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. '41 (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from 5 to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost.'" Anti-Fat is an unprecedled blood purifier, promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlets of Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.

Paragrapher Burdette Suprised.

While I was at Elkhorn, under the protecting wings of Mr. Henry Tubbs and Mr. Stratton, a man from Michigan, who was selling a three-horse clevis to the farmers, said to me:

"May I ask you a question, and will you answer it?"

I said he might and I would. I always answered questions. I might not always tell the truth, but I would answer. Then the man said: "Did you know a merchant in Burlington named Cyrus J. Stapleton?"

"Oh, yes," I said, "yes indeed, I knew Stapleton ever so well." I had never heard of such a man, but what is the use of going around disappointing people when they ask after their friends. "Yes, I known all about Stapleton."

"I visited at his house once," the man said; "I used to have some business dealings with him."

"I think I have heard him speak of you."

"Is his daughter married?"

"Yes," said I, wishing the man would talk about the president's policy, "Oh, yes, she's married. Nettie was a very pretty girl."

I kind of thought Nettie Stapleton would sound about right, and how I did try to think who under the sun Stapleton was. The man said, "Yes, she was a very pretty girl," though he never knew what her first name was. He said, "Stapleton had a very beautiful home."

"Yes," I said, "he had." Then my evil genius prompted me to make a fool of myself and go into details, and I went on, "It had such a beautiful view of the river."

"Yes," the man said, "of the lake, you mean?"

"No," I said, "river. It's big enough for a lake, but it's the river."

"Why, no," he exclaimed, with a look of surprise, "certainly it's the lake."

"No," I persisted, "we have no lakes about Burlington. The only water there is the Mississippi river."

"Mississippi river," the man yelled "Good land! Burlington ain't within a thousand miles of the Mississippi river."

"Man alive," I exclaimed, "what are you dreaming of? It's right on the Mississippi river!"

The man gave a sneer of contempt and amazement that nearly lifted the top of his head off. "Why," he shouted, "it's right on Lake Champlain!"

I began to feel ill and, in a feeble sort of a way, said I guessed he must be talking of Burlington, Vermont.

The man said, rather gruffly, "What Burlington was you thinking of?"

I said, "Burlington, Iowa."

The man looked incredulous and regarded me in silence for moment.

"Hub!" he exclaimed, "I never heard of such a place."

I passed.—Burlington Hawkeye.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.:

Dear Sir—For a long time I suffered with catarrh. I finally called in Dr. Zachary of this place. He furnished me with your Nasal Douche, Sage's Catarrh Remedy, and your Golden Medical Discovery. These remedies speedily effected an entire cure. Yours truly,

OF

Foreign Literature, Science, and Art.

THIRTY-FIFTH YEAR.

The ECLECTIC MAGAZINE reproduces from foreign periodicals all those articles which are valuable to American readers, the field of selection embraces all the leading Foreign Reviews, Magazines, and Journals; and while the choice of all classes of readers is secured nothing trivial in character, or of merely transient interest, will find its pages. Its plan includes ESSAYS, REVIEWS, BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES, HISTORICAL PAPERS, TRAVELS, POETRY, NOVELS, and SHORT STORIES; and in the case of SCIENCE (to which much space and attention are given) no special branch of science is devoted to any particular phase of opinion, but place is given impartially to the most valuable articles on both sides of the great questions of the discussion.

The following lists comprise the principal periodicals from which selections are made and the names of some of the leading writers who contribute to them:

Portsmouth Chronicle

SATURDAY, JANUARY 18, 1879.

The Louisiana Outrages.

Before the Teller committee at New Orleans, Thursday, A. J. Bryant, colored senator of Tensas, testified that no republican ticket was nominated because of the threats of the whites, who said they would consider such action a declaration of war; "the night before election a party of whites, including Buckner and Handsboro, came to my house, took me out in my night-clothes, carried me a quarter of a mile and threatened me, saying I had sold out to the Bland party; they let me go after promising to come to the polls next day and vote the regular democratic ticket; I complied with my promise; the party had a rope with them, and said if they were satisfied that I had sold out to the Bland party they would 'put me through.'"

A. Bell, a prominent merchant and democrat of New Orleans, testified concerning the citizens' movement in the late election, corroborating the testimony of C. L. Walker.

Chronicle Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 15th.

People outside of Washington who read the newspapers have been made familiar with the game of battledore and shuttlecock that has been played with District interests, by Congress on the one hand and rings of self-seeking men on the other. Claiming exclusive jurisdiction, Congress after Congress made the little area of the District the experimental grounds for teaching the efficacy of the most diverse forms of government ever suggested by the eccentricities and whimsicalities of the human mind. At one time the door to the elective franchise was opened so wide that every freedman of the vast number that flocked here as contrabands during the war, and of the thousands that came later, was invested with the right to vote, if willing to declare himself of age and to comply with the few other formalities prescribed. Under this generous construction of the rights of citizenship it was very easy for the jobbers infesting the District to marshal those living outside of its lines and march them in to vote on election days; it is charged that this was frequently done. The result was that the little ring that Congress invested with autocratic powers over our persons and property managed to secure the public endorsement of their schemes for enriching themselves and pals, and before it saw fit to interpose they had saddled the District with a debt amounting to nearly $30,000,000. Startled by the thefts and peculations it had made easy, Congress made a bound to the other extreme, absolutely and completely abolishing the right to vote, or the small privilege even of indicating our preference in the choice of the men who were selected to rule over us and to dispose of our substance according to the caprices of their own sweet will. It is capable of demonstration that District offices are more than half filled by aliens, the adjoining Virginia Congressional District contributing generously in this respect at the instance of its eminent representative in Congress, whose fame chiefly rests on the duel that he didn't fight with another famous man, one Columbus Alexander. Some of the devices resorted to by District officials to raise a little of the needful outside of the law, are unique. Cox is Water Register. Some time since a citizen who held the receipt of that official for payment in full ($5) for that service up to the end of the year (June 30th, present year) was notified that another dollar was due, and unless paid within a stipulated time, water would be cut off. On calling at his office and in the face of his receipt, this citizen was assured that the Register had the right to revise and increase the rates, and that the threat would be made good in case payment was neglected. It was refused, however, and the water continues to run. But this instance shows the system of petty extortions to which citizens are subjected under a system of government where ultimate responsibility is so remote that none save those of large influence are able to bring it to bear to protect them from the tyranny of pompous little officials. It is presumed that Mr. Cox replenished his exchequer to the extent of several hundred dollars by playing on the fears of his victims. I hope I have not incurred the title of chronic grumbler by the frequency of my criticisms on the mismanagement by Congress of the District affairs; and I am positive the outside world would grant citizens considerable latitude of criticism if it clearly apprehended the depreciation of District real estate that has resulted from the apathy and indifference of past Congresses. I am glad to be able to say that later ones have shown a different spirit, and the District committees of both Houses have generally seemed disposed to do the fair thing by us. We note with gratitude the appropriation of $250,000 by the House for a National Museum, both because the construction of the building will furnish employment to many worthy men who would gladly work if they could find it, and because there is pressing need that government make provision for the protection of a large amount of material from every part of the world, already on hand, and which will from the nucleus for a valuable museum, to benefit, more or less directly, every citizen of the country.

KNOX.

News and Notes.

Martin Bergin was hanged at Pottsville, Pa., Thursday, for the murder of Patrick Burns in 1870. Bergin is the nineteenth member hung of the murderous Molly Maguire gang, and two others are under sentence of death.

Captain Kane, of the fishing schooner Flirt, of Gloucester, Mass., says that while ice-bound in Placentia bay, southeast of Newfoundland, on the 5th inst., he discovered the hull of the French brig Adelaide Falanet imbedded solidly in the ice. After cutting away the ice the bodies of four men and a woman were found frozen solid. The vessel left St. Pierre on November 16th, with a load of fish for France.

Mrs. Kate M. Cobb, of Norwich, Conn., has been found guilty of murder in the second degree for poisoning her husband.

A party of soldiers, on the 14th inst., found the bodies of two unknown men near the Fort Laramie and Fort McKinney road in Washington Territory. One was hanging to a tree and the other lying on ground. It is supposed that they were horse or cattle thieves, and hanged by ranchmen, who, being short of rope, hanged one, and when he was dead cut him down and hanged the other.

Mr. C. F. Bicknell, a native of Bath, Me., who went to Nevada fifteen years ago, has been re-elected clerk of the supreme court for four years. He is a son of the late Bela T. Bicknell, and a brother of Rev. George W. Bicknell.

The Harwich, Mass., Independent says a postal card mailed to the editor from Barnstead on March 31st, 1876, arrived at its destination on the 10th inst. The speed attained was at the rate of a mile in three months.

At Peabody, Mass., during the year 1878, there were but 437 tramps, against 1170 in 1877 and 1600 in 1876. The establishing of a stone yard, with stone to break for macadamizing, was no doubt the cause of the falling off, as all able-bodied men who applied were obliged to swing a hammer for two hours or more to pay for their lodging and breakfast.

Mrs. Lurandus Beach, of Lawrence, Mass., wife of the former senior member of the firm of L. Beach & Co., soap makers, and one of the wealthiest citizens of Lawrence, has instituted proceedings for divorce.

At Middletown, Conn., Wednesday afternoon, the 15th inst., a "double-ripper" sled with a load of young men ran off a bridge, striking on the ice twelve feet below. A young man named Pritchard had his back broken, and George Hickley had a leg broken in two places.

On the night of the 3d inst. the house of Mr. Robert Davis, on Monhegan island, about seventeen miles off the eastern coast of Maine, was burned. Mr. Davis, an old gentleman eighty-four years of age, was burned to death, and his wife, eighty-three years old, was suffocated.

By a collision on the Warsaw railway, thirty miles from St. Petersburg, Russia, on the 10th inst., twenty persons were killed and twenty-one dangerously wounded.

Mrs. Kate M. Cobb was on Friday sentenced to State prison for life.

A despatch from London, Friday, says: "The frigate Constitution was on her way from Havre to New York and went ashore early this morning at Ballarst's Point, half way between Swanage and St. Albans Head, in the county of Dorset, England. The steam tug Commodore was sent to her assistance from Weymouth. The frigate Warrior will be sent to try to get her off, as the Commodore proves not powerful enough."

New Hampshire Items.

Larrabee's brick block in Charlestown was burned Thursday morning; loss $5000; insured. Of the occupants of the building, L. H. Boyce, dry goods dealer, lost $9000; insured $7000. D. S. Hamlin, printer, $1500; no insurance. F. Cunha, barber shop and billiard hall, $500; no insurance. Other parties, $2000; no insurance. W. B. Clark's furniture store, near by, was damaged $1500; insured.

A case was tried this week at Manchester, being an action to recover the cost of building a house in Keene. The jury went to Keene to view the building, going by way of Ayer Junction — out of the State — crossed to Keene, and were obliged to be absent part of two days. This part of the trial probably cost somebody a hundred dollars.

A. W. Chase of Hanover, while handling a revolver on Wednesday, wounded his hand by an accidental discharge.

Jeff. Brown of Wentworth was run over Thursday by a four-ox team loaded with logs, and received fatal injuries.

We clip the following from an exchange: A large number of West Hartford, Vt., people have been duped by subscribing for a "greenback" paper published at Manchester, N. H., which said that to all sending ten cents they would send the paper three months. An agent got a handsome list there, the subscribers paying in advance, but as yet nothing has been heard from money or paper.

At Littleton, on the night of the 15th, the thermometer was down to twenty-two below zero.

The city of Nashua, says the Telegraph, has received notice of some "frightful" claims for damages. Nearly every person who falls on a slippery sidewalk and receives injuries sues for $10,000. One or two have claims in for $20,000, one sets his damages, we are told, at $30,000, and another modestly writes the Mayor an epistle in crude English requesting him to call and settle. If these claimants succeed there is danger that the city will be bankrupted.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar, imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Most of the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 2c. a lb., Cream of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. dsept10

E. G. PIERCE, JR., P. M.

THE CITY.

Capt. Frank W Hilton has purchased the Hadley horse to go in the span with his handsomed black. They will make a fine fair.

The Washington correspondent of the Statesman says: "Frank Jones lost a valuable horse the other day by pneumonia. If Frank loses a horse it is a real horse, for no man here shows such fine horseflesh as the member from the First District." Correct, undoubtedly.

The total catch of mackerel by vessels out of this port during the year 1878 was about 4000 barrels, of which 1000 barrels were northbay and 3000 barrels shore mackerel. The amount of fish cured at the Long wharf establishment of Mr. C. Morris Tredick during the year 1878 was about 11,000 quintals, mostly shore cod.

The removal of a tried and honest functionary like Geo. Russell, and putting in his place such a man as B. F. Patrick as General Ticket Agent, seems to have been a mistake on the part of the Eastern railroad managers. Mr. Patrick's unfortunate habits have been known to all railroad men since he left the west, and the only inference is that the Eastern managers hoped to effect a reform. It proved, however, a bad move.

The impression which is abroad that the city has been paid money by the State for the use of the arsenal or gun-house at the south end, and which will have to be refunded, is incorrect. The facts in the case we are informed are that the Light Artillery are allowed $150 for rent of an armory by the State, $125 of which is paid for the armory on Daniel street and $25 for the arsenal. This is the only money paid by the State for the use of that building.

The schooner Forest Maid, Capt Post, of Newburyport, got caught out in the gale of Thursday, and ran for this harbor. Suddenly, through the driving snowstorm, her crew saw White island ledge at the Shoals, not more than two lengths distant; clearing that all right, the skipper soon picked up Square rock and then ran under the lee of Appledore island, where the schooner was brought to an anchor and all laid night. Friday morning she hauled her trawls, and brought into this port in the afternoon 10,000 lbs. of fish.

Maynard's Spectacular Illuminations of Nature and Art opened at Franklin hall on Friday evening. Fortunately the elements permitted a goodly number of interested beholders to appear. Any one who fears seasickness, or cannot afford the time or expense of crossing the Atlantic, can at this show view perfect copies of many of the finest sights to be seen abroad. There will be a matinee this afternoon. On Sunday evening, commencing at 7:45, Mr. Maynard will deliver a lecture on "Art in Religion," illustrated by more than a hundred reproductions of the most distinguished ancient and modern sculptors and painters, ending with the allegorical tableau of "The Rock of Ages."

J. Thomas Vose, Esq., of Boston, well known in this State from his long association as co-partner and confidential friend of the late John E. Lyon, has been chosen president of the Concord railroad, as the successor of the late Ex-Governor Stearns in that office. Mr. Vose is president of the Boston, Concord & Montreal railroad, and a gentleman of thorough business training united with financial tastes, and with a high reputation for integrity coupled with ability, one of the necessary combinations in a railroad man. Mr. Benjamin A. Kimball, a well-known resident of Concord, goes into the board of directors to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Gov. Stearns. Mr. Kimball has been familiar with the Concord railroad for over twenty years, and ought to make a good director.

The Journal offers the following sensible advice: "Take your home paper. Do the metropolitan papers say anything in regard to your own city and county? Nothing. Do they contain notices of home improvements, schools, churches, meetings and other local matters of interest which your home paper publishes without pay? Not an item. Do they say a word calculated to drawn attention to your city or county in its progress or enterprise? Not a line. And yet there are men who take such contracted views of this matter that unless they are getting as many square inches of reading in their own as they do in a city paper, think they are not getting the worth of their money. It reminds us of the man who took the largest pairs of boots in the store because the price was the same as the pair much smaller that fitted him."

A recent number of the New York Daily Graphic had one page devoted to the likenesses of twenty-five members of the bench and bar of Michigan. Among them appeared Senator Christiancy and Mitchell J. Smiley, Esq., of Grand Rapids. The latter married a daughter of Portsmouth, one of our high school girls, who after graduation became a successful teacher, resigning the position to enter wedded life. Mr. Smiley came to the bar in 1862, and, as is stated in the Graphic, "though a young member, has distinguished himself as a trial lawyer. He is a hard student, prepares his cases thoroughly, and manages with great skill and wisdom." He is of the law firm of Hughes, O'Brien & Smiley, who are leading practitioners in Grand Rapids.

The snow-storm Thursday badly delayed railroad travel throughout New England and the middle States. The train due in this city from Boston at 5:40 o'clock Thursday evening did not arrive until about nine o'clock. The papers which left New York Thursday morning, which should have arrived in this city at 5:50 o'clock the same evening, did not get through in time for distribution with the forenoon mail on Friday.

Among the men who come to the front in the new administration of Gov. Garcelon of Maine is Brig.-Gen. Samuel D. Leavitt of Eastport, Adjutant General and Quartermaster. Sam is from Rockingham county stock, his father formerly residing in Kensington. One of the aides-de-camp is Elbridge Gerry, Jr., of Portland. Lieut.-Col. Gerry is a grandson of the late Richard Jenness of this city.

The Portsmouth Brewing Company this week received seven hundred bushels of malt via Boston & Albany route.

THE VICINITY.

The schooner Delhi, owned in Saco and vicinity, and commanded by Capt. Samuel Emerson of Biddeford, has arrived at New York from Jamaica after a rough passage. In one gale she sprang a leak, had her decks swept and cabin filled with water, and was blown three hundred miles off the coast. The Delhi sailed from Jamaica three days before the Frank W. Emery, Capt. Falker, of Saco, before reported abandoned at sea, and serious fears of some disaster to her had been entertained.

The Biddeford Times says "the mercury ran sixteen degrees below zero at L. H. Rumery's on the Hollis road," Wednesday morning of this week. It adds: "The change in temperature in the city was very rapid. At three o'clock Wednesday morning the mercury marked eight above while a few hours later it was from five to eleven below! The air was very sharp all day Wednesday, and between five and six o'clock in the evening the mercury was at five below."

CITY SOLICITOR'S REPORT.

To the City Councils of the City of Portsmouth:

Gentlemen: In compliance with the ordinance I have the honor of submitting the following, as the report of my office:

From the 25th of August, 1878, when I entered upon my duties, to the 1st of January, 1879, I have issued 132 warrants on complaints by the police officers, or by private individuals endorsed by the City Marshal. Of these I have attended in person to the prosecution of 124, as I was especially requested to do by the police justice, he objecting to fill the two offices of prosecuting officer and presiding magistrate any longer, as he had been obliged to do in a great majority of cases heretofore.

A great many complaints are brought to me by private individuals, of which many will not justify prosecution at all, and in all of which, unless directly sanctioned by the City Marshal, I have insisted that all costs of service and prosecution be advanced by the complainant and repaid if recovered, in order that the gratification of private malice or any similar motive may not involve the city in any expense.

My thanks and commendation are due to the City Marshal and all members of the police force for courtesy, vigilance and promptness in bringing offenders to justice.

In the civil department of the Police Court there have been but few cases in which the city has been interested, and none in which there has been any serious controversy.

I found a large number of cases on the docket of the Supreme Court, and none of them in an at all advanced state toward disposition. Of these the case of Sides vs. City was tried by the jury at the last term, a verdict of $449.16 rendered for the plaintiff, and the case transferred to the full bench on exceptions. Claim of Howe Call against the city for services to police force had been referred to John Hatch, Esq., and on his finding of the facts, the counsel for plaintiff and myself drew up an agreed case case on which it was submitted to Hon. Isaac W. Smith for final determination of all questions of law and fact involved. His decision has not yet been rendered. The petition of A. O. Larkin for an abatement of taxes was tried and argued, and a decision rendered in favor of the city, but Mr. Larkin's counsel have transferred the case to the full bench. The two old cases of Smith and Corson against F. W. Rogers, in which the city was summoned as trustee, were disposed of last term, and the Court ruled that of the money disclosed as being in the city's hands $113.49, less trustee's costs, be paid to the two plaintiffs. This ends two very trouble some suits in which I labored under this disadvantage—that they had been in court so long that everybody had forgotten all that was ever known about them.

The claim Pierce and others for land damages in the widening of Richards avenue had been heard at the law term and decided against the city before I came into office. It has now been sent to the County Commissioners to assess the damages.

In regard to the eight cases Clark and others—ex-police officers—I was told on taking office that they were all but finished, having been heard by the referee, who would report at the last term. Later I found, to my amazement, that the hearing had been only very partial, and not one on which the referee could make a report satisfactory to either party. They will be reported on at the approaching term.

The claim of Thomas Quinn for injuries on Hanover street has been settled, but too late to go off the docket until after this term. His more recent claim, as well as the second claim of C. H. Sides, has not yet been sued, so no report can be made.

This covers all the business in my department. I had hoped, as I formerly stated to the Boarp of Aldermen, to have effected a still greater reduction in the docket. But in the condition in which I found the cases it was impossible. I regret this extremely but am confident that the January term will greatly reduce the number of cases.

All of which is most respectfully submitted. WILLIAM RUSSELL FOSTER, Solicitor.

PATRONIZE THE OMNIBUS.

It is an undeniable fact that the street car, running from the Parade to the West End, is a very great convenience and accomodation, but at the same time poorly patronized. The driver and owner, Mr. Pryor, is a very worthy young man, with poor health, and works hard in this manner to obtain a living; yet the meagre patronage is barely sufficient to support his horses.

The small sum charged each trip, only five cents, should be an inducement for those who pass over this route to fill it every passage. It is said that he has no regular hours and cannot be depended upon, but this would be at once regulated if the public would show a disposition to give him encouragement; it is really disheartening to drive over the route four or five times a day without a single passenger; all he needs to make him prompt and to establish regular trips, is to convince him that his efforts are appreciated.

Mr. Pryor is now confined to the house, unwell, and his brother is driving for him; he will be found ever ready to accomodate in every way, and will be happy to convey individuals to and from any evening entertainment, upon application.

All who are disposed to assist him in his efforts will find a subscription paper at the store of Wm. R. Preston, and any contributions, however small, will be thankfully received and tendered him for the better care and comfort of himself and horses. X.

There were only ten deaths in Raymond during the past year—a less number than in any year since 1840.

JOSEPH W. MERRILL.

Our neighboring town of Exeter met with a great loss last week, in the decease of one of her respected and far-sighted citizens, Mr. Joseph W. Merrill, senior, who died en Wednesday afternoon, at half-past four o'clock.

Mr. Merrill has been in declining health for a number of years, but with a strong will he has combatted disease and struggled for continued existence. About a month since he became decidedly prostrated, and his life has been prolonged since that period, it would seem, only by the mort assiduous care and tender nursing.

He died peacefully, passing away without a struggle, with clear intelligence and unclouded mind, recognizing to the last his family and friends, and expiring as if going into a slumber, with a parting word and kindly smile for all.

Mr. Merrill was one of the few persons who have caused Exeter to be known in the country as the residence of able business men. He was in business with his father, the late Abner Merrill, under the firm of Abner Merrill & Sons, a house whose reputation for integrity, sagacity and successful business career, is second to none in New England. This is one of those concerns where it is pleasing to see a family, from grandparent to grandson, continuing in prosperous business from age to age, because the wisdom and sound principles of the founder seem to be inherited by and developed in the sons, and transmitted in turn to their descendants.

Mr. Merrill possessed positive traits of character. Always firm in his convictions, well balanced in his own ideas, with conclusions formed from well considered premises, he was yet noted for his calm and cool judgment, and even disposition. If he had passions, it is to his credit that he even kept them under control. He had a good knowledge of human nature, and was an adept in the study of men. As a wool merchant he was extensively known all over New England, and he was one of the men whose word was as good as his bond, and whose bond was as good as the bank of England. Integrity and honesty were normal traits of his character, from which there never was the thought even of a departure.

He was at the time of his death a director in the National Granite State bank at Exeter, to which position he had been re-elected the day before he closed his earthly career, he having been first chosen director to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his father a few years ago. He leaves a widow, and one son, a young man still under age.

DEVOE MANUFACTURING CO.

Gentlemen:—I take great pleasure in sending this unsolicited recommendation of your Kerosene Oil.

At the great fire in this place, which destroyed Norwood's Paint and Oil establishment, and other buildings, on the 13th inst., your Oil stood one of most severe tests that Oil could be put to; for four [4] hours the Oil was in the hottest part of the fire, and such a fire as only Varnish, Turpentine, Oils and Paints can make, and in all that time there was no explosion of your Oil, and the cans containing the Oil were in very near the same condition after the fire as before.

I take great pleasure in recommending this Oil, as in my opinion it is the safest Oil for sale in the market. I remain, very respectfully,

JOHN E. REGNER,
Chief of Fire Department.

Hawaiian Flower Girl.

The Hawaiians are passionately fond of flowers. Bevies of happy, rollicking, native girls climb the sides of the mountains or explore the picturesque gorges in search of the choicest specimens, and, having gathered enough to supply the market for the day, they dash down to Honolulu, riding horseback, man fashion, at a terrific gait. They are sure to bedeck themselves first with "leis" or wreaths of flowers, which encircle their foreheads and hang suspended from their necks like so many necklaces glittering in the golden sunlight. Suspended from the neck, also, and flowing down their backs are great streamers of "maile" wreaths, plucked from a deliciously fragrant and perpetually green exotic, without the aid of which no Hawaiian girl is robed in the height of fashion. Arrived in Honolulu, the flower girls select some shaded nook or corner along the public streets, and sitting by the half-dozen or more, dexterously assort the various flowers and string them together until the leis are completed. As soon as the girls get fairly under way they make the leis with surprising rapidity, and spread them out fantastically so as to attract the greatest attention and invite the Hawaiian public to patronize them, and their lovechants are usually successful in drawing custom. At the time that the famous Count Communist, Henri Rochefort, went through the Hawaiian capital, he was, while walking along, literally covered with leis and maile wreaths by a charming native beauty.—Hawaiian Letter.

—Did the prophet Isaiah ever eat at a railroad station? It certainly looks so, for how could he have described it so literally if he had not? "And he shall snatch on the right hand and he hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand and not be satisfied."

—"What did you do then?" asked Col. George, after badgering a witness in the Lowell railroad case, at Salem. "I went to the rescue, like a lawyer for a much poorer book," replied the witness, and the retort was enjoyed all around.—Boston Post.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 2 to 5 pounds a week.

In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patent from Providence, R. I., says: "Your bottles have reduced her weight from 199 pounds to 152 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and-a-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOLLITTLE & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Mason TOWNSLEY, of Lockport, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen,—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat: 'Mr. Allan, I believe that the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds, and I never to regain what I have lost.'" Anti-Fat is an unscented blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by all druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.

BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical knowledge. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that I can, in all honesty and in all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician, and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of any lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapper.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has proved curative, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Inflammation, Ulceration, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness.

I do not claim this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of these affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

A Ready Tongue.

Marshal Suvaroff, when receiving a dispatch from the hands of a Russian sergeant who had greatly distinguished himself on the Danube, attempted to confuse the messenger by a series of whimsical questions, but found him fully equal to the occasion.

"How many fish are there in the sea?" asked Suvaroff.

"All that are not caught," was the answer.

"How far is it to the moon?"

"Two of your excellency's forced marches."

"What would you do if you saw your men giving way in battle?"

"I'd tell them that there was a wagon-load of refreshments just behind the enemy's line."

Baffled at all points, the marshal ended with:

"What's the difference between your colonel and myself?"

"My colonel cannot make me a lieutenant, but your excellency has only to say the word."

"I say it now, then," answered Suvaroff, "and a right good officer you'll be."

—Waterbury, Conn., is indulging in unique contests. A boy recently won a twenty-pound turkey by eating half a blackberry pie with his hands tied behind him in the shortest space of time, and at the next show ten pairs of shoes belonging to different persons are to be placed in a barrel, and the one who finds and puts on his shoes first will receive a prize.

—Not long since a young man of Springfield, Mass., who, it is said, commands a salary of $3 a week, became acquainted with a school-girl, and after a short but ardent courtship they went one day to New Haven, where these two souls, aged respectively eighteen and seventeen, were made one. The parents were for a time kept ignorant of the wedding, and the lovers were happy. But last Sunday Romeo called at his bride's house, and was met by his unconscious mother-in-law with the statement that her daughter was not at home. Romeo forced his way in to see for himself, when the mother-in-law called in a neighbor to put him out. Just at the critical moment the bride rushed to the front and threw herself into the arms of her husband, who brandished aloft a copy of the Boys of New York, and shouted: "Behold me lawful wedded wife." The combined forces of the household and the neighbors tumbled the young man into the street, and now he sees his inamorata no more.

OF

THIRTY-FIFTH YEAR.

The ECLECTIC MAGAZINE reproduces from foreign periodicals all those articles which are valuable to American readers. Its field of selection embraces all the leading Foreign Reviews, Magazines, and Journals; and while the classes of all classes of readers are consulted nothing trivial in character, or of merely transient interest is admitted to its pages. Its plan includes ESSAYS, REVIEWS, BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES, HISTORICAL PAPERS, TRAVELS, POETRY, NOVELS, and SHORT STORIES; and in the case of SCIENCE (to which much space and attention are given) no special prominence is allowed to any particular phase of opinion, but place is given impartially to the most valuable articles on both sides of the great themes of scientific discussion.

The following lists comprise the principal periodicals from which selections are made and the names of some of the leading writers who contribute to them:

Starved to Death.

Rev. W. E. Checkley, assistant minister of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Toronto, really starved to death two weeks ago. Some years since he was engaged at $800 a year, but the congregation could only pay $400, and on that Mr. Checkley had to keep alive himself and his five or six children, including an adult son who had both his hands amputated, two children of a dead brother, and an invalid sister. Nothing was known of the extreme poverty of the family until Mr. Checkley's death, when it was ascertained that the household had lived on bread, and bread alone, for two years, forgetting the taste of meat. Sometimes not even the bread was to be had. Mr. Checkley was so enfeebled by hunger that he sank at once under a slight attack of typhoid. As soon as the real state of things became known the neighbors and congregation offered assistance lavishly, the matter was alluded to from the pulpits of some of the churches, and it is likely that an ample fund will be raised and settled upon the widow and her family.

"Criminal Law as Administered in Massachusetts."

By Francis J. Lippitt, of the United States Department of Justice; in one volume, 8vo., 468pp.

This work contains, under appropriate heads, a brief statement of every decision relating to Criminal Law, Pleading, Evidence, and Procedure, recorded in the first hundred and twenty-three volumes of the Massachusetts Reports. In every instance, the doctrine stated has been drawn directly from the opinion of the Court without reference to the reporter's notes.

The matter of the work has undergone the utmost possible compression consistent with entire perspicuity. So far as practicable, every proposition in the text is supported by a reference to all the cases in which the point was decided. The author's own comments upon the doctrines laid down are distinguished from the authoritative portion of the text by being included within parentheses.

For the purpose of any particular case, all that need be ascertained by the practitioner is, what is the law in Massachusetts on the point in question. In this work he will instantly find it, with a reference to the cases in which it has been adjudicated. In those comparatively rare instances only in which the point has never been decided in Massachusetts, will he need to consult other treatises and digests.

The practitioner who finds himself new in the discharge of his duties as prosecuting officer, or the attorney who is called upon to undertake the defence in criminal proceedure, will find that in Massachusetts able lawyers have contested at every possible stage of a case, the positions of the prosecution. The work gives succinct statements of decisions on trials from the drawing of the indictment, the conduct of trial, the evidence, the nature of offences ancient and modern, down to the verdict. The offences under the liquor laws, the pleading, evidence and proceedings on such cases, which are so numerous upon the dockets of many counties, have occupied no little of the attention of the law Judges in the Bay State. Indeed one can find here a report of the decision of nearly every case likely to arise in ordinary criminal practice.

The compiler presents the decisions so relatively arranged that his work reads like an interesting text book rather than a compilation of decisions, and the commendable feature is brevity without omission of material statement.

The legal profession in other States, many of whose enactments in criminal law are similar to the statutes of Massachusetts, will accomplish by the consultation of this work an abridgment of their labors, when time saved is of the greatest possible consequence, and its use by those whose practice requires them to keep abreast with the decisions in criminal matters will be by no means confined to the lawyers of the time-honored Commonwealth, but it will be of acknowledged utility to the practitioner all over the United States.

The book is published by Houghton, Osgood & Co. of Boston, who will send it on receipt of the price, $5.00. This firm are publishing the new volumes of the Massachusetts Reports, and have in press for early publication several other works of interest to the legal profession.

News and Notes.

New York had another great fire Friday night, when between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000 worth of property on Worth street was burned. The insurance is heavy, and it is feared some companies will go under.

Two three-card monte players who were recently arrested for defrauding a passenger on the Boston and Albany railroad and who were bailed out of the Pittsfield, Mass., jail, are in the gang of ruffians arrested in Nebraska for the murder of Ketchum and Mitchell. The fellows gave their names in Pittsfield as A. T. Mitchell and J. E. Olive, and the present grand jury will probably find an indictment against them on the defrauding count.

Five of the eight Carmelite nuns at Hochelaga, a suburb of Montreal, are prostrated with illness; one is in an advanced stage of consumption, another suffers from neuralgia, a third is laid up with chronic dyspepsia, and two are said to be suffering from exhaustion brought on by the austerities of their life. A Montreal paper says that the prieure, a woman of sixty-two, has not tasted meat for forty-two years; vegetables alone form their food, of which, for half the year, they only partake once a day. They wear sandals, with a piece of serge wrapped round the ankle instead of hose, and sleep on wooden benches with billets of wood for pillows, and without any covering but their ordinary clothing. They wear thick cloth veils, and are forbidden to sing during religious services, but may hum in monotone, being careful never to vary from one key.

Mrs. Emily G. Nathan of New York, the widow of the rich banker who was murdered in 1870, and whose murderers were never apprehended, died Friday. She belonged to one of the oldest Jewish families in New York, and was much esteemed for her charities.

Dr. McBride, who called himself "king of pain," died in Chicago, a few days ago, of consumption. He was an educated physician, but travelled in a gaudily painted wagon, selling medicines, and was known throughout the country.

Some of Rev. H. H. Hayden's female admirers from Deep River called at the New Haven jail recently, and, being shown to the cell which he was supposed to occupy, whispered words of sympathy through the bars and gave him a beautiful bouquet. They are quite indignant now, however, to learn that their condolence was wasted on a horse thief, Hayden having previously been removed to another part of the prison, at his request, to avoid the gaze of visiters.

The large building known as Machinery hall, on the Centennial grounds, at Philadelphia, will be sold at auction Feb. 8th. A large number of exhibits are still in the building, and unless removed will also be sold. The original cost of the building, exclusive of the boiler houses, etc., was $634,867.

A Fairfield, Me., woman, aged forty years, is the mother of seventeen children. Inside of a year she gave birth to two at different times, married off two, and lost three by death. One of the two married sons lost his wife and was remarried within the same year.

Three livestock dealers of Maine, (N. V. Rackliff of Unity, I. C. Libby of Burnham and C. O. Howe of Dixmont) are reported to have been sued for $20,000 by the government for cheating custom house officials on the value of stock purchased in Canada, and they will be tried at Portland in February.

We have received the February number of the "Folio," containing a portrait of Mlle. Minnie Hauk, the American prima donna. The musical contents alone of this number, if bought separately, would cost as much as eighteen months' subscription of the "Folio," the price of a single number being only fifteen cents. Published by White, Smith & Co., No. 516 Washington street, Boston.

New Hampshire Items.

Hon. Frank Jones has presented to the House of Representatives the petition of Mrs. B. A. Sherwood and thirty-two other women of Milton Mills, for such legislation as will make effective the anti-polygamy law of 1862.

The annual levee of the Concord Fire Department was held Friday night. It consisted of a concert and ball, and was very largely attended, many firemen from other places being present.

Naval Matters.

The Tallapoosa was ice-bound at Norfolk navy yard on the 16th. The ice in the Potomac was twelve inches thick.

Rear Admiral Robert H. Wyman hoisted his flag as admiral of the North Atlantic squadron on board the Powhatan, Saturday.

An exchange says: "The steamtug Pilgrim, rebuilt under the supervision of Naval Constructor Philip Hichborn at League island, is believed to be the handsomest one of those useful little vessels in the navy."

Official despatches received by the department from Commodore Shufeldt, from Funchal, Madeira, say the Ticonderoga arrived there Dec. 24th, sixteen days from Norfolk. She had heavy gales for five days, and showed herself entirely seaworthy.

Surgeon Thomas Hiland is ordered to the Lackawanna.

Lieut. F. H. Paine is detached from the Powhatan, and ordered to duty on the European station.

The U. S. S. Constitution was hauled off the sands of the Dorsetshire coast at four o'clock Friday afternoon, and taken to Portsmouth for examination. She is apparently unharmed. The Constitution went ashore at one o'clock in the morning and continued firing minute guns till three o'clock. The first attempt to tow her off was made at one o'clock in the afternoon, but was unsuccessful. Success was finally attained by the combined efforts of six tugs. A rope from one of the tugs was fastened to the mainmast head of the Constitution so as to give her a list. A quantity of the vessel's cargo had been previously discharged into lighters.

Political.

The Connecticut republicans nominated for U. S. Senator, on Friday morning, O. H. Platt, Esq., of Meriden, now State's attorney for New Haven county.

The republicans of the Illinois legislature have renominated Hon. John A. Logan for the United States Senate. The democrats don't approve of Senator Logan at all, which proves him the right man in the right place.

Kindness Rewarded.

A good deacon in Davenport, Iowa, saw a drunken man, whom he knew, driving aimlessly about the streets one dark night. The deacon kindly got into the sleigh and took the reins, intending to take the drunkard to his home, which was two miles away; but disliking the idea of walking back, he stopped at a tavern to find somebody who could more conveniently do the job. While he was in the tavern the drunkard drove off by himself, and a young fellow arrived with his girl in a sleigh. The young fellow entered the tavern, leaving his girl, muffled in a blanket, to wait while he got a drink. The deacon found a volunteer to take his place as a guide to the drunkard; but the volunteer, on going to the sleigh that then stood in front of the tavern, discovered that the occupant was not the drunkard, and said to the deacon, "It's a girl out there." "No, 'taint," replied the deacon, who thought she was the drunkard. He put one arm around her and roughly pulled away the blanket. She screamed for help. Her lover ran out and gave the deacon a severe whipping. They then took the good deacon into the tavern, washed the blood from his face, the girl kissed him, and all was forgiven.

—It is told of Madame Sontag, the singer who visited this country some fifteen or twenty years ago, that she sent for a tuner, gave him a tuning fork, which had a lower pitch than her piano, and told him to tune the piano down to that. The man bethought himself of a labor-saving device. He raised the pitch of the fork by filling it off a little at the ends, and when he presented it again to Madame Sontag she found the piano in perfect accord with it, and was exceedlingly delighted.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Most of the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 2c. a lb., Cream of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. dsep10

This Famous Resort has but recently passed into the management of Mr. A. F. COPELAND, who will make a special endeavor to place it again where it once stood—at the head of all restaurants.

The Confectionery and Cake Departments have always been especially noted for their excellence, and it is hoped that now, more than ever, they will merit their well-earned reputation. Orders for Families, Parties, Weddings and Collations especially solicited.

The beautiful fountain, which has always been a great feature at No. 4 has lately been remodelled, and ornamented with rare flowers and plants by Mr. Wm. Doogue, and is in itself well worth a visit to this establishment. tJan17

THE CITY.

Mr. N. K. Raynes opens his school for young men in the former police court room at the court house, this evening at seven o'clock.

Fourteen hundred cases of kerosene oil, damaged by fire, being part of the cargo of ship Coldstream, were sold by auction at Hiogo, Japan, Nov. 21st, at $1.45 per case; and from 7000 to 8000 cases landed from the same vessel when she stranded, were to be delivered to consignees' agent at Hiogo instead of being reshipped to Yokohama.

The little steamer James Sampson, of Dover, is to make regular trips from Eliot to this city and thence to the navy yard, every morning, and retrace that course at night, to convey the workmen to and from the yard. It should be a paying business for her, and pretty certainly would be if there was any work of any magnitude going on at the yard.

The annual meeting of the New Hampshire Press Association was held in Concord on Friday. Frank W. Miller of this city was elected president, P. B. Cogswell of Concord recording secretary, James D. P. Wingate of Exeter corresponding secretary, and T. W. Lane treasurer. At the close of the meeting the members present were invited to dinner at the Phœnix hotel by Messrs. Edson C. Eastman and John M. Hill of Concord. The Association voted to have a summer excursion, and a committee was appointed to make arrangements for the same. The Association will make an effort to have a fair schedule of prices for printing and advertising, and to have it adopted by every printer and publisher in the State.

The Times has been overhauling the city records for last year, and reports the result of its researches in one direction as follows: "The hymeneal record for 1878 in this city shows that there were 87 intentions recorded by the city clerk, against 123 for 1877. Of first marriages there were 54; second, 29; third, four. The oldest bridegroom was 67 years old; the youngest, 20. The eldest bride was 66; the youngest, 17. The oldest groom (67) married a lady of 65; one groom of 64 took unto himself a bride of 66 years; one chap of 60 united his fate with a damsel of 35 summers, and yet another groom of 59 years married a miss of 33 seasons. In nationalities, 75 were Americans, four were Irish, four were English, two were Nova Scotians, one was Scotch and one German."

In the shipping-disaster columns of the press we find a statement going the rounds to the effect that the ship Faderneslandet, Nielson master, of 1085 tons register, which sailed from Pensacola Nov. 13th for Greenock, Scotland, and was abandoned at sea, "was built at Portsmouth, N. H., in 1848, and hailed from Christiansund." There was but one ship built on the Piscataqua at or about the date mentioned of which we can find any record, that would nearly answer the description of the ship above named, and that was the "John Haven," of 1035 tons register, built by Fernald & Pettigrew in 1848 and launched and registered in 1849, and originally owned by J. M. Tredick and three others. The John Haven, after making a number of successful voyages, was sold to go under the British flag, and thereafter for several years hailed from London, as the "King of the Seas." The vessel of course must have been again sold and had her name and flag once more changed, before she became the "Faderneslandet," of Christiansand, Norway,—that is, if the latter and the "John Haven" were identical.

The third entertainment of the Rockingham Course will be on Wednesday evening, when we are to have a lecture by Prof. William N. Van DeMark, who unites the accomplishments of a thorough elocutionist with the powers of an interesting lecturer. While we have had frequent readings of late, very many will be glad to listen to an able lecture. Prof. Van DeMark has given a course of lectures in New Haven the past month, and the Palladium of that city says: "He is capable of entertaining the most cultured audience, and at the same time his earnestness and manner of treating his subject give his lecture a decidedly popular character." In addition to this interesting lecture, we are to have on the same evening Prof. Goldberge in his wonderful drawing-room seance, which of itself forms a unique entertainment of combined wonders, mirth and mystery, as well as a refined and instructive novelty. For this occasion the manager also has secured the services of F. J. Eustis, a pianist of repute from Boston, who will render solos and accompany Prof. Goldberge in his entertainment. This will furnish a rare combination, and one deserving the generous patronage of all who enjoy a winter's evening pastime.

Several of the fishing schooners left this port for the fishing grounds Friday night, but after getting a short distance outside the harbor found the sea so rough and the wind so high that they were compelled to run back.

The schooner Una, formerly a sloop-rigged yacht but recently fitted with two mast and employed as a fisherman, has hauled off from winter fishing, and will be new topped at the marine railway in Kittery.

Mr. Langdon M. Perkins has bought the pond near the town house in Rye, and is cutting ice from it. He intends to resume the ice business in the coming summer.

The fishing fleet had to lay idle in port the greater part of last week.

THE VICINITY.

Rev. Willis G. Hadley, late pastor of the Congregational church at Rye, has received a unanimous call from the church at Milton Mills.

The Grand Army Post at Exeter has engaged Mr. J. Q. Maynard to give three exhibitions of his Spectacular Illuminations, on the evenings of Feb. 3d, 4th and 5th.

James Dana Janvrin, of Hampton Falls, while at work on the marsh in that town on Wednesday of last week froze his nose badly, and has suffered severely from the mishap since.

Ivory Hutchings and Asa L. Moulton, of York, each lost a valuable horse last week, one of the animals dropping dead in the road, and the other dying shortly after being stabled.

Henry Cutler, of Saco, a young man employed in the blacksmith shop of the Saco Water Power Co., had his right hand caught in a bolt-cutter on Thursday afternoon, and all four fingers cut off and the thumb injured.

William F. Nason, of Kennebunk, was last week admitted to the York county bar. He read law for a time with A. E. Haley of Kennebunk, but for a year past has been studying with Paul C. Carter, Esq., of Carroll county, N. H.

Gov. Garcelon has made his appointment of Councillor committees. E. C. Moody of York is to serve on the committees on State prison and pardons, on reform school, on military affairs, on election returns, on library and on pay roll.

Alonzo Andrews, a wholesale liquor dealer of Great Falls, had a barrel of gin stolen from his premises on Monday night of last week. Another barrel of liquor was rolled into the street and found there in the morning, the thieves having probably been frightened away.

Rufus Duran, a married man, and Mrs. Martha A. Noble, wife of Mr. Clement Noble, have eloped from Kennebunk, where all the parties belong. Duran's wife left him some months ago on account of his intimacy with the Noble woman. Mrs. Noble leaves one child with her husband.

Rev. G. D. Garland, of Epsom, has accepted a call to the Baptist church in North Hampton. The Young Men's Christian Association of New Hampshire held meetings each day and evening the past week, in North Hampton, which have been largely attended and much interest manifested.

Faank Hanlon of Dover is a bad man. He took his children's shoes and some flour which his wife had bought, sold them for rum, got drunk, assaulted John Follen, and was sent to jail until he pays a fine of $10, and the costs of prosecution. Hanlon is a worthless wretch, evidently; but he is an angel of light compared with the contemptible thing that sold him the rum.

The city debt of Biddeford amounts to $176,673; the average yearly interest paid by the city is about $11,000, which makes an increase in the taxes of about ten per cent. The Saco Water Power Co. paid $700, the Laconia paid $1930, the Pepperell $2747, interest upon the city debt the past year. Within the next three years over $110,000 of the debt must be refunded or paid.

Prof. Churchill, of Andover (Mass.) Theological Seminary, gave a reading in the academy at Greenland on the evening of the 4th inst., which was greatly enjoyed by a large audience, a number of ladies and gentlemen from this city being present. Another one of those entertainments of which the previous ones have been so popular, will be given on the evening of Feb. 15th by Miss Merrill's school, and will consist of singing, tableaux, recitations and other interesting features.

At one o'clock on the morning of Sunday, the 12th inst., two Seabrookers whose names we have so far been unable to learn got into a quarrel, both being fighting drunk. One of them hit the other over the head with a junk bottle, knocking him down and rendering him senseless for a few moments; but the assaulted man soon recovered his senses—or at least so much of his senses as the stuff he had been guzzling had left him—and running into his house he got a gun and blazed away at the bottle-wielder, the shot just grazing the latter as he jumped around the corner of the house.

Dover had another fire Friday afternoon, in a three-story brick block on Central square, owned by the John L. Laskey estate. The fire caught in the third story, which is occupied by the Ancient Order of Hibernians, the Emmet Associates and the Fenian Brotherhood, and was soon extinguished, the damage to the building not being much over $1000. The second story was occupied by J. Manson, Esq., as a law office; his library and furniture were got out unharmed. On the lower floor was the dry goods and carpet store of Mr. Charles S. Robinson, whose wares were badly damaged by water. All these parties were insured.

POLICE COURT.

SATURDAY, Jan. 18th; Batchelder, J.

Asa Beckman, of Seabrook, was brought up on a charge of disturbing a religious meeting in that town on the previous Sunday evening, the case having been continued from Thursday. The evidence offered led the magistrate to impose a penalty of five dollars and costs, the whole amounting to $46.67; Beckman was also ordered to give bonds in the sum of $50 to keep the peace for one year. He gave notice of an appeal, and was ordered to recognize in the sum of $100 for his appearance at the January term of the supreme court at Exeter.

A SURPRISE PARTY.

The fishing schooner Mary S. Hontvet was on Saturday last hauled well up to the head of her dock, and allowed to take the ground with the falling tide so as to afford an opportunity of cleaning her bottom, a tackle being led from her mast-heads to the shore to keep her in an upright position when the water should leave her. While her crew were at dinner the tackle parted and the schooner fell over on her beam ends, tumbling men, table, dishes, tinware, food and everything else moveable, all into a heap on one side. The astonished seamen, after making brief and appropriate remarks, disentangled themselves from among the table legs, coffee pots, spare oilskins, etc., and found that beyond the parting of a rope, the breaking of some of the crockery ware and the loss of their dinner, no harm had been done.

DAVID MURRAY.

David Murray of Newmarket, who died on Thursday at the age of eighty-three years, was for more than an average life-time a leading and honored citizen of that town. He was a selectman for eleven years, four years postmaster, register of deeds for the county three years, represented the town in the legislature, was treasurer of the Newmarket savings bank seventeen years, justice of the peace fifty-two years, and largely connected with the insurance businesss. He was the people's trusted agent in collecting pensions and other claims against the government, in settling numerous estates, and in other important public and private business. He was constantly in public life and employ for about sixty years, and leaves a record of honest fidelity. For many years he was the Newmarket correspondent for the Boston Journal. He was the oldest of twelve children, and father of twelve, and closed a life of tireless activity with the love of his numerous descendants, and the respect of the people. He was an honored member of the Masonic fraternity.

SHOCKING AFFAIR.

Andrew Bennett, a resident of York, who during the last summer worked at Sea Cottage, was sent to the almshouse a short time since, having shown signs of insanity. Recently he jumped from a second-story window of the almshouse, and walked a long distance in the snow with bare feet, but was found and returned to his former quarters before any serious injury had resulted to him from the cold and exposure. On Thursday of last week he procured a hatchet and literally cut off his arm, making two blows, the first cut severing his fingers above the second joints, and the second dividing his arm between the elbow and wrist. Drs. Hazen and Stewart attended the unfortunate man.

Suffering for a Life Time.

Persons affected with rheumatism often suffer for a life time, their tortures being almost without remission. The joints and muscles of such unfortunates are in most cases shockingly contorted and drawn out of shape. To afford them even temporary relief, the ordinary remedies often prove utterly useless. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, on the other hand, is avouched by persons who have used it to be a genuine source of relief. It keeps the blood cool by promoting a regular habit of body, and removes from it impurities which, in the opinion of all rational pathologists, originate this agonizing complaint and its kindred malady, the gout. Besides this the Bitters remedy disorders of the stomach, liver and nerves, prevent and eradicate intermittent and remittent fevers, promote appetite and sleep, and are highly recommended by physicians as a desirable medicinal stimulant and tonic.

Free of charge—Sample bottle of Adamson's Cough Balsam at all drug stores. Owing to its perfect harmony in combination it is the very best mixture for the speedy cure and relief of croup, colds, throat or lung diseases. Large bottles 35 cents.

Reflect that in every cemetery ½ of the silent tenants are the victims of neglected Coughs and Cold; and if you are thus afflicted, avoid their fate by resorting at once to Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar, an immediate, agreeable, and certain means of cure. Sold by all Druggists. tfeb1

By the almost unanimous action of the parties interested,

CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE

has replaced the old worn-out inventions for coloring the hair, which the bitter experience of years had proved to be ineffective and deleterious. Unlike the compounds that

DEVOE'S BRILLIANT OIL!

Just received and for sale at reduced price by

Chas. E. Laighton & Son.

DEVOE'S BRILLIANT OIL

1st. Is absolutely safe.
2d. Gives a powerful, brilliant white light.

4th. Is the most economical oil, because it gives the most light in proportion to its price.

We give the following letter to show the absolute freedom of Devoe's Brilliant Oil from any inflammable vapor, and as a curious incident:

PATERSON, N. J., April 17, 1877.

DEVOE MANUFACTURING CO.

Gentlemen:—I take great pleasure in sending this unsolicited recommendation of your Kerosene Oil.

At the great fire in this place, which destroyed Norwood's Paint and Oil establishment, and other buildings, on the 13th inst., your Oil stood one of most severe tests that Oil could be put to; for four [4] hours the Oil was in the hottest part of the fire, and such a fire as only Varnish, Turpentine, Oils and Paints can make, and in all that time there was no explosion of your Oil, and the cans containing the Oil were in very near the same condition after the fire as before.

I take great pleasure in recommending this Oil, as in my opinion it is the safest Oil for sale in the market. I remain, very respectfully,

JOHN E. REGNER,
Chief of Fire Department.

TESTIMONIALS.

I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"Inventors cannot employ a person more trustworthy or more capable of securing for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

BOSTON, October 19, 1870.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1840, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have occasionally employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

A Fatal Current.

The Macon, Ga. Messenger, in a recent issue, says: "The extraordinary phenomenon displayed on the Florida coast, by which not only the coast waters, but as far as 150 miles out in the gulf, have been rendered so poisonous as to kill the fish and create a pestilential stench in bays and harbors, where the floating carcasses collect, should receive a thorough investigation. We have seen no other explanation of the poisoning than that it comes from island waters—the everglades prominently—and penetrates the gulf in strata of dark reddish water which kills all surface fish as soon as it reaches them, and even far beyond any apparent contact. This poisonous outflow is stated to have been nearly fatal to the fish trade between Florida and Havana, the smacks finding it almost impossible to select a route in which the fish in their wells are not destroyed by the poison." The Key West Key says: "The smack Geo. Storrs, Captain Zeb. Allen, attempted to run to the westward in hopes of escaping the deadly waters, and when fifty miles west of Tortugas, in twenty-five fathoms of water, lost his whole fare of fish in a very short time. He described the poisonous waters to be south and west of him as far as he could see. The largest fish, such as sharks, jewfish and turtle, were floating around his vessel. He pointed his vessel eastward and entered our port on Tuesday last almost disgusted. Fifty miles west of Tortugas would make the locality indicated 150 miles west of Cape Florida, and not very far from midgulf—a reach of shore poisoning unexampled and almost incredible. The evil is probably beyond human remedy; but the cause of it should be scientifically investigated, and inquiries made into any possible danger to the public health of coast cities, should the evil continue till next summer."

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 3 to 5 pounds a week.

In making this remedy before this public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen,—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was counseled against but I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says: "Four bottles have reduced her weight from 191 pounds to 132 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SMITH, DOGGETT & SMITH, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced my twelve pounds in three weeks, and attributes I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. HODGSON & STUMPP, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "To the Proprietors of Allan's Anti-Fat: Gentlemen.—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. This Allan's Anti-Fat had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost." Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on application.

BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'S, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to women, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have, while witnessing its positive results in the cure of the diseases incident to the organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning grace of my professional life, and have put it as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly. I am willing to make my reputation as a physician and so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the diseases it purports to remove, that I offer and sell it under a POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see printed wrapper bottle.)

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription works wonderful cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Leucorrhœa, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Womb, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Debility, Depression of Spirits, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfills a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 300 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats intimately of those diseases peculiar to females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

Political.

The Boston Post says: "The leaders of the republican party are making a desperate effort to prevent an investigation of the cipher despatches." This is amazing bosh. All the republicans need do to prevent the cipher despatches being investigated, is to abstain from forcing the alleged investigating committee presided over by the Hon. Potter to do it. The democrats do not dare to investigate them, and will not do it unless forced by the republicans.

John F. Arnold, the Butler-greenback candidate for Lieut. Governor of Massachusetts at the late election, has been indicted by the grand jury at Pittsfield for obtaining money under false pretenses.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat remarks that the republican State treasurer of Illinois turned over to his successor $2,125,000 in money, while the democratic State treasurer of Missouri turned over something less than that sum to a State bank which is worthless.

Wallace, the democratic sheriff of Cincinnati, who was convicted in the United States court for procuring illegal votes and sentenced to pay a fine of $500 therefor, turns out a defaulter to the tune of $23,000.

Noble A. Hull, Lieut. Governor of Florida, and democratic Congressman-elect from the sixth district of that State, has been indicted by the United States grand jury for conspiring with others to obtain false returns from Brevard county—which false returns gave him his certificate of election.

—A lecturer, addressing a mechanics' institute, contended that "Art could not improve Nature," when one of the audience set the whole assembly in a roar by exclaiming, "How would you look without a wig!"

—The young man who shovels a broad and generous path in front of the house will be spared the mortification of going "Indian file" with his best girl when next he promenades that way.

—Line from a contributed poem: "The wintry skies are softly spitting snow."

Protection for Working-Women.

The Women's Educational and Industrial Union of Boston has taken measures for conducting a non-sectarian work in that city similar to that of the Working Women's Protective Union in New York, which aims to promote the interests of working women by providing them with legal protection from the frauds and impositions of dishonest employers and others, without charge.

The New York institution has in the fifteen years of its existence adjusted over six thousand cases, and collected by legal process and paid to working women, in sums varying from a few cents to twenty dollars or more, upwards of twenty-one thousand dollars.

The Union has secured the services of Hon. S. E. Sewell as consulting counsel, and of Benjamin R. Curtis as prosecuting attorney. Complaints will be received by the chairman of the protective committee at the rooms of the Union, No. 4 Park street, Boston, on Wednesdays and Saturdays, between the hours of three and five. The Union is also looking into the condition and treatment of saleswomen, witnesses and others. All women of whatever place who go to Boston to work in any capacity are considered as under the protection of the society, and entitled to share in its advantages free of charge. The protective committee and advisory board include the names of some of the most public spirited and prominent ladies of Boston. Pecuniary and other aid is solicited for any branch of the Union work. Mrs. B. F. Redfern is chairman of the protective committe.

State Sovereignty Redivivus.

The Virginia legislature has adopted a resolution declaring the civil rights bill and enforcement act passed by Congress Unconstitutional, and void so far as Virginia is concerned. The State courts in Alabama have commenced quarrelling with the United States courts, the State judges seeking to raise disputed points with the Federal authorities, and then committing the Federal officials to jail for contempt of court. These straws, with the action of the State courts in the Carolinas, and the steady retirement to private life of moderate democrats and the advancement of fire-eating Bourbon secessionists like Vance, Hampton and Massacre C. Butler, are significantly indicative of the way the political current is setting in the "solid south," and of what will occur if that section can but just once more gain its former supreme control in the national government.

Twenty Millions More.

The Secretary of the Treasury has issued the eighty-second call for the redemption of five-twenty bonds, consols of 1867. The call is for twenty million dollars, of which ten millions are coupon and ten millions are registered bonds, the principal and interest to be paid at the Treasury on and after the 18th of April, interest to cease on that day. Savage Cruelty to a Horse.

In the district court at Concord, Mass., one day last week, Isaac Medill of Lexington was charged with having beaten his horse to death on the 13th inst. The evidence showed that Medill had coaxed the animal something over an hour, after which he stripped him of his harness, strapped up one of his fore legs, and, with a stick and a heavy iron bar, beat him unmercifully, thrusting the point of the bar into his flank, and finally killing him by crushing in his skull. The snow in the vicinity gave evidence of the conflict that had ensued, being thrown up by both man and horse, and sprinkled for some distance with blood. Mr. Currier, of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, stated that in an experience of ten years he had never prosecuted a more barbarous case of abuse. Medill was fined $150 and costs, and sentenced to ninety days' imprisonment in jail.

News and Notes.

At noon on Friday eight prisoners attempted to escape jail at Owenton, Ky., by knocking down the jailor's brother, Robert Moore, who had charge; but Moore, regaining his feet, drew a revolver and fired, killing William Sawders, a burglar, as he was jumping out of a window.

Charles Ulrich and Henry Cole, counterfeiters, have been arrested at Fanwood, N. J., under circumstances insuring their conviction. Ulrich is said to be the most expert engraver in the world, and the author of all the successful counterfeits of national bank notes put in circulation within three years or more past. Cole, who lives in Philadelphia, has been a forger and counterfeiter from boyhood, and has amassed a large fortune by his infamous practices.

The lower branch of the Louisiana legislature on Saturday passed a bill repealing the charter of the Louisiana State Lottery, by a vote of sixty-three to twenty.

An explosion of gas at Weeks & Potter's wholesale drug store in Boston, Monday morning, was followed by a slight fire; damage by fire and water, $25,000. Monday afternoon the Immanuel church (Congregational) at Boston Highlands was burned; loss $50.000.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat describes what it terms a striking spectacle in religious worship in that city. The Shaare Emeth Jewish congregation invited the Second Baptist church to hold services at their synagogue. The invitation was accepted, and the services were held in the afternoon and evening, and for the first time in the history of the world, it is stated, the Lord's Supper was celebrated in a synagogue. Mr. Boyd, pastor of the Second church, occupied the pulpit, and both Jews and Christians attended both services.

The freight steamship Hemer, with a valuable cargo, sailed from Boston for Liverpool on the 16th of December, and has not since been heard from. The Spanish steamer Yrurac Bat, from Baltimore via Liverpool, has arrived at Corunna, Spain, in a damaged condition. She reports was in collision with the Lancashire Witch, which sank with all on board. The steamer's bows are broken.

The treasurer of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society has resigned, having been requested to do so by the executive committee. He has been selling the securities of the society and investing the proceeds in western real estate, without having any authority to do so.

John P. Phair, who was condemned to death and came very near being executed for the murder of Mrs. Ann E. Frieze at Rutland, Vt., has been granted a new trial, important new evidence having been discovered. The new evidence tends to fasten the murder on a woman named Aurelia Brooks, one of Mrs. Frieze's abandoned associates.

Thomas W. Rooker & Co., of Glamorgaushire, Wales, have failed. They owe one bank $3,000,000.

Miss Epperson, a young lady who was shot in the knee in a "family fight" in Hancock county, Tenn., has just died. Her father and mother were killed in the melee in question and her sister and two brothers seriously wounded.

Another statement is made that the remains of A. T. Stewart are in possession of the family, and have been since Nov. 14th. This is probably nothing more than an ingenious surmise, but there seems to be a growing impression that, for some reason or other, the hunt is over.

The break in the direct Atlantic cable, which occurred Saturday, Jan. 4, has been located in water from twenty to twenty-five fathoms deep, about six miles from Torbay. Arrangements are now in progress to repair the same.

An old suit for $3000, brought in 1869 by the town of East Haven, Conn., against the town of Derby, for the support of a pauper family, and continued from court to court at an annual expense of about $50, has finally been settled for $50.

Since its foundation the National Life Boat Institution of Great Britain has contributed to the saving of 26,051 shipwrecked persons, for which services it has granted 980 gold and silver medals, and pecuniary awards to the amount of £56,850. Last year its life-boats saved 471 lives and put seventeen vessels out of danger, and rewards were paid for the saving of 145 persons by fishers and watermen. Though 12,000 men put out in the society's 269 life-boats last year, not a life was lost.

Judge Garretson, of New York, orders that Peter Welsh, a wealthy contractor, pay $500 and be imprisoned for two months for libelling John McAndrews in pasting up a circular stating that he treated his mother brutally. Welsh submitted affidavits to show that the allegations were true, but the judge told him that truth was no justification for the libel. Judge Garretson is one consummate ass.

Bishop Fabre, of Montreal, has issued a circular forbidding that any ladies should belong to church choirs after the first day of June next, and many of the Roman Catholic churches have anticipated the order by dismissing the lady singers. The choir of the Jesuits' church is said to have disbanded, and St. Patrick's church, it is said, intends complying with the order after St. Patrick's day.

The Eclectic for February contains a very pleasing and carefully-executed steel-engraved portrait of the Marquis of Lorne, the new Governor-General of Canada. It forms a desirable complement to the similar portrait of the Earl of Dufferin, which appeared in the same magazine a year or two ago.

Naval Matters.

Telegrams from London, Monday, report the Constitution making about three inches of water an hour. A large quantity of chain cable had to be jettisoned before she could be towed off the beach. One despatch says: "Capt. Badger of the United States frigate Constitution says that, in regard to the grounding of the ship, judging from the time he had sailed he supposed he was twenty-two miles from the English coast when she struck. He believes that he must have been carried out of his reckoning by the current. After getting afloat the ship had a narrow escape, as the tow-rope broke when passing the Needles. One of the Constitution's boats capsized off Cowes and two of the occupants were rescued with difficulty."

The U. S. S. Marion, Capt. Bradford, arrived at New York on Saturday from the Mediterranean.

The Plymouth will be docked at Boston in a few days for slight repairs to her hull, and her engines will be overhauled.

Congressman Jones on Monday introduced in the House a bill restoring the name of Robert Boyd to the place formerly occupied by it in the Navy Register.

Congress.

The "arrears of pensions" bill passed by Congress last week, and sent to the President for his signature, will it is said take $50,000,000 from the United States treasury. Most of this vast sum is expected to go into the hands of claim agents.

The committee on coinage of the House has authorized the preparation of a bill providing for the redemption of the trade dollars at par. This is a steal, pure and simple, in the sole interest of the speculators who have bought up the trade dollars at discount. The vote of the "democratic reform House" on this proposal to give a portion of the people's money to the silver speculators will be watched with interest.

The House on Saturday decided, on its part, the long-contested question of how to dispose of the ten millions or more remaining of the Geneva award. The bill reported by the majority of the judiciary committee, limiting the further distribution of the award to the insurance companies, was defeated, and the report and bill of the minitority, shutting out the insurance companies and admitting the war risks and the claims arising from damages by the "exculpated" cruisers, was adopted by a vote of 113 to 93. It is doubtful if the bill can pass the Senate.

Chronicle Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 17th.

The late unauthorized exodus of the Cheyenne captives from Camp Robinson, its disastrous results to the captives and their pursuers, and the probable effect the bloody episode may have on the future of the Indian, all continue leading topics in the intelligent circles of the national capital. The immediate causes that led these miserable prisoners to prefer the chances offered by the naked and frozen prairie to those they could count on from the representatives of the Christian government which has shown such an indifference to their fete, have been only partially evolved from the many contradictory explanations of the outbreak heard here. Some—quite a large proportion of the men—were, it appears, on their way to be handed over to the tender mercies of the civil authorities of Kansas and Nebraska for the crimes committed during the raid through those States last season. The others were on their way to a detested southern reservation that had been selected for their future occupancy, many days march from the homes and graves of their departed ancestors and from all the cherished associations of their previous lives. The prospect held out was the certain and final separation of many of the males and females, the sundering of the family ties that had bound them together for years, and a life imprisonment or early death of many of the fathers, sons and brothers, so soon as they reached the theatre of their late marauding expedition. To these are to be added the provocatives to rebellion of their half-starved and frozen condition, and the not-over-considerate treatment, probably, of their custodians. Under similarly desperate and exasperating circumstances and a reversal of their relations as captives and captors, rebellion would likely be commended as an imperative duty, demanded by every consideration of the love of kindred, the attachment to home and to each other, and the preservation of life. Indeed, without being very sentimental, the forlorn and hopeless condition of those poor creatures, driven from their possessions to a far country by the remorseless invasion of their traditional enemies, has so far appealed to the hearts of those who appreciate something of the wrongs heaped on them as to have induced a very modified feeling of resentment toward them for their temerity in daring to strike a blow for life. An abandonment by government of a policy that furnishes its savage wards with numberless precedents for any violation of good faith with which they can be honestly charged; that furnishes constant provocations to marauding expeditions; that turns them over to the despoiling and licentious grip of unscrupulous agents and soldiers; that divides the responsibility for the Christian and humane administration of their affairs between two arms of the service so implacably hostile that they are far more anxious to invent methods for the extermination of each other than for the well-being and preservation of their joint charge,—an abandonment of such a policy could never, probably, have been brought about by a smaller sacrifice of human life than has already happened and will have resulted from the outbreak before the survivors are again all securely corralled.

The extraordinary course which President Hayes and Secretary Sherman have seen fit to adopt to forward the confirmation of the ad interim New York Custom House appointments, has fanned the smouldering fires of republican dislike of the President into a bright flame once more, and the democrats seem nothing loth to increase the gap that separates Mr. Hayes from the vast majority of their opponents. In view of the several tenders of important foreign missions by the President to Collector Arthur since he was displaced by Gen. Merritt; the endorsement of his administration by both the President and Secretary, and their almost indignant denial that Arthur's displacement was intended as a reflection on him, the charge of stultification made against them seems deserved. And the general verdict is that if the pitiably contemptible charges made against Arthur by Secretary Sherman embody all that his official record yields after the rigid scrutiny to which it has been subjected by the detectives and experts to find a justification for his removal, the good of the service as well as "civil service reform" demanded his retention and promotion. On the whole the President seems to have invited a humiliating defeat by holding the Senate up to a confirmation that implies the censure of an exceptionally efficient and faithful official.

After all we learned by our contact with yellow fever last year, and the expense of the commission sent to make an exhaustive investigation, it will reflect very little credit on the wisdom of Congress if it can devise nothing better as a protection against the danger menacing us from a general invasion of the whole country next season by the plague, than the old and obsolete quarantine system.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Most of the Cream of Tartar of commerce is adulterated with Alum, Terra Alba, etc. Doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 2c. a lb., Cream of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in Cans. All Grocers.

☞ BAKING POWDER should never be sold in paper packages, as it becomes stale and deteriorates upon exposure to the atmosphere. disep10

THE CITY.

Mr. Nathan Jones has fitted up the former quarters of the Rockingham Ten Cents savings bank for a store, and it is reported will himself open a grocery store there.

There were received on Monday about thirty thousand pounds of fish—rather small fares for the number of vessels. Randall & Caswell received twelve thousand pounds.

Prof. Goldberge, the illusionist who is to appear Wednesday evening in the Rockingham Course of Entertainments, is spoken of by the press as being superior to either Heller or Herman. The Boston Gazette and Post, New York World and Herald, and other leading papers, give him almost extravagant praise. See advertisement.

The Portland Press of Monday morning says: "Miss May Belle Sherman gave a supper Saturday night at her rooms to a number of invited guests on the occasion of the presentation of the gold medal, sent by Portsmouth friends to Mr. Driscoll, the pedestrian, through Mr. Dennis Leary." It also says "Miss Sherman will walk one hundred miles against C. G. Locke of Portsmouth, if he consents."

The officers of DeWitt Clinton Commandry of Knights Templar were installed on Monday evening, as follows: Wm. P. Walker, Eminent Commander; Chas. W. Gardner, Generalissmo; John H. Cheever, Capt. General; John Christie, Prelate; Chas. W. Norton, Senior Warden; Calvin Page, Junior Warden; W. N. Ilsley, Treasurer; James L. Parker, Recorder; Daniel G. Raitt, Standard Bearer; T. E. O. Marvin, Sword Bearer; Benj. F. Webster, Warden; George F. Thompson, H. H. Ham, H. G. Tanton, Captains of Guard; John Nutter, Sentinel.

Among the firms whose places of business were more or less injured by the recent fire on Worth street, New York, we notice the name of Wendell, Hutchinson & Co., commission merchants. This concern is a successsor of the well-known, long-established house of J. C. Howe & Co., of Boston and New York. Mr. Jacob Wendell, the senior partner of this house, formerly af the firm of J. C. Howe & Co., and one of the most successful and in mercantile life most honored sons of Portsmouth, began his education for business pursuits in the counting-room of Ex-Gov. Goodwin in this city, about thirty-five years ago.

The Times is in error in stating that the ship John Haven "was the only ship built at this port in 1848," for ship-building was brisk at that time. The John Haven was the only ship built here in '48 or '49 that nearly answers to the description of the abandoned Norwegian ship Faderneslandet; she was registered in 1849. The Empire State, also registered in 1849 and built by the same constructors, would answer as to size, but is known to have been totally lost. Besides these two vessels, the ships James Browne and North Atlantic, built by George Raynes, and the Mary Hale, built by Samuel Badger, were all registered in 1849. The ships Danube, Hibernia, Jersey and Peter Marcy, all registered in 1848, were none of them nearly so large as the Faderneslandet.

A despatch from Bath, Me., Monday, says: "Captain George Prince, a resident of this city for the last twenty years, and who commanded Company K, First Maine Cavalry, during the rebellion, was arrested this morning by Col. J. Herace Kent, Special Agent of the Treasury Department, charged with obtaining a large amount of money from the pension office on fictitious names. This is charged to have been going on for years, and the government detectives have been on the case for years past. He will be taken before Commissioner Clifford at Portland to-day." This Capt. Prince did but little "commanding" of Co. K during the war, his record as prepared for publication in the regimental history being as follows: "George Prince, 44, married; born in Thomaston; residence, Bath; merchant; enlisted Sept. 25, 1861; mustered Capt. Nov. 2, 1861, at Augusta, by Lt. Col. Eastman, 1st Inf'y U. S. A. Left, sick, in Augusta, March 24, 1862, when the reg't took the field. Rejoined his company, April, 1862. Absent, sick from August 5, 1862. Resigned Oct. 31, 1862, and discharged same day." The real captain of the company was John D. Myrick, of Augusta, whose war record was most brilliant, and who for his gallantry and ability was commissioned 1st Lieut. (brevet captain) in the regular army at the close of the war, resigning in 1872.

The annual meeting of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, for the choice of officers and other business, will be held at the office of Dr. J. R. May this (Tuesday) evening at half past seven o'clock.

THE VICINITY.

B. Taft was last week appointed postmaster at Greenland depot.

It is stated that through the efforts of the Newcastle reform club there is now no place in that town where liquor can be procured.

The seventh annual meeting of the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, of Maine, will convene at the hall of Mavoshen Lodge, No. 1, of Biddeford, on Tuesday, Feb. 4th.

AN UNPROMISING PROSPECT.

When the assets of J. C. Carr were transfered from his assignee in this State and placed in the hands of the assignee of Davis, Moulton & Co., at Utica, N. Y., the creditors began to have doubts as to their receiving much of a dividend. If such doubts were not then justifiable, the recent order of District Court of the United States for the Northern District of New York would seem to solve the question, and the creditors now must view with alarm the probable cost of the register's fees for filing their claims, etc., which in all likelihood they will be called upon to pay.

Charles S. Symonds, assignee of Davis, Moulton & Co., in a petition to the court sets forth that Davis and Carr gave Moulton their bond in writing to indemnify and save Moulton from any and all loss he might sustain by reason of becoming a partner in the firm of Davis, Moulton & Co.; that Moulton lost all his property by reason of becoming such partner; that Davis has no individual estate, and that the individual estate of Carr is not sufficient to pay in full his individual debts, exclusive of his liability on the bond of indemnity to Moulton; and that a claim is made on behalf of Moulton's individual estate against Carr's, and asking that said claim and the liabilities of the parties to the indemnity bond be fixed and settled, and that the individual estate of Carr pay Moulton's individual estate such sum as may be equitable in the premises.

On this showing and petition the court has ordered Register Comstock, of Utica, N. Y., to take proof as to the matter alleged in the petition, both on behalf of the petitioner and of the separate creditors of Carr, and to report to the court as to the rights and interests of the several parties; and unless exceptions are filed to the report within ten days of the time it is itself filed, it will stand as the decision of the court.

Under this order Register Comstock has appointed the 19th day of February for a hearing of all parties concerned, at his office in Utica.

SUPREME COURT.

The Supreme Court comes in this morning at Exeter before Hon. Wm. L. Foster.

The cases on the equity docket will be heard this week. On the continued docket are 370 actions.

Among the cases for trial is that of Rev. Geo. W. Ruland against the town of South Newmarket, for injuries received some time since upon the highway near the Boston & Maine railroad track. Messrs. Frink and Page are counsel for Mr. Ruland, and Gen. Marston appears for the town.

Curious Epitaphs.

A lady, the wife of an officer in the navy, while in Great Britain copied several old epitaphs, some of which, shown to us, we give below. The eminently practical turn which, in a great degree, shows how grief was consoled in some cases, is interesting to witness:

In Greyfriars churchyard, Edinborough, may be found the following epitaph:

Here snug in grave my wife doth lie,
Now she's at rest and so am I.

On an old miser:

Here lieth Father Sparges
Who died to save charges.

In a country churchyard in England is the following:

Here lies a certain Ann Mann
Who lived an old Maid and died an old Man.

On the wall of a chapel in Edinborough which is built over an old wine and spirit vault are carved these lines, which rise almost to the dignity of an epitaph:

There is spirit above and spirit below,
The one is of joy, the other of woe:
The spirit above is the spirit divine,
The spirit below is the spirit of wine.

At Upton, on Severn, is the following:

Beneath this stone in hopes of Zion
Doth lie the Landlord of the Lion;
His son keeps on the business still,
Resigned unto the Heavenly Will.

Also, in the same place:

Oh do not weep, my husband dear,
I am not dead but sleeping here,
So mend your ways; prepare to die
For you are soon to come to I.

Then comes the reply:

I do not weep, my dearest life,
For I have got another wife;
Therefore I cannot come to thee
For I must go to cherish she.

In the cemetery of Pere la Chaise is the following epitaph, after stating name and age of deceased:

His inconsolable widow continues his business at 342 Rue St. Honore.

Epitaph on a watchmaker in Abercromby church:

Here lies in a horizontal position the outside case of ——, Watchmaker, whose abilities in that line were an honor to his profession. Integrity was the mainspring and prudence the regulator of his actions. He had the art of disposing of his time so well, his hours glided away in one continual round of delight, till an unlucky minute put a period to his existence. He departed this life in hopes of being taken in hand by his maker and of being thoroughly repaired, cleaned, and set agoing.

Suffering for a Life Time.

Persons affected with rheumatism often suffer for a life time, their tortures being almost without remission. The joints and muscles of such unfortunates are in most cases shockingly contorted and drawn out of shape. To afford them even temporary relief, the ordinary remedies often prove utterly useless. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, on the other hand, is avouched by persons who have used it to be a genuine source of relief. It keeps the blood cool by promoting a regular habit of body, and removes from it impurities which, in the opinion of all rational pathologists, originate this agonizing complaint and its kindred malady, the gout. Besides this the Bitters remedy disorders of the stomach, liver and nerves, prevent and eradicate intermittent and remittent fevers, promote appetite and sleep, and are highly recommended by physicians as a desirable medicinal stimulant and tonic.

Free of charge—Sample bottle of Adamson's Cough Balsam at all drug stores. Owing to its perfect harmony in combination it is the very best mixture for the speedy cure and relief of croup, colds, throat or lung diseases. Large bottles 35 cents.

Reflect that in every cemetery lie the silent tenants are the victims of neglected Coughs and Cold; and if you are thus afflicted, avoid their fate by resorting at once to Hale's Honey of Horehound and Tar, an immediate, agreeable, and certain means of cure. Sold by all Druggists. tfebl

Revolution in the Dressing Room!

By the almost unanimous action of the parties interested,

CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE

has replaced the old worn-out inventions for coloring the hair, which the bitter experience of years had proved to be ineffective and deleterious. Unlike the compounds that upon the health of the hair, and dry up and consume the juices which sustain it, this mild, genial and perfect dye is found to be a vitalizing as well as a coloring agent.

MAKE WAR

Cristadoro's Hair Preservative,

A valuable adjunct to the Dye in dressing and promoting the growth and perfect health of the hair, and of itself, when used alone—a safeguard that protects the fibres from decay under all circumstances and under all climes. Manufactured by J. CRISTADORO, No. 16 William St., New York. Sold by all Druggists. Applied by all Hair Dressers. tfeb15

We give the following letter to show the absolute freedom of Devoe's Brilliant Oil from any inflammable vapor, and as a curious incident:

PATERSON, N. J., April 17, 1877.

DEVOE MANUFACTURING CO.

Gentlemen:—I take great pleasure in sending this unsolicited recommendation of your Kerosene Oil.

At the great fire in this place, which destroyed Norwood's Paint and Oil establishment, and other buildings, on the 13th inst., your Oil stood one of most severe tests that Oil could be put to; for four [4] hours the Oil was in the hottest part of the fire, and such a fire as only Varnish, Turpentine, Oils and Paints can make, and in all that time there was no explosion of your Oil, and the cans containing the Oil were is very near the same condition after the fire as before.

I take great pleasure in recommending this Oil, as in my opinion it is the safest Oil for sale in the market. I remain, very respectfully,

JOHN E. REGNER,
Chief of Fire Department.

The case of John Carlton of Bedford against John Simonds of Kenne, in which the plaintiff claimed to recover for building defendant's house and barn in Keene, was concluded Friday at Manchester after nearly three days' trial. The jury were out several hours and returned a verdict for $1648.86, being $48.86 more than the plaintiff claimed, and nearly $400 more then was awarded at a former trial.

Sylvanus Corning of Londonderry was bound over before the police court at Manchester on Friday in $300 for cruelty in leaving his horses standing out all night.

The Exeter Gazette says: "We regret the necessity for the retirement of Levi L. Aldrich from the Manchester Times, resulting from an unhealed wound received at Antietam in 1862, and a subsequent imprisonment at Andersonville. He has been for some months entirely unfit for work, and now his physicians order his entire abstinence from care or business. Mr. A. G. Everett takes his place in the Times, and the firm is now Everett Brothers. The paper has been a great success and will close its first year with 3000 subscribers." The Manchester Times is an excellent paper, and fully deserves the success it is credited with attaining.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

By its great and thorough blood-purifying properties, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all Humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple, or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poison, and their effects, quickly eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.

Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Ring Worm, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellow blotches, spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, bitter breath or coated tongue, attended with hot flushes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In most cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects direct and radical cures.

In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has established the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. When it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets.

SIZE OF PELLETS.

"LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

No use of taking the large, repulsive, nauseous pills, composed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients. These Pellets are the smallest, mildest, and most perfect ever made.

Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or occupation. For Jaundice, Headache, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations, Sick Headache, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Bloated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take the Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable. This is not the case with pills put up in cheap wooden boxes, and pasteboard boxes. For all diseases where a Laxative, Alterative, or Purgative is indicated, these Pellets are the most perfect satisfaction. Sold by druggists.

ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 2 to 5 pounds a week.

In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patent from Providence, R. I., says: "Four bottles" taken have reduced her weight from 189 pounds to 162 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." A gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Druggists, Druggists, Saville, Dorrance & Saville, of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. Poland & Flanders, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "To THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen.—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. 'It (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from ten to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost.' Allan's Anti-Fat is an unexcelled blood-purifier. It promotes digestion, cures dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet on Obesity sent on receipt of stamp.

BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'S, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, having treated many thousand cases of these diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation, I have yet to witness the positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, single it out as the one or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and speedy remedy for the diseases of debility, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician; and so confident am I that it will not disappoint, that I invite the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which it is recommended, that I offer and sell it under a POSITIVE GUARANTEE. (For conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are some of the diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a certainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Menstruation, Irregularity, Suppression from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Womb, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Miscarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, Sexual Debility, Impotency. I do not extol this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfils a singleness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 300 pages, sent post-paid, on receipt of $1.00. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 18th.

The pension bill which went from the House to, and was passed by the Senate Thursday with only four dissenting votes, now only lacks the President's signature to become a law. It is generally believed he will sign, or at least will not veto it, so that Congress has now to provide the from fifteen to fifty million dollars which it is variously estimated will be required to satisfy its provisions. The bill provides that all pensions which have been or may hereafter be granted under the general laws relative thereto (i. e., not under private bills enacted to meet special cases) in consequence of death from disease contracted in the service during the rebellion or in consequence of disease or disability similarly contracted, the allowance of pension shall begin from the date of death or discharge, or from the termination of the right of the party having prior right to the pension, the rate to be the same per month for which the pension was originally granted. This supplementary law removes the bar interposed by section 4717 Revised Statutes to granting pensions to a large class of claimants who were unable to prosecute their claims to a successful issue within five years from the time of filing, because unable to produce such evidence as would induce the War Department to so amend its records as to show that the cause of death or the disability of the soldier in whose behalf the claim is made was contracted in the service and line of duty.

The report of the committee in favor of unseating Massacre Butler and giving the place to Corbin is the prelude to another party contest in the Senate. There is probably not a democrat in Congress, certainly not a republican, that don't feel convinced in their heart of hearts that Corbin was legally elected, and that the only right Butler has to it is such as was conferred by Hampton's rifle clubs acting in open defiance of law.

Prof. Gamgee's yellow fever prevention steamer is attracting great attention among the scientific men in Washington. It is to be a steel ship constructed for downright hard work, and not for any playful experiment. Every part of the machinery except the propeller and boilers is entirely of novel design, so as to give a maximum effect in the shortest possible time. Any of the ships usually entering the Gulf of Mexico can be brought to an Arctic temperature in their interior in a couple of hours. Mathematical accuracy is aimed at, so that the results in the hands of Surgeon General Woodsworth and his conjutors may be precise, and since all declare that no disinfectant equals cold, they can chill even bales of cotton to their centres if needed. Congress is expected to take this matter up with vigor, and the opinion is unanimous that it reconciles the requirements of trade and disease prevention.

OF

Foreign Literature, Science, and Art.

THIRTY-FIFTH YEAR.

The ECLECTIC MAGAZINE reproduces from foreign periodicals all those articles which are valuable to American readers. Its field of selection embraces all the leading Foreign Reviews, Magazines, and Journals; and while the tastes of all classes of readers are consulted nothing trivial in character, or of merely transient interest is admitted to its pages. Its plan includes REVIEWS, ESSAYS, BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES, HISTORICAL PAPERS, TRAVELS, POETRY, NOVELS, and SHORT STORIES; and in the case of SCIENCE (to which much space and attention are given) no special prominence is allowed to any particular phase of opinion, but place is given impartially to the most valuable articles on both sides of the great themes of scientific discussion.

The following lists comprise the principal periodicals from which selections are made and the names of some of the leading writers who contribute to them:

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 22, 1879.

The International Review.

This review, previously appearing as a bi-monthly, is hereafter to appear monthly. The March number will be issued under the editorship of John T. Morse and Henry Cabot Lodge—the latter formerly editor of the North American Review—Mr. H. B. Barnes, the present editor and publisher, retaining his connection as business editor and manager.

The new regime promises us a leading review and one equal to the best of the English periodicals. In fact, with editorial labors from New England men we may expect to see the International to a great degree supply the place of the North American. Writers from both sides of the Atlantic will have articles in the magazine. The price will be five dollars per year. The single numbers will contain 112 pages, and be sold at fifty cents each.

The January number contains a poem by Edgar Fawcett; Suffrage a Birthright, by Hon. George W. Julian; The Political Future of France, by Alfred Talandier, Deputy of the Seine, France; The American Export Trade, by F. H. Morse, late U. S. Consul-General at London; Morality in France, by Edmond de Pressensse, of Paris; Recollections of Mazzini, (I,) by Karl Blind, London; In Conflict with Science, a review of Mr. Tyndall, by an American mechanic; The Literary Movement in America; and Recent English Books, by George Barnett Smith, London.

The International is published by A. S. Barnes & Co., of New York, and its clear type and faultless execution, and the unexceptional strength of its contributions make it one of the most valuable of the monthly reviews.

The Buying and Selling of Men.

Years ago paupers were sold to the lowest bidder in these New England States, and it is said that the bodies even of deceased debtors were held by their creditors for redemption by their families. To-day women are bought and sold in Turkey. Until the close of the late civil war colored men, women and children, fat and sleek, all dressed in nice new suits, were set up for sale in shops at the South, awaiting purchasers, like other merchandise. Long strings of them, manacled and tied together, reminding one of traces of colored corn, could be seen in transit from New Orleans to Texas; and they were of course put up for sale at public vendue, unlike the New England pauper to be "knocked down" to the highest bidder, instead of to the lowest. The last scene of this kind which I witnessed, was at the city of Galveston, where some months after the close of the war, when "Othello's occupation was gone," the signs on the auction stores, "Negroes Bought and Sold," could still be seen.

As but comparatively few of the readers of this paper ever attended an auction sale of negroes, and none of them are likely ever to attend one again, let us concisely describe it. The sale having been duly advertised, the day and hour arrived, and the auctioneer's bell sounded; the salesman, placing upon a box on the sidewalk before the store the chattel, who was a fine but rather sickly appearing young negro man, proceeded in this wise:

"Gentlemen, I offer for sale this boy, Tom. He is a very fine boy. He is offered for sale for no faults of his, but he has been at work in the gas works at New Orleans where he contracted the consumption; and his master, thinking he might recover in Texas, has sent him here for sale. How much am I offered; Gentlemen, give us a bid." A doctor stepped up and said: "Tom, open your mouth, and let me look at your gums." After the investigation the slave was "knocked down" to the doctor for the low sum of about two hundred and fifty dollars, upon the payment of which the latter said: "Come on, Tom, I will take you up into the mountains, and get you well." If Tom recovered the doctor made a good speculation on him, as he was worth a thousand dollars when well.

But there is another sale to which I wish to allude, which is a blur upon the escutcheon of New Hampshire,—the buying and selling of the elective franchise, a right obtained by the blood and treasure of ages. It is suggestive of the corruptions prevalent in the last years of the Roman Empire, when it was put up for sale by the victorious legions. What a mockery of law, when the moderator of every town election previously to opening the polls proceeds to read the statute denouncing heavy pains and penalties for its violation, the voters standing listlessly by, all eager to rush to the purchase and sale in the nefarious traffic! The writer well recollects the time when it was considered a disgrace for an elector to offer his franchise for sale, and the purchaser made his bargain in private; but now-a-days the seller comes unblushingly forward and openly demands the price of his shame. So much has the evil increased that men demand to be paid even for voting for their own principles. We have been hearing of late years of constant corruptions and peculations in high places, yet it is not at all wonderful, when we consider the expenses attendant upon an election of a successful candidate, for which he wishes remuneration in some form other than the mere honor of holding his office, and he immediately looks around to ascertain how he can best effect his object; so that in the end the expenses are taken from the pockets of the people.

There was a time when a poor man could aspire to high elective positions, but he rarely dares to indulge in such aspirations at the present. Indeed, one of the first questions asked at the caucus is "has he any money to put out?" Now the apologist is often heard to say, "Every man has his price, and such things have always been." So have all crimes always existed, and it is only when they become glaring like this that they are generally checked. Here is another view of the case. Vast numbers of young men are annually coming to maturity and claiming the right of suffrage. It is hardly to be expected that they can form very favorable ideas of principle, when such transactions are brought before their immediate visions.

Gentlemen, candidates of all political parties, it may be that it would be better for your country that your election should be defeated, than that you should resort to such injurious practices. VIATOR.

Capital Punishment.

The hasty execution of the Molly Maguires in Pennsylvania last week, while a temporary reprieve was at the prison gate, has called forth bitter comments from the press all over the country. Among those who favor punishment by hanging it seems to have been more severely denounced than by those inclined to a different method of dealing with criminals. The fact is, capital punishment is growing every day more repulsive to the thinking people of our country, and the question of the moral right of the State to put an end to human existence must soon be squarely met, and the scaffold—disgraceful relic of barbarism—be torn down forever. Even if the fear of the gallows actually lessened the number of murders in our midst, the question might be raised if there were not other means by which the crime might be abated. If it is admitted that the safety of peaceable citizens, and not revenge, is the object of the death penalty, then we can well afford to cast about for a less sickening method of ridding society of the murderer—a plan that may not induce more demoralization than it seeks to remove.

The arguments for and against the abolition of capital punishment are too familiar to be traversed here. Many States have yielded to the reformer, and their citizens are as exempt from harm as those wherein the hangman's institution exists. It is a mistaken notion that we get rid of the murderer by hanging him. We might as well hope to rid ourselves of the small-pox by burning the pest-house. Evil is as contaminating as an infectious disease. It matters not whether the State or the private individual commits it. Just as every good deed raises society a bit, so does an evil one lower it. There is nothing elevating or purifying about the scaffold and its mission. It matters not whether we witness an execution or not, its bad influence is felt in every community that is cognizant of the judicial murder.

We would not make the punishment of the offender less. We would increase it by keeping him here to face his wickedness, letting every day's rising sun be a glaring reminder of his wretchedness, sending him down into the valley of despair to reflect upon his deed, from which he one day might come forth with his murderous nature subdued and crushed. This would consume a life time, and oftentimes perhaps the criminal thus dealt with might seem as incorrigible as ever, but the murderer would be without the State for an accomplice in crime, and certainly with proper prison discipline, the wretch could not be made any worse by his long confinement. XXX.

News and Notes.

The captain of the fishing schooner Nettie G. Rowe, of Tiverton, R. I., being averse to fishing on Sunday, would not go out; but two of her crew, Jacob P. Kemp and Frank Smith, took the vessel without leave, went out and caught 1400 pounds of fish, and started to run in, but got the vessel on Brenton's reef in a snow-squall, and she was lost, fish and all. Now the two enterprising men are under arrest on a charge of stealing the schooner.

William Linskey shot John Eagan in Methuen, Mass., Monday, at the house of John Skerritt. Linskey was drunk. Eagan is dangerously wounded, and the shooter is locked up.

Two negro men and a boy have been arrested in New Kent county, Virginia, for the murder of John S. Lacy, a white man, whom they waylaid, killed and robbed. They confessed the crime, and will probably be lynched.

The anti-polygamy society of Salt Lake City on Monday resolved that, "as the determination to adhere to polygamy is almost universally expressed by the Mormons, and that if, under the existing circumstances, Congress grant an amnesty to polygamists or adjourn without action, it would be regarded by the Mormons as a triumph of the saints over their enemies, instead of granting amnesty for the past on the mere promise of obedience in the future, we ask Congress to enforce the existing prohibition of polygamy in the future. Let Congress provide that polygamists be excluded from jury lists, and the courts could at once place polygamy in the process of ultimate extinction, which is all we ask."

George Stranahan of Waterbury, Vt., the young man who shot Miss Demmon last spring for refusing to marry him, and then shot himself, neither shot proving fatal, was held for trial at the March term and let out on bail, he working in his father's tailor shop in Waterbury. His bondsmen have just learned that father and son have started for the west, leaving not more than $150 worth of goods in the store, which usually carried a stock worth $2500. The bail bond is $1500.

Political.

The democrats of the Indiana legislature on Monday night nominated Dan. W. Voorhees for United States Senator.

The republican members of the New York legislature on Monday night unanimously renominated Senator Conkling.

Lead Poisoning from Tin Dishes.

Attention has recently been called to a new risk of chronic poisoning by the old enemy, lead. What we call "tin" vessels—that is, sheet iron coated with tin—are in daily use in every household in the land. They are cheap, durable and convenient, and have been considered perfectly safe for the thousand culinary purposes to which they are devoted.

They are safe if the tin plate is honestly made; but unfortunately this is not always to be counted upon. Tin is comparatively cheap, but lead is cheaper; and an alloy of the two metals may be used in the place of the dearer one, with profit to the manufacturer, though with serious detriment to the user. The alloy is readily acted upon by acids, and salts of lead are thus introduced into food.

The Michigan State Board of Health has lately been investigating this subject, having been led to do so by a letter from a physician who found that certain cases of what had been taken for chorea were really paralysis agitans, which could be traced to this kind of lead poisoning. Other cases were brought to light in which children had died of meningitis, fits and paralytic affections, caused by milk kept in such vessels, the acid in the fluid having dissolved the lead. Malic, citric, and other fruit acids are of course quicker and more energetic in their action upon the pernicious alloy.

The danger is the greater, because the lead salts are cumulative poison. The effect of one or two small doses may not be perceptible, but infinitesimal doses, constantly repeated, will in the end prove injurious, if not fatal. Analysis of a large number of specimens of tin plate used in culinary articles showed the presence of an alloy, with lead in almost every instance, and often in large quantities. It is safe to assert that a large proportion of the tinned wares in the market are unfit for use on this account.

That we may not be accused of exciting fears which may be groundless, we will inform our readers how they can settle the question for themselves by a simple and easy test. Put a drop of strong nitric acid on the suspected "tin," and rub it over a space as large as a dime. Warm it very gently till it is dry, and then let fall two drops of a solution of iodide of potassium on the spot. If lead is present it will be shown by a bright yellow color, due to the formation of iodide of lead.

It is stated by Dr. Kedzie that a peculiar kind of tin plate, the coating of which is largely made up of lead, is coming into general use for roofing eaves, troughs and conductors; and it is suggested that much of this lead will eventually be dissolved and find its way into household cisterns. Susceptible persons may be poisoned by washing in the lead-charged water, and all who drink it, even after it is filtered, are in danger of chronic lead poisoning. There is also risk in the use of glazed earthen vessels, if, as is often the case, the glazing contains oxide of lead.—Boston Journal of Chemistry.

H. Baldwin, of Monroe City, Indiana, writes under date of Dec. 3d, 1877, that his wife used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription with wonderful results. It effected her entire cure, after several physicians had failed. The many similar letters positively affirming that the Favorite Prescription had cured the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women, induced Dr. Pierce to sell it under a guarantee. Ladies need no longer submit to useless and painful local treatment, as the Favorite Prescription is a safe, sure, and speedy cure. Hundreds who had been bed-ridden for years have been restored to perfect health by its use.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

The Royal Baking Powder is a pure Cream of Tartar powder, made from pure Grape Cream Tartar imported exclusively for this powder direct from the wine district of France. An old experienced housekeeper writes that, although she has to pay a few pennies more for the "Royal," finds that it goes so much further and works much better than saleratus, soda, or cream of tartar.

☞ Most doctors pronounce Alum most dangerous to health; it costs but 2c. a lb., Cream of Tartar over 30. The Royal Baking Powder is recommended for its wholesomeness by such eminent chemists as Dr. Mott, New York; Dr. S. Dana Hayes, Boston. Sold only in cans. All Grocers.

THE CITY.

New Hampshire Lodge, No. 17, I. O. O. F., will celebrate its 33d anniversary in Congress hall on the evening of Tuesday, Feb. 11th.

On Monday evening Rev. John A. Goss was visited at his home by a large party of his parishioners, who presented him with a generous sum of money, a fine dress coat and other articles.

There was a runaway on Pleasant street shortly after noon on Tuesday, a horse belonging to a Mr. Batchelder of North Hampton making light of the vehicle to which he was harnessed, and transporting the same very rapidly up street as far as the North church, where he was stopped. One shaft of the cart, and the whiffletree, were broken, which was about all the harm done.

The subscription lists to Mr. Riddle's readings can only remain open during this week. Do not neglect the opportunity. Arrangements have been made by which those who cannot attend the morning readings can purchase tickets for the three evenings for $2 each. Mr. Riddle positively will not come unless an adequate number of tickets are subscribed for beforehand. The readings will be given at Miss Morgan's school.

The third entertainment in the Rockingham Course comes off this evening, when Prof. Van DeMark will deliver his lecture, "Eureka! A Mecca for the millions;" following which Prof. Goldberg, the great illusionist, of London, will appear in his marvellous drawing-room seance, which includes magic, mind reading, second sight, new and interesting tricks, etc. Mr. Eustis, of Boston, will give some choice piano music. Reserved seat tickets, 50 cts.; admission 35 cts.

On Tuesday forenoon Mr. Augustus Lord died at his residence on Middle street, after an illness of some weeks. He was one of our best known business men; was in early life for some time a clerk with Goodwin & Coues, later with John N. Frost, and afterwards engaged in the corn and flour trade, continuing in the latter business until 1861, when he entered the Piscataqua Exchange bank. In 1863, on the organization of the First National bank, he became its teller, which position he held at the time of his death.

The first week of Mr. Palmer's temperance labors in Manchester ended on Saturday night last, when a meeting was held at which Judge Lew. W. Clarke spoke, and sixty persons signed the pledge. At the Sunday meetings 335 persons took a stand for sobriety, making 925 persons in Manchester who had donned the blue ribbon up to that time. It is evident that Manchester has many more drinkers than Portsmouth, or else that the Manchester drinkers are much the more easily persuaded of the two.

Harper's Magazine for February is a fine number of this popular and always improving periodical. The first article, "The treasures of the deep," is exquisitely illustrated and very interesting to read. "Rambles in the south of France," with twenty illustrations; "At the mouths of the Amazon," fifteen illustrations; "Winter sports in Canada," nine illustrations; a spirited biographical sketch of the late Rear. Admiral Paulding; "Moonshiners," a story; "Our travelled parson," a poem by Will Carleton; letters of Mendelssohn to Madame Moscheles, with the words and music of a hitherto unpublished song by the great composer, and other articles, make up a number of unusual interest and value. Now ready for delivery at the book stores of W. G. Myers and Moses Brothers.

No change is to be made in the quartette of the Unitarian church, the resignation of Miss Boynton, soprano, having been withdrawn, by request.—Times.

THE VICINITY.

The total collections of the First Parish church, of Saco, for 1878, amounted to $3540, enough to cover all expenses and leave a balance in the treasury.

The dwelling of Mr. Charles Eaton, of York, with its contents, was burned Saturday night. Loss about $800; insured in the Kittery and Eliot Mutual company—$400 on the house and $100 on the furniture.

An engine, tender and three passenger cars left the track of the Boston & Maine railroad at Exeter, Monday morning, through the misplacing of a switch. No harm was done other the delaying of the train for an hour, though the passengers were "jounced" some.

The Christian society of Rye will hold a festival in the town hall on the evening of the 29th and 30th insts., the entertainment to consist of music, readings, dialogues, tableaux, and the other features customary at such gatherings. These church sociables at Rye are always enjoyable, and the managers of the coming one are sparing no pains to make it at least the equal of any that have preceded it. The Episcopal choir of this city, including Miss Edith Wendell, with Mr. E. A. Tilton as organist, will be present to aid in making the festival a success.

Last week, at Saco, a case was tried between a widow and a brother of her deceased husband. Mr. Lunt, counsel for the widow, endeavored to show that defendant and his brothers had done all in their power to wrong and defraud her. One of the brothers, in reply to the question what he went to her house for at a certain time, said "to help the widow and orphan." Mr. Lunt then approached the witness and asked him if he did not present a bill of $20 against the estate, for washing the corpse. The witness was disposed to be evasive, but upon being pressed admitted that such was the fact. That was an odd way to "help the widow and orphan," certainly.

SUPREME COURT.

TUESDAY, Jan. 21; Foster, J.

No grand jury is summoned at this term. The forenoon was occupied in the call of the docket. There are but few cases on the equity docket for hearing.

Divorce case Sanborn vs. Sanborn was heard in the afternoon.

The county solicitor gave notice that he would be ready to try cases on the State docket on Monday of next week.

HOW HE SPENT CHRISTMAS.

A letter from Mr. George B. Mudge, a son of Portsmouth now settled in Texas as a stock raiser, to a friend in this city, gives a lively idea of one phase of life in Texas. Mr. Mudge was located in Beoerne until recently, when he removed to the neighborhood of San Antonio. In his letter, which is dated at "Gravelly Ridge, Roy Bean's Range," he says:

"We were on the move with a thousand head of sheep from the upper mountain country to the lower prairies south of San Antonio, and we were camped five miles north of that city on the night of Dec. 24th. It was bright and starlight, with a warm south wind, so pitching our tent on the north side of the pen to catch all sounds made in the pen, we turned in early, with a limited supply of clothing and blankets covering us. All went well until two o'clock A. M., when with a sudden rush a fierce norther came up and the temperature took a hasty tumble. One of our party of three turned out, started up the fire, and stood watch for about half an hour; but the sheep slept on, not making any show of changing with the weather, so we were soon all buried under our blankets and also in sound sleep. At three and four o'clock a look was given to the sheep, but all was quiet, and sun-up was the next time we awoke, when the discovery was made that the sheep had lit out. Immediately one of us was on the trail, horse-back, but an hour's search gave no reward, as the trail was lost among some old signs. On my partner's return I sprang to his place in the saddle, and in a short time was on a high hill overlooking the chaparral country below that stretched far to the southward, but little was gained by so doing. So taking a circle swing I struck the trail four miles below our camp, a short half hour after the herd had passed, and soon came up with fifteen blown head. It was raining hard, and soon the trail disappeared as the sheep went down a dry branch, but it was struck again a few miles down. But time was lost in the hunt, and I was two hours late at this place, and with a horse that soon broke down; but I obtained a fresh one at a ranch near at hand, and was off again and soon struck a man going home from town, who informed me that back on the road half a mile a herd was driven across just in front of his team by two Mexican horsemen, and that two broke down after crossing. Going back with his directions I found the sheep stuffed into a dense thicket, and as they had my ear mark I knew then that the sheep were being driven by thieves, and not breaking away by themselves as they will sometimes do in a sudden change of weather. I now pressed on with extra haste, so much so as to run off the trail, and in the mist and rain got lost as far as being able to strike it again, for the prairies here are not open but covered with a dense growth of musquite shrubs, eighteen to twenty feet high. While looking for signs I ran across a native Mexican brushwood gatherer, and on my offering him ten dollars to put me in sight of my sheep he quickly started off bareback, and was on the trail and up with the sheep in two hours, and I had busy work to keep up in sight of him. On our approach the thieves made off in a hurry, and it was then I would willingly have given a hundred sheep for a fresh horse and a 'Winchester,' and one of the prairie pirates would have met his Merry Christmas in another climate than that of Bexar. To drive back the herd and pick up estrays was the next move, but night soon closed in and it only remained for me to round up the sheep and start fires to keep off wolves, and wait for day; it kept getting colder and colder, and soon every rain drop turned to ice; and if from five P. M. to seven A. M. on the 25th were not fourteen as long and wet and cold hours as ever came on Christmas eve to a person standing contented with ice in a prairie with no shelter but an overcoat, then I truly sympathize with a worse case. But night did end, and next morning I was only too glad to meet my partner and herder coming over the trail, and in face of their report of sixty-seven head frozen stiff in the previous night that had broken down by being forced in the stampede, I never felt more merry on a Christmas on account of my luck in the recovery of the main bunch. All young men of Portsmouth aspiring to become sheepmen should prepare fully for the sheepman's Christmas, which is bound to visit all newcomers sooner or later."

"MISSING."

This saddest of all words known to the sailor is now written in the underwriters' books opposite the good ship "Jean Ingelow" of Portsmouth. She sailed from Cardiff, Wales, May 23d, 1878, for Singapore, a voyage which, under ordinary circumstances, should have taken from 90 to 120 days. The ship was spoken June 18th in lat. 38 59 north, lon. 13 56 west, and since that time nothing has been heard of her. As it is now almost eight months since she left port all hope of the ship and crew has been abandoned, except the vague, indefinite, sickening hope which so long remains in the minds of the nearest friends of those whose fate is shrouded in so sad a mystery.

The Jean Ingelow was owned, principally, by Capt. J. G. Moses of Portsmouth, has always been employed in the East Indian trade, and was considered a fine ship. She was commanded by Capt. George Tanton, a native of Prince Edward's island, but since his boyhood a resident of Portsmouth. Capt. Tanton made his first sea voyage in 1858, then being a shipmate of the writer. He had been some five or six years in command when he sailed on his ill-fated voyage. He married a daughter of Washington Leavitt of York, Me., and by this marriage had a son, now about six years of age. The child's mother died three or four years ago, and Capt. Tanton married again in Liverpool, just previous to sailing on his last voyage, his wife going with him. The captain has two brothers in Portsmouth; the mate was also a Portsmouth man, and the uncertain fate of the ship and her crew casts a gloom upon a large circle in the city where so many interested parties reside.—Manchester Union.

A Dangerous Torpor.

Torpor or inactivity of the kidneys is seriously dangerous to those organs, since it is the precedent of diseases which destroy their substance and endanger life. This sluggishness may be overcome by stimulating them, not excessively, but moderately, an effect produced by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a general invigorant and alterative, possessing diuretic properties of no common order. The impetus which this admirable medicine gives to their evacuative function counteracts any tendency to congestion which may exist in their tissues. Both they and their associate organ, the bladder, are invigorated as well as gently stimulated by Bitters, which exerts a kindred influence upon the stomach, liver and bowels, and by strengthening the system, enables it to withstand malarial epidemics, to which when exposed it might otherwise succumb.

PATERSON, N. J., April 17, 1877.

DEVOE MANUFACTURING CO.

Gentlemen:—I take great pleasure in sending this unsolicited recommendation of your Kerosene Oil.

At the great fire in this place, which destroyed Norwood's Paint and Oil establishment, and other buildings, on the 13th inst., your Oil stood one of most severe tests that Oil could be put to; for four [4] hours the Oil was in the hottest part of the fire, and such a fire as only Varnish, Turpentine, Oils and Paints can make, and in all that time there was no explosion of your Oil, and the cans containing the Oil were in very near the same condition after the fire as before.

I take great pleasure in recommending this Oil, as in my opinion it is the safest Oil for sale in the market. I remain, very respectfully,

JOHN E. REGNER,
Chief of Fire Department.

—Better is it to sit on a barrel at the corner grocery with contentment than to repose in the most luxurious easy chair adorned with tidy in the house of the order-loving woman.

—The young man who will turn up his nose at cabbage in connection with corned beef at a cheap restaurant will consume it with effusion in the guise of pure Havana cigars—"three for ten cents."

—If there is any distinction between "a while" and "a time," it is often lost sight of. For instance, when a young man leaves off work and says he is going off "for a while," no one can feel sure until his return that he has not gone off for "a time,"—with all that the word implies.

—While modern science is doing so much for man's comfort,—providing elevated railroads, electric lights, and proofs that his ancestors were monkeys and clams—it has made no effort to discover a means of fastening the straps on his boots so that they will not come off at a critical moment.

—A young blood of Evansville, Ind., made an insulting proposal to a lady one evening recently. Repressing her indignation, she suggested going to a friend's house, opened a door leading into a dark closet and bade him step in and wait for her, locked it on the outside and went home. He remained in his prison till, for fear of suffocation, he had to raise the house; then he had to explain now he got into the cupboard, being a stranger to the residents, and then they kicked him out.

—Alvin Harrison, a cousin of ex-President Harrison, who died recently near Oswego, Kansas, at the age of seventy-three years, was once a promising young lawyer of Ohio. He became engaged to a girl who, before the appointed wedding day, eloped with a stage driver. Harrison then built him a cabin in the Neosho bottoms, where, alone and neighborless, sleeping on a bed of straw and subsisting on spoilt bacon, he lived the life of a morose hermit till the day of his death.

PENNSYLVANIA
RAILROAD.
GREAT THROUGH LINE
AND
UNITED STATES MAIL ROUTE
The attention of the travelling public is respectfully invited to some of the merits of this great highway, in the confident assertion and belief that no other line can offer equal inducements as a route of through travel. In Construction AND Equipment
THE
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
stands confessedly at the head of American railways. The track is double the entire length of the line, of steel rails laid on heavy oak ties, which are embedded in a foundation of rock ballast eighteen inches in depth. All bridges are of iron or stone, and built upon the most approved plans. Its passenger cars, while eminently safe and substantial, are at the same time models of comfort and elegance.
The Safety Appliances
in use on this line well illustrates the far-seeing and liberal policy of its management, in accordance with which the utility only of an improvement and not its cost has been the question of consideration. Among many may be noticed
THE BLOCK SYSTEM OF SAFETY SIGNALS,
JANNEY COUPLER, BUFFER AND PLATFORM,
THE WHARTON PATENT SWITCH,
AND THE
WESTINGHOUSE AIR-BRAKE,
forming in conjunction with a perfect double track and road-bed a combination of safeguards against accidents which have rendered them practically impossible.
Pullman Palace Cars
Are run on all Express Trains
From New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington,
To Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, and St. Louis,
WITHOUT CHANGE,
and to all principal points in the far West and South with but one change of cars. Connections are made in Union Depots, and are assured to all important points.
The Scenery
OF THE
PENNSYLVANIA ROUTE
is admitted to be unsurpassed in the world for grandeur, beauty and variety. Superior refreshment facilities are provided. Employees are courteous and attentive, and it is an inevitable result that a trip by the Pennsylvania Railroad must form a

Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects, are completely and vigorously health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt-rheum, Fever Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying, and invigorating medicine.
Especially has it manifested its potency in curing Tetter, Rose Rash, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous Sores and Swellings, White Swellings, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands.
If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flashes, low spirits, and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver, or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it gets perfect and radical cures.
In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. Sold by druggists.

SIZE OF PELLETS.
THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC.

If you are suffering from Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations from the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Heated feeling about Stomach, Rush of Blood to Head, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of these Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, it may be said that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Any dose not impair the properties of these Pellets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved, fit for any climate for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always ready for use. ANTI-FAT

ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT is the great remedy for Corpulency. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It acts on the food in the stomach, preventing its conversion into fat. Taken according to directions, it will reduce a fat person from 2 to 5 pounds a week.

In placing this remedy before the public as a positive cure for obesity, we do so knowing its ability to cure, as attested by hundreds of testimonials, of which the following from a lady in Columbus, Ohio, is a sample: "Gentlemen:—Your Anti-Fat was duly received. I took it according to directions and it reduced me five pounds. I was so elated over the result that I immediately sent to ACKERMAN'S drug-store for the second bottle." Another, a physician, writing for a patient from Providence, R. I., says, "Your bottle have reduced her weight from 199 pounds to 122 pounds, and there is a general improvement in health." Another, a gentleman writing from Boston, says: "Without special change or attention to diet, two bottles of Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me four and one-quarter pounds." The well-known Wholesale Druggists, SARTRI, DOWNER & SARTRI of Boston, Mass., write as follows: "Allan's Anti-Fat has reduced a lady in our city seven pounds in three weeks." A gentleman in St. Louis writes: "Allan's Anti-Fat reduced me twelve pounds in three weeks, and altogether I have lost twenty-five pounds since commencing its use." Messrs. POWELL & PLUMPTON, Wholesale Druggists, of Buffalo, N. Y., write: "TO THE PROPRIETORS OF ALLAN'S ANTI-FAT: Gentlemen,—The following report is from the lady who used Allan's Anti-Fat. 'It (the Anti-Fat) had the desired effect, reducing the fat from two to five pounds a week until I had lost twenty-five pounds. I hope never to regain what I have lost.'" Anti-Fat is an unexcelled BODY-SCRIBER. It promotes digestion, curing dyspepsia, and is also a potent remedy for rheumatism. Sold by druggists. Pamphlet (20 pp.) free by send on receipt of stamp.

BOTANIC MEDICINE CO., PROP'RS, Buffalo, N.Y.

WOMAN

By an immense practice at the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, have cured thousands of those diseases peculiar to woman. I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and positive remedy for these diseases.

To designate this natural specific, I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon personal observation. I have confidence in recommending its positive results in the special diseases incident to the organism of woman, and put it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and speedy remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician, and to confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectation of a single lady that may use it. For any of the ailments for which I recommend it, that I offer and sell it under a POSITIVE GUARANTEE (for conditions, see pamphlet wrapping bottle.)

The following are some of those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and thus a positive guarantee is obtained by any medicine: Leucorrhœa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregularities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or Falling of the Uterus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing-down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Hesitation, Mental Aberration, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, and Female Weakness. I do not exist this medicine as a "cure-all," but it admirably fulfils a single purpose, and is the most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition.

Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those affections.

Favorite Prescription sold by Druggists.

The ECLECTIC MAGAZINE reproduces from foreign periodicals all the articles which are valuable to American readers. Its field of selection embraces all the leading Foreign Reviews, Magazines, and Journals; and while the tastes of all classes of readers are consulted nothing trivial in character, or of merely transient interest is admitted to its pages. Its plan includes ESSAYS, REVIEWS, BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES, HISTORICAL PAPERS, TRAVELS, POETRY, NOVELS, and SHORT STORIES; and in the case of SCIENCE (to which much more space and attention are given) no special prominence is allowed to any particular phase of opinion, but place is given impartially to the most valuable articles on both sides of the great themes of scientific discussion.

The following lists comprise the principal periodicals from which selections are made and the names of some of the leading writers who contribute to them:

News and Notes.

Michael Casey's house in Southampton, Mass., was burned on the morning of the 18th inst., and his eight-years-old son burned to death. Casey's married sister was badly burned, and her daughter's shoulder broken by being thrown from a window. No neighbors lived near Casey, and the injured woman and child, and Casey's wife and baby, suffered terribly before assistance arrived.

At Westfield, Mass., recently, a young woman called upon a lawyer, whom she desired to enter a petition for a divorce from her newly-married husband because he had thick lips. The lawyer told her she had his deepest sympathy, but he feared the courts would hardly consider that valid ground for granting her desire, and declined to take the case. The young couple in question were married one day and separated the next, and the only reason the girl gives for it is the one she gave the lawyer. The husband was so mortified over the separation that, though never a drinking man, and connected with one of the churches, he got very drunk, and has since left town, where he had lived respected from his boyhood.

An ox belonging to Mr. Charles French of Farmingdale, Me., died on the 20th inst., with all the symptoms of hydrophobia.

Dennis O'Neil, an Irishman sixty years old, got lost in the snow on the night of the 19th inst., while trying to reach his house, two miles out of Northampton, Mass. He wandered about till exhausted, laid down, and died a quarter of a mile from home. He was found Monday night. He had $200 in his pocket when leaving home, but when his body was found the money was gone. He was drunk when he started for his home.

Edward Bessey of Newburyport, who was released from the house of correction at Lawrence, Mass., on the morning of the 21st inst., after serving a sentence of thirty days for drunkenness, was found in the afternoon lying intoxicated in a shed. He was thoroughly chilled, and but for his timely discovery would probably have frozen to death.

Jason Clark of Westhampton, Mass., aged sixty, was killed last fall by a practical joke of boys, who got him on a rack wagon and drove so fast as to shake him off and kill him. The boy's parents have settled with the relatives of the deceased for $800.

Ashburton Webster, son of Fletcher Webster and last surviving male descendant of Daniel Webster, died in New York Wednesday morning.

The February number of Demorest's Monthly has been received. This magazine is a combination of the entertaining and useful, comprising as it does literature and fine art illustrations, including oil pictures, music, floriculture, architecture, household matters, reliable fashions and full-size patterns, with other rare and beautiful novelties calculated to improve the taste, and make home attractive and happy.

More Bonds Called In.

The Secretary of the Treasury has issued the eighty-third call for the redemption of 5-20 bonds of 1865, consols of 1867. The call is for twenty million dollars, of which ten millions are coupon and ten millions are registered bonds, the principal and interest to be paid at the Treasury on and after the 21st of April, interest to cease on that day. The following are the descriptions of the bonds:

Coupon bonds, dated July 1, 1867:

$50,	Nos. 46,001 to 55,000,	both inclusive.
$100,	" 66,001 " 70,000,	"	"
$500,	" 46,001 " 55,000,	"	"
$1000,	" 66,001 " 75,000,	"	"

Total coupons, $10,000,000.

Registered bonds, redeemable at the pleasure of the United States after the 1st day of July, 1872, as follows:

$50,	Nos. 1,926 to 2,275,	both inclusive.
$100,	" 12,251 " 16,450,	"	"
$500,	" 7,251 " 9,200,	"	"
$1000,	" 27,751 " 31,200,	"	"
$5000,	" 5,151 " 5,200,	"	"
$10,000	" 15,251 " 15,400,	"	"

Total registered, $10,000,000.

Aggregate, $20,000,000.

Navy Re-organization.

In the United States Senate, on the 21st inst., the naval appropriation bill being under consideration, Mr. Blaine gave notice that next day he should offer the following as an amendment: "That a board of three naval officers from either the active or retired list be appointed by the President, whose duty it shall be to consider and report to the next session of Congress the number of officers, line, staff and warrant, needed for the navy with 7500 men; and that, until hereafter directed by law, promotion in the navy above the grade of ensign shall cease; and, further, that the same board of officers shall consider and report whether any of the present navy yards may be dispensed with, and whether, in any other way, the expenses of the naval establishment may be decreased without impairing its efficiency. Also, that from and after July 1st, 1883, only such number of graduates of the United States naval academy in any one year be entitled to appointment as midshipmen in the navy as are required to fill vacancies, to be determined by the academy board on a basis of their standing in the graduating class; and if the number of midshipmen shall not have been previously fixed and limited by law, it shall be the dutyof the Secretary to so fix and limit it, on or before July 1st, 1883."

New Hampshire Items.

The grocery store of L. N. Kempton, at Claremont, caught fire on the night of the 20th inst., but the flames were soon extinguished. The goods were all removed from the building, but were badly damaged in moving. Insured $1200.

Fish Commissioner A. H. Powers has put 100,000 young California salmon in the Pemigewasset river at Plymouth, and 275,000 more in the hatching-house at Livermore Falls are soon to be distributed in the streams of the State.

Political.

Congress has passed Potter's resolution for the investigation of the cipher despatches. Now we shall see what we shall see.

Wilkinson Call, late of the confederate army, was on the 21st inst. elected United States Senator from Florida. On the same day Zeb. Vance, an irreconcilable Bourbon, was elected to the Senate from North Carolina, and Dan. Voorhees, a blatant demagogue, was elected Senator from Indiana. Gen. James Shields, a brave soldier of the Union, has been elected Senator for the short term, and Col. Vest, a fire-eating secessionist and ex-rebel, Senator for the long term, by the democrats of Missouri. Senator Conkling has been re-elected from New York, and Senator Cameron from Pennsylvania, by the republicans. Orville D. Platt, republican, has been elected Senator from Connecticut, in place of Seven-more-mules Barnum.

Hon. Matt. Carpenter was on the 22d inst. nominated for the United States Senate by the republicans of the Wisconsin legislature.

Official Data of National Habits.

Some of the facts contained in the annual report of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue supply the data upon which interesting deductions as to the habits and characteristics of the American people might be made.

There were received in 1877 about fifty-seven and a half million dollars in taxes upon spirits, which revenue is reduced nearly eight millions in the receipts for the present year. It is not argued that the consumption of liquors has diminished to this extent in a single year, owing to Murphyism, red-ribbonism or any other cause, but that pending the agitation of the reduction of taxation on spirits and tobacco in Congress the manufacturers fell off largely. In like measure the attempt to tinker the tariff resulted in about twelve millions loss in the receipts from customs. The diminution of revenue to the extent of about twenty million dollars in a single year, shows how susceptible the American people are to political movements which disturb trade and manufactures.

Illinois and Ohio are the States in which are made the most distilled spirits, and manufacturers there paid nearly one-half the taxes on this class of manufactures, Illinois alone paying about one-third the total amount.

According to the Commissioner's figures, the American people are drinking less whiskey and more beer than formerly. There was manufactured in the fiscal year of 1878 about 6,500,000 gallons less whisky than during the previous year, and 1,500,000 gallons more beer.

The number of gallons of fermented liquors consumed in the United States last year was 317,465,601. Estimating the population at 45,000,000, a calculation will show that every man, woman and child in the United States drank over seven gallons of beer, etc., last year, if each got his or her proportion. If one-half of the people drank none, then the other half must have consumed fifteen gallons per head.

By a similar calculation it can be made to appear that each one of our 45,000,000 neighbors drank over a gallon and a quarter of distilled spirits; but as large quantities of spirits are exported (which is not the case with beer,) the analogy would not be correct. But the Commissioner estimates that $596,000,000 is annually expended for liquor in the United States, an expenditure which, if applied on the public debt, would pay it in three years. Every American citizen, it will be seen, therefore, pays over $13.25 per year into the hands of liquor sellers.

The number of cigars consumed in this country last year was 1,905,063,743, being an average of over forty-two cigars to every man, woman and child. Assuming that one-fourth of the population—a very large estimate—are smokers, each smoker would have 168 cigars for the year.

The amount of tobacco other than cigars and cigarettes, consumed, was 25,212,933 pounds, which is equal to more than half a pound to every inhabitant.

These statements show to what an extent our people indulge in luxuries, and interesting comparisons might be instituted as to the cost of liquors and tobacco with that of bread, leading articles of clothing, and the maintenance of religious and charitable objects. Recently, the visiting committee of that excellent benevolent association, the Employment Society, in making their rounds, kept account of the places they visited where employment was applied for, and in which the women were industriously engaged in smoking, and in some instances were redolent of whisky, and where, although these "luxuries" were obtainable, the use of soap and towels, scrub-brushes and cleaning-pails was entirely disregarded. The means to buy tobacco and whisky were somehow got, but were not at command for the absolute necessaries of civilized life. This fact fitly supplements the large figures of taxes paid upon "luxuries," which are inconsiderable as compared with the immense sums annually wasted for the "luxuries" themselves.—Traveller.

A Dangerous Torpor.

Torpor or inactivity of the kidneys is seriously dangerous to those organs, since it is the precedent of diseases which destroy their substance and endanger life. This sluggishness may be overcome by stimulating them, not excessively, but moderately, an effect produced by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a general invigorant and alterative, possessing diuretic properties of no common order. The impetus which this admirable medicine gives to their evacuative function counteracts any tendency to congestion which may exist in their tissues. Both they and their associate organ, the bladder, are invigorated as well as gently stimulated by Bitters, which exerts a kindred influence upon the stomach, liver and bowels, and by strengthening the system, enables it to withstand malarial epidemics, to which when exposed it might otherwise succumb.

THE CITY.

Morris C. Foye, No. 23 Market street, has an advertisement of special bargains offering at his store which may interest the ladies.

The "Growlers," a club comprising several young men of the city, had a social dance at their rooms on the evening of Tuesday, the 21st inst., and the verdict of all present was a merry time.

On Wednesday afternoon City Marshal Entwistle arrested a number of parties on Islington street for fast driving, and notified them to appear at the police court Thursday at ten o'clock to answer to the charge.

The schooner West Dennis, from Boston, in tow of tug William Woolley, arrived at this port about noon on Wednesday, the 22d inst., having started from Boston on the previous Monday morning, to load with 3000 barrels of apples for Henry A. Yeaton and Charles H. Hayes; over twenty towns in three States will contribute to her cargo. Messrs. Yeaton and Hayes have shipped from this port this season over 8000 barrels of apples, and have also sent some large lots from Concord to Boston by rail, and thence by steamer to Philadelphia.

THE VICINITY.

The New Hampshire State Board of Agriculture propose holding a meeting at Greenland some time early in February.

Three cars of a freight train on the Eastern railroad jumped the track at Great Falls on the evening of the 21st inst., but no great harm was done.

The Cocheco Print Works at Dover started up full force on Wednesday morning of this week, after a suspension of a little over three weeks, caused by the burning of the bleachery on the 28th of December. The work of rebuilding has been done with remarkable rapidity, what was expected to occupy at least two months having been accomplished inside of one.

Much indignation is expressed by the temperance people of Saco and Biddeford over the abandonment by the new county authorities of the "legal suasion" measures against rumselling which proved so effective under the administration of ex-deputy sheriffs Durgin and Grant. The new deputies, it is said, have been ordered by their superiors not to make any charge on the rumsellers, and on Sunday last a red-hot indignation meeting of the temperance people of the two cities was held in Saco city hall.

The Dover firemen having got into a dispute among themselves as to which company got the first stream on the fire which occurred in that city on the 17th inst., the question made so much fuss and contention amongst the brethren that they agreed to leave it out to a disinterested committee to decide who did get the first stream on; and the Democrat of the 22d inst. says that "After hearing all sides they reported this morning that it was the hook and ladder company! Guess something made that committee see the holes through the ladder."

THE TENT OF THE WICKED.

On Monday of this week City Marshal Entwistle went to Lewiston, Me., in search of a man named William A. McIntosh, who was wanted here to answer to certain complaints made against him by parties in this city. He was found and brought here, and on Wednesday was tried on two charges, the first being for larceny of a tent covering, the property of Thomas S. Gay. The facts in the case, as brought out by the evidence, are that some time during during the month of August last McIntosh made a bargain with Gay for the latter to make him a tent, the price to be forty dollars, and McIntosh to pay for it by installments, the tent to remain the property of Gay until paid for. At some time since, McIntosh mortgaged the tent to E. P. Pierce, of Boston, to secure a debt of forty dollars. Mr. Gay has not received payment from him. Some other transactions which were brought to light with the above facts, proved to the satisfaction of the judge that McIntosh was guilty and he was ordered to recognize in the sum of $300 for his appearance at the April term of the supreme court to be holden in Exeter. Foster for prosecution; Hodgdon for defence.

The second charge was for obtaining goods under false pretences. Some time in the month of December the tent was forwarded from Manchester to Boston via Portsmouth & Concord railroad, and the bill to Mr. E. P. Pierce, who is doing business in that city. On its arrival at this city McIntosh called at the office of the railroad and asked if such goods were there, and being answered in the affirmative, informed the station agent he would take them, which he did and receipted for them, signing Pierce's name and his own to the receipt. Instead of sending the tent to Boston he took it to Lewiston with him, and it was found in an auction store in that place, where he had put it as security for some furniture which he had bought to fit out an eating saloon. Mr. Pierce not receiving the tent on time, informed the authorities of the Concord & Portsmouth railroad that he should hold them responsible for it, and Mr. Horace Waldron, the station agent, ferreted out the abiding place of McIntosh and had him arrested. On this charge he was found guilty and put under $400 bonds to appear at the same time and place as in the previous case. He was given twenty-four hours by the judge to procure bail. Hackett for the road; Hodgdon for the defence.

THE THIRD ENTERTAINMENT

In the Rockingham Course, Thursday evening, was attended by the usual large and select audience. The first part of the evening was taken up by Prof. Van De Mark's lecture entitled "Eureka! A Mecca for the Million!" This gentleman is a very pleasing speaker indeed, but the subject of his lecture is not the best calculated to entertain a lyceum audience in the far east; in short, the lecture was seemingly an advertisement of the advantages of California as a place for immigrants; much of the information given could be gleaned from the papers of the day, and though presented in as attractive a manner as possible, still it was not of absorbing interest.

At nine o'clock Prof. Goldberg, the illusionist, gave his Marvellous Drawing Room Seance, and for an hour and a half mystified and amused the audience in a manner perfectly satisfactory to all; we trust we shall have an opportunity to see him again before a Portsmouth audience, and can assure him a hearty welcome. After having shown a number of startling magical illusions peculiar to himself, he introduced an ordinary pack of cards, with which he performed many things which were simply astonishing, and which no other performer has yet attempted. We never before witnessed any such clever and baffling sleight-of-hand. A feature of the evening was the "second sight mystery," in which Mr. Chas. D'Albert exhibited his wonderful faculty.

S. P. C. C. MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children was held at the office of Dr. James R. May, on Tuesday evening, 21st inst., when and where the following Board of Directors was chosen for 1879:

Mrs. Alfred W. Haven, Mrs. John J. Pickering, Miss Elizabeth H. Pearson, Miss Carrie A. Morison, Miss Mary R. Lyman, Miss Annie F. Jenness, Miss Mary A. Foster, Messrs. T. E. O. Marvin and Charles W. Gardner, and Dr. James R. May. The reports of the President, Treasurer and Secretary for the past year were read, and the meeting dissolved. At a subsequent meeting of the Directors the following officers were chosen:

President, Charles W. Gardner;

Vice Presidents, Mrs. Stanton Parker, Miss Eliza W. Haven, Hon. Ichabod Goodwin and Rev. Eugene M. Grant;

Secretary, Miss Mary A. Foster;

Treasurer, Dr. James R. May.

We give below the report of the President, showing what the Society is doing and the character of its work:

To the Officers and members of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children:

In making this annual Report we may congratulate ourselves upon two important facts—that we have had but comparatively little to do during the past year, and that what has been done has been accomplished quietly and with good results.

The first case that came to our notice this year was that of the promised advent of a circus in our city that had included in its list of performers two little boys, aged eight and eleven years, acrobats and trapeze performers. Upon the arrival of the show the proprietor was waited upon, his attention respectfully called to the New Hampshire statutes concerning trapeze performances, etc., and reminded that they conflicted with the proposed exhibition of the children accompanying him. He replied that while he had intended to exhibit them here, being unaware of the existence of any law against it, he had no disposition to violate any statute, and promised that the children should not appear, and they didn't.

The next case was that of a lad of nine years who was found in the cell of the Police Station, having been placed there by his father, who desired him sent to the Reform School. He (the boy) was represented to be completely unmanageable, and generally bad. The charge of the Society inquired into the case, and the evidence tended to show that the management of the child had been not only faulty but cruel. The father, a well-to-do and temperate mechanic, was waited upon by the Society and reasoned with concerning the case. He was advised to try a little kindness and such other means as would tend to draw to the surface the better nature of the boy. To these remonstrances and recommendations the father seemed as incorrigible as he had represented his child to be, but it resulted in the lad's return to the paternal roof, and it is said that he is doing much better.

There have been several cases of neglect, among which was that of a family of five children on South street—the father in jail and the mother absent from home all day leaving a girl of fourteen to care for four brothers and sisters, aged twelve, ten, eight and five years respectively. A committee was appointed and the matter investigated. The children were properly clothed and those who were eligible to the public schools were sent there; and they still continue to attend, while the family is under the cognizance of this Society. Another, a family near the Sagamore Creek, was reported to be neglecting their children, (two boys of eight and ten years) allowing them to wander about the highways from day to day, not attending any school and being in a dirty and ragged condition. Upon investigation it was found to be true. The parents were remonstrated with by the Society and it resulted in the speedy rehabilitating of the lads and their being sent to school; and we will add that the parents seem to have caught a little of the spirit of thrift, and appear more tidy than formerly.

The last case that has claimed our attention is that of a colored family in Hunking street at the South end, consisting of father, mother, and three children, the eldest a girl of twelve years, a boy apparently about six years old, and a male infant of a year or perhaps a year and a half. The parents quarreled almost every day, and in consequence of this inharmony the children were shamefully neglected and oftimes grossly illtreated. The noisy disputes of the father and mother at length gave the officers of this Society the coveted opportunity of reaching them. They were arrested as railers and disturbers of the peace, tried, found guilty, and the mother and children were sent to Brentwood until the middle of May, while the father was placed on his good behavior, punishment being suspended meantime. The present relief that has been thus provided for these children is but temporary, however, and the Society must, by some means, find a home for them, at the expiration of the mother's sentence, as a reunion of the family would be but an occasion for the repetition of the same abuses and neglect that were formerly practiced.

There have been several complaints, which, upon learning the facts concerning them, were not regarded as cases sufficiently flagrant to demand our active interference, and yet, as the parties in question had dealt improperly with their children, they received from us a word or two of counsel or cautionary reprimand as the occasion seemed to suggest.

We have cause for congratulation in the fact that we have, during the year just closed, made quite a number of unprotected and neglected little children comfortable and happy, that had hitherto experienced nothing but misery; found homes for those who had never known the meaning of the word "home," and temporarily provided for others whose wants were of a less aggravated character.

You will join with me in the testimony that the mission that we have thus undertaken is peculiarly difficult and delicate. For a Society, or its representative, to seem to usurp the privileges of the parent, or to assume the still more arduous task of supplying the lack occasioned by ignorance or other causes, or to give counsel to those whose inefficiency might cause a brute to blush, calls for a wisdom that is rarely accorded to human kind. Here is the work, however, staring us in the face, and imploring our assistance. And if at any time the self-side of our natures tempts us to turn away from it, we hear its pleadings, and in language so piteous that we are forced to go forward and do the best we are able. And thus let us resolve so to do as long as there is a recreant parent or an unprotected child among us.

Respectfully Submitted:

CHAS. W. GARDNER, Pres.

THE WALKISTS.

The Biddeford Times says that Miss May Belle Sherman of Portland has received a challenge from Charles G. Locke of this city to walk a fifty mile match with him, and that she will accept the challenge provided Locke will extend the distance to one hundred miles, the stakes to be placed in responsible hands.

James M. Driscoll, who did the recent long walk in Franklin Hall, was in this city on Wednesday, the 22d inst., to make a match with Mr. Locke, to walk fifty miles for a stake of $100 or $200; no arrangement was effected, but Driscoll says the match can be made at any time Locke chooses to make a deposit at Dennis Lynch's store on Market street.

Mr. Orlando L. Durgin, a young man about twenty-one years old, belonging to Kittery, will attempt to walk one hundred miles in twenty-five hours in Trefethen's hall, Kittery Foreside, commencing on Tuesday, the 28th inst., at 10 o'clock P. M. The Kittery Brass Band have offered their services for Wednesday evening.

RYE, Jan. 21st.

Was it an earthquake? It is not the writer's intention to say positively that it was; a recollection of a meteor in broad daylight about a year ago, which made "Harry" of the Times poke fun and insinuate improper indulgences in things prohibited by law and denounced by moral reform clubs, restrains any very decided opinion as to the cause of a noise heard very distinctly about two o'clock P. M. this day, Tuesday, Jan. 21st. While sitting quietly indoors, writing at that time, a noise like the fall of some heavy body in the room directly above startled both the writer and another person who was with him, so much that both exclaimed, "what's that?" and immediately rushed up stairs to see what had tumbed down to create such a shaking up. Everything was in its proper place up there, and then it occurred that perhaps it was an earthquake; and inquiries made of different persons immediately after elicited the information that the noise had been heard by several, and opinions as to its cause were varied, but none were certain that their theory was correct. But whatever it was no damage was done, as far as could be seen.

Somebody seems determined to keep Rev. Mr. Hadley's name before the public. The last false report in regard to him is that which apparently originated in the Exeter News-Letter, and which appeared in the Boston papers Tuesday, to the effect that he had received a call from the Congregational church in Milton Mills. It is safe to say, from excellent authority, that he has not received a call from that church. Why it should be deemed of so much importance to the public to telegraph to the Boston papers such erroneous reports about Mr. Hadley is a puzzle to people here, who know all the facts in the case. It seems as though a little care might be exercised by writers and press agents and no great loss in the way of news be experienced.

The CHRONICLE locates a pond near the "town house," and says somebody is cutting ice there. The only "house" in town, belonging to the town, is the "town hall," and if there is any pond near that, excepting Mr. Jenness Marden's, which is half a mile away, it must have located itself there very recently and since been covered up with snow. Certainly no pond is visible now. Perhaps Mr. Perkins is cutting ice from a pond near the house that was on the "town farm," but which was sold several years ago to Mr. Grover.

The Congregational church has been supplied since the 1st of January by students (not professors) from Andover Theological Seminary, with the exception of last Sunday. 'Twas a good day, last Sunday, for the "appearing out" (isn't that the correct way of putting it?) of brides. It is said there were five who improved the bright, sunny day and good sleighing to show themselves and their surroundings. It was good to see them. It made everything look bright and inviting; and the services in the church, from the voluntary to the benediction, were seemingly much enhanced by the presence of such an array of everything so lovely. What is there so much worth looking at as a bran-new, gushing bride, all fixed up, happy as can be made, at church with her beloved for the first time?

PATERSON, N. J., April 17, 1877.

DEVOE MANUFACTURING CO.

Gentlemen:—I take great pleasure in sending this unsolicited recommendation of your Kerosene Oil.

At the great fire in this place, which destroyed Norwood's Paint and Oil establishment, and other buildings, on the 13th inst., your Oil stood one of most severe tests that Oil could be put to; for four [4] hours the Oil was in the hottest part of the fire, and such a fire as only Varnish, Turpentine, Oils and Paints can make, and in all that time there was no explosion of your Oil, and the cans containing the Oil were in very near the same condition after the fire as before.

I take great pleasure in recommending this Oil, as in my opinion it is the safest Oil for sale in the market. I remain, very respectfully,

JOHN E. REGNER,
Chief of Fire Department.

WILLIAM H. HACKETT.

H. Baldwin, of Monroe City, Indiana, writes under date of Dec. 3d, 1877, that his wife used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription with wonderful results. It effected her entire cure, after several physicians had failed. The many similar letters positively affirming that the Favorite Prescription had cured the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women, induced Dr. Pierce to sell it under a guarantee. Ladies need no longer submit to useless and painful local treatment, as the Favorite Prescription is a safe, sure, and speedy cure. Hundreds who had been bed-ridden for years have been restored to perfect health by its use.

—Four hundred and forty-two women in New York, over fifty years old, gave birth to children last year. The total births in the city were 25,729.

—The Terrible—"Ma, is ladies ducks?" Ma—"Why no, Willy, what in the world put that idea into your head?" Pa (at the window)—"Whoopee! Willy, come 'ere quick and see these dogs a fightin'. Jus' look at 'em, though!"

—A young merchant at Waverly, Ia., when packing eggs about a year ago for shipment to the east, wrote his name and address on one, with a request that the person to whom it finally came would write him and advise him of the fact. In due course came the letter from a young lady in New York; it was acknowledged; a correspondence sprang up; photographs were exchanged, and the merchant is going there in a few days to take home the young lady as wife.

—A widow intending to succeed her husband in the management of an hotel, advertised that "the hotel will be kept by the former landlord, Mr. Brown, who died last summer on a new and improved plan." A coroner's verdict reads thus: "The deceased came to his death by excessive drinking, producing apoplexy in the minds of the jury." A country paper says: "A child was run over by a wagon three years old, and cross-eyed, with pamphlets on."
